"What does it mean to know Jesus?"

When people speak of "knowing" Jesus, Christians refer to having a relationship with Him. Being a Christian is more than knowing about Jesus; being a Christian is knowing Him personally. Jesus spoke of the need to know the Savior when He prayed, "This is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent" (John 17:3).

It is one thing to know about a sports hero, and quite another thing to be a friend of that athlete. You can read every news article on your hero, memorize every stat, and collect every piece of memorabilia yet never really know the athlete himself. To truly know a sports hero, you would have to do more than watch him play. You would have to have a relationship with him, based on time spent together and regular conversation. When a person truly knows Jesus, it is on the basis of a relationship; they spend time together and talk regularly. And, when we know Jesus, we also know God the Father. "We know . . . that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true" (1 John 5:20).

How can you know Jesus? Romans 10:9 says, "if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." You must believe that Jesus is Lord and that He has risen from the dead. The reason He died was to pay for your sin (1 Peter 2:24).

When you trust in Christ, you receive Jesus and become part of His family (John 1:12). In addition, John 3:16 says that you have been given eternal life: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." This life includes eternity with Christ in heaven and is available to you and to anyone who believes in Christ.

Is there anything else you have to do to know Jesus? Ephesians 2:8-9 explains, "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast." Knowing Jesus is not based on what we do; knowing Jesus is based on faith in Him, and that faith is always a gift from God. Romans 5:8 teaches, "God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." This great love brought Jesus from heaven to earth to live, die, and return to life to provide salvation for us.

There is no special prayer you must pray to know Jesus and believe in Him. However, the following prayer can be used right now to express that you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ: "Dear God, thank you for opening my eyes and making me realize that I am a sinner and could never reach heaven by my own good deeds. Right now, by your grace, I place my faith in Jesus Christ as God's Son who rose from the dead to give me eternal life. Jesus Christ is Lord. Please forgive me of my sins and help me to live for you. Thank you for saving me and giving me eternal life." If God has saved you, please let us know. We'd be happy to give you a Bible and help you to know more about our the Lord Jesus Christ! Please call Pastor Pucci at 304-670-9334.

Among the Churches

[This page is open to the Burgettstown churches. Under this head we will print any announcement that the pastor or congregation wishes to bring before the people. We hope to make it one of the most interesting departments of The Call, where each member of the different congregations can learn what is going on in their church. Announcements may be handed to your pastor or directly to The Call. Announcements of festivals, entertainments, or anything for pay, will not be received in this column, but will be welcomed at the usual rates for such advertising.—EDITOR.]

Facts-Auditorium Hall

The building was first used as a church. Built in 1845, it was located inside the cemetery lot on the hill on East Pittsburgh Street, Burgettstown, PA. The original size was 52 x 45 feet in size and cost approximately $1300.00. The church was enlarged in 1860 and again in 1868. The building was used until 1874, when Hillcrest Church was built.

In 1875, after the completion of the new church, the old frame building was moved in its entirety and relocated on Main Street, Burgettstown, PA.

It was used as an auditorium and town hall.

It was located where the Mary Ann Theater was later built. Today's location would be at the by-pass across from Petrucci's IGA and Family Dollar.

Other uses:

September 1910-Auto-Motion Picture

September 7, 1910-Ed McFarland purchased the Auditorium Hall from J. G. Marquis

September 12, 1912-Washed away by flood

MISSION APPOINTMENTS

Rev. G. W. Snodgrass, Pastor

The Coming Revival

Much progress has been made on the tabernacle the past week. On Tuesday about forty men and boys were on the job, and the ladies prepared and served refreshments for them in the First Presbyterian church. There was an abundance of eatables, and after the workman had been fed several baskets were filled and sent to needy families in the vicinity.

The tabernacle is nearing completion and within a very short time will be ready for the meetings, which open January third. To-day a number of men are putting on the finishing touches, building seat, etc.

Interest in the praymeetings is increasing. On account of Christmas falling on Friday there will be no prayermeeting that night, and we are unable at this time to give the meeting places for the following Tuesday night, but they will no doubt be announced from the different pulpits on Sabbath.

Since putting the above in type President Mrs. Cora Sutherland reports that the meeting her district will be at C. R. Cook's, she to be leader, and Mrs. W. R. Malone, president, announces the meeting for her district at Mrs. Otto's, with Charles Hamilton leader.

SUBJECTS

Dec. 29—"What May God Expect from Me in this Campaign." (Consecration Service). "Prayer." James 5: 16. "Personal Service;" John 1: 40 42. "Consecration; Attendance" Heb. 10: 25.

Jan. 1st, 1915—"What May I Expect from God." Acts 2: 4; Mal. 3: 10; Acts 3: 26.

Don't forget that the song books are on sale at W. E. McCurdy's and W. M. McMurray's and can be had for 25 cents, or 30 cents if sent by mail. Everyone will want one of these books and it will be well to secure it now and become familiar with the songs used in the meetings.

A Story With a Moral

On leaving for one of the cottage prayermeetings the other night one of our good citizens gathered up what he supposed was the new song book, stuck it under his arm and marched piously forth. Another member of the family seemed to think the book didn't look just right and making an investigation, discovered that it was his little granddaughter's "Mother Goose" rhymes. "Bub" was pretty hard to convince that he didn't have the real thing, but he finally yielded the point and accepted the revised version.

Another lady was even less fortunate. She did not discover that she had her grandson's second reader until she opened it for the first song.

Moral—Be sure you have one of the new song books, which are on sale at McCurdy's and McMurray's and then be sure you don't have something else when you start for the meetings.

TOWN PRAYERMEETING

Tabernacle to be Dedicated Sabbath Evening With Big Prayermeeting

As we go to press we learn that arrangements have been made to dedicate the tabernacle with a big town prayermeeting on Sabbath evening. The building will be completed by that time and in good shape, and the different churches will give up their evening service for this meeting. It is hoped to make it a memorable event, and everyone is urged to attend.

Sandy Mansmann of Washington County History & Landmarks Foundation admires a stained-glass window from an unknown Roman Catholic church that is part of a new exhibit at the John White House in Chartiers Township.

Church survey reveals local history

By SCOTT BEVERIDGE
Staff writer
sbeveridge@observer-reporter.com

A survey of Washington County's landmark churches is not only revealing some of their remote locations, but also lost histories about the origins of some of the region's communities.

The Washington County History & Landmarks Foundation discovered through the project the Irons Memorial Presbyterian Church in McDonald where many French-Belgian immigrants settled to work in coal mines and continued to speak French for many years, said Sandy Mansmann, who is performing the survey.

"They came for a better life," said Mansmann, who has created a display based on the survey at the John White House, the foundation's headquarters at the Washington County Fairgrounds in Chartiers Township.

"We're finding there is a little bit of a revival of the traditional services," Mansmann said.

Many churches also have been working to modernize their services by installing large multimedia screens at the altars, she said.

The foundation received a grant from the Washington County Community Foundation to carry out the survey in an area that has many Presbyterian congregations with roots in the early Western Movement of the late 1700s. The survey will result in a tourism brochure highlighting the different architectural styles that were used to construct the churches.

The survey also amplified concerns that many of the aging congregations are struggling to attract new members.

"There are so many people who are determined to keep their churches open," Mansmann said. For example

First Baptist Church of Claysville is shown before its ornate features were removed in a remodeling project an "old believers" Russian Orthodox church in Marianna has so few members it holds services there only once a year, Mansmann said.

The exhibit includes a display of a simple meeting room with benches for the worshippers and a chair for the circuit rider who visited different communities to preach the sermon during the county's pioneer era.

Off to one side is a photographic display of Mingo Creek Presbyterian Church in Union Township, likely the most historic church and cemetery in the county because of its deep connections to the Whiskey Rebellion in the late 1700s, Mansmann said. Several of the rebels were buried there, including John Holcroft, who was also nicknamed Tom the Tinker because he destroyed stills owned by farmers who didn't support the insurrection and its opposition to a federal tax on the whiskey produced in the region.

The foundation is hosting a tour of Burgettstown area churches and cemeteries at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The tour will include stops at Cross Creek Presbyterian Church and two Presbyterian churches in Burgettstown, Tucker United Methodist Church and Raccoon Presbyterian Church.

To view the exhibit at the John White House or inquire about the tour, contact Mansmann at s_mann41@hotmail.com, or call 724-225-2350.

Church Survey Reveals Local History
Observer-Reporter-October 8, 2015 Edition

which had been converted into a dormitory, in which they made their headquarters. Following morning devotions, the young folks loaded up the Jeep, and began their day’s work among the Indians.

This photo shows the group at work painting the fence around the Navaho cemetery. Previous to the painting project, they had rebuilt and repaired the fence. Because of the existing Navaho superstitions concerning death and burial, they refuse to enter the cemetery, much less maintain it. The nearby Mission is informed of any death among the Indians, and it is left in the hands of the Missionaries to bury the remains. The group here is giving the fence a coat of paint the approximate beige shade of the nearby desert, in order to camouflage it into natural surroundings. The fence had been painted a conspicuous white previously. Following the painting project, the group planted shrubs and bushes in front of the fence, to further conceal any thoughts from the minds of the Indians, that evil spirits might lurk in the plot of land that is a burial ground for their dead.

The Washington Presbytery sponsored Summer Work Service Projects. came to a close this past week with the arrival home from the Southwest of the summer’s most extensive project.

Senior Highs participating in the Southwest Project were: Sue Campbell, Central Presbyterian Church, Washington; Betty Jane Gildow, Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian Church, Prosperity; Peggy McCreight, Second U. P. Church, Washington; Karen Pierrard, Center U.P. Church, Midway; Steve Post, Church of the Covenant, Washington; David Ross, Grove U.P. Church, West Middletown; Tim Wilson, Fairview Presbyterian Church, Thomas. Adult Advisors for the project were Rev. David Wallace, Grove U.P. Church, West Middletown, and Marion Henderson, Mt. Prospect Presbyterian Church, Hickory.

The purpose of the Southwest Project was to serve, visit, and study the Church’s work in that area with emphasis on the Navajo Reservation. The first major stop on the month-long trip was a visit at the First Presbyterian Church and Neighborhood House in Kansas City, Missouri, to study their Inner-City Work.

The group attended Church School and Church conducted by the National Council of Churches Park Ministry at Mesa Verde National Park in Southern Colorado.

At the Presbyterian mission, Ganado, Arizona, the group spent two weeks completing their work project consisting of painting, roofing, and general repair work on the Mission Campus. During the stay they had opportunity to study Christianity in Action through the Ministry, Teaching, Healing, and Community Services rendered at the Mission, under the direction of Dr. Joseph A. Poncel. Several Mission Out-posts were visited also.

On the return trip the group endured a hail and rain storm during their nine mile hike into the Grand Canyon, and had a chance to test their stamina during a dust, wind, and rain storm in Monument Valley. The group spent several days and nights camping in the Rockies, and visited the Campus of Sterling College, a Presbyterian College in Central Kansas.

Four such projects were sponsored by Washington Presbytery this year. In addition to the Southwest Project, groups from this area went to Camp Bohotam in up-state New York, Pittsburgh for Bible School and Street Recreation on the North Side; and Detroit to a Neighborhood House for Inner-City maintenance.

Mennonite speaker at meeting

By DOROTHY JANCART
Correspondent

BURGETTSTOWN — The October meeting of the Fort Vance Historical Society featured Adin Stoltzfoos, local Mennonite businessman and history teacher, as the guest speaker.

Stoltzfoos was introduced by Society President Ron DiOrio. Stoltzfoos shared a brief history of the Mennonite Amish culture, beginning in the 1500s in Switzerland and ending in present-day

America. He related the lifestyle, beliefs and the persecution of the culture throughout central and northern Europe, when they were known as Anabaptists because of their views on infant baptism, political authority and other topics. Change and division took place when the Amish church began under the leadership of Jakob Ammann — hence the name Amish — whose teachings focused on non-resistance to conflict, a simplistic approach to Christianity and a non-hierarchy status in every aspect of life.

Around 1680, William Penn, a Quaker and the largest landowner in America, invited the Amish Mennonites to Pennsylvania where he promised religious liberty, no compulsory military involvement and plenty of land to pursue their agrarian lifestyle and their tradition of a simple way of life.

Stoltzfoos can trace his ancestry through six generations, beginning with settlers in the Lancaster, Berks County and Philadelphia areas. Mennonites now live in 49 states with population concentrations in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Mennonite missionaries serve throughout the world, spreading their message of peace and Christianity.

The local Mennonite community currently consists of 80 members, many of whom originated from Weavertown Amish Mennonite Church in Bird-In-Hand, Pennsylvania. Looking for job opportunities, land and housing availability and also the spirit of the community, the Mennonites chose the Burgettstown area for seven families to relocate ten years ago. Since that time, five other families have also relocated to the area.

Stoltzfoos expressed thanks for the welcome the Mennonites have been given and for the opportunity to become a contributing part of the area. Construction should be completed by next year on the Cornerstone Mennonite School in Eldersville, which will begin with 26 students and four teachers. Church services will be held there temporarily until a new church is built.

At the meeting, DiOrio welcomed guests and recognized member Kathryn Slasor on her birthday and thanked her for her ongoing work of preserving local history. DiOrio noted historical society openings are available for a secretary and also for three board of directors members and asked for volunteers to fill these positions. Members will be notified with details of an upcoming business meeting. For further information, contact ftvance@gmail.com.

JOE BELLA

Joe Bella came to the United States from near Turin, Italy, in 1907. He returned to Europe for his bride, bringing her back to the States before 1913. The couple soon had a daughter, Ada. The Bellas lived in an upstairs apartment of the bakery building near Rottas on Main Street, but after a fire that demolished all their possessions, they purchased a store and residence combined in a building which many years before had been the Methodist Church. It stood on the site of the present Super Dollar. There Joe began his patient waiting on school children. In 1923, he bought a house across the street, tore off the porch and added the long restaurant where he and Rena continued as proprietors until 1942. At that point, their daughter, Ada, was educated and had married Clair Martin so the couple moved to a new home on Route 22. But retirement was not for them, so Joe built a diner on the highway where they could meet people and keep busy. They did so until 1957 when Joe passed away.

Years went by and Rena grew feeble. She entered the Weirton Convalescent Home where she still is today.

Clair and Ada live in River Vale, New Jersey. Their two surviving sons are married, and the Martins have three grandchildren.

Large Crowd Attends Bible School Program

The Raccoon Daily Vacation Bible School closed Thursday evening, June 24, with a program representing a scene in a Chinese Mission. Helen Zibotrosky took the part of a Chinese missionary, and several children were attired in Chinese costume.

The pupils marched in singing a Chinese mission song, "I Will Not Be Afraid". The chorus was followed by the call to worship and the morning hymn. S. M. Fowler led in prayer, and the entire school joined in the scripture reading, Matt. 7: 24-27.

The theme of the school, "Building a House" was dramatized. Children in the primary and kindergarten departments presented several exercises.

A Chinese March was played by the mission Band. Those in charge were Kay Scott, Mrs. Richard Caleffe, Intermediate department; Miss Marion Line, juniors; Mrs. Delcie Sanders, primary; Mrs. Frank Blaine, kindergarten. Mr. Fowler assisted in posters and stage setting. There were 140 parents and friends in attendance.

The school reached a greater attendance this year than ever before with 77 children present on one day. Picnics were held Friday, June 25 at the Community Park and the Raccoon Ball Field.

Workers from all Parts of District in Attendance at Annual Meeting Held in Local Church

On Thursday and Friday of last week Burgettstown was headquarters for an army of Sabbath School workers who gathered here for the annual convention of the Washington County Sabbath School Association. A large attendance marked all sessions of the convention which was held in the First Presbyterian Church.

Aside from the importance of the business transacted by the delegates, the convention was one of stimulating interest. Prominent speakers who addressed the various meetings and conferences were: The Rev. Dr. C. Wallace Petty, of the First Baptist church, of Pittsburgh; the Rev. W. F. Harkey, Houston; Mrs. J. M. Bailey, Avalon; the Rev. A. E. Driggers, Kittanning; the Rev. Dr. J. Alvin Orr, of the First Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh. Bible study was directed by the Rev. Dr. Petty and song services were led by the Rev. E. A. Cole of Washington. Lunch and dinner were served each day in the church, where also a banquet was tendered the visiting clergymen.

R. G. Russell of Burgettstown, and Rev. O. S. Fowler of Claysville, were elected as new members of the board of directors. Directors re-elected were as follows: William Fitch, New Eagle; Rev. Huber Ferguson, Washington; A. G. Over, Midway.

Officers elected were as follows:

President, A. L. Berry, Eighty Four; vice president, Rev. Paul Hazlett, Avella; vice president, Harry Kuder, Canonsburg; vice president, Rev. Huber Ferguson, Washington; vice president, Colin Myers, Finleyville; vice president, W. E. McFall, Charleroi; recording secretary, Miss Helen Holmes, Claysville; treasurer, S. Murray Pollock, 217 East Beau street, Washington.

Departmental superintendents were named as follows: Children's Division, Miss Mary Hammond, Monongahela; Young People's, Wilbur Baird, Washington; Associate Y. P., Miss Creten Knappenberger, Charleroi; Adult, Rev. Owen S. Fowler, Claysville; Honorary Home, Miss Jennie Pollock, Canonsburg; Home Department, Mrs. J. W. Manon, Charleroi; Missionary, Mrs. Frank Fish, Millsboro; Temperance, Mrs. Willard Porter, Washington; Administration, Rev. S. A. McCollum, McDonald; Teacher Training, H. H. Saylor, Roscoe; Parent Training, Mrs. G. G. Kerr, Canonsburg.

County Young People's officers follow: President, Miss Frances Knappenberger, Charleroi; vice president, Floyd Hill, Charleroi; secretary, Elizabeth Gartley, Washington; treasurer, Boyd Spillman, Eighty Four.

The program committee for the convention was composed of Rev. Joseph Morledge, Dr. Huber Ferguson, and T. C. Hekson, retiring president, all of Washington.

Baptist Church Of Midway To Affiliate

A recognition council convened recently at the First Baptist Church, of Midway, for the purpose of examining the Midway church's covenant, constitution and by-laws preliminary to acceptance of the church into the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches and into the American Council of Christian Churches.

The council, which met at Midway on March 16, at 2:30 p.m., is composed of pastors and messengers from ten Baptist churches of western Pennsylvania and one from Ohio.

The General Association of Regular Baptist Churches is a fellowship of approximately 1,200 churches across the United States. The American Council of Christian Churches is composed of many fundamental denominations organized to promote the work of the Lord.

Rev. Ralph Burns, pastor of the Butler First Baptist Church, was elected moderator. Rev. Robert Rogers, pastor of the Plum Borough Bible Baptist Church, was elected clerk.

The council unanimously approved the First Baptist Church as a duly constituted regular Baptist church and commended it to the fellowship of the two organizations. The church in Midway, which called the council, was host to a dinner for the delegates at the church at 6 p.m.

In the evening, a recognition service was held at 7:45 p.m., with Evangelist Alfred Colwell, the eastern representative of the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, as the guest speaker. Rev. Ralph Burns, as moderator, conducted the evening service. Rev. Lee Kantenwein, pastor of the Limestone First Baptist Church, was the song leader, and Rev. Donald Lumeree, pastor of the Worthington First Baptist Church, led in prayer.

Rev. Robert Rogers, the clerk, read the report of the afternoon session of the council. Rev. Robert Childs, pastor of the Kittanning Union Baptist Church, gave the charge to the church, and Rev. Kenneth Andrus, pastor of the Grove City First Baptist Church, gave the charge to the pastor.

Rev. Richard Engle, pastor of the Indiana Fundamental Baptist Church, gave the offertory prayer. Rev. Charles Ritenburg, pastor of the Swissvale Baptist Church, presented the Scripture reading. A girls' chorus group from the Midway church presented a special musical number. Rev. James Spaulding, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, of Burgettstown, offered the benediction at the conclusion of the evening message.

At the monthly Bible Conference of the Western Pennsylvania Association of Regular Baptist Churches, which is to be held this month at the Calvary Baptist Church, of Burgettstown, on Monday, March 29, at 2:30 p.m., the First Baptist Church of Midway will be voted on for acceptance in the fellowship of the Association.

Progressive Dinner Success

Editor

The Enterprise

It feels so good, in this age of crime, corruption and complaints, to write a thank-you to the people in our community for their goodness and generosity — qualities so often unrecognized.

This summer we began meeting to plan some structured activities for Burgettstown's young people, hoping collectively that we might provide entertainment as well as build character. Our first attempt, the Progressive Dinner on Sept. 24, was a success.

The many young people who enjoyed the good food and fellowship could not have done so without the efforts of so many.

We would like to thank all of those at the Hillcrest and Tucker churches who prepared our first stop. We thank you for your labor and delicious salads.

We would like to thank Angelo Tunno for his delicious ravioli dinner, and all those members from the Eldersville and Westminster congregations who helped in any way with the main course.

We would like to thank the Christian Assembly and Our Lady of Lourdes congregations and Petrucci's Bakery for the "sweetest ending" a dinner could have.

Our gratitude is extended to all who helped in any way.

And, finally, a thank-you is extended to those students who attended, for their participation, good behavior and willingness to do something "different."

CALL TO COLLIER CHURCH

Rev. Frank Ritz, pastor of the Shady avenue Church of Christ is doubling his ministerial duties, beginning Sunday, when he will accept a call to the Collier Church of Christ. He will preach at a worship service at Colliers at 10:45 a. m.

The Burgettstown Church of Christ will hold Sunday school at 11 a. m. instead of 10 a. m. as previously, and worship service following the Sunday school. Communion will be observed at the evening service at 7:30 p. m. The Board of Trustees will meet on Sunday evening to plan a schedule of services in co-operation with the Collier schedule.

THE Sabbath school of Center Congregation, of Midway, Pennsylvania, is now in a very flourishing condition. New interest is being shown in almost every department of the same. The organized classes are taking up the work with new zeal and earnestness, and other classes are thinking that organization would do them good.

A new class for the grown people of the congregation has just recently been organized. Three weeks have passed since organization was effected, and now the class has an enrolment of thirty-three. Interest in the class has been manifested from the first, and the hope of the newly-elected president, Mr. A. G. Over, and the other officers of the class, is that in the near future the membership will reach the half-hundred mark.

But here especially do we wish to speak of the Cradle Roll Department of the school. This is one of the very interesting and encouraging departments of our work. A glance at the photograph above will give a partial idea of what our worthy and successful Cradle Roll superintendent is accomplishing in her work.

Recently Miss Clara Smith, the superintendent of this department of the Sabbath school, gave a reception for the babies of her department and their mothers. The photograph shows something of the number present, and the interest manifested. On the day of the reception there were one hundred and twenty babies enrolled, and many of them, with their mothers, came to the reception. All had an enjoyable time—even the babies were good, and seemed to be glad because of the kindness and thoughtfulness of Miss Smith.

On the day of the reception about twenty of the little tots graduated from the department, received their diplomas, and took a step upward into the next department of the school.

The Cradle Roll is worth while. Every school in the Church ought to have one. We know no better way to win the children for the Sabbath school, and to interest parents in the work of the Church. She is a very indifferent mother who will not respond when Sabbath school workers manifest an interest in her child or children.

New Church To Be Built In Midway

Construction will begin in April for the new $200,000 Center United Presbyterian Church, in Midway.

The present structure is now being razed and the congregation is worshipping at 9 a.m. in the First Methodist Church, in Midway.

Discussion about building a new church was begun in the fall of 1963 by the long range planning committee. Several area churches were contacted about their experiences with building programs, and William J. Janusry, of Eighty Four, was chosen as architect.

The congregation voted by an overwhelming majority in November, 1964, to start a building campaign, and preliminary sketches by the architect were accepted.

In December, 1965, a building committee, consisting of four subcommittees, was elected. John Michalka was elected president and secretary; W. Glenn Mumper, vice chairman, and Carl Bickel, treasurer. Forty men and women were named to the committee.

After discussing the needs of the congregation, the cost of $200,000 for the sanctuary and basement, Christian education wing, architect's fee and furniture were decided on.

In February, 1965, a representative of the Board of National Missions conducted a financial campaign in Midway.

Churches in Midway, Washington plan Shrove Tuesday events

Fat Tuesday, Shrove Tuesday and Pancake Day are all names that have been applied to the day preceding Ash Wednesday, the first day of the Christian season of fasting and prayer called Lent.

Two area churches, First United Methodist in Washington and Center United Presbyterian in Midway, will mark the occasion by hosting specials meals.

Fat Tuesday refers to the common Christian tradition of eating special rich foods before the fasting season. Shrove means to obtain absolution for one's sins by way of confession and doing penance.

Shrove Tuesday historically was the last day before Lent, and is noted in early histories dating to 1000 AD.

In England, Ireland and in the United States, Shrove Tuesday is frequently referred to as "Pancake Day." It is customary to eat pancakes as a last feast before the ritual fasting during Lent.

First United Methodist Church of Washington, 29 N. College St., will recognize the traditional day by holding a Pancake Day dinner from 5 to 7 p.m. March 4.

At Center United Presbyterian Church, 110 Washington Ave., the Midway Mariners will host their annual Shrove Tuesday dinner from 4:30 to 7 p.m. March 4. The dinner will include pancakes, sausage, mush, fruit and cookies.

Tickets are $7 for adults and $3 for children younger than 12. Reservations are required by calling 724-796-3351 or 724-678-6976. Payment for reserved tickets will be accepted at the door.

First United Methodist Church in Washington will hold its annual Pancake Day dinner from 5 to 7 p.m. March 4.

This church edifice is situated in the southeastern corner of Smith township. It was organized in May, 1859, by Rev. J. C. Campbell, who was appointed for the purpose by Chartiers Presbytery. The elders elected at the organization were Jacob George, Thomas Stevenson, John M. Campbell and John D. Reed. The first trustees were Robert McBurney, Jacob George and John Campbell. At the organization there were 58 members, 53 being received on certificate and five on examination.

They held their services for a time in John Campbell's barn, but soon prepared for building a church. At a cost of $2,500 they built a frame edifice 46 by 60 feet, which was finished and occupied the first time on the third Sunday of February, 1860. On the 28th of January, 1862, they called D. S. Kennedy to become their pastor. He was ordained and installed on the 4th of September, 1862. This relationship continued 10 years and six months, closing on the 13th of October, 1872.

On the 10th of June, 1861, Robert McBurney and William Keys were ordained and installed as ruling elders. James McCalmont was added to the dership on January 23, 1863. Fourteen persons in all have been elders here. At present (1909) there are six: William Berry, James McCalmont, W. C. Aiken, J. G. Wilson, William A. Dickson and J. S. Epsey.

The present pastor, J. B. Waddell, is the second whom the congregation has had. He preached his first sermon at Center on the first Sabbath of January, 1873, and took charge of the congregation May 1, 1873.

The congregation now (1909) numbers 153 members; has a Sabbath school of 100 scholars and owns a parsonage with 10 acres of land that is worth $4,000.

The original ground for church and cemetery was donated by John Campbell. His son, William C. Campbell, afterward gave some additional land for the graveyard, but this, too, is now filled with graves, and the trustees have recently bought more land from W. C. Campbell.

Diocese ends reorganization

Cherry Valley church 7th in county to close

By Don Herschell
For The Enterprise

Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Cherry Valley has been closed, the seventh Roman Catholic church in Washington to close since 1992.

But this time no parishioners are there to mourn the loss. That's because no one has worshiped at Sts. Peter and Paul for almost six years.

Sts. Peter and Paul was a mission of St. Ann Church in Bulger, but many years ago priests from Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Burgettstown took over responsibility for celebrating Masses there, said Brian Stankavich, a former member of Sts. Peter and Paul. Several years ago, Our Lady of Lourdes' pastoral staff was trimmed from two priests to one, and the remaining pastor stopped conducting Mass at the mission church.

"The assistant was transferred, leaving one priest. He sort of unofficially closed it," Stankavich said. "He just said something to the effect that he couldn't satisfy (the requirements)."

The Rev. Richard Tusky, current pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes, has been there since Oct. 25.

Between 1992 and 1994, the Pittsburgh Diocese closed 38 churches in its Parish Reorganization and Revitalization Project (PRRP). Two more churches were opened. Churches were grouped into geographical clusters and changes were announced in five different phases.

When final closings were announced more than a week ago, Sts. Peter and Paul was not included. The diocese delayed action on the Washington County Northwest Cluster and one other cluster until the Priest Council and the PRRP Executive Committee were consulted.

Parishioners learned of the closing Saturday in a letter dated March 17 and signed by Bishop Donald W. Wuerl, Stankavich said.

Stankavich said Sts. Peter and Paul was closed — or, in canonical terms, suppressed — as a mission of St. Ann Church. However, the territory of Our Lady of Lourdes was expanded to include Cherry Valley.

The PRRP began in October 1989 in response to a decreasing number of priests and parishioners and a shift away from parishes that were founded along ethnic lines. The project included parishioner surveys and "town meetings," in-depth self studies and reviews.

Last week's announcements conclude the reorganization phase of the project. The project decreased the number of worship sites in the six-county diocese from 332 in 1989 to the current 296.

All of the churches will be included in the revitalization phase of the project, which now begins.

The other six churches closed in Washington County are St. Charles and Holy Name of the Blessed Virgin Mary churches in Donora, Oct. 30, 1992; St. Elizabeth in Lawrence and its mission, Guardian Angels in Southview, May 23, 1993; and St. Joseph in Cokeburg and Assumption in Daisytown, Feb. 11 of this year.

St. Charles and Holy Name closed as worship sites, and the parishioners joined with the St. Dominic and St. Philip Neri churches in Donora. The resulting parish was named Our Lady of the Valley Parish.

Msgr. Robert Garland, pastor of St. Mary Church in Cecil, conducted the final services at St. Elizabeth and Guardian Angels. Some parishioners at St. Elizabeth sued the diocese to keep their church open, but the Guardian Angels parishioners have accepted the closing, Garland said.

"There have been a few that have come over here, but I don't think many of them have gone anywhere," Garland said of the St. Elizabeth members.

In November, Washington County Judge David Gilmore heard closing testimony in the St. Elizabeth case, but he has not handed down a decision.

When St. Joseph closed, its mother church, St. Clement in Ellsworth, joined with St. Luke in Bentleyville to form Ave Maria Parish. The Rev. Mark Skertich, pastor of that parish, said that the pews have been filled for every Mass since the reorganization went into effect. However, that's partly because the number of Masses was cut from nine to four, he said.

"The St. Joseph people have been very good, very decent about the whole thing," he said. "They are really making a serious attempt to be part of the parish. I commend them for that."

"I'm getting a lot of comments that people needed some changes," he said. "A number of people are coming back because of the changes. Even the people that are hurt or disappointed or even angry, they're still at Mass."

He stressed that all three of the churches, not just St. Joseph, were officially suppressed. Then one new parish with St. Luke and St. Clement worship sites was established.

Churches closed

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh began its Parish Reorganization and Revitalization Project in October 1989. Yesterday's announcements conclude the reorganization phase, which meant changes in priest assignments and worship schedules, realigning parishes and some church closings. Begun in response to a declining number of priests and parishioners, the project is intended to make the diocese more efficient.

• Several church buildings in Washington County have been closed in the Pittsburgh Diocese's reorganization process. But many more parishes have been suppressed – the canonical term for "closed," the Rev. Mark Skertich said. For example, at the parish he serves – the newly formed Ave Maria Parish in Bentleyville – only one church building was physically closed, that of St. Joseph Church in Cokeburg. However, in addition to St. Joseph, both the parishes of St. Luke in Bentleyville and St. Clement in Ellsworth were "suppressed," because one new parish, Ave Maria, was formed from these three congregations. The parish includes the St. Clement and St. Luke worship sites.

Hymn Sing Held At Francis Mine

Rev. Lee E. Speer conducted the Hymn Sing in the church at Francis Mine, Sunday, with eighty-five in attendance from ten neighboring churches. Rev. Speer is pastor of the church. Drexel Baker, of the Ebenezer Church of God, led the congregational singing.

Several special selections were enjoyed, from many of the churches represented. Miss June Campbell was pianist. Churches answering to a roll call of churches were: Avella Free Methodist, Ebenezer Church of God, Canonsburg Nazarene, Atlasburg Nazarene, Bethel Methodist, Eldersville Methodist, West Middletown Christian, Tucker Methodist, Christian Church of North America, Burgettstown, and the host church.

The tenth and last in the current series of sings will be held next Sunday in the Lower Buffalo Presbyterian church, Independence. A planned program is being arranged by the Hymn Sing committee, Morris Knabenshue, Kathryn Slasor and June Campbell. It will consist of special selections most requested from the hymn sings of the past nine weeks. The sing will begin at 3 p. m.

Francis Mine Church Experiences Year Of Growth

Anyone who would take time out to visit the little Church of Christ in Christian Union at Francis Mine would find it difficult to believe that the building was once an abandoned schoolhouse. He would also be surprised to learn that its congregation has witnessed a revival possibly incomparable to any other in the Burgettstown Community during the past year.

Begun as a mission in 1956 under the guidance of Rev. Lee Speer, the church experienced a decade of growing activity, but upon the minister's retirement due to ill health, the attendance began dwindling so that at a service on the first Sunday of January, 1978, only three people showed up for worship. At the service this past Christmas there were 81 and the Sunday School enrollment now totals 48. Forty or fifty people normally appear for mid-week prayer service, and 58 young people took part in Bible School last summer. A bus now travels to Paris and Langeloth to transport those who wish to attend Sunday service.

The building itself has undergone amazing changes during the last year. Both the exterior and interior have been painted. New red and black wall to wall carpeting has been laid. The basement and porch acquired cement floors, and walks were constructed about the building. Insulation was added to the new wing.

If one were to ask Tex Strothers to what he attributes the growth of the church he would probably respond that it was the will of the Lord. Strothers, however, has led the congregation in its services for the last year and promoted many of its projects. Over $4,000 and innumerable hours of labor have been contributed by the members to renovate the building and to buy the bus.

Born in Salem, West Virginia, Strothers came to Pennsylvania in 1962; then moved to Burgettstown in 1971 where he now operates the A-1 Pest Control, Inc. At one time he was affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene but later joined the Church of Christian Union. His hopes are high for expanding the Francis Mine Church. "This year," he says, "we'd like to buy another bus and increase our membership still further." He and his wife Brenda and their family live on McClure Avenue.

Rev. Lee Speer, to whom the church owes its origin, still loves to recall his early experiences with the congregation. He came here from McDonald after becoming acquainted with the community by preaching at the Church of Christ on Shady Avenue. He noticed the abandoned schoolhouse at Francis Mine and dreamed of the possibilities of turning it into a Sunday School. For a year he held services in a rented house at Francis Mine; then he and his little band of followers purchased the schoolhouse and renovated it for worship purposes. Rev. Speer has many happy recollections of conducting the Francis Mine Community Church as it was then called. He recalls how a new roof, new windows and a new furnace were added to the building, and he remembers how people brought pennies and nickels to speed up the work of the Lord. He is delighted to know that once more the little church is growing.

Revival services are scheduled to begin February 12 with Rev. Drexel Baker from Weirton, a pastor of the New Cumberland Church of the Nazarene, as a speaker.

Ladies' Aid Social.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Church of Christ sponsored a birthday party in the social room of the church Tuesday evening. It was well attended and the guests were entertained with a delightful program. The evening was opened with a hymn and prayer by George Ball. Recitations, songs and readings were then given by Robie Wakefield, Doris Shelton, Doris Davis, Francis and Robert Morgan, Marjorie Gleason, Elaine Harris, Ila June McCoy, Lloyd Giles. A playett was then presented by ladies of the Aid, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Gun, Mrs. Lucy Meroida. The crowd was then divided according to the months of their births and were requested to present in fifteen minutes a stunt. The stunts proved to be interesting and entertaining. A lunch was then served. This church appreciates the good work of its ladies.

Revival Meetings At Local Church

MR. WOODS

Hilton V. Woods, pastor of the First Christian Church, on Shady avenue, Burgettstown, announces a revival meeting in the local church March 7-21.

The theme will be "Faith Is The Victory." Meetings will be held each evening at 7:30 p.m. except Saturdays.

Twelve ministers of the Tri-State area will take part in the program. They are as follows:

From West Virginia, Allen Fields, New Cumberland; Clinton Gill, West Liberty; Robert Schondelmayer, Chester; and Russell Smith, Follansbee.

From Ohio, Ralph Cope, Toronto; Roderick Huron, Steubenville; Eugene McGhee, Hopedale; and Glenn R. Springer, Norwalk.

Dwight Chaplain, from McKees Rocks, will also participate.

Each one of the ministers will bring a sermon and special music from his congregation. Other quartets and solos will be featured.

W. C. Massey Honored On 90th Birthday

The Fellowship Hall at the Church of Christ, Shady avenue, Burgettstown, was the center of a gala occasion, celebrating a combined Mother's Day and birthday banquet. The Men's Bible Class was in charge of cooking and serving the dinner. The honoree of the birthday celebration was W.C. Massey, who will be 90 years of age May 25. The bearers of the cake having 90 lighted candles were his grandchildren.

Warner Cutler Massey was born May 25, 1896, in Lakeview, Michigan, and came to this vicinity at the age of ten. He attended Hiram College and the University of Ohio. He was married to Jenny May Campbell and they were the parents of three sons and one daughter. He has ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

His first wife died in 1950 and is now married to Anna Veneral Massey, formerly Mrs. C. C. Cronsbury, who accompanied him along with his youngest son, Barton, and his family to the recognition service.

Mr. Massey was employed as a structural steel draftsman for the Bethlehem Steel Company until his retirement at the age of 82. He was the designer of the Burgettstown Church of Christ, he's been an elder for 34 years and has taught the Adult Bible Class for 20 years.

He presently resides at Midway, where he has lived for 50 years.

Nazarettes honor their moms

An annual Mother's Day banquet for the moms of the Atlasburg Church of the Nazarene was held at the Village Green in Hickory.

Grace Preston reported how, in 1907, Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia wrote letters to her Congressmen, Senators and others to start a movement for a day to be set aside for mothers across the nation. In 1914, Congress approved the law making Mother's Day a national holiday.

On May 8, 39 grandmothers, mothers and daughters gathered for dinner and games. Atlasburg Nazarettes president Bea Pace gave the opening welcome and the Rev. Tracy Ogden-Johnson gave the blessing. Second, third and fourth generation family members attended.

Devotions were given by Bea Pace and readings provided by Elsie Roach, Grace Preston and Evelyn Main.

Bea led the ladies in games. Prizes were won by Charlotte Alderman, Tracy Ogden-Johnson, Elsie Roach, Irene DeLuca, Kilee Bonazza and Evelyn Main.

Cross Creek Presbyterian Church (brick) was organized in June 1779 by Dr. John McMillan. James Power preached the first sermon under an oak tree at nearby Vance's Fort in 1778. Joseph Smith served as the first pastor from 1779 to 1792. There have been five churches here: The first of unhewn logs (1781), one of hewn logs (1784), the third of stone (1803), an 1830 a brick structure and the present one built in 1867. A cemetery and graveyard is located across the road. The first interment of the graveyard was a child of David and Sarah Vance in 1779.

THOMAS J. CONBOY, JR.

The new student pastor of Cross Creek Presbyterian church and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Conboy, Jr., were honored at a welcome shower at the close of a meeting of the Friendship Circle Friday evening, Jan. 14, in the church.

A program of entertainment and music was planned with novelty numbers. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Conboy occupied the parsonage January 1. Born in Pittsburgh, the new student pastor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Conboy, Sr. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1953 and is in his second year of studies at the Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh.

His wife, is the former Lois Dormire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dormire of Apollo. She attended Westminster Choir College.

Regular Sunday services at the church are: Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by worship service at 11 o'clock.

THREE FIRE COMPANIES BATTLE FLAMES THAT DAMAGED HISTORIC CROSS CREEK CHURCH

The bell tower of historic Cross Creek Presbyterian Church was completely destroyed and the surrounding roof burned Sunday afternoon in a fire which threatened to consume the entire brick church.

Fire companies of Burgettstown, Slovan and Avella fought the blaze for more than two hours. Neighbors and volunteers of the congregation hauled water in milk cans and other containers to supply water to fight the blaze.

Cause of the fire has not been determined.

A fire alarm was sent out at 1:30 p.m. The interior of the main auditorium was not damaged but the ceiling was badly water soaked. The church carries insurance but the extent of damage has not yet been estimated.

The bell in the tower is operated by hand and the entire tower structure fell from the church roof as it burned.

The Cross Creek congregation is one of the oldest in Washington County, having been organized in 1779. The present church building was erected in 1878. The congregation was formed when the Cross Creek and Upper Buffalo Presbyterian Churches extended a call to Rev. Joseph Smith to serve both congregations. At that time a log church was built. The two congregations had promised to pay Mr. Smith 75 pounds a year and at one time were three years behind in payment. It was necessary to have flour milled and shipped to New Orleans, a hazardous trip in the pioneer era, to raise money for the minister's salary.

Mr. Shane announced Sunday night that the Thanksgiving service scheduled for Wednesday evening will be held

Crosscreek Church is 135 Years Old

The Crosscreek Presbyterian church of Crosscreek Village will celebrate its 135th anniversary on Tuesday, September 22, in connection with the fall meeting of Washington presbytery, which will be held there.

The Crosscreek church is one of the very oldest of this denomination in the county. It was organized in May, 1779, although services were held in the community for one or two years previous to that time., the initiatory sermon having been preached September 14, 1778, by Rev. James Powers under a spreading oak near Vance's fort. The first pastor was Rev. Joseph Smith, who held the joint pastorate of Crosscreek and Upper Buffalo. The church existed for 46 years before a charter was granted Crosscreek church has experienced some remarkable revivals. In 1802-4 one hundred members were added; 1827-28, one hundred twenty; 1835-37, one hundred forty; 1840-41, one hundred; 1853-54, ninety.

Of the ministers who have served the church the longest pastorate was that of Rev. John Stockton. D. D. He was pastor from 1827 to 1877, and bore the distinction of pastor emeritus for five years more, the church and presbytery fittingly celebrating his half-century pastorate. The next longest was that of Rev. Thomas Marquis (the silver tongued), who served from 1794 to 1826. Rev. Joseph Smith served from 1779 to 1792; Rev. W. H. McCaughey, D. D., 1877-1885; Rev. J. Philander Anderson, 1886-1892; Rev. Charles G. Williams, 1893-1900; Rev. Raymond M. Huston 1906-1908; Rev.

H. W. Hanna, now a missionary to Korea, 1908-1910; Rev. O. Scott McFarland, from 1912 to the present time.

The present building, which stands at the western end of the village of Crosscreek, is the fifth in the history of the church and was built in 1864 at a cost of $12,000. The first church, an unhewed log structure, 22 by 26 feet, was erected in the summer of 1789 on a site selected by Major William Vance, of Vance's fort, nearby, Robert McCready and Henry Graham and stood near the present building. The second building was of hewed logs and was larger than the first, being 30 by 60 feet. It was built in 1784, and a gallery was added a few years later. This church was burned by an incendiary April 20, 1803, and in the same year the third building was erected. This one was of stone, 56 by 56 feet, and the ladies of the congregation contributed a good share of the cost. Its place was taken in 1830 by the fourth structure, which was of brick, 56 by 76 feet, with a gallery on three sides and cost between $3,000 and $5,500. This building was succeeded by the present edifice in 1864.

In 1878 a lot of 2 1-2 acres was purchased and the first parsonage, which is still standing, was erected at a cost of $2,500.

The Sunday school was organized in 1821, in spite of opposition, and was conducted at first by a board of managers. The first superintendent was Col. Samuel Magill. The present enrollment of the Sunday school is about 250. In 1846 the membership of the church was 210, and at present it is 360.

The burial ground nearby is one of the most historic in the county. A number of settlers killed by the Indians are buried there, among whom are Samuel Robinson and William Parks, killed and scalped by the Indians in the spring of 1872, while soldiers of every war in which the United States has been engaged from the Revolution to the Spanish-American, are buried there. Some families have seven generations buried in this graveyard, which is one of the best kept of all of the ancient burial places in Washington county, and many interesting facts are revealed by the inscriptions.

Below we give the members of the session, with the year in which they were elected to office: John S. Marquis, 1889; Robert S. Anderson, 1896; W. Craig Lee, 1896; Brainard C. Lyle, 1896; Henry Gault, 1904; R. Lyle Cooke, 1909; Charles M. Rea, clerk, 1909.

The trustees are H. C. Cooke, E. C. Caldwell, W. E. Marquis, whose terms expire December, 1914. W. T. Dunbar, president; Joseph Lyle, secretary, and Fred V. Walker, whose terms expire December, 1915. Dr. A. O. Hindman, L. E. Foster and C. W. McNelly, whose terms expire December, 1916.

Your Mission.

If you cannot on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet,
Rocking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storms you meet;
You can stand among the sailors,
Anchored yet within the bay;
You can lend a hand to help them,
As they launch their boats away.

If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain, steep and high,
You can stand within the valley
While the multitudes go by.
You can chant in happy measure
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.

If you have not gold and silver,
Ever ready to command;
If you cannot toward the needy
Reach an ever open hand,
You can visit the afflicted,
O'er the erring you can weep;
You can be a true disciple
Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

If you cannot in the harvest
Garner up the richest sheave,
Many a grain both ripe and golden
Will the careless reapers leave.
Go and glean among the briars
Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that their shadows
Hide the heaviest wheat of all.

If you cannot in the conflict
Prove yourself a soldier true;
If where fire and smoke are thickest
There's no work for you to do;
When the battlefield is silent
You can go with careful tread,
You can bear away the wounded,
You can cover up the dead.

Do not, then, stand idly waiting
For some greater work to do;
Fortune is a lazy goddess,
She will never come to you.
Go and toil in any vineyard,
Do not fear to do or dare;
If you want a field of labor
You can find it anywhere.

Historic Cross Creek Church Is Damaged By Fire, Water

Historic Cross Creek Presbyterian Church, at Cross Creek, was damaged by fire yesterday. Flames destroyed the bell tower atop the edifice and damaged the roof. District fire departments and volunteers rushed to the scene, being shown in front of the church yesterday in the picture above.

Water was transported to the fire by neighbors from their own cisterns and the nearby school-house pump. Rev. Robert B. Shane is pastor of the church.

The bell in the tower is operated by hand and the entire tower structure fell from the church roof as it burned.

The Cross Creek congregation is one of the oldest in Washington County, having been organized in 1779. The present church building was erected in 1878. The congregation was formed when the Cross Creek and Upper Buffalo Presbyterian Churches extended a call to Rev. Joseph Smith to serve both congregations. At that time a log church was built. The two congregations had promised to pay Mr. Smith 75 pounds a year and at one time were three years behind in payment. It was necessary to have flour milled and shipped to New Orleans, a hazardous trip in the pioneer era, to raise money for the minister's salary.

Mr. Shane announced last night that the Thanksgiving service scheduled for Wednesday evening will be held, the time and place to be announced later.

Dear Dr. Brownson

The first time I visited the site of Vance's Fort, I stood on the fallen trunk of an old apple tree which I was assured had stood and borne fruit for one hundred years. Standing as the tree did within the palisade, I thought it very likely that under it my own ancestry had both sheltered from the Indians and lifted their glad songs of praise to the God of heaven.

With this thought in mind, I sent for an ax and cut from that fallen trunk a piece of as fine grained curly wood as I ever saw. I am satisfied that that old trunk, had it been sawn into lumber as veneering would have been worth more money than any half dozen crops of apples it ever bore.

Recently I had the part I took from the old tree made up into a number of relics. And as I shall ever cherish a peculiar regard for the body from which I received ordination vows- - - under whose care I first preached the gospel--- and which taught my hands to war and my fingers to fight, I take the liberty of asking you, the oldest member, to present to the Presbytery of Washington, with my compliments, this little gavel. The making of this gavel was an after-thought and as all the good wood had been used, it had to be made of chips and refused pieces of the sap wood, so that, except slightly in the handle, the beauty of the grain does not appear.

However, if neither beautiful or very useful, it may be of interest to some because of the past associations. I have no thought that either the spirit of the Indian warrior who prowled around it or that of the early settler who, under its fruitful bows, worshipped God lingers with this bit of wood, but may I not entertain the hope that it may be so wielded as to promote the sweet spirit of unity, - - or if that be too much to ask, that it may preserve a decorous parliamentary calm during all the eloquent thrilling breezy Briggsy debates you may have over the new theology and revision questions.

With many kind recollections of the past,

Yours Truly,

W. H. McCaughey

Copy of the action of Washington Presbytery in receiving the gavel from Dr. W. H. McCaughey:

I move this Presbytery accept this gavel, a relic of the early history of the Church in this region. It carries our minds back to the time of the planting of the gospel here and is replete with sacred associations. Vance's Fort was the spot where, in great danger, the gospel was preached, and is connected with _____ remembrances. It reminds us we in these times must stand firm for the truth, and if need be - - like the fathers, contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints.

We also tender our hearty thanks to the donor, Rev. W. H. McCaughey, a brother beloved, and once a member of this Presbytery, for the gift.

(The one who made this motion can be assumed to have been the Rev. Dr. James I Brownson, to whom the letter was addressed but his name does not appear on the original paper from which this is taken. A D W)

The Vance-Patterson Story

By Edna Foster Chambers

The Vances and the Pattersons are gone from the Cross Creek and Smith Township areas, and that is strange, for in the early years there were so many of them, Joseph Vance and William Patterson were among the earliest settlers. They were hardy Scotch-Irish Presbyterian who had come over the mountains to establish homes in the wilderness. Joseph Vance, his wife, and his father, Major William Vance came from Virginia about 1773 and settled on a tract in the present Smith Township, building a temporary cabin and very soon after that a fort known as "Vance's Fort." Major William being the older man at the time of emigration from Virginia, it fell to his son Joseph, a young man of about 23, to take the lead in clearing the land and building the necessary shelters. He and his wife became the parents of six children, three boys and three girls, of whom William, the oldest, born in 1775, will become the subject of this story.

William Patterson was born in Little Brittain, Lancaster County in 1733. His first wife, Rosanna Scott, bore five children before her death in 1769. In 1770 he married Elizabeth Brown, and they came to settle on Cross Creek in the present Cross Creek Township about 1779, following Patterson's service as a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Ten children were born to the second marriage—some before they left Lancaster County and others after settling on Cross Creek. Their eighth child, Hannah, born on the Patterson farm in 1786, was later to become the second wife of William Vance and also the subject of our story. William Patterson and his son Thomas built the well known Patterson's Mill and in the year 1794 the family constructed a sturdy stone home which stood until a few years ago.

The principals in the following story are my great grandparents. It is a story I have heard all my life and is well documented in A.D. White's "History of the Cross Creek Presbyterian Church," for that is indeed where it began. As a child attending the Cross Creek Church I asked my mother one day following communion service why an uncle did not take communion, to which she replied, "Some of the Vance men do not belong to the Church." Most likely the next question was "Why?" and it was then that I heard the story for the first time, But let us return to the beginning.

Following earlier services held at Vance's Fort the Cross Creek Church was formally organized in 1779, Joseph Vance becoming an elder a few years later. The Pattersons, who arrived about that time, also became members of the Church. And it is not surprising that about 20 years later William Vance as a young man of 24 chose his wife a young women of the congregation, William Patterson's daughter Rachel, 18 at the time, and married her the day before Christmas 1799. They took up residence on the Vance tract, and the year 1817 when Rachel died, they had become the parents of nine children. It was the custom of the day when women often died young, for an unmarried sister of the deceased to attend to the motherless children, and so it happened that Hannah Patterson, Rachel's younger sister, came to live in the Vance household. She was about 31 at the time. About a year and a half after Rachel's death, William, who had apparently become enamored of Hannah, announced to the Church that he and Hannah wanted to be married. "Oh, no said the elders of Cross Creek Church, you cannot do that" and cited chapter and verse in the Book of Leviticus which they said forbad the union of a man and his dead wife's sister.

The rebuff was not taken kindly by William who was then a mature man of 43, had become a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1816, a counselor and advisor among his friends, and no doubt considered himself quite a local power. He was not persuaded by the Church fathers that his union was either illegal or against the rules of the Church, and he and Hannah were forthwith married "Brought the house down"- the house of Presbyterian doctrine upon the shoulders of William Vance. The session of the Church met and voted to excommunicate him, and so far as I know, his wife also. This so angered William that he had an appeal to the Synod and later to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church but was turned down all the way, because they upheld the local Church's decision. In later years, the ban against such a marriage was reversed, but not in William's lifetime. Even though William and Hannah continued to attend and contribute to the Church they were never again received into membership, and as a point of loyalty or perhaps obstinacy, some of the Vance men in succeeding generations did likewise-attended, contributed, but did not become members of the church.

All this consternation did not keep William and Hannah from producing a second family of five children, of whom my grandfather, John Stockton Vance, was the fourth. The greatest furor centered in the Church itself, as families formed their own opinions of the ruling, and it made a very difficult the pastorate of the Rev. Thomas Marquis, a "home town boy" who with his wife, Jane, had been converted much earlier at a service in Vance's Fort. However, he survived it and in fact was a well known preacher popularly called "silver-tongued Marquis" because of his oratory.

And what did the Pattersons think of all this? They accepted the decision of the Church elders and refused to let daughter Hannah return to her former home. On a visit to Mary Patterson, the last of the Pattersons, at the homestead about 1955, she told me that Hannah's saddle was still hanging in the barn and that William Patterson had left Hannah out of his will but said if Hannah was ever in need the family was to help her. This, Mary said, was the family joke, for the Vances were much more affluent than the Pattersons.

And so ends the story of William and Hannah. Many of their descendants live in the area, but none, I believe bearing the surnames of Vance and Patterson. All the nine farms in the Vance name have been sold, and some of the following generations have scattered the length and breadth of the United States. The last of the direct descendants of William Patterson—two bachelors and three spinsters—ended with death of Mary Patterson and the homestead was sold. But it remained for the Pattersons to be true to their faith and their church to the end. The will of Mary Patterson contained a bequest of $50,000 to the Cross Creek Church. This, I am sure, was money that had been saved through generations of the Pattersons, earned by hard work on their farm and at the Mill, it went at last to the church where they most likely would have wanted it to go. Some of this legacy was greatly needed at the time to put the interior and exterior on the church building (the fifth on the site) into its fine present condition and a visible tribute to the "Faith of the Fathers."

Leaves is happy to share with you a true story of an episode that occurred in the ancestral history of the author, Edna Foster Chambers, of Zelenople, PA. Mrs. Chamber was born in Jefferson Township on the Lee farm, and moved with her family to Burgettstown at the age of ten. The story deals with prominent settlers of the Cross Creek area and reveals how one small event can change the course of life for succeeding generations.

Rev. and Mrs. R.G. Lilley, of Eldersville, were honored with a farewell dinner and entertainment in the Eldersville church Sunday evening. They will leave for their new charge at Townville on Friday, after having served the Eldersville and Bethel churches for the past three years.

More than one hundred fifty members of the church and several guests gathered in Fellowship hall at 6 p.m. for the covered dish dinner of fried chicken, ham, and all the trimmings. Following the dinner, everyone retired to the sanctuary, where Woody Jackson was Master of Ceremonies for the program of music, readings, and songs.

Rev. and Mrs. Lilley were presented with gifts from both churches, and both spoke briefly. Rev. and Mrs. Homer Weaver, the incoming pastor and his wife, were introduced.

The program was opened with Prayer, by Ralph Ryan; Solo, "This Land Is Mine," by Junior Elich, accompanied by Melinda Rujak.

Bobby Kidd presented a comedy ventriloquist routine. Kathy Dreyer sang, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," accompanied by Mildred Jackson. Junior Elich and Melinda Rujak sang a duet, "Never Be Lonely," accompanied by Dorothy Butler. Melinda also played "Dear Heart," and "Unicorn," on the Melodica, accompanied by Dorothy Butler at the piano. Kathryn Slasor read an original poem, "The Preacher."

Dorothy Butler led in group singing of several "rounds." The program closed with prayer by Woody Jackson.

The committee responsible for the planning and preparation of food and for the program was comprised of Jeanne Stroud, Ilah McCaffery, Helen Martin, Fannie Campbell, Dorothy Petrel and Louise Karch. Volunteers who helped in waiting on tables included Mary Rujak, Bertha Wiegmann, Marjorie Cowden, Ellen Rose Robertson, Carmen Brown, Juanita Doak and Mary Stroud.

Hymn Sing Held At Francis Mine

Rev. Lee E. Speer conducted the Hymn Sing in the church at Francis Mine, Sunday, with eighty-five in attendance from ten neighboring churches. Rev. Speer is pastor of the church. Drexel Baker, of the Ebenezer Church of God, led the congregational singing.

Several special selections were enjoyed, from many of the churches represented. Miss June Campbell was pianist. Churches answering to a roll call of churches were: Avella FreeMethodist, Ebenezer Church of God, Canonsburg Nazarene, Atlasburg Nazarene, Bethel Methodist, Eldersville Methodist, West Middletown Christian, Tucker Methodist, Christian Church of North America, Burgettstown, and the host church.

The tenth and last in the current series of sings will be held next Sunday in the Lower Buffalo Presbyterian church, Independence. A planned program is being arranged by the Hymn Sing committee, Morris Knabenshue, Kathryn Slasor and June Campbell. It will consist of special selections most requested from the hymn sings of the past nine weeks. The sing will begin at 3 p. m.

BANQUET AT ELDERSVILLE

Members of Circle No. 3 of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Eldersville Methodist church held a Mother and Daughter Banquet at the home of Miss Faye Findling. A three course dinner was served at 6 o'clock in honor of the mothers of the members of the society. The tables were attractively decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Favors for the mothers were beautiful handkerchiefs and a bottle of perfume, and for the daughters baskets of candy mints. Following the dinner, an inspiring program was presented. Carmen Wiegmann, Faye Findling, Dolores Davis, Mary McCaffrey, Phyllis Irwin, Betty Price and Opal Ridgway each recited a poem in honor of their respective mothers. Mrs. Opal Ridgway, leader of the society, gave an original poem, dedicated to the daughters. Betty Price sang, "Mother." Group singing was also a feature of the program. The mothers responded with brief remarks in keeping with the occasion. The following members, their mothers and guests were present:

Audrey Irwin and mother, Mrs. Eva Irwin; Phyllis Irwin and guest, Mrs. Grady; Mary McCaffrey and Mother, Mrs. Illah McCaffrey; Idell Davidson and guest, Valjean Davidson; Betty Price and mother, Mrs. Frances Price; Mary Petrel and mother, Mrs. Petrel; Florence Noah and guest Mrs. Mazie Fulton; Irene Brown and mother, Mrs. Lenore Brown; Dorothy Haspel and guest, Mrs. Charles Beck; Carmen Wiegmann and mother, Mrs. Roxanna Wiegmann; Dolores Davis and mother, Mrs. Davis; Laverna Davis and guest, Mrs. Mabel Kidd; Anna Brown and guest, Mrs. Mildred Roberts; Lois Brown and guest, Mrs. Edna Pettibon; Evelyn Sullenberger and guest, Mrs. John Reardon; Faye Findling and mother, Mrs. Hallie Findling and Mrs. Opal Ridgway and mother.

Mother's Day was observed with a special service. The oldest mother, Mrs. F. M. Barber of Hanlin Station, and the mother with the largest number of descendants present, Mrs. F. M. Butler, were presented with potted plants. The girls' choir under the direction of Mrs. Marion Butler sang an anthem in honor of Mother's Day. The service was planned by Circle 2 of the W.S.C.S.

New Minister Arrives At Eldersville

By Katherine Pyle

The Rev. Thomas A. Johnson has been appointed pastor of the Eldersville United Methodist Church by the Bishop of the Western Pennsylvania Annual Conference of United Methodist Churches.

Rev. Johnson and his wife, Jill, moved into the parsonage at Eldersville Dec. 28, and the new minister conducted his first service at the church Jan. 3.

Although Rev. Johnson is just beginning his career as a pastor, he has had a variety of education and experiences that should be of assistance to him in his ministry.

Born in Kane, Pa., the son of Arthur and Luella Johnson, Tom Johnson was brought up in the Lutheran faith. He attended public school in Kane and graduated from the high school there in 1969. After a year as a student at Penn State, he chose to enlist in the Navy, where he served six years, with 15 months' duty in the Middle East. He was on three Mediterranean cruises and several short cruises along the United States eastern coast. He was aboard the USS Canisteo and the USS LaSalle, and spent three years on the USS Forrestal.

Completing his naval career in 1976, Johnson enrolled in Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove, Pa., where he later was given an A.B. degree in religion in 1979. He graduated magna cum laude and received honors in religion.

In September of 1979, he entered the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg, where he graduated in May of 1981 with a Master of Arts and Religion, a major in pastoral counseling and a minor in sociology.

For a year he worked as a security officer at Warren, Pa., and was also an instructor in security.

In October 1984, he became an E.M.T. at the hospital in Corry, Pa., and there met his future wife, the former Jill R. Sorenson.

On Easter Sunday of 1985, Johnson experienced a deep religious call to the ministry, which was later followed in September of 1985 by his entrance into Asbury Theological Seminary.

In February 1986, he and Jill, who had been working at the Red Bird Medical Center in Beverly, Ky., were married at Corry. She chose to attend Asbury Seminary as well, and both Rev. and Mrs. Johnson will graduate officially in May of this year.

Rev. Johnson will receive a Master of Divinity Degree. He will have a Master of Arts and Religion with a major in Christian education and a minor in evangelism.

In June of 1987, Rev. Johnson was ordained a deacon in the United Methodist Church at the annual conference.

Rev. Johnson enjoys outdoor sports such as hunting, fishing and hiking, and he likes to read. His wife, who has a B.S. degree in nursing from Robert Wesleyan College, Rochester, N.Y., hopes to do part-time nursing. She likes crafts and is interested in music, particularly piano and voice.

Rev. George L. Bowick To Leave McDonald

REV. GEORGE L. BOWICK

The Rev. George L. Bowick, who has been pastor of the First Baptist Church, McDonald, for the past eight years, has resigned to accept the pastorate at the Rodman Street Baptist Church, East Liberty, Pittsburgh.

The Rev. Mr. Bowick will preach his farewell sermon at the 11:00 a.m. service this Sunday.

Following his graduation from high school in Orange, N. J., the Rev. Mr. Bowick received his college training at New York University and New York City College; his theological training at Union Theological Seminary, New York, and Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh. He gained additional Bible study and research work at the Keystone School of the Bible, Pittsburgh, and the Moody Bible Institute, Denver, Colo. He served as supply chaplain while in the Army Air Force during World War II.

He is a member of the Pittsburgh branch and the National Council of Churches, a member of the Executive Board of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, and is affiliated with many other religious and civic organizations.

During the Rev. Mr. Bowick's pastorate in McDonald, many spiritual and physical improvements were made at the First Baptist Church. Among these was a complete renovation of the church building, including all new church furniture and lighting. He probably is best known for his work with the youth of the church and community. He established a weekday nursery-kindergarten school, a junior church, and a recreational program. The purchase of a church bus aided much in carrying out the activities of the young people.

Mrs. Bowick also played an active part in the promotion of the church program. She sang in the Silver Leaf and Missionary choirs, was a teacher in the Sunday School, and was director of the nursery-kindergarten.

The Rev. Mr. Bowick and family will move soon to Pittsburgh.

All Burgettstown Churches Join in Farewell Service of Rev. Dr. William M. Hays

Closes Long Pastorate

REV. DR. W. M. HAYS

Burgettstown pastor who retires after 50 years active service in the ministry, 25 of which were spent in the First Presbyterian church, Burgettstown.

Reception for Presbyterian Minister, Who Retires After 50 Years of Active Service, to Be Held Tomorrow Night.

IN THIS COUNTY 25 YEARS

Burgettstown, April 28.—Rev. William M. Hays, Ph. D., for the past 25 years pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this place, delivered his farewell sermon tonight. Rev. Mr. Hays retires after 50 years active service as a Presbyterian minister.

Rev. Dr. Hays spoke not only to his own congregation, but to one that was representative of the community in which he has labored for so many years, all other churches discontinuing services tonight so that their pastors and members could join in the final service conducted by Dr. Hays.

In his sermon Rev. Dr. Hays reviewed the history of the church and the community. His reminiscences were interesting and appealing to the congregation which filled the auditorium to capacity. He stressed the improvement in equipment and the growth in the size of his congregation as well as others in the district.

For his main theme, Dr. Hays stressed that the church was the foundation of our civilization, that it lived on after its leaders had performed their service.

One of the gripping moments of the service came when Dr. Hays expressed regret that he must sever relations with the church and the town. He will leave Burgettstown in the near future to take up his residence in Takoma Park, near Washington, D. C.

With services in other churches discontinued, an augmented choir was directed by Mrs. Dessie Scott, its singing being highly inspiring. Mrs. Wayne Culley and Mrs. Hope Raines sang solos.

Tuesday night a public reception will be held in the home of Dr. Hays in which the community as well as many members of the Washington presbytery will take part.

LADIES' CLASS DINNER ANNIVERSARY EVENT

Large Group of Members and Friends Entertained With Banquet and Special Program

The sixth anniversary of the Ladies' Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church was celebrated with a banquet and program of entertainment held in the church parlors on Thursday evening of last week. At the conclusion of the excellent dinner Mrs. Julia McMurray, president emerita of the organization, was accorded the honor of wielding the knife which cut the birthday cake. This time-honored custom was followed according to the traditions of the group. Mrs. S. W. Piersol, class president, was in charge of the dinner activities.

The banquet served by the ladies was something to rave over. It encompassed all things delicious from fruit cocktail to apple pie ala mode—and the "ala mode" part certainly was generous. Only a few of the guests had the presence of mind, or moral courage, to restrain their appetites, and in consequence many had to resort to "sody" later on in the night.

Brief remarks in tribute to the class and those who prepared the splendid dinner were voiced by the Rev. R. E. Carman, pastor of the church, and E. B. Maurey, editor of the Enterprise. Neither felt competent to do the situation justice because justice had been too well done the dinner. And most of the guests were too full or real good things to be very particular about what kind of speeches they heard, but the minister did make a really fine speech and was given vociferous applause.

Following the banquet the party adjourned to another room where the following program was given: Readings by Roslyn Carman, Laverne Stype and Catherine Stevenson; vocal solos by Mrs. Wayne Culley and Mr. Carman; duet by Mr. Carman and daughter Martha; guessing amount of money in the "birthday box." This contest was won by Paul Carman. His guess was $23.15. The box contained $23.00. Routine class business brought the function to a close.

DR. PROUDFIT TO RETIRE FROM MINISTERIAL WORK

The following article is taken from a Connellsville paper, and will be of interest to many Burgettstown district people:

Dr. J. L. Proudfit, pastor of the First Presbyterian church for more than a quarter of a century, yesterday asked the congregation to accept his resignation, effective on or about December 1.

The request came at the conclusion of the morning service.

Dr. Proudfit will attain the retirement age, 65 years, early in December, and will receive a pension after his retirement.

The congregation will act upon the resignation at a future meeting, and its action will be submitted to the Redstone Presbytery.

The resignation announcement said that the pastor "asks the congregation to unite with him in requesting the Redstone Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship."

For several years Dr. Proudfit has been serving under a severe handicap. A slight stroke caused a throat condition which hampered his speech. He continued his work, however, refusing to let poor health and the difficulty in speech keep him from the pulpit or other duties.

He has been minister in the Presbyterian church for 26 years, observing that anniversary last February. By the time the resignation becomes effective he will have completed nearly 27 years in the church.

During the pastorate of Dr. Proudfit the Presbyterian church built the present edifice. It was formerly located in West Crawford avenue, on the site now occupied by the Woolworth Building.

He is the oldest minister in Connellsville in point of service here, and is widely known in the Presbytery. His circle of friends extends far beyond the boundary of his own congregation.

HUSBANDS ARE FETED BY BIBLE CLASS LADIES

Birthday Anniversary Celebrated by Inviting Husbands to Dine at Monthly Meeting

The husbands of members of the Ladies' Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church were guests of honor at a dinner given in the dining hall of the church on Thursday evening of last week. The occasion was of particular note as it marked an anniversary in the history of the organization, and a fine birthday cake, bearing five small candles, was a part, as well as an outstanding feature of an excellent luncheon provided through the usual "covered dish" channel.

The "anniversary" element has to do with the establishment five years ago of a sort of treasure chest called a birthday box. Each year the members of the class contribute pennies to the number of their respective ages.

This year the box contained about $25, and as the class register is large it is noted that the ages are not great.

Mrs. Willa Lee, teacher of the class, delivered a brief address explaining the object of the gathering, following which a fine dinner was served to a large number of members and their husbands. The dinner hour was one of merrymaking, and provided opportunity for many families to become better acquainted.

After the dinner the business meeting of the class was held and a short program of entertainment given. In this event a guessing contest on the amount of money in the box was held. The amount was $25.55, and this was guessed within five cents by Carl J. McFarland of Cherry Valley road. He was awarded the prize, a box of stationery.

Dorothy Allison sang "Long, Long Ago;" reading by Catherine Stevenson, "Twas You," and song, "Mighty Lak a Rose," by Roselyn Carman.

CHURCHES WILL UNIT TO OBSERVE GOOD FRIDAY

The Protestant churches of Burgettstown and vicinity will unite in the observance of Good Friday this year with a three-hour Service to be held in the First Presbyterian church from 12 noon to 3 p. m. The service is being planned by the local ministerial association and will consist of music, meditations, prayer and scripture bringing to the thoughts of worshippers the events of the three hours of suffering of Jesus upon the Cross. Seven local ministers will speak during the course of the service upon the seven sayings of Jesus from the Cross. Further announcement of this service will be given later with the Easter announcements in this paper.

Rev. Wm. M. Hays, D. D.

Rev. Dr. Hays Retirement As Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church

A memorable event in the history of Burgettstown and its environs was the voluntary relinquishing of active ministerial duties -- together with the consequent severing of his pastoral relations with the First Presbyterian Congregation of Burgettstown, by the Rev. Dr. William M. Hays, thus rounding out a full half-century of consecutive and disinterested service in the Masters cause -- twenty-five years of which efficient service (as rendered in this place) -- culminating on last Sabbath evening (April 28) in the delivering of his farewell Address to his present charge, in the spacious First Church Auditorium, which was filled to overflowing with a kindly and sympathetic audience, composed, not only of members of his own flock, but by many from the various neighboring churches, who attended this service to attest their appreciation of Dr. Hays' earnest and efficient labors in behalf of the sobriety and well-being of the whole community.

A period of a Quarter-Century's duration, is a matter of some consequence -- a "long time," in fact -- in the span of life of the average inhabitant of this mundane sphere! It even cuts a wide swath across the orbit of the octogenarian's days. Man appears; he multiplies; he scatters; he scatters off; and Alas! in many instances, and at any time whatsoever, during such period, he is liable to "pass off"! Yet notwithstanding Man's days are like unto the grass that "withers and decays," a goodly number of him, the elect of the race, it appears -- as permitted to outlive the term long as it is, to rejoice together, and to congratulate each other that it is even a "good thing" to be alive much beyond the "middle age" of the human span of life.

This fact was highly exemplified on the occasion of the departure of Dr. Hays. During his long pastorate here, many of the "children of his fold" had grown up and gone off to other homes, in other spheres of human endeavor, in other communities, and under the guidance of other pastors. But the gathering at the First Church Auditorium on last Sabbath evening, to hear and witness Rev. Dr. Hays' Farewell discourse was more like a veritable Home-Coming Jubilation than that of the losing of a respected and beloved friend! For the "children of the First Church", who had "wandered off" to other fields were back again -- some coming many miles and from other states -- to meet with and to greet once more their beloved pastor and his faithful companion. And this not only as a token of respect; but especially to impart unto them the peace and joy of a knowledge of a Service well and nobly rendered (while in this field of their endeavor) to abide with them, and to remain a source of cheer and comfort throughout their declining years.

Rev. William M. Hays, D. D., a son of Captain George W. and Margaret Hays, was born in Middlesex township, Butler County, Pennsylvania, December 7th, 1852. About the close of the Civil War, his parents removed to the North Side, Pittsburgh -- then known as Allegheny City. Two other sons of this family entered the ministry: viz. Dr. Ken C. Hays,

Retirement as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church

"After Seventy-five Years" in Burgettstown

The First Presbyterian Church of Burgettstown, Pa., observed the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of its organization October 12th-19th, and on Sabbath morning, October 12th the pastor preached a historical sermon giving an outline of the work accomplished by the six pastors who served this church during its entire history.

In the evening the Rev. James A. Kelso, D.D., of the Western Theological Seminary spoke. On Monday evening, October 13th, Rev. James Hamilton, of Washington, Pa., and Rev. C. L. McKee, of Washington, Pa., were the speakers. Tuesday evening, October 14th, Doctor W. F. Silveus, of Duquesne, brought a message. On Wednesday evening congratulatory addresses were delivered by neighboring pastors. Thursday, October 16th, was "Home Coming Day."

A. C. Proudfit, an elder of this church, made an address of welcome and the Rev. Walter Kennedy spoke on the subject, "Early Impressions of a Christian, Religious Life," and were received.

During the afternoon session of Thursday addresses were made by Rev. Hugh Leith, D.D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Wilkinsburg.

Prof. Simon S. Baker, President of W. & J. College and Rev. Percy H. Gordon, D.D., of Salem, Ohio, also brought messages.

This church has had only six pastors in seventy-five years, including the present pastor, Rev. Wm. M. Hays, who has been in the field for more than twenty years.

The church has given eleven of its sons to Roundup Class Picnic.

The Round Up Class of the First Presbyterian church held its annual picnic in the Boles grove, near Eldersville, on Thursday of last week. Thirty members of the class, with their families and a number of guests attended, a total of 100 being present. Out-of-town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Hays of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Alice Kline of Detroit. Tables were laden with the usual picnic collations in bounteous plenty. The evening was spent playing baseball and other games and races. Many prizes were awarded children in the sports events by the social committee in charge. The occasion was most enjoyable and marked another happy day in the history of the class.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNIT CONVENES NEXT WEEK

County Sabbath School Association Announces Program for Meeting Here

The Washington County Sabbath School Association announces the program for the annual convention to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Burgettstown, Thursday and Friday June 18th and 19th. Have secured expert Sabbath School workers and ministers from Washington and Allegheny counties.

The first session convenes at 9 a. m. Thursday, and will be addressed by the Rev. W. Franklin Harkey of Houston, speaking on the theme of the convention, "Character Building in the Sabbath School." Mrs. J. M. Bailey of Avalon will also speak at the first session on the subject "Moulding Child Life."

The afternoon session will convene at 1:30 and will be addressed by the Rev. A. E. Driggers of Kittanning, who will speak on "The Background of Prohibition." The departmental conferences will begin at 3:15, and will be led by Mrs. J. M. Bailey of Avalon; Mrs. Guy Rex, Avalon; Miss Cora B. Dickey, Pittsburgh; J. Brad Craig, Pittsburgh, and the Rev. S. A. McCollum of McDonald. The evening session will be held at 7:30 and addressed by the Rev. J. Alvin Orr of Pittsburgh, using "The Jesus Way of Building Character" as his subject.

Friday morning at 9 o'clock the session will have a general conference led by Dr. J. Kirkwood Craig. "Objectives in Christian Education" will be the topic for discussion.

The last session of the convention, Friday afternoon at 1:30, will be addressed by the Rev. Oliver H. Sisson of Wilkinsburg. His topic will be "Fashioning Youth."

The Rev. E. A. Cole of Washington will lead the song service at the beginning of each session. Rev. Dr. C. Wallace Petty, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pittsburgh will lead the Bible study at each session also.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The people of this vicinity in sympathy with the Presbyterian faith were members of the Cross Roads Presbyterian church, (now Florence). The first action taken in reference to the organization of a society at this place is found on record in the minutes of the Washington Presbytery bearing date Dec. 30, 1828, as follows:

"A memorial was presented by the inhabitants of Burgettstown and vicinity, praying the appointment of a committee of this Presbytery to confer with a committee of the Ohio presbytery respecting the propriety of forming a congregation near the aforesaid village. On motion resolved that the petition in the memorial be not granted. Dr. A. Wylie and Mr. McCluskey were appointed to embody the reasons which influenced the presbytery in passing the above resolution and to transmit them to the people."

No further effort seems to have been made for many years towards the permanent establishment of a Presbyterian church in this immediate locality. In the year 1845 a Presbyterian church edifice was erected on the hill where the cemetery now is, in connection with the congregation of Florence, then under the pastorate of the Rev. Joel Stoneroad. Agreeable to a resolution of the citizens of Burgettstown and vicinity, an application was made to the presbytery of Washington at its meeting at the Forks of Wheeling on the first Tuesday of October, 1849 praying for an organization of a congregation at Burgettstown, which petition was not granted. A complaint against which action was taken by Robert Patterson and others to the synod of Wheeling, which met at Steubenville on the third Tuesday of October, 1849, at which time and place an order for organization was granted. The Rev. Joel Stoneroad was appointed by the presbytery of Washington to organize the congregation. Having assembled for that purpose on the 18th of October, 1849, an organization was effected by the reception of sixty members all of whom were members of the congregation of Cross Roads (Florence). The following were elected elders: Thomas Thompson, Robert Patterson, John S. Lamb, William Cunningham and John Moore. On the 4th of April, 1850, a call was extended to the Rev. James P. Fulton, of the presbytery of Ohio, which was accepted. The presbytery of Washington met at Burgettstown on the first of October, 1850, and on the next day the Rev. James P. Fulton was ordained and installed pastor of this congregation. He remained in charge until the spring of 1857, when he sent in his resignation, which was accepted.

The Rev. James T. Fredericks preached his first sermon at this place on the second Sabbath of February, 1858. On the 25th of April he received and accepted their call. He was ordained and installed on the 26th of October following, served some years. The first church edifice was enlarged in 1860, and again about 1868. In 1873 the present brick structure was erected, sixty by ninety, with a seating capacity of eight hundred, and at a cost of $25,000.

A Sunday school was established before 1840, and the church was the outgrowth of it. Robert Patterson, an elder in the Cross Roads church, was for many years superintendent, and others were connected with him. D. M. Pry, elder in the Burgettstown church, was a very successful superintendent for ten or twelve years. J. L. Patterson presided over the school.

The elders since the organization have been S. P. Riddle, Josiah Scott, W. W. Van Eman, Finley Scott, John L. Proudfit, J. L. Patterson, John L. Rankin, D. M. Pry, W. W. Riddle, W. McFarland, A. E. Walker.

Will Disposes of Estate.

The First Presbyterian church of Burgettstown and the Women's Missionary Society of the church received bequests of $500 each in the will of the late Ida A. Proudfit, who died May 2 leaving an estate estimated at $9,500. The two $500 funds are to be deposited on interest for a period of 10 years, at which time the cash will be turned over to the church and the society, the will stipulates. Other beneficiaries are two cousins, Dorothy Elizabeth Allison and Winfield R. Allison, of Burgettstown. Letters of administration were issued to Winfield R. Allison.

I love thy kingdom, Lord!
The house of thine abode,
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

I love thy church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

 Should not the servant tread it still ?

Go, labor on ; 'tis not for naught ;
 Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain ;
 Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not ;
 The Master praises—what are men ?

Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice ;
 For toil comes rest, for exile home ;
 Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,

THE
BURGETTSTOWN, PA.

AFTER SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS

A REVIEW of the occurrences which have taken place within the last seventy-five years only serves, in the present, to make us realize the extent of the heritage that has been made possible for us by the untiring efforts of those who have gone before.

When we make a survey of the conditions existing three-quarters of a century ago, with none of the conveniences and facilities, such as we have in modern times, and compare them with present day advantages, we are astounded at the achievements of our antecedents, the noble men and women who fought and won the battle of life, much as we have to do, and apparently with greater success.

If all the data pertaining to this church were at hand, and could be rightly tabulated, it might be clearly shown that the influence of this church, through its various organizations and agencies, has been a large factor in the development of Burgettstown, with its banks, schools, business houses and industries.

Much as we admire the faith of our fathers in undertaking big tasks for the kingdom of God, may they be only an earnest beginning of greater things to come; that the efforts of the present generation may be such as to inspire others in the future to turn in with the people of God and follow Jesus even unto the end.

This celebration is intended to punctuate an epochal period of time in the history of this church. Many startling incidents might be emphasized that have been worth while. The members of the present organization heartily wish that the last seventy-five years shall prove to be an outstanding prophecy, only to find its fulfillment in the hallowed experience and efficiency of the members of this church in time to come.

Pastor's Bi-ennial.

First Presbyterian Church,

BURGETTSTOWN, PA.

REV. J. L. WEAVER, PASTOR.

APRIL 1ST, 1887--- APRIL 1ST, 1889,

To be Preserved for Reference.

PASTORAL LETTER.

To the Members and Adherents of the Burgettstown Presbyterian Church:

BRETHREN BELOVED:—"Mercy unto you and peace and love be multiplied." Like Paul in Rome, your pastor here has "Dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ," with fear and with trembling, with joy and with gladness, "No man forbidding him." Like Paul my aim has been to preach Christ and Him crucified; like Paul my endeavor has been not to shun to declare the whole counsel of God. If in the pressing home of any truth I have seemed to insist too strongly, or probe too deeply, or urge too pointedly, it was because I read in the Holy Book to preach the truth whether men will hear or whether they will forbear; also, "If the watchman see the sword, come and blow not the trumpet and the people be not warned, if the sword come and take any person from among them he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

These two years, being the first of the present pastorate, were first of all, on your part, a getting acquainted with the disposition and traits as a man, his methods as a pastor, and his manner and style as a preacher. On my part it was getting acquainted with the faces, names, dispositions, church relations and needs of the people. Has it not been a time of continually increasing confidence and affection, until we now feel about us the bonds that ought to bind pastor and people together? Does not the harmony and love existing between pastor and people, and among the people themselves, augur well for the future of the congregation? They have been two years of abundant fruitage—our number increasing from an actual membership of 260 to an actual membership of 380; our contributions growing from $1,600 to ^{3.30} ~~$2,200~~; every organization in the church adding to its roll and manifesting increased zeal.

The prayermeeting has been called the pulse of the church. The increased attendance, attention and activity surely then indicate that the health of our church is good.

If the prayermeeting be the pulse of the church, we will call the missionary effort the heart. From the growing interest shown in the numbers, contributions, desire for missionary knowledge and zeal in missionary work, especially of the women's, young ladies' and children's organizations, as well as the congregation in general, we infer that the heart of our church is sound. Among other signs of healthfulness we mention the Young Men's Prayermeeting and the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, both of which are now promising much for the future of our church.

Perhaps as a church we have no greater reason for congratulation than the fact of our large, flourishing and church-feeding Sabbath School.

While the interest manifested in all the lines to which I have referred must have brought joy to all our hearts, there are yet a few matters which have been especially gratifying and encouraging to me. I mention among these the well-filled seats, close attention and cordial appreciation of all the preaching services.

Neither would I fail to record here my high appreciation of the friendly counsel, kindly suggestions and cordial sympathy I have uniformly received at the hands of my session; of the kindness and courtesy of the trustees, always shown, whether in social or business relations; of the many tokens of regard, respect and love bestowed by men, women and children—never an unfriendly look from any coming to my eyes, nor harsh words to my ears; no home in which I have entered where the reception was not cordial, and no meeting by the way where the salute was not friendly. Can we not all exclaim with all our hearts, "Hitherto the Lord has helped us" and "Thank God and take courage."

With our large membership, with our organizations for all kinds of work, with the spirit of unity that seems to prevail and with a great field for labor before us, what wait we for but the outpouring of the Holy Ghost when we may do a work for the Lord in comparison with which that of the past two years shall be almost as nothing.

So let us begin this third year of our pastorate determined that with God's grace we will increase our numbers, our contributions, our zeal and our faith. This can only be done by each and every individual doing her or his part.

Is there a person in our church to whom you have not given the right hand of fellowship? Welcome that one now. Is there a sinner to whom you have not done your duty in the past? Perform that duty now. Is there a cause to which you have not contributed as liberally as you might? Make that contribution now. Is there some society in the church to which you have neither given your sympathy or presence? Withhold these things no longer; the cause is the Lord's and you are his servants.

A word to those who have not enrolled themselves as followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. For two years you have heard the word preached but have not heeded the call. I beseech you let not two years more, nay two weeks more, pass by until you have accepted Jesus as your savior and enrolled yourself as a member of His church. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good, for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel."

Let us all, then, by deeper devotion, fuller consecration and more earnest effort, make our individual and congregational influence felt for good, and good only, and good continually.

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

Sincerely and Affectionately Your Friend and Pastor,

J. L. WEAVER.

HISTORY.

In the year 1848 a Presbyterian Church was erected in the village of Burgettstown, and in connection with the congregation of Cross Roads at Florence, enjoyed the services of Rev. Joel Stoneroad.

In accordance with a resolution of the citizens of Burgettstown and vicinity, an application for an organization was made to the Presbytery of Washington at its meeting at the Forks of Wheeling on the first Tuesday of October, 1849. The Presbytery refused to grant an organization. The petition was carried to the Synod of Wheeling in session at Steubenville two weeks later, at which time an organization was granted. Rev. Joel Stoneroad was appointed by the Presbytery of Washington to organize said congregation.

The organization was effected October 18, 1849, under the name of the First Presbyterian Church of Burgettstown. Following are some of the names of the charter members: Robt. Patterson, Mary Patterson, Samuel Riddle, Sr., Margaret Riddle, Mary McFarland, Ann Cavert, Ann Hays, Thomas Thompson, Rebecca Thompson, Mary Ann Boyd, Mary Jane Scott, Wm. Melvin, Margaret Melvin, Elizabeth Melvin, Miss Mary Patterson, John Lamb, Elizabeth Lamb, Samuel Riddle, Jr., Elizabeth Riddle, John Melvin, Jane Whittaker, John Raybuch, James L. Patterson, James Cunningham, Josiah Scott, Ann Crawford, Elizabeth Proudfit, Wm. Blair, Ann Stewart, Jane Stevenson.

October 26, 1849, the following persons were elected to the office of ruling elder: Thomas Thompson, Robt. Patterson and John S. Lamb (previously ordained), also Wm. Cunningham and John Moore, who were ordained the last Sabbath of March, 1850.

On the 4th of April, 1850, an unanimous call was extended to Mr. Jas. P. Fulton, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Ohio.

Mr. Fulton was ordained and installed Oct., 1850. His pastorate continued till the Spring of 1857. A call was made for James T. Fredericks, April 21st, 1858, which was accepted, and Mr. Fredericks was ordained and installed Oct. 26, 1858. He served as pastor until his death, August, 1885. The present Pastor, Rev. J. L. Weaver, began his labors here April 1st, 1887.

THE DEPARTED.

"If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

MCELHANY:—May 4, 1887, William M. McElhany, aged 13 months, 6 days.

"Lord, God, the Spirit! purify
My thoughts, bind fast my life to thee;
So shall I meet my babe on high,
Though he may not return to me."

BRADLEY.—May 19, 1887, Dr. T. W. Bradley, in the 75th year of his age.

One who knew him well has written this of him: "Dr. Bradley was one of our very best citizens and his character was above reproach. Plain and unassuming in dress and manner, he yet possessed all those finer feelings and tastes and graces of mind which constitute the man, the christian and the true gentleman; and these, coupled with his social nature and more than ordinary intelligence, made him a delightful companion. He was generous and benevolent, and there are many in the community to-day who can testify to his kindness of heart and sympathetic nature. In his deeds of charity he was not ostentatious, but liberally obeyed the scriptural injunction, 'Give not alms to be seen of men.'"

CRAWFORD.—July 3, 1887, Mrs. Ann Maria Crawford, in the 81st year of her age.

Mrs. Crawford was one of the charter members of our church. She was permitted to live to see this "planting of the Lord" grow to be a large and strong tree; but the reaper, Death, with relentless sickle, is ever busy here and there cutting down by times the old and the young, the great and the small. When little more than four score this "mother in Israel" came in his path and fell asleep in Jesus.

"Of all the thoughts of God that are Born inward unto souls afar,
Along the Psalmist's music deep,
Now tell me if that any is For gift of Grace surpassing this—
'He giveth his beloved sleep.'"

RANKIN.—July 17, 1887, James Rankin, in the 77th year of his age.

After a long life, 28 years of which he held the office of ruling elder in the Presbyterian church of Prospect, Mr. Rankin's supply of strength was cut off and now the place that so long knew him shall know him nomore for ever. His friends, while sad because of the parting, sorrow not as those who have no hope.

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me."

SMITH.—September 3, 1887, John M. Smith, in the 74th year of his age.

John M. Smith was born August 12, 1814, near Paris, Pa., and died near McDonald, Pa., September 3, 1887. The deceased lived in Burgettstown some eight years. During his sojourn here, (about 1883) he united with the Presbyterian church under the ministrations of the late Rev. J. T. Fredericks. He lived an exemplary life until death. He was much loved by all who knew him, being very quiet and affable in his way and manner of life. He was a kind and loving husband and father. In early life he married Miss Sarah Worstle, of Carroll county, Ohio, who, with six children, mourn his loss. Mrs. Henry Leopold, of this place, is a daughter.

W. M.

BELL.—October 5, 1887, Pearl Gertrude, aged 1 year; September 19, 1888, infant daughter; children of Harry and Amanda Bell.

"Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day;
'Twas an angel visited the green earth
And took the flowers away."

PROUDFIT.—March 13th, 1888, Wm. R. Proudfit, in the 21st year of his age.

The community's estimate of the modest manner, pure, pious life, active Christian efforts and noble, stimulating example of "Willie" Proudfit can neither be increased nor diminished by many words. His works do follow him, though so early in life—

"He heard a voice we did not hear,
Which said he must not stay;
He saw a hand we did not see,
Which beckoned him away."

At his funeral the pastor was assisted by Rev. W. D. Irons, who for 3 years was Willie's teacher.

SMITH.—April 7, 1888, Nora M. Smith, aged 3 years, 7 months and 27 days.

"A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love has given;
And though the body moulders here,
The soul is safe in heaven."

BUCHANAN.—April, 1888, Mrs. Margaret J. Buchanan, in the 53d year of her age.

"A mother's love! How sweet the name!
The holiest, purest, tenderest flame
That kindles from above.
Within a heart of earthly mould,
As much of heaven as heart can hold,
Nor through eternity grows cold—
That is a mother's love."

"We miss thee from our home, dear mother,
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee—
We miss thee everywhere."

GHRIST.—July, 1888, Mrs. Rachel Ghrist, in the 76th year of her age.

"Patience in suffering" was perhaps never more clearly shown than by Mrs. Ghrist during the last years of her life. Her cheerfulness in time of health was a matter of remark. When her body was drawn and bent and partly paralyzed, cheerfulness was not yet a stranger. Her strong faith and earnest desire, if it was the Lord's will, "to depart and be with Christ," which she regarded as "far better," was at last rewarded by a home where she realized that "her light affliction, which is but for a moment," had worked for her a "far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

"Though painful at present,
'Twill cease before long,
And then, Oh! how pleasant
The conquerer's song."

RUSSELL.—August 4, 1888, Mrs. Mary Ann Vincent Russell.

Mrs. Russell was a daughter of Jos. Vincent, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Ohio. Early in life she united with the church of Mt. Prospect. Shortly afterwards the family removed to Florence, Pa., and her membership was transferred to the church of Cross Roads. After her marriage to the late John S. Russell, Esq., she became a member of the church of Raccoon. For 33 years she continued in the fellowship of that church, but since the death of her husband, for the last two years, she was a member at Burgettstown.

She knew the Christian's secret of a happy and useful life. She came of a family that love their own people. With a natural affection, strong and tender, her kindred, to however remote a degree, were made dear to her heart. This enlarged the number of those with whom she rejoiced when they rejoiced and wept when they did weep. While quite young she became a teacher in the public schools, and continued in that work 19 years. As a teacher she so won her pupils that to the end of life they cherished her friendship. She was an elder's wife 22 years. As such she was a model. Kind and prudent, able and willing to teach a class in the Sabbath School, or preside in the meetings of the Women's Missionary Society. Always and everywhere her adorning was "the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which, in the sight of God is of great price." She will be remembered with honor and affection by kindred, by pupils, and by those whose hearts were bound to hers by ties of Christian love.

G. M. K.

BOYD.—Aug. 17, 1888, Robert Earl Boyd, aged 2 years.

"Another hand is beckoning us,
Another call is given;
And glows once more with angel steps
The path which reaches heaven."

SMITH.—Sept. 5th, 1888, Andrew F. Smith, in the 77th year of his age. He who for so many years called the people to the sanctuary; he who tolled the funeral knell of so many who went before, was reported as ill, and then, the "sexton is dead." And the places in the community, and the place in the church, that so long knew him shall know him no more forever. We are not without hope that he was called to a service in that sanctuary where it is never said, "He is growing too old."

COWAN.—Nov. 6, 1888, Mrs. Cowan, aged about 65 years.

After a long life of hard toil, some joy, and much sorrow, Mrs. Cowan came to her last brief illness. The latter part of her life, at least, seemed to be marked by that simple, childlike faith that should characterize the professing Christian. Those who mourn her loss, therefore, have the hope that she was called to that home where all is joy, and sorrow is unknown.

WHITAKER.—Nov. 8th, 1888, Mrs. Jane Moore Whitaker, in the 76th year of her age.

Jane Moore, relict of Deacon Whitaker, was born in Washington Co., Pa., June, 1812. For more than 60 years Mrs. Whitaker was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, uniting in early life with the church at Cross Creek. After her marriage she united with the church at Cross Roads (Florence), then living in Hanover township. Her husband removing in 1848 to his farm near Burgettstown (now a part of the borough), she became one of the charter members of this church. She had been a widow for 13 years. Of seven children, six have gone before, leaving one daughter, Martha, wife of G. M. Tenan, Esq., to mourn her loss, but not as one without hope.

JOHNSTON.—Alvan D., son of Mrs. Alice J. Johnston, Dec. 6, 1888, in his 11th year.

"Thou touchest us lightly, O God, in our grief!
But how rough is thy touch in our prosperous hours;
All was bright, but thou camest, so dreadful and brief,

way. Those who unite with the Presbyterian Church should be in general sympathy with the doctrine and order, but of candidates for admission only a profession of acceptance and belief of gospel truth is required. Anyone who heartily accepts the Bible as the word of God, and who could subscribe to the "Apostle's Creed" would meet the requirements as to this point. The church is meant to be the home of plain people whose advantages have been meagre, as well as of accomplished scholars, and while knowledge is to be prized and sought, examination in formal theology is not exacted of candidates for admission to the church. The church is meant to be a school, and those who know the rudiments of religion, and desire to be learners at the feet of Jesus, are made welcome.

Chief stress is laid upon religious experience, the experimental knowledge of Christ. There should be a work of grace in the heart, renewal of the corrupt nature by the holy spirit, a sense of sin and repentance on account of it, a cordial looking into Christ and acceptance of Him as the divine Redeemer, and a settled determination to serve and follow him. Some think they should wait until they can bring great stores of knowledge, others until they have made themselves good. This is a mistake. This is to forget the very nature and object of the church, and to try to bring to it just what it is designed to give. The church is a nursery and a school for all sincere disciples of Christ, though in knowledge and attainments they be but as tender plants or as young children. To several of those whom our Lord called into the apostleship he said simply, "Follow me." Are you willing and wishing to do the same? Then the church, with its blessed privileges, is for you. He calls to himself all who "labor and are heavy laden." Does this language describe the feeling of your heart? Then by all means go to him and accept his offered rest. If you fail to do so you grieve the heart of the loving Jesus and wrong your own soul.

Some persons are possessed of a nervous dread of "coming before Session" with a view to their admission to fellowship with the church. This is needless and should be dismissed. As doorkeepers in the house of God, the pastor and elders are set, not to deter or perplex, but to encourage and welcome all sincere applicants for recognition as disciples of the meek and lowly Jesus. All the questions ordinarily asked are such as come easy to all those who draw their answers from a genuine religious experience. Do you accept the Bible as the Word of God? Does your knowledge of your own breast confirm what it teaches in regard to the sinfulness of men? What is sin? Have you felt yourself a sinner in God's sight and in need of his pardoning mercy? What is repentance? Have you with penitent heart confessed your sin to God and asked his forgiveness? Do you now declare your determination to renounce the devil and all his works? What is faith in Christ? Do you cordially accept Christ as offered in the Gospel and rest alone in him for salvation? Do you acknowledge Christ as Master, engaging, so far as you may have strength, to follow him and keep his commandments? Will you use diligently the means of grace, and submit yourself in the Lord to the proper oversight and discipline of the church? Really, the one condition of membership in the Christian church is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and whoever can sincerely and satisfactorily answer the above questions can confidently meet any session in the land, and ought to make public profession of faith without delay.—REV. D. H. SLOAN, D. D.

DISCIPLINE.

Discipline in the church is one of the many things oftentimes misunderstood

Like a thunderbolt falling in gardens of flowers.
 Yet, oh! for that voice which is thrilling through heaven!
 One moment my ears with its music to slake!
 Oh, no! not for worlds would I have him regiven!
 Yet I long to have back what I would not retake.

SCOTT.—March 7th, 1889, Finley
 Scott, in the 32d year of his age.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
 And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath;
 And stars to set; but all—
 Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death!"

In the suddenness with which this one's mind was darkened, and therefore the lack of death-bed warning to him, in a special manner causes us to rejoice that early in life he accepted that Savior who makes "light to shine in darkness." Let it be to us a voice saying, "Be ye also ready." Let that readiness be our chief thought.

"Nothing is worth a thought beneath.
 But how we may escape that death
 That never, never dies;
 How make our own election sure,
 And when we fail on earth secure
 A mansion in the skies."

CAMPBELL.—March 25th, 1889, John
 Campbell, in the 74th year of his age.

For several weeks it was evident that of Mr. Campbell it would soon be said, "He is dead." Though many years had been his and much religious instruction had been received by him, yet one week before death he had not made a profession of faith in Christ; but as he neared the Jordan he felt the need of a sustaining arm. None offered save Jesus; he accepted just before it was too late. The session met in his sick room, heard his profession and his request to be admitted into the church.
 He was there baptized, and a little group of elders and friends joined with him in partaking of the emblems of the broken body and shed blood of Christ.

"Are we not tending upward, too,
 As fast as time can move?
 Nor should we wish the hours more slow,
 To keep us from our love."

PERIODICALS.

The country is flooded with cheap, trashy, poisonous literature. If care is not taken, it will find its way into Christian homes and weaken the minds, poison the hearts and corrupt the lives of those children which have been dedicated to the Lord. Young people will have something to read besides the text-books used in our schools, or the Bible. In order to meet this requirement and to stimulate the study of the scriptures, every household should receive weekly one or more religious papers. In this particular our church has made most encouraging advancement during the past year, until now the following periodicals come into our

WEEKLY.—Presbyterian Banner, 30 copies; Herald and Presbyter, 20; Interior, 2; New York Observer, 3; Christian Statesman, 1; Sunday School Times, 12;
Golden Rule, 1.

MONTHLY.—National Presbyterian,
 11; Church at Home and Abroad, 24;
Woman's Work for Woman, 22; Home Mission Monthly, 24; Children's Work for Children, 64.

The Sabbath School has distributed semi-monthly, Forward, 100 copies;
 monthly, Sabbath School Visitor, 100;
Temperance Banner, 100; Westminster Teacher, 18; weekly, Sunbeam, 50 copies, charts, 3; map, 1.

The receiving and reading of these is as the scattering of much good seed.
 Let such seed be sown in every household represented in our church, and under the blessing of God the harvest will be abundant.

JOINING THE CHURCH.

Making a public profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and thus coming into union and fellowship with his people is a step so important that no one should take it rashly or indifferently.
 The heart's firm choice of Christ and his service should always lead the and unappreciated. Doubtless it is sometimes misused, but a more common fault on the part of those in authority is neglect of discipline. When the latter is the case, greater or less injury is done to the people of God, since godly persons may be deterred from uniting with the church because of its impurity. Therefore, when discipline is neglected great harm is wrought, and great blame attaches to those who rule in the house of God. It is written "but now I have written unto you, not to keep company; if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolator, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one, no, not to eat."

Suppose, then, discipline were wholly neglected, what can the pious do but "Come out of her, my people, that be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not her plagues" For the sake of the church discipline is necessary and enjoined by the "Word." Lest injury be thereby done to the one sinning, discipline should not be neglected. Few things would tend more to confirm him in his carelessness, self-deception and sin, than by the church taking no note of it; while an orderly, meek, solemn and impartial exercise of discipline might, most probably would, bring the offender to see his sin, and humble, reclaim and edify him, and the church would exclaim in the words of the apostle: "Now I rejoice not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of." From Dr. F. Robertson and others we learn that the history of church discipline has been that the neglect rather than the exercise of it hardens the sinner. As one has well said, "If in his pride and obstinacy the one sinning disregarded the advantages which flow from it, when received in the right spirit, the rulers of the church are not to be deterred from their duty any more than the minister of the gospel from preaching, because many are hardened by it and their guilt and danger increased."

Members of session, then exercise scriptural discipline, orderly, meekly, solemnly and impartially. Offender, "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen and repent and do the first work." Let pastor and people seek to restore such an one to our fellowship and communion.

THANKS.

For increase of salary, April, 1888.

For the vacations granted.

For the hearty co-operation in all the work.

PRACTICAL HINTS.

Notify your pastor of any sickness in your family.

Do not fault him for not calling until you are sure he has been notified.

Where there is not sickness do not expect him more than once a year.

Tell him of places where a little attention is needed.

Encourage him and others by regular attendance upon every public service.

In presenting children for baptism, do not forget to send a card with the child's name, date of birth and names of parents.

Welcome newcomers to our church. Introduce them to others and make them feel it is their church home.

Read carefully the cards or pamphlets that may be handed you as you pass from the church. They contain information concerning the church of Christ.

NEEDED.

Fifty (50) or more Presbyterian Hymnals marked "Property of Presbyterian Church of Burgettstown, Pa.," placed in the seats of our church for the use of those who do not have hymn books of their own.

More young men to attend the Young Men's Prayermeeting.

The unsightly, dangerous steps taken from in front of the church and a nicely graded walk made from the boardwalk to the church door.

More of our members to attend the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society Meetings.

A chapel in which to hold prayer-meetings, etc., etc.

More men and boys to contribute to the salary of Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D. D., in India.

More of our people to subscribe for and read our church papers and magazines.

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

Our beautified house of worship.

Our increased membership.

Our growing liberality.

The large number of church papers and magazines taken by our people.

The prospect of soon being out of debt.

Large attendance at preaching services, mid-week prayermeetings, Y. P. S. C. E. meetings and missionary meetings.

The adoption of the envelope system for collecting salary.

The promptness with which the pastor has received his salary.

The good condition of our Treasury.

The training in giving to the Lord received by the children in the Sabbath School.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

In the preparation of this BI-ENNIAL I have had before me the complete and neatly arranged ANNUAL of that honored, scholarly man of God, Rev. D. H. Sloan, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Leechburg, Pa. From him as a pupil in his academy I received instruction; (at least it was offered).

For him I have always had the highest regard. To him I went for aid when I determined to publish this account of our church. I not only followed his plan in general, but finding his Scripture quotations relating to marriage, members dismissed, etc., so apt, and his article on "Joining the Church" so good, I requote and publish them.

Valuable suggestions were also received from the cultured and popular pastor of Central Church, Cincinnati, the Rev. J. J. Frances, D. D., whose friendship I knew—for he always had a kind word for the boys—and whose preaching I enjoyed when he was the honored pastor at Freeport, Pa.

Also aid, in preparing obituary notices, from our local historian, Wm. Melvin.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL TO CLOSE WITH DISPLAY, JULY 9

The Community Vacation church school held in Burgettstown recent weeks has been a great success with 162 children enrolled as follows: Kindergarten 28, Primary 72, Junior 50 and Intermediate 12. On Friday night July 9th, at 7:30 P. M. a closing program will be given in the First United Presbyterian church. This program will consist of demonstration of work done in each department. In the Sunday School room there will be an exhibition of projects made in the school which will be worth seeing. The Council of Christian Education is well pleased with the Vacation School and expresses appreciation to the following people who have contributed to the success of the school. Twenty-nine people have worked in the Vacation School: Rev. Sutton, Rev. Flurkey, Mrs. Howard Dunbar, Miss Betty Hamill, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Betty Hamilton, Miss Betty Cerrich, Miss Janice Linn, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Buckwalter, Mrs. Grimes, Miss Anna Ahlborn, Miss Audrey Robinson, Miss Mary L. Robinson, Miss McKenzie, Miss Ruth Joynt, Mrs. Helen Jackson, Miss Dorothy Lynch, Miss Betty Cowden, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Flurkey, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Warren Tone, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Delanne, Mrs. J. R. Culley, Mrs. Wilbert Welch, Miss Esther Welch, Miss Lois Reed. Parents and public are invited to attend the insuring service on Friday night. An offering will be taken to help defray the expenses of the Vacation School.

Rev. R. C. Sutton Accepts Call in Wheeling Presbytery After 23 Years In Local Church

Rev. R. C. Sutton announced to the congregation of the First United Presbyterian Church on Sunday, August 8, that he plans to petition the Chartiers Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship between himself and the Burgettstown Church in order that he may accept a call to the Wheeling Presbytery. The united charge of the First Church of Bellaire, Belmont and McMahan's Creek has been extended to him by the Wheeling Presbytery. The local church will meet on Sunday, August 22 after the morning service to act on the request.

Rev. Sutton came to Burgettstown in 1925 and has occupied the pulpit of the First United Presbyterian Church for the past 23 years. He was ordained in 1925, with his father-in-law, the late Rev. Paul J. Slonaker, Ph. D., delivering the address.

Rev. Sutton attended the Methodist Ridge grade school, St. Clairsville high school, Bellaire high school and Wooster high school in Wooster, Ohio. He attended Wooster College and taught in the public schools of Holmes and Wayne counties for three years. He served in the Field Artillery in World War I and was discharged in 1918. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wooster College in 1922. Later attending the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and during his first year received the Purdy scholarship, given to six students receiving the highest grades in their class. He also received the John F. Miller prize in Philosophy and the Bachelor of Theology in 1925 from the Seminary. In 1931 he received his Master of Theology degree from the same institution.

When Rev. Sutton came to Burgettstown in 1925 he married Frances Slonaker, daughter of the late Rev. Paul J. Slonaker, Ph. D., and Mrs. Ida McKinney Slonaker.

They have two sons, Richard, a Sophomore in Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio and David a student in the eighth grade.

During Rev. Sutton's pastorate here a Moller Organ and chimies have been installed, a furnace installed, the building re-wired and new lighting fixtures installed; the floor of the sanctuary covered with carpet, the interior redecorated twice, kitchen modernized and shubbery planted around the church. The latest improvement has been the installation of modern stained glass windows.

Six hundred twenty-seven have been united with the church and one hundred fifty-eight children and eighty-one adults baptized during his pastorate. He has performed ninety-seven marriages, and conducted ninety-two funerals within the membership of the church; and one hundred sixty-one funerals for those outside of the membership.

An outstanding work of the church has been in the Beginners and Primary Departments of the Bible school. Mrs. Sutton began twenty-years ago with less than half a dozen children and within a short time ago these numbered seventy-five.

During the war Rev. and Mrs. Sutton kept in close contact with one hundred and fifty boys and helped them to learn of other service men and news from home. They did this through a quarterly news letter, and had scores of letters from the boys telling how much the letters meant to them.

It was with a heavy heart that Rev. and Mrs. Sutton made their announcement to the congregation, and the sorrowful people who filed out of church that morning told the pastor in their own ways, better than cold statistics would, that his years of service would never be forgotten.

Rev. Sutton will preach his final sermon to the congregation August 29. The Suttons expect to move to the Manse on Belmont Ridge, west of Bellaire about September 8, and begin their work there September 12.

SEVEN DISTRICT MINISTERS TO CONDUCT GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

Seven Community ministers will participate in the Three Hour Service in the First United Presbyterian Church on Good Friday, April 7 from 12 o'clock noon to three p. m. The Burgettstown District churches are uniting this week for pre-Easter services. There has been no official announcement of business houses closing for this service, as has been the custom in past years, but members of the Clergy are desirous that the Merchants of the district permit their employes to attend all or part of the three hour service. Rev. W. J. McCashin, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church will conduct a three hour service from 12 to 3 in Lourdes church on Good Friday, in accordance with his usual custom.

Protestant churches will unite for Preparatory service in the 1st Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time Rev. Jadob Ruble will speak. On Thursday evening a Union Communion service will be held in the Westminster Presbyterian church and Rev. Van Inwegan will speak.

The program for the three-hour service at the First United Presbyterian church will be as follows:

12 m.-"Betrayed and Seized in the Garden," Rev. R. C. Sutton.

12:50 p. m. "The Denial of Peter - In The Courtyard", Rev. Rufus Williams.

1:45 p. m.-"Thorns and Scourging-In the Judgment Hall," Rev. R. L. Biddle.

2:35 p. m.-"The Crucifixion-Golgotha," Rev. Frank Ritz.

An offering plate will be placed in the rear of the church for contributions, and all moneys received in excess of expenses for the service will be given to the Red Cross. An atmosphere of solemn reverence and devotion will prevail throughout the service.

90 MEN ATTEND FELLOWSHIP MEET

About ninety men gathered about the long tables in the First United Presbyterian Church last Thursday evening to enjoy an excellent dinner served by the women of that church and to hear a message by Dr. Joseph S. Maxwell of Fairmont, W. Va. The men came from about nine churches in Burgettstown, Langeloth, Florence, Robinson, Midway, and Hickory, and the dinner was under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and planned by the Rev. R. C. Sutton, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. Mr. Thomas Trimmer, assisted by Mrs. Trimmer at the piano, directed a men's chorus in the singing of two numbers, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" and "Dear Land of Home."

Dr. Maxwell, now an eye specialist in Fairmont, served for fourteen years as a medical missionary of the United Presbyterian Church in the Sudan and Ethiopia, leaving the latter land in 1933 before its conquest by Italy. He addressed the men on the theme, "The Gold of Sheba" and told of his medical treks into that part of Ethiopia which in ancient times furnished gold for King Solomon and still is producing the precious metal, samples of which he exhibited. He recalled the Bible reference to the gifts which the Queen of Sheba brought when she came to see the glory of Solomon: gold and spices and precious stones. He explained the value and significance of these presents, the fine gold signifying character, the spices or incense denoting prayer, and the precious stones speaking of healing powers which primitive peoples attribute to them. Out of a rich missionary experience he told many stories of the achievements of the gospel work in discovering the fine gold hidden in heathen hearts in dark Africa. Those who heard him were given a new appreciation of the work of Christian missionaries among primitive peoples and will long remember this missionary doctor's interesting message.

Y. M. C. A. for Burgettstown

The men's organization, which was recently organized with R. C. Cassidy president, T. H. Huber and J. M. Pyle vice-presidents and C. A. Hamilton and L. M. Davies secretaries, held their first meeting in the First United Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A short song service was held, with H. M. Roy leader and H. K. Brumbaugh organist, after which prayers were offered by Rev. G. R. Steele, T. H. Huber and C. A. Hamilton. President Cassidy then called upon Rev. R. H. McCartney to outline the purposes and work of the organization. Mr. McCartney stated that the work, as he saw it, was to converse the energy gathered in the recent evangelistic campaign. He pointed to the attendance at all the morning preaching services, and to the lack of profanity on our streets, as some of the great results of the meetings. The thing for the men to do was to try to maintain this high order of things. It will be so easy for some to slip back into their old ways; the men should stand as a body against the devil and his wiles and help the weak brother. Mr. McCartney then suggested that one of the best things the men could do was to organize a Y. M. C. A., where the young people could go for reading and recreation instead of loafing on the streets. The suggestion was heartily received and everyone called upon expressed himself as being heartily in favor of the movement. Dr. S. L. McCullough, of Crafton, was present and spoke of the great change he had noted in Burgettstown as a result of the meetings. He said that he knew of no better way to conserve these results than by establishing a Y. M. C. A., and stated that if the project was taken up and the men showed that they meant business he would contribute $300 to the fund. He also stated that there was no reason why Burgettstown should not have a Carnegie free library, and he believed they could get it. Revs. G. R. Steele and G. W. Snodgrass and Prof. G. R. Norris expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the Y. M. C. A., as did practically every business man present.

On motion a committee, consisting of Rev. R. H. McCartney, J. P. Linn and W. G. Cramer, was named to confer with the state authorities in regard to an organization. This committee has arranged to have a well-known Y. M. C. A. worker address the men of Burgettstown in a meeting to be held in Westminster Presbyterian church' next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CHURCHES UNITE FOR REVIVAL MEETINGS

REV. RICHARD L. ROBINSON

The Burgettstown Ministerium has arranged for a series of Union Evangelistic meetings to be held in the First United Presbyterian church, beginning Tuesday evening, April 17 and continuing through Sunday evening, April 29. The services will be held at 7:45 each evening and the public is invited to attend.

Rev. Richard L. Robinson, Pastor-Evangelist of Bay Ridge Baptist church at Brooklyn, N. Y., will preach each evening and Rev. Arthur Luther will direct the music.

Preceding the opening of the evangelistic campaign, a union service will be held in the First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, April 15 at 7:45 at which time Rev. G. E. Kutz of Florence will preach. Rev. Flurkey will fill Rev. Kutz's pulpit at Frankfort Springs that evening. On Monday evening, April 16 at 7:45 o'clock a union service will be held in the United Presbyterian church with a sermon by Rev. Frank Ritz

SEVEN DISTRICT MINISTERS TO CONDUCT GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

Seven Community ministers will participate in the Three Hour Service in the First United Presbyterian Church on Good Friday, April 7 from 12 o'clock noon to three p. m. The Burgettstown District churches are uniting this week for pre-Easter services. There has been no official announcement of business houses closing for this service, as has been the custom in past years, but members of the Clergy are desirous that the Merchants of the district permit their employes to attend all or part of the three hour service. Rev. W. J. McCashin, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church will conduct a three hour service from 12 to 3 in Lourdes church on Good Friday, in accordance with his usual custom.

Protestant churches will unite for Preparatory service in the 1st Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time Rev. Jadob Ruble will speak. On Thursday evening a Union Communion service will be held in the Westminster Presbyterian church and Rev. Van Inwegan will speak.

The program for the three-hour service at the First United Presbyterian church will be as follows:

12 m.-"Betrayed and Seized in the Garden," Rev. R. C. Sutton.

12:50 p. m. "The Denial of Peter - In The Courtyard", Rev. Rufus Williams.

1:45 p. m.-"Thorns and Scourging-In the Judgment Hall," Rev. R. L. Biddle.

2:35 p. m.-"The Crucifixion-Golgotha," Rev. Frank Ritz.

An offering plate will be placed in the rear of the church for contributions, and all moneys received in excess of expenses for the service will be given to the Red Cross. An atmosphere of solemn reverence and devotion will prevail throughout the service.

Suttons Honored By U. P. Congregation

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Sutton and family were honor guests at a farewell social given by members of the United Presbyterian Church last Friday evening. Over 200 members and their families were present. The evening's program consisted of several musical numbers and a reading by Mrs. Gladys McCormick. The double duet including Mrs. Edward Welsh, Miss Phyllis Evans, Lois Cuervo and Mrs. Gaylord Malone, sang "Green Cathedral" and "Home". A trio, composed of Phyllis Evans, Mrs. Gaylord Malone and Rev. Leslie VanInwegen sang "Cleanse Me". The last stanza included farewell words to the Suttons. Mrs. Earl Lawson sang "Bless This House".

Harold Malone served as master of ceremonies. Rev. Leslie VanInwegen and Rev. R. M. McCracken of Langeloth made appropriate remarks.

A purse of $650 was presented to the Suttons by the congregation. Other special gifts were given by various organizations and included a quilt from the Ladies Aid, lace table cloth from the primary department, mirror from the J.O.Y. class and choir, one half dozen percale sheets and pillow slips from the Slovan mission, and a shirt and tie for Rev. Sutton from the Brownlee class. The Suttons have also received a number of personal gifts.

Refreshments were served with the honor guests seated at a table with elders of the church and their wives. The group included Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Russell, Harold Malone and his mother, Mrs. Mollie Malone, Clarence Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McKinney, Joseph M. McClurg and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Cowden.

Pictures of the choir and session were taken during the evening.

FIRST U. P. CHURCH

The congregation now known as the United Presbyterian church of Burgettstown, belonged originally to the Associate Presbyterian branch of that church. It is now impossible to fix the date of its organization, if indeed it was ever formally organized. But it first appears as a congregation about the year 1800, at which time it was supplied with preaching, in connection with the congregation of Hickory, by the Associate presbytery of Chartiers. The Rev. Dr. William C. Brownlee took charge of it in connection with Hickory about the year 1800. This pastorate continued about three and one-half years, when he left for Philadelphia, and afterwards removed to New York, where he united with the Dutch Reformed church. The next pastor was Rev. Alexander Donnan, from Ireland, who had charge of it in connection with the congregation of Hickory at a salary of $500 from June 1, 1818, to June 6, 1840. He relinquished at that time the charge of Burgettstown to give his whole time to Hickory. The congregation continued without a pastor until 1845, when the Rev. Robert J. Hammond, who had been settled in Albany, N. Y. became their pastor, at a salary of $350, which was afterwards increased to $400. He resigned and was released in the year 1857. The Rev. S. H. Graham, the next pastor, commenced his labors among them in April, 1862, and was ordained and installed their pastor August 12th of that year. In 1868, Mr. Graham accepted a call from a congregation in New York and was released. In the same year the Rev. John Hood accepted their call and became their pastor. The pastorate continued until April, 1878, when he resigned and was released. The Rev. D. W. Carson was installed in October, 1878.

The first elders whose names appear on the roll of the session (though without record of the time of their election or installation) are John Coventry, William Bailey, from York county, Pa., Joseph Philles, William Donaldson from, Ireland, Nathan Porter, William Smith, James Brown, James Leech and James Keys. In 1819, John McBurney, A. Hunter and Robert Harvey were ordained as elders. In 1837, Joseph McNary, William Wilson, Samuel Livingston and Joshua Pyles. In 1839, William Galbraith, Sr., William Caldwell and James McCalmont. In 1851, Samuel B. Shillito and John Ferguson. In 1863, Robert Scott and James McNary, who were received from the congregation of Mount Vernon at its dissolution, were chosen and installed, together with John Keys, William Witherspoon, M. R. Welsh and W. R. Galbraith, who were also ordained at the same time.

The earliest roll of members extant though it is without date, numbered sixty-two members, with the following family names: Andrews, Brown, Cavert, Coventry, Donaldson, Ferguson, Keys, Leech, Nelson, Philles and Smith. The roll of members in 1876 numbered two hundred and twenty. In consequence of some difficulties in which the congregation became involved through a heavy debt contracted in building a new house of worship, quite a number of members left about that time. These difficulties were also the occasion of the resignation and release of Mr. Hood in 1878. The first house of worship, like that of all the churches in the same region at that time, was a cabin of unhewed logs seated with slabs. During the summer season the congregation usually worshiped in the open air, a wooden tent serving as a pulpit for the minister. On the 13th of October, 1826, Robert Coventry, Robert Tenan and Thomas Philles, trustees of Associate congregation of Burgettstown, purchased one acre and one hundred and twelve perches of land of James Miller, it being the ground on which the church was erected. In 1845, the date of Mr. Hammond's settlement, a neat and substantial frame building 54x44 feet and 16 feet in height, was erected at a cost of $1040 in money, besides the lumber from the old building. This building was located about half a mile east of the village. In 1873 the present house was erected, at a cost of about $27,000.

FLORENCE

Twenty-eight new members were taken in at the Presbyterian church here last Sunday, due to the Peacock meetings. A congregational meeting was held after the services and a committee, consisting of H.W. Scott, D. M. McConnell, E. O. Fullerton and Ernest Munger, was appointed to confer with a committee from Frankfort Presbyterian church in regard to uniting the two congregations. Another meeting will be held next Sunday after services, at which the committee will report.

Cassidy Attends Synod Of Trinity

Executors and lay people of the Presbyterian Church attended the 271st annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of the Trinity at Wilson College, Chambersburg, May 31 to June 3.

Robert C. Cassidy of the Florence Presbyterian Church was among the 160 commissioners from 16 of the presbyteries representing 1,396 Presbyterian congregations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the Upper Ohio Valley with a communicant membership of 382,827.

Meeting under the theme "Celebrate The Journey," the regional church governing body marked the 200th anniversary of its parent denomination, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

During its four-day meeting, the synod considered and acted on reports from its various units, ranging from its mission outreach through its presbyteries and ongoing programs in evangelism and church growth, to concerns for economic and racial justice within its bounds and globally.

On the agenda was a resolution strongly opposing racism in both the church and society and which called on making the elimination of racism the synod's number one priority during the period from 1988 to the year 2000. Also to be considered was a proposal supporting Federal legislation sanctioning South Africa.

An opening service of Holy Communion was conducted by the Rev. Susan E. Vande Kappelle, outgoing moderator of the synod.

Daily worship services were led by the Rev. F. Morgan Roberts, pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian Church, Pttsburgh. Dr. Roberts is a noted preacher and an advocate on behalf of disabled and mentally handicapped persons, and of troubled youths in the Pittsburgh area.

Florence Presbyterian celebrates 200th

By Melanie R. Mars, Staff Writer

FLORENCE — During the 1700s a group of stout-hearted men and women traveled westward and forged a life for themselves out of the wilderness that they cleared.

In those harsh times, those that settled in the northwest section of Washington County, which was at the time of section of Virginia, met on Sundays in a log structure near the crossroads of the Pittsburgh and Washington roads. They met to pray together after working all week in the fertile fields. While the men and women worshipped inside, two or three of the men stood guard against the Indians.

Next weekend, the members of the Florence Presbyterian Church will celebrate the church's 200th anniversary of the church with a three-day celebration.

From the small congregation have come lawyers, teachers and ministers. One of the congregation's members, Dr. Ross Stevenson followed Woodrow Wilson as President of Princeton University.

The first official minister of the church was the illustrious Reverend Elisha MacCurdy who came to Florence Presbyterian Church in 1799. For the preceding 12 years, the church had no settled minister.

The log meeting house where MacCurdy preached was situated near the highest point of elevation in Washington County so that members could watch for Indians, who were not on good terms with the settlers.

On a clear day, one can see the smokestacks in Shippingport in Beaver County from where the original church was located.

Before coming to Florence, MacCurdy was licensed to preach at the Upper Buffalo church. MacCurdy was born Oct. 15, 1763, in Carlisle. He was the third of 12 children born to John and Mary Fox MacCurdy.

With the outbreak of the Revolutionary War and the misfortune of his father, who had lost all of his worldly goods, MacCurdy took on the work of helping to support his family.

He had salvaged his father's team of horses and wagon and was determined to return the family to a respectable financial situation. He began his own freight route to the east coast transporting goods and groceries. In eighteen months, he had earned enough to buy a farm from which the family was able to support itself.

At the age of 33, MacCurdy, who was studying to become a preacher, married Sarah Briceland, whose father, Thomas, was formerly of Carlisle.

It was early in his ministry at Florence, then called Crossroads, that the famous revival season reached its peak. The pious and curious would gather in Florence from miles around to hear MacCurdy preach at sessions that would last weeks at a time.

His place in history as one of the great revivalists in the ministry began when he refused to say a blessing at a funeral where those gathered had been drinking whiskey.

It had been the custom in the early 1800s to drink whiskey at funerals. MacCurdy was an unwavering enemy of the intoxicating drink. The following Sunday, he gave a fiery sermon entitled "Whiskey at a Funeral."

He was also successful in abolishing the serving of spirits at meetings of the Presbytery.

MacCurdy is buried in the small cemetery across from the Florence Presbyterian Church. In addition, there are 14 men who served in the Revolutionary War and one man who served in the Civil War.

Plaques were obtained from the Veterans Administration to replace the fading limestone tombstone markers of the graves. On Saturday, Aug. 2, the Burgettstown Veterans of Foreign Wars along with church members will hold a rededication service.

The service will begin at 10 a.m. in the church, which will be followed by a tour of the Florence Cemetery at 10:30 a.m. A.D. White, a local historian, and Agnes Kreutzberg of Cleveland, Ohio, who has written a book on the cemetery, will be in attendance.

On Friday, Aug. 1, the Weirton Steel Men's Chorus will perform at 7:30 p.m. at the church. The three-day celebration will wind down with a service at 11 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 3, when the Rev. Wallace Rummel, a former minister of the church, will speak. The Rev. Clarejean Haury, the current minister and first woman minister, will conduct the service. A dinner will follow the service.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by contacting Edith Cassidy.

The physical appearance of the church has changed through its 200 year history from the first tent erected to the present brick structure.

The first meeting house of the congregation had no windows or doors. It was lighted from the roof and was entered by an underground passage because of the ever-present hazard of hostile Indians.

The present church building, which is located across the street from the original location of the church, was built in 1964 after a fire destroyed the 118-year-old building in February 1963.

The red-brick building, which was built in 1845, was gutted by fire on a below 6 degree Fahrenheit winter night, according to Paul Blaine and Thomas Moore, members of the church.

Only three walls were left standing. In addition to the carefully handmade red bricks, the building had beautiful, blue stained glass windows.

After the shock of the fire began to settle, the 162-member congregation began to think of money-making projects to rebuild the church.

They struck upon the idea of selling the remaining bricks of the church after Thomas E. Millsop, chairman of National Steel Corporation purchased 3,200 bricks.

The bricks, which were handmade by members of the congregation with materials in the Florence area and left in the sun to bake, were transported to Lexington, Ky., where they were used to build a patio for George Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury during the Eisenhower administration.

The congregation's determination to rebuild after the fire of 1963 was summed up by Blaine at the time.

He said, "The remark was made, after our recent loss by fire, that now the church was gone and there was nothing left. How false this was. True, we lost a historic building. But the ideals for which the church stands are never lost... Although small in number our church accepts the same challenge that existed in Florence 200 years ago. We will rebuild our church."

The first service was held on Easter, April 18, 1965, in the new church building.

Although the congregation has not grown in numbers, it has grown through community outreach programs such as its annual Halloween party for the community; the clothes closet, which provides free used clothing to those in need, and its support of the Burgettstown Area Food Pantry.

Built in 1845, this structure was destroyed by fire in 1963.

Completion Date Set For Early 1965

As part of the morning worship service at the Florence Presbyterian Church, a groundbreaking ceremony was held, signifying the beginning of a project that will reach full realization early in 1965.

A new Florence Church, replacing that which was destroyed by fire in February in 1963, will soon go into construction. Estimated at a cost of $88,339 the church will be under the general construction contract of Sidney DeVos, of McDonald, with Raymond Hodge, of Florence, as the electrical contractor. Leonard Mankowski will be the architect.

Excavation, under the supervision of David B. Miller, of Florence, will begin this week.

The new church will be located across Route 22 from the ruins of the old building, and will be adjacent to the parsonage.

Rev. David L. Hare, pastor of the Robinson United Presbyterian Church, has served as stated supply pastor of the congregation since November of last year, when the Rev. David Foresman accepted a new call.

Church services, following the fire, were held in the Hanover Township school, and then were transferred to the manse.

This sign dedicated to Elisha McCurdy, a former pastor of the Florence Presbyterian Church, can be found along Route 22 near the church.

A Prayer For The Church

"O God, Creator of heaven and earth, who hast called us together into the fellowship of Thy Church, we praise thee for thy great goodness. Continue thy favor upon this congregation of thy people into whose hearts thou hast placed the desire to erect a temple to thy glory. Bless and prosper the building of this church. Grant the protection of thy constant care that not one of those who labor upon it shall suffer injury during its construction. Give thy people here a new sense of commitment that they may come together for worship and nurture and go forth as Witnesses of the Redeeming Power of thy Son to all the children of men beginning here and to the uttermost parts of the earth. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen."

CHURCH NEWS

The Florence Presbyterian Church held a successful shower for the church kitchen on April 25. A family dinner was served. Entertainment was provided by Matthew and Amy Lintz and Janie Gabler, who performed a skit, and by Sean Lintz, who played the trumpet, accompanied on the piano by his grandmother, Betty Lintz. Everyone joined in a sing-along and the playing of several games.

Florence Church Bicentennial cookbooks can be ordered by contacting Sarah Morris at 729-3508. The Bicentennial committee is planning a flea market in June. At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Day Out Group, the women decided to sell greeting cards and Christian books. Lois Pavlik, Margaret McCutcheon and Mona McCutcheon are in charge.

FLORENCE CHURCH HAS HOMECOMING

Full Day of Unusual Gatherings Marks Yesterday in Celebration of 150th Anniversary of Church.

ORIGINAL SITE IS VISITED

FLORENCE, Aug. 13. — Today, "Homecoming Day," was a big day in the 150-year celebration of the Florence Presbyterian Church.

The day began with a homecoming meeting in the church in the morning, at which a homecoming organization was formed. D. C. Fulton was elected president; Miss Elizabeth Potts, George Saxton, E. O. Fullerton and W. C. Culley were named vice presidents; Mildred Jackson and Clara Reed Craft, secretaries; Roy Peterson, treasurer, and Mary McCarrell, assistant treasurer.

The pastor, the Rev. R. L. Biddle, D. D., presided at the meeting, at which the address of welcome was given by John Virtue. W. L. Moore, of McDonald, made a fitting response. An original poem, "Homecoming Day," was read by its author, Mrs. Marguerite Park Biggs.

Letters of greetings were read from the moderator of the General Assembly, Dr. Henry Masters, of Philadelphia; the moderator of the Pennsylvania State Synod, Dr. J. C. Mackie, of Philadelphia, and from the moderator of the Washington Presbytery, the Rev. George S. Maxwell, of Waynesburg.

Greetings were read from sons of the church who are in the ministry, and a list of such sons of the church was read, with 24 names. Of these, David F. Graham and Wilson Montgomery Stitt made addresses, and there were letters from others. Another who spoke was George W. Fulton, a missionary home from Japan. Mrs. Elizabeth Potts, of Burgettstown, spoke of the missionary life of the church, and told of the reception accorded the Rev. Mr. Fulton when he arrived there in 1889.

Dr. W. E. Slemmons, of Washington, and the Rev. R. E. Kaufmann, of Cross Creek, brought greetings from the Washington Presbytery.

Early in the afternoon a pilgrimage, with 30 cars, was made to the site of the original church at Kings Creek, three miles from Florence. Here the group visited the old burying ground and held a service, with songs and a prayer and an address by "Squire" T. W. McDonald, who lives nearby.

After the service a reminiscent program was held in the church, with many former members and friends of the church telling of the experiences of former years.

A unique feature was an antique display, with a wide variety of articles, some of them more than 200 years old. There were old Bibles and books, old papers, spinning wheels, old bedspreads, linen woven a century ago by women of the community, and many other interesting articles.

A picnic dinner was another fine feature, with the large crowd gathered in groups under the shade trees about the church. There were many family circles, with visiting friends as guests.

Tonight was Neighborhood Night. A male choir organized for the occasion by members of the congregation furnished splendid music, as did an orchestra formed of young folks of Florence and Burgettstown.

Mrs. Elizabeth Potts, of Burgettstown, a sister of Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, and a daughter of the Florence manse, spoke, giving many reminiscences. Her talk was exceedingly interesting and much enjoyed. Mrs. Marguerite Park Biggs gave another reading. Graham S. Campbell, of the church at McDonald, brought greetings from that congregation.

Friday night will be Evangelistic Night, with a message by the Rev. J. V. Stevenson, of Raccoon. The sermon will be preparatory to the communion service which will be held Sunday at 11 o'clock.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT FLORENCE CHURCH

In an extended program of services in connection with the celebration of the 145th anniversary of the formation of the Florence Presbyterian church congregation at Florence, a preparatory sermon will be delivered in the church tomorrow (Friday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. Harry M. Peterson of Eldersville.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated and there will be a reception of members. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the anniversary sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Edward Culley of Pittsburgh. A cordial invitation is extended all people of the surrounding community to attend these services.

The ministerial association of the district will have a part in the exercises attending the anniversary proceedings of this old church organization. The following are the officers of this association: Rev. Wilson Stitt, Ph. D., Florence, president; Rev. Paul Hazlett, Avella, secretary-treasurer.

CHURCH HISTORY WELL PRESENTED

Large Crowd Attends Service

bration at Florence—Pil-

TONIGHT IS MEN'S NIGHT

FLORENCE, Aug. 11.—An audience much larger than expected tonight attended the Historical Night program held in connection with the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Florence Presbyterian Church. They heard the Rev. E. B. Welch, of Coraopolis, church historian, in a masterly discussion of the beginnings of Presbyterianism in this region.

The Rev. Mr. Welch discussed to some extent the lives of the Rev. Elisha McCurdy, founder of the Florence congregation, and the Rev. John McMillan and their influence on Western Pennsylvania. He also spoke of Philip Jackson, the "praying elder," and discussed the origin of the Florence church.

A great-granddaughter of the "praying elder" was in the congregation tonight. She is Miss Elizabeth Jackson, of Florence, a member of the present congregation.

The speaker also discussed the history of Presbyterianism in the United States.

The Rev. J. V. Stevenson, of Bulger, participated in the devotions tonight, and the Rev. J. M. Leister, of Burnham, a former pastor of the church, offered the closing prayer and pronounced the benediction.

The Rev. Mr. Leister and the Rev. J. Wilson Stitt, of Rogersville, also a former local pastor, will speak at the Men's Night program tomorrow night, and other former pastors who can not be present will be represented by letters. A male choir and male quartet will sing.

A fine day is expected Thursday, when a pilgrimage will be made to the site of the original church at King's Creek, where a service will be held in the abandoned graveyard; a homecoming service will be held at 10 o'clock in the church, and Neighborhood Night will be the evening feature.

Hymn Sing Held At Francis Mine

Rev. Lee E. Speer conducted the Hymn Sing in the church at Francis Mine, Sunday, with eighty-five in attendance from ten neighboring churches. Rev. Speer is pastor of the church. Drexel Baker, of the Ebenezer Church of God, led the congregational singing.

Several special selections were enjoyed, from many of the churches represented. Miss June Campbell was pianist. Churches answering to a roll call of churches were: Avella Free Methodist, Ebenezer Church of God, Canonsburg Nazarene, Atlasburg Nazarene, Bethel Methodist, Eldersville Methodist, West Middletown Christian, Tucker Methodist, Christian Church of North America, Burgettstown, and the host church.

The tenth and last in the current series of sings will be held next Sunday in the Lower Buffalo Presbyterian church, Independence. A planned program is being arranged by the Hymn Sing committee, Morris Knabenshue, Kathryn Slasor and June Campbell. It will consist of special selections most requested from the hymn sings of the past nine weeks. The sing will begin at 3 p. m.

Frankfort Springs Presbyterian Church

In the center of Frankfort Springs, at one time stood a frame house of worship, the Presbyterian Church. It was organized around 1834, with the help of Rev. Elisha McCurdy, well known pioneer preacher of the day. The church had its roots in Florence. The building shown in this picture carries the date, 1835.

In 1958, two denominations merged to become the United Presbyterian Church of USA. This national merger became one congregation in 1966. Both buildings were used on a rotating basis until 1968. At that time it was decided to use only one building, the brick church at the north end of town. The frame church was demolished, with only the graveyard remaining at the site.

FRANKFORT U.P. CHURCH

The Junior High Youth Fellowship meets on Sundays at 7 p.m. at the church. The Prayer and Bible Study Group has begun the study and discussion of the Lord's Supper. Meetings are held from 7 to 8 p.m. on Tuesdays with Student Pastor Westfall.

The Junior High Youth Group prepared and served a Sweetheart's Dinner on Valentine's Day at the church. A choice of lasagna or baked chicken was offered to the 13 couples who attended and the eight take-out orders. Debbie McMillan, Michelle DiBacco and Vicki Stiteler greeted the guests as they arrived. Serving as waitresses and waiters were Sherry Linger, Susan Growden, Wendy Patterson, Lisa Kehm, Dana Windsheimer, P. J. D'Arcangelo, Richard Mitchell and Mike Cohan. Babysitting was provided by Kelly Mitchell, Cheryl Kerfoot and Rainie D'Arcangelo. The youths were assisted in the meal preparations by their leaders, Sherry and Ken Mercer and Tom Westfall, and by Eleanor Kirsch, Pam Westfall, Debbie Simpson, Darlene Souchak, Kay Kehm, Shirley Smitsky and Tiny Kerfoot. The youths are now planning a yard sale to be held at the church on April 20.

A reception was held after church services on Feb. 24 to welcome new church members, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne S. Hyatt and children, Wayne Allen, Karen and Melinda.

The Frankfort United Presbyterian Church Children's Hour Program ended for the summer vacation after the session on May 14. The children have been learning about the Bible through puppet plays and from Mr. Carbuncle, a puppet who teaches them the weekly Bible verse. Puppet programs have also been presented on safety and nutrition. The children have learned new songs and games in the Children's Hour this year.

The Youth Group of the Frankfort U.P. Church joined with the youth from Service Presbyterian Church to go roller skating on April 13 at the Melody lanes. On April 19, they were invited to a 50's-60's dance at the Frankfort Grange Hall, sponsored by the Tucker United Methodist Church.

The pastor nominating committee members — Betty Patterson, Chris Kelly, Kenneth Mercer, Barry Lewis, Debbie McMillan, Ben Windsheimer and Gladys Martin — met with Jean Henderson of the Presbytery Committee on Ministry on April 3. The session met on April 8 and made plans for the Vacation Bible School. The Willing Workers held a spring luncheon on April 18.

Hillcrest Women's Association Meets

The Womens Association of the Hillcrest United Presbyterian Church held its meeting Thursday, September 10 in Fellowship Hall of the church at 6:30. Members of Circles 2 and 5 were the hostesses for the evening.

Miss Gloria Bond led the devotions, after which the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Raymond Caldwell. The first topic of business was the call for donations for the Presbyterian Home in Washington which is to be taken there September 24. Mrs. Glenn Stottlemeyer is in charge. It was also announced that the Hillcrest United Presbyterian Church would be host for the Washington Presbytery to be held in November and the assistance of the Womens Association was requested.

It was also decided that instead of a fall dinner, a basket would be sent house to house among the members of the church.

The election of the Executive Board for 1965 was held, with representatives of the Session counting the votes.

Those who were elected to the Executive Board, and will be installed in the December Womens' Association Meeting were: President, Mrs. Lois Wagner; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Betty Grimes; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Marion Holt; Secretary, Mrs. June Stevenson; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Shirley Marcucci; Financial secretary, Mrs. Grace Allison and Treasurer, Mrs. Lucille Welch.

Following the business meeting, Miss Katherine Pyle showed slides and gave a talk of the many interesting places that she had seen in her trip to Ireland this past summer.

Hillcrest United Presbyterian Church Burgettstown, PA

During a period of about fifteen years from 1828-1830 petitions had gone up to Washington Presbytery praying for the organization of a Presbyterian Congregation in the town of Burgettstown; but they refused mainly on account of the opposition of Rev. John Stockton, D.D., pastor of the Cross Creek Congregation, who claimed that Burgettstown was in the bounds of his congregation and that it never would be self-supporting. (1)

A Presbyterian Sunday School had been in existence since 1833 and the first Church was the outgrowth of it. In 1845, a Presbyterian Church was built inside the Cemetery lot on the hill up East Pittsburgh Street, where the old cemetery is located. It was 52 x 45 ft. in size and cost approximately $1, 300.

In connection with the congregation of Cross Roads (Florence) a part of the services of Rev. Joel Stonerod were enjoyed here as the people of Presbyterian faith of this community were members of the Cross Roads Church.

An application was again made to the Presbytery of Washington praying for the organization of a Congregation. After considerable difficulty, the organization was granted and the Rev. Joel Stonerod was appointed by Presbytery to organize the Burgettstown congregation. The date was October 18, 1849. Certificates of dismissal were given to sixty (60) members from Florence to attach themselves to the new congregation. In 1851, a petition to the Court of Common Pleas of Washington County signed by eight prominent Presbyterian citizens, was presented saying they were desirous of acquiring the power and immunities of a Corporation in law under the name and style of Burgettstown Presbyterian Church. On February 22, 1854, the Court declared the charter be recorded in the Recorder's Office.

On April 4, 1850, a call was extended to Rev. James P. Fulton. On October 2, 1850, he was ordained and installed. He served until April, 1957. The pulpit remained vacant until a call was accepted by the Rev. James Turner Fredericks on April 21, 1858. He was installed October 26, 1858. During his ministry, which lasted 28 years, 816 names were added to the membership. The greatest number of members at one time was 445. The frame church was enlarged in 1860 and again in 1868. A larger building was evidently needed.

The present church was constructed by builder Wesley Smith on land owned and sold to the church by Rev. and Mrs. Fredericks for $1,243.75.

The building of red brick, half Goth is in architectural style, measured 60 x 90 ft. and cost about $20,000. On either side of the large front entrance of that day is the date 1874. Pews in the early days faced Highland Avenue end of the building and seated 700 or 800 people. Two long aisles led to the pulpit.

About 1900, a new pipe organ was purchased and the Auditorium remodeled. Two front entrances were constructed and the old balcony gave way to an arch for the pipe organ and choir, the entire congregation right about faced and turned its face towards the west. At the same time a vestibule was constructed at the rear of the church.

The bell in this church is said to have been cast in Philadelphia and to weigh 1,065 pounds. It was presented to the church by Dr. William Bradley in memory of his son William, who was killed in the Civil War.

In 1875, after the completion of the church, the old frame church on the hill was bodily into Burgettstown and relocated on Main Street where the Mary Ann Theater was later built. (Note: The theater was torn down in the early 1970's to make way for the John L. Brunner Memorial By-Pass. The theater was located near the north end of the by-pass.) It was used as an Auditorium or Town Hall. It was made unfit for use by the Flood of 1912. In my younger days, the old hall was used for school events such as literary contests, plays, dances etc. It was used by other groups as well.

In 1914, when I graduated from High School, our Commencement Exercises were held in the Sanctuary of this church.

Prepared by church member Lucille Culley Welch.

Langeloth Church Asks Contributions To Clear Mortgage

Miss Virgie Dold, treasurer of the Building Fund of the Langeloth United Presbyterian Community church is receiving contributions from members and friends of the congregation for a special campaign this month to raise $300 to apply on the church debt. September 15 has been set as the deadline for making the payment to the Board of American Missions of the United Presbyterian church.

The Langeloth church, with real estate property valued at 45,000 is carrying a debt of $1800. By a re-financing plan entered into with the Board of American Missions in 1938, when the church property was jeopardized by a threatened foreclosure of the mortgage, this debt is being cancelled at the rate of $300 per year. The Board of American Missions made the congregation a gift of $1800, and re-financed the balance of $1800, interest free, to be paid off in six years.

Sermon by Rev. Wm. M. Lorimer of Washington Pa.

The Langeloth Bible School enjoyed a basket picnic at Wells Farm, near Colliers, W. Va., last Wednesday, July 30. About 45 attended.

Rev. H. S. Giffen expects to attend the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association's leadership camp (Camp Kaneshake) near State College, Pa., August 10 to 16. He will be accompanied by Rev. J. C. Stormont of Venetia, Pa., and Miss Luella Felch of Burgettstown.

Plans for morning services during the rest of August are as follows:

August 10—Rev. W. M. Lorimer.

August 17—Rev. H. S. Giffen.

August 24—No preaching service.

August 31—Rev. George U. Martin of Detroit.

The Community Workers class have planned an outing at Rock Springs Park, Chester, W. Va., on Wednesday of this week.

Tent Church (near Colliers, W. Va.), will have its 11th annual Homecoming Day on Sabbath afternoon, August 31., with Rev. George U. Martin as the preacher. The service will begin at 2 p. m., d. s. t.

25th Anniversary Planned For Langeloth Church Pastor

REV. THOME

Dr. James L. Thome, pastor of the Langeloth Community Church, is observing the 50th anniversary of his ordination as a minister of the gospel.

On Wednesday, August 18, in the Langeloth Church at 7 p.m., the congregation is having a program and buffet lunch to honor Dr. Thome. 1965

The son of the Rev. J. L. Thome, former minister of Burgettstown, he attended public schools in Sardis, Westmoreland County; Washington and Jefferson Academy, Washington and Jefferson College and Monmouth College, Illinois.

He received his A. B. degree from Monmouth in 1911, was graduated from Pittsburgh Seminary in 1915 and was ordained on June 7, 1915. In 1933, he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Monmouth College.

During his college days he also was a reporter on three newspapers, the Monmouth Review, the Pittsburgh Press and the Pittsburgh Post.

His pastorates have included Clinton, Burgettstown, Oxford, Ohio, Cross Roads and Langeloth.

He was Moderator and Superintendent of Missions in Frankfort Presbytery, in Chartiers Presbytery twice and in First Ohio Presbytery. He was Moderator of the Second Synod of the United Presbyterian Church.

He also wrote "Sermonettes" and "Lesson Lights" for Bible Teacher, which replaced "Nails To Drive Home," written for many years by Dr. T. H. McMichael, of Monmouth College.

FAREWELL DINNER FOR REV. McCracken

Rev. R. M. McCracken was guest of honor at a farewell dinner given for him by his friends and church members of the Langeloth Community church on Wednesday evening at 6 p.m. Master of ceremonies was Phil Scott of Midway who later presented Rev. McCracken with an Elgin wrist watch as a gift from his friends. Each dinner table was centered with a vase of fall flowers and chrysanthemums. Eighty guests and friends were present.

Rev. McCracken retired, presented his last sermon Sunday, Oct. 29 and expects to move this week to Glen Willard where he will reside with his brother-in-law, Harry Turner.

Father and Son Banquet.

Nearly a hundred men and boys attended the fourth annual Father and Son banquet at Langeloth Church on Friday evening, John Steel, new president of the Men's Bible Class presided. The principal address was made by the Rev. Chas. Stunkard of Hickory. His address was entertaining and inspiring. R. E. Bucknam spoke for the fathers present and Clarence Patterson responded for the sons. Brief remarks were contributed by D. C. Wray, M. F. Warner and C. A. Hamilton. The musical part of the program was very fine, with vocal solos by Anderson Carmichael, violin solo by Sam Durst, and banjo and guitar numbers by Ralph Dold. That classic, "A Du Schone Schnitzelbank" was given an enthusiastic response when rendered by Messrs. Lukjohn, Dold, Durst, Nice and Willhoyte. The dinner was a wonderful affair of chicken and biscuits and things, served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. Mrs. Chas. Mester was chairman of the dinner committee.

EVANGELISTS POSE WITH F. H. ILLIG

The above picture of Rev. Robinson, Rev. Luther and the late Fred H. Illig was taken by Francis Buxton of Langeloth, on the steps of the Langeloth church, Sunday morning, December 2, just after the morning service. The evangelists were guests in the Illig home during their visit here.

THE HISTORY OF OUR CHURCH

Added to our historical sites in town, besides the school and the American Zinc Company, is the Langeloth Community Church. It, too, has much meaning behind it.

The first organized Christian work in this community was conducted by the Rev. C. L. McKee, of Washington, who was a representative of the American Sunday School Union. A Sabbath School was organized, the first meetings held in the old Langeloth Post Office. At the completion of Langeloth Center (School), which was for school and community purposes, the meetings, with the exception of meeting in the moving picture theater for a time, were then held at the school.

In 1915, Rev. G. W. Snodgrass was appointed as a Home Missionary by Washington and Frankfort Presbyteries to this section of the country to supervise the work. His term expired in the spring of 1917.

At this time, it was decided to call to enter services. Support was received from the Missionary Societies of the First Presbyterian, Westminster and the First and Second United Presbyterian Churches of Burgettstown, and the Young Peoples Christian Union of the Frankfort United Presbyterian Church.

In January of 1918, by appointment of the Women's Board of the United Presbyterian Church and under the supervision of the First U. P. Church of Burgettstown, Grace Welch Lieske was placed as a regular worker at Langeloth and Eastonville, which is now Slovan. At that time, there was no one in charge of the Langeloth Sabbath School, so Grace became superintendent.

Through visitation and the hearty cooperation of the people interested, things began to revive and preaching services were held frequently by different ministers. A Christian Endeavor Society was organized, and through this organization, funds were raised to have regular preaching services. In the fall of 1919, the services of Paul Miller, a senior at Pittsburgh Seminary, were secured until the following May. Under his ministry a temporary organization was formed - Mr. C. D. Patterson, president of the Christian Endeavor Society, presided. The official board that was elected included Albert Detweiler, J. S. Palin, F. F. Fuqua, E. C. McClelland, C. D. Patterson, B. F. Ashe, Mabel Hazlett and Grace Welch.

During the summer and fall of 1920, preaching services were conducted by Rev. D. L. Say, of Cross Creek.

In the spring of 1921 they saw the need of outside support for the permanent establishment of the church. It was voted by the organization to apply through Chartiers Presbytery to the Home Missions Board of the United Presbyterian Church for aid. The application was received. The Home Board immediately sent a representative, Rev. J. A. Alexander, Superintendent of Missions in the Pittsburgh Synod. With the cooperation of Rev. James L. Thome, who was then Superintendent of Missions in the Presbytery, arrangements were made for regular services, the Home Board paying $10 each Sabbath and the congregation paying $10. In July and August, the services of Rev. J. R. Lissenmyer, of West End Church, Pittsburgh, were secured. He held a week of evangelistic services at the local ball field. At the close of these meetings, on September 18, 1921, by appointment, the people assembled in the moving picture theater where they held services. A Communion service was held with a provisional session officiating. They were S. C. Malone, Dr. W. E. Dickson and Mr. Fairmen, of Burgettstown. An organization was effected with 38 members enrolled. The following trustees were elected: H. H. Dold, J.

W. Parham, O. A. Sanders, R. E. Bucknam, A. E. Hall, C. D. Patterson and J. H. Durst.

During the remainder of 1921 and part of 1922, Rev. Charles Vaughn and other Seminary students preached. Rev. George Krupp was sent here and remained until October of 1923.

On November 20, 1922, a Women's Missionary and Aid Society was formed by Miss Kate Hill, field secretary for the Women's Board. Mrs. R. E. Bucknam was elected president. The Missionary Society was to be held the first Thursday of the month and the Aid Society to be held the third Thursday of the month.

It was voted by the women's organization to deposit all money made in a savings account with the Washington National Bank of Burgettstown to be used as the church furniture fund for the new church, which seemed then to be a great way off. When it came time to use the money, the fund had reached $1100.

In June of 1923, Rev. T. A. Gibson, of Parnassus, and Dr. R. W. Nairn, of Midway, conducted a series of evangelistic services. A grant of $5000 was asked by Presbytery of the Board of Church Election, which was given. Not having a regular pastor made the project move slowly up until May of 1924. At this time, Rev. George U. Martin was appointed to the field and was joined in a few weeks by his wife.

The next step in the building program was to call a meeting of the Board of Trustees. A total of almost $5000 was received through pledges and donations.

Ground was broken on July 15, 1926, and the laying of the cornerstone took place on August 29, 1926. On April 23, 1927, the church was opened. The total cost was approximately $36,000.

At the congregational meeting held in March of 1927, N. T. Dodds, U. H. Duke, H. B. Purdy, Mrs. A. E. Hall and Miss Grace Welch were elected trustees. It was voted to incorporate under the name of the Langeloth Community Church, United Presbyterian. The charter was received from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on May 25, 1927.

Pastor Submits Resignation.

The resignation of the Rev. George Urquart Martin, for a long term of years pastor of the Community church at Langeloth, was submitted to the Session of Chartiers Presbytery held in the Peters Creek church at McMurray last week. The Langeloth pulpit will be declared vacant on April 28th, the Rev. Mr. Martin having accepted a call to the pastorate of the First United Presbyterian church at Detroit, Mich. The Rev. Mr. Martin has become a very impressive part of community life in and about Langeloth and Burgettstown and his leaving is viewed with deepest regret by members of his congregation and many friends around a wide area of the local countryside.

Service in Spanish.

The service conducted in the Spanish language at the Langeloth church on Sunday evening was well attended and very interesting. Edward A. Odell, Director of the Department of the West Indies of the Presbyterian Board of National Missions, led the service and spoke informally. Mr. Odell speaks Spanish fluently, having been pastor of a church in Havana for a number of years. The other speakers were the Rev. Francisco Quinones, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Santurce, Porto Rico; and the Rev. Ricardo Jorge, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Union De Reyes, Cuba. Hymnals had been secured from the Spanish Evangelical Church, New York, and the music was supplied by the speakers and a choir of girls.

Anniversary is Marked At Long Run Church

Sesqui-Centennial of Old Redstone Presbytery is Observed at Church Near Latrobe

Much interest has been manifested by people of the local community in the observance of the 150th anniversary of Old Redstone Presbytery, held last Monday at Long Run Church, near Latrobe. "Old Redstone" is outstanding as the first religious organization established in this immediate locality.

On September 19 and 20, 1781, four daring young ministers met in the Pigeon Creek Church, and organized the first Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, west of the Allegheny mountains.

They were the Rev. James Powers, who had been engaged in preaching and in organizing churches on the eastern side of the Monongahela river along the base of the Chestnut Ridge mountains; the Rev. John McMillan, who had organized the Pigeon Creek and Chartiers churches in Washington county; the Rev. Thaddeus Dodd who had organized the Upper and Lower Ten Mile churches, at Prosperity and Amity, and the Rev. Joseph Smith, who was pastor of the church at Buffalo Village.

This new Presbytery was authorized by the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, and was bounded on the east by the Allegheny mountains, on the south by Virginia on the north by Lake Erie and on the west by the setting sun.

The larger part of this territory at that time was "terra incognita" to the new settlers of the Continent.

New Pastor Installed.

The Rev. Robert J. Topping was installed last Friday night as pastor of the Lower Buffalo Presbyterian church at Independence, in a service that was well attended. Following the services the congregation tendered a reception to the new pastor and his family, who have recently moved there from Sawndale, W. Va.. The Rev. Paul Hazlett, of the Avella church, presided at the session and proposed the constitutional questions. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Donald M. Grant, D. D., of the Upper Buffalo Presbyterian church. The new pastor received the charge from the Rev. G. W. Pollock, D. D., former assistant pastor of the Second Church in Washington, and the Rev. James Hamilton, home missions superintendent of the Washington Presbytery, charged the congregation.

Concert at Mill Creek.

The senior vested choir of the Woodlawn Presbyterian church of Aliquippa, of which the Rev. Frank C. Ramsey is the pastor, will give a sacred concert in Mill Creek Presbyterian Church Friday evening, June 26th at 8 o'clock Standard time. The program will consist of solos, duets, ensembles, readings and instrumental numbers. The Woodlawn choir is one of the largest chorus groups of the county. Mrs. D. W. Whitehill is directress and Mrs. S. C. Moore accompanist.

which had been converted into a dormitory, in which they made their headquarters. Following morning devotions, the young folks loaded up the Jeep, and began their day’s work among the Indians.

This photo shows the group at work painting the fence around the Navaho cemetery. Previous to the painting project, they had rebuilt and repaired the fence. Because of the existing Navaho superstitions concerning death and burial, they refuse to enter the cemetery, much less maintain it. The nearby Mission is informed of any death among the Indians, and it is left in the hands of the Missionaries to bury the remains. The group here is giving the fence a coat of paint the approximate beige shade of the nearby desert, in order to camouflage it into natural surroundings. The fence had been painted a conspicuous white previously.

Following the painting project, the group planted shrubs and bushes in front of the fence, to further conceal any thoughts from the minds of the Indians, that evil spirits might lurk in the plot of land that is a burial ground for their dead.

The Washington Presbytery sponsored Summer Work Service Projects. came to a close this past week with the arrival home from the Southwest of the summer’s most extensive project.

Senior Highs participating in the Southwest Project were: Sue Campbell, Central Presbyterian Church, Washington; Betty Jane Gildow, Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian Church, Prosperity; Peggy McCreight, Second U. P. Church, Washington; Karen Pierrard, Center U.P. Church, Midway; Steve Post, Church of the Covenant, Washington; David Ross, Grove U.P. Church, West Middletown; Tim Wilson, Fairview Presbyterian Church, Thomas. Adult Advisors for the project were Rev. David Wallace, Grove U.P. Church, West Middletown, and Marion Henderson, Mt. Prospect Presbyterian Church, Hickory.

The purpose of the Southwest Project was to serve, visit, and study the Church’s work in that area with emphasis on the Navajo Reservation. The first major stop on the month-long trip was a visit at the First Presbyterian Church and Neighborhood House in Kansas City, Missouri, to study their Inner-City Work.

The group attended Church School and Church conducted by the National Council of Churches Park Ministry at Mesa Verde National Park in Southern Colorado.

At the Presbyterian mission, Ganado, Arizona, the group spent two weeks completing their work project consisting of painting, roofing, and general repair work on the Mission Campus. During the stay they had opportunity to study Christianity in Action through the Ministry, Teaching, Healing, and Community Services rendered at the Mission, under the direction of Dr. Joseph A. Poncel. Several Mission Out-posts were visited also.

On the return trip the group endured a hail and rain storm during their nine mile hike into the Grand Canyon, and had a chance to test their stamina during a dust, wind, and rain storm in Monument Valley. The group spent several days and nights camping in the Rockies, and visited the Campus of Sterling College, a Presbyterian College in Central Kansas.

Four such projects were sponsored by Washington Presbytery this year. In addition to the Southwest Project, groups from this area went to Camp Bohotam in up-state New York, Pittsburgh for Bible School and Street Recreation on the North Side; and Detroit to a Neighborhood House for Inner-City maintenance.

HOME COMING SERVICE AT PROSPECT CHURCH

Langeloth Pastor Preaches Sermon
at Mt. Prospect Church
This Evening

Plans for a Homecoming Day are being made by the Mt. Prospect United Presbyterian Church at Thomas, of which the Rev. H. Glenn Stephens is pastor. Next Sunday, will be known as Homecoming Day, when all former members and friends of the congregation are invited to return and attend the services, which will be marked by special features.

Communion will be observed at the morning worship period, and at the evening hour, the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. John S. Stoner, of Los Angeles, California, a former pastor of the congregation. The Rev. Mr. Stoner and family are spending their vacation with Pennsylvania friends.

Preparatory services to communion will be held in the church on Thursday and Friday nights, the sermon on Thursday evening to be delivered by the Rev. George U. Martin, of Langeloth, and the speaker on Friday night will be the Rev. Dr. H. Ross Hume of the Canonsburg United Presbyterian Church.

Many persons of Burgettstown and vicinity are planning to attend the Homecoming services at the old church and meet the Rev. Mr. Stoner who is well known throughout the local territory. The church is located near the forks of the road, at the Hickory intersection of route 18.

INSTALL NEW MINISTER IN CHURCH AT HICKORY

The Rev. C. S. Thomas is Formally Ordained as Minister of
Mt. Prospect Church

On Friday evening of last week the Rev. C. S. Thomas was ordained and formally installed as pastor of the Mt. Prospect Presbyterian Church at Hickory. For the occasion an adjourned meeting of the Washington Presbytery was held in the Hickory church. An audience of about 300 persons was present to witness the ceremonies.

The Rev. O. S. Fowler, moderator of the Presbytery, presided; the Rev. C. L. McKee, stated clerk, acted as secretary. The invocation was voiced by the Rev. R. E. Kaufmann, pastor of Cross Creek Presbyterian Church. Dr. J. B. Miller of Old Concord asked the customary questions and the sermon was delivered by the Rev. William Owen of Greensburg.

Following the ordination prayer, by the Rev. P. H. Hazlett, of Avella, there was the laying on of hands by the ministers present, including the Rev. Mr. Owen and the Rev. Charles Stunkard, of the Hickory United Presbyterian Church, who were elected corresponding members of the Presbytery that they might assist in the ceremony.

The Rev. G. N. Monroe, of West Alexander, charged the pastor, in a series of common sense suggestions. The congregation was charged by the Rev. J. S. Morledge, of the Third Presbyterian Church, Washington, who addressed his former congregation and spoke of their faithfulness in past years. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Thomas.

At the conclusion of the ceremonial the newly-installed pastor and his wife were tendered an informal reception by the members of the congregation, who offered felicitations and a cordial welcome.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION

Eighteen visiting Priests assisted at the solemn closing exercises of the Forty Hours' Devotion in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church, Monday night. These devotions, commemorating the forty hours our Lord's sacred body lay in the tomb after His crucifixion, opened the preceding Saturday morning and continued throughout Sunday and Monday. On Sunday night, the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Vincent Leonard of Woodville and on Monday night by the Rev. George Haber of St. Catherine's church, Beechview. Other Priests assisting during these three days were Rev. Joseph A. Burgoon, McDonald, Rev. Daniel P. Murphy, Weirton, W. Va., Rev. Martin Egan, Follansbee, W. Va.; Rev. H. J. Gilbert, Superintendent of St. Paul's Orphan Asylum; Rev. Joseph A. Lowrey, Carnegie; Rev. John P. O'Reilly, Noblestown; Rev. Leo Pastorius, Cecil; Rev. Aloysius Jurgutis and Rev. John McKenna, Bridgeville; Rev. Leonard Sculley, Washington; Rev. Philip Moore, McKees Rocks; Rev. Edward Zauber, Aliquippa; Rev. Thomas Dunn Uniontown; Rev. Francis Marin, St. Richard's; Rev. Vincent Rieland, St. Raphael's church; John Fennell, Most Blessed Sacrament church; Rev. John R. McKayney, S. John the Evangelist and Rev. Michael Costello, Chaplain St. Joseph's hospital, all of Pittsburgh. The boys and girls of the parochial school marched in solemn procession and carrying freshly cut flowers formed a triumphal arch through which the Blessed Sacrament was carried.

58 TAKE FIRST COMMUNION AT CATHOLIC MASS

At the nine-thirty Mass last Sunday in Our Lady of Lourdes church a class of twenty-two girls and twenty-six boys received their first Holy Communion. This class had been under daily instruction each morning for the preceding six weeks. In the sermon for the occasion, Rev. W. J. McCashin stressed the seriousness of the duty of parents to instruct their children not only by word but still more by example. "The father or mother who tells the child to go to church on Sunday and then remains away from church himself is teaching the child to serve God by his words and at the same time by his action, teaches the child to ignore God. The faithful father and mother will not be content to send their child to Divine Service but will accompany the child and by their example impress this duty of Divine Worship on the childish mind during its impressionable years," he said.

BISHOP BOYLE AND CLERGYMEN ATTEND CONFIRMATION SERVICE

In a church filled to capacity and before an altar banked with flowers the Most Reverend H. C. Boyle, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh last Friday at eleven o'clock conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation on a class composed of one hundred eighty-five children and some sixty adults, the class representing eleven different nationalities. Many more adults were prevented from attending due to the mines working at that hour. Services began promptly at eleven with the Rev. Father Paul E. Campbell, former Diocesan Superintendent of Parish Schools and now Pastor of St. Lawrence Church, E. E. Pittsburgh, preaching an instructive and appropriate sermon on the dignity and effects of the Sacrament. At the conclusion of the sermon, Bishop Boyle attended by twelve visiting Priests and the local Pastor, Rev. Father W. J. McCashin entered the church in solemn procession while the male choir sang the hymn "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" and then the hymn "Veni Creator Spiritus" (Come O Creator Spirit Blest). The following Priests assisted the Bishop: Very Rev. M. J. Hughes, and his assistant Rev. Leonard Sculley of Immaculate Conception Church, Washington, Rev. Joseph A. Burgoon, St. Alphonsus Church, McDonald, Rev. Charles M. Keane, St. Patrick Church, Noblestown, Rev. Frederick J. Mansmann, St. Michael Church, Avella, Very Rev. Philip Moore, St. Francis de Sales Church, McKees Rocks, Rev. Francis J. Bailey, assistant to Father Campbell at St. Lawrence Church, Pittsburgh, Rev. Joseph Lowney, St. Luke Church, Carnegie, Rev. Vincent Leonard, Chaplain Allegheny County Home, Woodville, and Reverend Daniel P. Murphy and Rev. James Tierney of St. Paul's Church.

At the conclusion of the hymn the Bishop extended his hands over those to be confirmed and prayed that they might receive the Holy Ghost with His seven gifts and as the class approached in groups of two attended by individual sponsors, they knelt before the Bishop who anointed the forehead of each with the oil of Holy Chrism and signed them with the sign of the cross and then gave to each candidate a slight blow on the cheek. The symbolism in the anointing and signing with the cross is that, no being enlisted as a soldier in the army of Christ the person confirmed must as a loyal soldier carry the cross, the standard of his leader constantly before his eyes throughout life and as a true soldier will follow their leader and the flag of his country through hardship and struggle. So too must the true soldier of Christ be faithful and loyal to his Divine Leader and His standard of battle—the cross unto the very death.

The slight blow on the cheek likewise reminds the candidate that he must now be ready as a good soldier to endure any hardship or persecution in the cause of His Savior. After bestowing his Apostolic blessing upon those assembled the Bishop in unison with the class recited the Apostles Creed, the Our Father and the Hail Mary and the services concluded with solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the singing of the "Te Deum" (Holy God We Praise Thy Name) by the entire class. The Sacrament was first conferred on that first Pentecost Sunday which the christian church commemorates this coming Sunday when the Holy Ghost came down upon the Apostles assembled in the small room in Jerusalem in fear and trembling—sheep without a shepherd after the crucifixion and subsequent Ascension into Heaven of their Shepherd. While gathered there came a noise as of the rustling of the leaves by the gentle zephyrs of the wind in spring time and there appeared parted tongues as it were of fire and set upon each one of them. It was the fulfillment of the promise made to them by their Leader before His Ascension into Heaven—"I will not leave you orphans.

BISHOP BOYLE TO OFFICIATE AT CONFIRMATION

The Most Reverent H. C. Boyle, Bishop of the Pittsburgh Diocese will pay his first visit to Burgettstown in four years on Friday morning, when 300 children and adults will present themselves for confirmation in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church. A number of visiting Clergy will assist Bishop Boyle and resident pastor, Rev. Father W. J. McCashin with the services, including Rev. Father Paul E. Campbell, former superintendent of Diocesan and Parish schools and now of the St. Lawrence Parish, Pittsburgh, who will deliver the sermon to the class.

Appropriate music will be furnished by the Men's choir, under the direction of Caesar Grocci.

The class will be composed of about 100 adults and 200 children who have reached the age of twelve years, since last Confirmation, four years ago. Girls in the class will wear white dresses and veils, to receive confirmation of baptismal vows made by their sponsors by the laying on of the hands of their Bishop.

Blessed Mother Is Crowned Sunday At Lourdes Church

The annual ceremony of the crowning of the Blessed Mother as May Queen took place in Our Lady of Lourdes Church Sunday afternoon at 3:30. In connection with this ceremony new members were received into the Young Ladies' Sodality.

Preceding the service, the Sodality marched as a group in solemn procession down the main aisle of the church. As the girls separated on each side of the aisle, candidates for admission filed between into their proper places. The girls formed a triumphal arch of honor with spring flowers beneath which the May Queen Vera Martin and her attendants marched to the main altar where the crown was blessed by Father W. J. McCashin and placed upon the statue of the Blessed Mother by the Queen.

In the name of all present, Miss Martin recited the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Mother. The group sang hymns appropriate for the occasion. Charlotte Pintar accompanied at the organ.

Miss Ann Plaza, Prefect of the Sodality presented the following candidates to Father McCashin, Spiritual director, as approved for membership into the Sodality: Thelma Gareis, Mary Foradori, Enace Raggi, Eileen Harshall, Basilides Mendez, Jean Gavatorra, Josephine Borio, Vera Boni, Elizabeth Pauchnik, Jennie Salvadori, Stella Oldak, Zelinda Tucci, Mary Ann Gavatorra, Anna May Kuritz, Celeste Mondin, Patricia Dinnen, Anna Pradette, Ilda Zamberlan, Elizabeth Castner, Gloria Gomez, and Rose Pasquale.

The sermon for the occasion on the Dignity of the Blessed Virgin was delivered by Rev. Father Raymond Buechel of St. Bede's Parish, Pittsburgh.

The Solemn Benediction was given by Rev. Father Francis Wivell of Avella assisted by Rev. Father Vincent Leonard of Woodville and Father Buechel.

The ceremonies closed with the singing of "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name" by the entire congregation. The following promoters of the Sodality acted as attendants: Betty Bebo, Dorothy Machek, Christine Mendez, Ann Gavatorra, Ann McGraw, Irvine Gusteau, Lillie Fiorelli, Lucille Panzica, Deflores Sedlar, Amalia Sciamanna.

BREAK GROUND FOR PAROCHIAL PLAYGROUND

MANY ATTEND CATHOLIC SILVER ANNIVERSARY

An occasion for pleasant remembrance was the Silver Jubilee celebration of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic parish, which ended last Wednesday evening with a fine banquet served by the ladies of the church to over 200 guests. The banquet hall was beautifully decorated in silver trim, with bouquets of season's flowers at each table. The occasion also marked the birthday of the Rev. W. J. McCashin, Jubilarian, and in honor of the event, a huge three tiered birthday cake centered the speaker's table. Guests at the banquet were each served a piece of the birthday cake.

The banquet resolved itself into a stirring testimonial to the founder of the parish, Rev. McCashin. Speakers commended him for his fine work as both a spiritual and civic leader and pointed with pride to his achievement the founding of Lourdes parish and the building of one of the finest church buildings in the Community.

Rev. McCashin was presented with a beautiful leather bound autograph book by members of the Mystical Rose Society.

A. H. Kunkei was chairman of the Jubilee celebration program which began with Solemn High Mass at 11:00 a.m., and continued throughout the day ending with the banquet in the evening.

Out of town guests who came to congratulate Father McCashin were:

A. L. McCashin, F. J. McCashin, Charles Spence, Miss Mary Wilma Spence, Frank Keane, Miss Alice O'Connor, Miss Mary Friel, Misses Clair and Gertrude Dixon, all of Connellsville, Misses Wilha Falkenhagen, Isabelle Brennan, Ella Ryan, Caroline Moll, Mrs. Margaret O'Brien, Mrs. Helen Cobbett, of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. James Lingan and Miss Mary Cain, McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nicholson and Mrs. Brown of Liftsburgh, and Mrs. Loretto Marmagin and Mrs. Louise Loumont of Youngstown, Ohio.

Founder Observes 25th Anniversary

REV. WILLIAM J. McCASHIN

In the Silver Jubilee Historical Edition of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic parish, members pay the following tribute to the man who has been the guiding spirit and a veritable 'Father' to the flock during the twenty-five years of its existence:

OUR PASTOR

"It is only with the approach of some eventful milestone that matters of importance are brought to our attention and we come to recognize the results of his untiring efforts.

The members of the Parish, on the occasion of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Church, find themselves reminiscing over the achievements accomplished and due entirely to the careful planning and untiring efforts of our Pastor and we suddenly realize that much has been accomplished from a very modest and humble beginning.

Father McCashin was born at Connellsville, Pa., and pursued his studies for the priesthood at St. Vincent's Seminary near Latrobe, Pa. He was ordained for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Pa., by the late Bishop Canevin, June 25, 1915, and was stationed for a short time at McDonald, Pa., with instructions to organize a Catholic church in Burgettstown. It was a very difficult task and many hardships were encountered but the young pastor set to work with the energy and enthusiasm for which he has since become well known. The newly formed parish presented many serious problems, but all these were solved by his resourcefulness, self-sacrifice and persistent labor. To the grave responsibility of uniting the people by the common bonds of religion, languages and customs, was added the tremendous financial burden and the building of a new church. His was an uphill duty and his achievements are due to his upholding the principles of right and wrong.

It is well known that children have been his special concern, and the fruits of his efforts are clearly shown by his accomplishments with the younger members of the parish. Working zealously and untiringly, he has thoroughly planted the seed of religion in the children. The spiritual welfare of the members of the Parish was his constant concern, and the present strong position of Our Lady of Lourdes church in the Community is due solely to the unflagging zeal and effort of Father McCashin. It is partial evidence of his record of achievement, for over twenty-five years of his Priesthood were spent in laboring among the people of Our Lady of Lourdes church.

We know and appreciate your hard work in the parish, and pray, "God Bless you, Father McCashin."

11. Our Forty Hours' date has been changed from June 28th to May 20th each year.

12. All Masses that I have received and that are still unseid will be turned over to Father Boslet.

13. According to another new regulation by Bishop Dearden, the Sacrament of Confirmation will be given to all children completing the Fourth Grade in the Parochial School, instead of only to those 12 years of age and over as heretofore.

14. Please do not be guided by what you have read in the secular papers about the mitigating of the Fast for Holy Communion. It does not apply until promulgated by our own Bishop.

15. During the course of the years, the remark has often been made, "What is Father doing with all the money he takes in?" On this, my last report to you, I beg to submit the following financial standing of our Parish. I have been gathering this money throughout the years in the hope that when we had enough, we could go through with the building of a new Rectory and a new Church, without running into any great amount of debt. Like Moses, who led the Israelites to the promised land and then could not enter, so I feel I have led you to the promised land of great developments in this parish, but in God's Will, I cannot carry through these developments. The following will, I hope, give you some idea of how Our Lady of Lourdes Parish stands financially. The year 1952 witnessed the largest amount of receipts in the history of the Parish. For this, I am deeply grateful and ask God to bless your generosity.

nice cemetery, 83 acres of land extending from the end of Center Avenue to our new cemetery. Eighty building lots are laid out and recorded on this plot, which, should anything develop in the vicinity, can be a source of great income to the Church. I trust this financial report meets with your approval and that none will question as to just where their contributions have gone. As to the Spiritual development of the Parish, I leave that in the hands of God, who will judge me on that, rather than the financial development. Personally, I feel Our Lady of Lourdes is the best Spiritually developed Parish that I know, due to your wonderful reception of the Sacraments and attending Holy Mass. I can ask no greater favor than that you remember me when receiving the Sacraments and attending Holy Mass. I would like to say "Good-bye" to all of you from the Altar from which I have addressed you throughout the years. I fear, however, after my experience of last Sunday, that it is not going to be possible for me to do so. My labor amongst you during the Thirty Seven and a Half Years has been one of love. The work has been hard at times, but I tried to do the best I could. I know I have been on the strict side and have endeavored as your first Pastor to set-up and maintain the highest possible norm of Catholicity. In doing this, I have stepped on the toes of many, but I hope you believe me when I say that any refusals of permission or refusing to grant favors has hurt me as badly as it may have hurt you. My closest friends are the ones that have suffered most, lest I be accused of playing favorites. I have tried to submerge self and personal popularity to the greater common good of the Church and the Parish. Any disagreements we may have had are all forgotten by me and I trust that you in your charity will likewise forget them. We should be thankful to Bishop Dearden for sending a Priest of the type of Father Boslet to be your new Pastor. Could I have chosen my successor myself, I could not have picked anyone to whom I would rather turn over the Pastorate of Our Lady of Lourdes. Next Thursday, I go to new fields of labor. It will not be Our Lady of Lourdes but in gratitude to her for what she has done for our Parish, I shall endeavor to cultivate a special devotion to her wherever I may be. This is my Swan-Song. I had thought I would never have to render it, but am resigned. You have been most kind in your expressions of sorrow at my leaving, but I can assure you that your sorrow is not one bit less than what I feel. Please pray for me and I shall never forget you. My body may be elsewhere, but my heart is always in Burgettstown. I am deeply grateful to those good men and women not of our Faith who have been so kind and considerate to me throughout the years. May God bless and be good to them. Some may consider this as the ravings of a sentimentalist - that is not so. I love Burgettstown, and I love all the members of Our Lady of Lourdes. The children especially, I regret to leave - no better children can be found anywhere. And now, Good-bye and God Bless you all.

Your Pastor and Friend,

Father McCashin

CATHOLIC CHURCH STACK
DAMAGE IS $500.00

Lightning struck the rear smoke stack at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church, during a severe electrical storm on Tuesday, July 29, and caused damage estimated at $500.00. Bricks and stone coping were hurled about the premises by the force of the shock and the parish ladies, who were engaged in preparing for the Silver Jubilee Banquet were considerably shaken and frightened, although no one was injured. It was believed for a time that all the dishes had been shattered, fortunately however, breakage was light, and no one was injured enabling them to proceed with plans for the festival.

Our Lady of Lourdes Church Dedicates An Honor Roll

Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church dedicated an honor roll containing 360 names of men and women in service on Sunday afternoon, February 11. Seventeen of these boys are killed or missing in action. The honor roll was blessed by Father W. J. McCashin, pastor of the church. As each gold star mother or wife's name was called a Spiritual Bouquet of prayers was presented to her by a little girl dressed in white and wearing a sash and head ribbon of red, white and blue. The sermon was delivered by Father Paul Coyle of St. Bernard's Mt. Lebanon. Other priests assisting were: Rev. James Davin, St. Paul's Orphanage; Rev. Leo Pastorius, St. Mary's, Cecil; Rev. Frank Wivell, St. Michael's, Avella; and Rev. Vincent Leonard, Allegheny County Home, Woodville, Penna.

Father William J. McCashin was honored at a testimonial banquet on Monday, January 19, 1963, with more than 300 colleagues and townspeople gathering to pay tribute to a man who had served 37 years as pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church.

On Thursday of the same week, Father McCashin left Burgettstown to take up the duties of his appointment as priest in charge of St. Philip's Church, Crafton.

Pictured above are some of the principals in a program which was featured by Father McCashin's reviewing the highlights of his journey through the years in the service of his church and this community.

The formal program started the evening's ceremonies after the guests had partaken of a delicious dinner cooked and served by the women of the parish. Steve Dugas welcomed the guests and Rt. Rev. Msgr. Paul E. Campbell, of St. Lawrence O'Toole church, Pittsburgh, was the toastmaster.

Friends told the McCashin story in a series of testimonials as follows: "Priest," Rt. Rev. Msgr. Vincent Leonard, Chancellor of Pittsburgh Diocese; "Pastor," Joseph Vajentic; "Neighbor," Rt. Rev. Msgr. Daniel P. Murphy, St. Paul's church, Weirton, West Virginia; "The Man," Attorney I. C. Bloom, Washington; "Community Worker," Rev. Jacob C. Ruble, First Presbyterian church, Burgettstown; and "County Colleague," Honorable Roy I. Carson, Judge of Common Pleas Court, Washington.

Impromptu talks from the floor were made by John Scott, Gus Barbush, Burgess Robert Canning, Ralph Lee, Robert Stottlemeyer, Mrs. Lukon of Cherry Valley and Miss Ella Ligan, of Burgettstown, R.D.2. Miss Ligan, First Prefect of the Sodality, presented Father McCashin with a gift from the Sodality.

The evening closed with the song, "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

Fifty-two Take First Communion At Catholic Service

Sunday morning at the ninety-third Mass in Our Lady of Lourdes Church fifty-two children from the Parochial school received their first Holy Communion. During the Mass the Boys, Choir, with Charlotte Pintar at the organ, sang appropriate hymns. In his sermon for the occasion Father McCashin stressed the duties and obligations of parents to lead their children not by words alone but by the still greater influence of good example in accompanying their children to Divine Services and the reception of the Sacraments.

At the conclusion of the Mass the children renewed their Baptismal vows and were invested with the Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

INSTALL NEW BELL AT OUR LADY OF LOURDES CHURCH

Members of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church, this week, are making a canvass to secure the remaining amount necessary to pay for a new 1,000 pound church bell, which is to be installed in the church before Easter. A fund to buy the bell was started by members 15 years ago and just recently, due to an awakened interest and the need for a more adequate bell, additional contributions have been made so that the committee felt justified in ordering the bell, the approximate cost being $1,000.

The bell, installed in the belfry will be electrically operated from the sacristy and will contain an electric teler and an electric swinger.

Rev. Father W. J. McCashin announces the usual observance of Holy Week for his Communicants. There will be a Procession and High Mass sung on Holy Thursday, March 21, a Holy Service from 7 to 8 on Thursday evening and All Night Adoration for the men of the church.

On Good Friday, March 22, members of this parish will participate in a Processional and Mass at nine o'clock, followed by Adoration of the Cross.

Lourdes Parish Celebrates Silver Jubilee

Wednesday, July 30, will go down for the Rev. W. J. McCashin as a memorable one in his career of Christian Service. It marked a day of devotion and celebration by the members of his parish, Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church for the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of his entry into the ministry and the founding of the local church by him.

The observance began with Solemn High Mass at 11 a.m., celebrated by Rev. McCashin and assisted by visiting clergymen and ended with a banquet in the parish hall at 7:30 p.m. The banquet was attended by members of the parish and local business and professional men and women.

Welcome to the visitors was extended by A. H. Kunkel, general chairman for the Jubilee celebration, who also made the presentation of a Printed Souvenir Edition of the History of the Parish commemorating the Silver Anniversary. Banquet speakers were Rev. Joseph A. Burgoon of McDonald; F. H. Illig, General Superintendent of the American Zinc and Chemical Co.; Rev. Daniel A. Lawless of Pittsburgh; Attorney George I. Bloom of Washington; Rev. Daniel P. Murphy of Weirton; and Honorable J. Boyd Crumrine, Judge of the Orphans Court of Washington County. Rev. William J. McCashin made the response and expressed the gratitude of his parish for the interest and response of the Community to the occasion.

PARISH ENTERTAINS 92 PRIESTS AT 25th. ANNIVERSARY BANQUET FOR REV. WILLIAM J. McCASHIN

Members of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church celebrated the twenty fifth anniversary of the ordination of their Priest, the Rev. Father W. J. McCashin in appropriate manner on Tuesday, July 16. The Parish entertained 140 guests, including 92 Priests from Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and personal friends and members of Rev. McCashin's immediate family.

Father McCashin celebrated Solemn High Mass at 10 a. m. in his church. He was assisted by Rev. D. P. Murphy of St. Paul's church, Weirton as Deacon; Rev. Paul E. Campbell of St. Lawrence church, Pittsburgh as sub-deacon; and Rev. Joseph W. Lowney of St. Luke's church, Carnegie as Master of Ceremonies. Rev. James A. Wallace Reeves, P.H.D., D.D. President of Seton Hill College, Greensburg delivered the sermon. The male chorus, directed by Caesar Grosse at the organ, sang the Mass. The church was filled to overflowing with friends and members of the parish.

At 12 o'clock noon the guests were invited into the parish dining room for a banquet. The room was beautifully decorated with the season's flowers and the tables were attractively set for 140 guests, centered with vases of roses. Rev. Paul E. Campbell presided as toastmaster. He called upon the following Priests, who responded with interesting talks:

Rev. J. J. Brennon of St. Luke's church, Carnegie, who has been a member of the Priesthood for 52 years and in former years was in charge of this district.

Rev. James A. Burgoon of St. Alphens church of McDonald.

Rev. H. J. Gilbert, superintendent of St. Paul's Orphanage of Idlewood, and a classmate at college of the Honor Guest.

Rev. McCashin responded with grateful appreciation for the recognition bestowed upon him for his many years of service in the church and in the Burgettstown Parish.

Members of the Young Ladies Sodality made arrangements for the dinner and served the tables. Domenick Petrucci, a member of the Parish presided as Chef over the meal.

Father McCashin was presented with a substantial purse of money, the gift of members of the parish and his friends.

CATHOLICS PLAN 25th ANNIVERSARY FOR JULY 30TH

Parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church will join with their pastor, Rev. W. J. McCashin on Wednesday, July 30, in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the local church. A. H. Kunkel has been appointed general chairman on arrangements and Dominik Petrucci has been named chef in charge of a banquet to be held at 6:30 in the evening in the parish hall. The committee on solicitation includes Mrs. Dushan Nicksick and Miss Stella Stear for Burgettstown; Mrs. Margaret Latella and Miss Mary Dugas for Slovan and Mrs. Sara Ozimek for Langoth.

Rev. McCashin, first and only pastor of the local Catholic congregation began his ministry at McDonald in July, 1915, and on May 8, 1916 came to live in Burgettstown. He organized parishes at Bulger and Raccoon which grew rapidly and were soon joined with the Cherry Valley parish. First services for the local congregation were held at Valek's Hall, Erie Mine, until December, 1918, when the present edifice was dedicated.

Members of the congregation are entering enthusiastically with their pastor into preparations for the gala event. They plan to issue a souvenir book, containing the history of the congregation, from the pen of Rev. McCashin, and also pictures of interest, depicting its growth during the years.

Announcement of further plans and the complete program will be made at a later date.

REV. BOSLET HONORED ON SILVER JUBILEE

Silver Jubilee celebrant Rev. Fr. John R. Boslet is pictured above (right) conversing with guest speaker Rev. Michael J. Conroy at the banquet held in his honor last Thursday evening in the Knights of Columbus hall. Attending the anniversary banquet were 165 persons including members of the parish, guest priests and the honor guest's brother, Paul Boslet. The pastor of Our Lordes church since January, 1952, was honored with many gifts from societies of the church and members of the parish. Father Boslet was ordained in 1930.

The Genealogy of the Wells family is traced back to the Vaux or DeValibus family of Normandy in France to the year 794, being more than 1000 years. The name has been changed by transformation of language or Parliamentary action many times, but its meaning remains the same. Thus Vaux means Spring or Wells, which was followed by Valibus and DeValibus before the Norman conquest, and De Welles--Welles-- Wells since the Norman conquest.

The name was founded in England after the conquest by Harold de Vaux, a near relation of William the Conqueror, and his three sons, Barons Hubert, Ranulph (?) and Robert, who were all surnamed de Valibus. The descent is through the younger son, Robert, whose grandson William had four sons, Robert de Dalston, Baron Adam and William de Welles of Lincolnshire 1194, and Oliver de Vallibus, Prior of Pentney Abbey.

Adam de Welles died s. p. and his brother William thus became founder of long line of noblemen of Lincolnshire, Eng. (see Dugdales Standard work on the Baronage of England.)

Among the many distinguished lineal descendants of the Vaux family are Bishop Hugo de Welles who presented the Magna Charta to His Majesty King John who signed it at Runnymede near Windsor, England A. D. June 15, 1215 (pg. 88), Simon de Welles (Archdeacon) was in Palestine in 1191 (Richard Couer de Lion) and had a special grant of arms by the king. Tasso mentions him as one of the most distinguished of the Crusaders.

Among other nations are found others of the family as follows:

Antonia de Vaux	Queen of Sicily
Isabella de Vaux	" of Naples
Cecelia de Vaux	Countess of Savoy
Sibella de Vaux	Princess of Piedmont
Marie de Vaux	Dauphiness of Vienna
Isabella de Vaux	Despatiss of Servia

Nivian Beall, the first settler of this surname to live in Maryland was a Scotchman, who became the owner of large tracts of land in Southern Maryland, (four thousand acres). On one of these tracts, namely, "Rock of Dumbarten", Georgetown, D. C. was founded, as attested by tablet on a memorial erected on this ground, and by land records.

Nivian Beall, Lieutenant of Lord Baltimore vessel, the Royal Charles, was advanced to Major, to Colonel and to Commander in Chief of the Maryland Militia; was a member of the house of Burgesses from Prince George's County, and the recipient of an Act of gratitude passed by the Maryland assembly in 1699. The archives of the State contain many items in reference to Colonel Nivian Beall and he is listed by the genealogists of the Maryland Historical Society as one of the foremost men among the early settlers of the Old Line State (Maryland). He was born in Largo, Fifeshire, Scotland in 1625. His will is dated January 15, 1717, and was probated the following February the 28th day. Prior to leaving his native heath, Nivian Beall held a commission in the Royal Army raised to resist the Cromwellian uprising in Great Britain at the Battle of Dunbar, September 3, 1650, he was taken prisoner and sentenced to five years servitude. With one hundred and fifty other Scotchmen he was sent to the Island of Barbadoes. About two years later he appeared in the Maryland Colony. In the Land Office, Annapolis (1658) there is a record of this Nivian Beall making a land transfer in Calvert County; on October 31, 1668. He is referred to in the Archive and other records as Lieutenant Nivian Beall; in 1678 he was commissioned Lieutenant of Lord Baltimore vessel, the Royal Charles; in 1684 he served as a deputy surveyer of Charles County; in 1688 was appointed Chief Military Officer of Calvert County; in 1689 Major of Calvert County Militia; in 1692, high Sheriff of Calvert County, and on July 30, 1694, was commissioned by the assembly, Colonel of the Colonial Militia.

In 1697, Colonel Nivian Beall served on a Commission of the assembly to treat with the Indians; from 1679 to 1701, he served as a member of the assembly, and in 1699 was subject of an "Act of Gratitude" passed by the general assembly, in recognition of his distinguished services in the campaign against the Indians. Colonel Beall's defeat of the Susquehanna tribe gained for him wide renown as an Indian fighter. Numerous existing official papers written by him and on file in the State Archives reveal that he was a man of broad experience, fine mental capacity, undoubted integrity, staunch moral courage and of good education. His signature is bold and free, apparently significant of an alert mind and ready hand.

Colonel Beall was not active as a military man only. In 1690, a party of two hundred Presbyterian immigrants from Scotland entered Maryland under his supervision. He located them along the Potomac and named the settlement "New Scotland". The pastor of this flock was Rev. Nathaniel Taylor. There is recorded at Upper Marlborough a deed of gift from Colonel Beall to this Pastor of a tract in that district upon which to build a Church. In 1707, Colonel Beall presented to this Church a costly Communion Set of Silver, a part of which is still preserved, now at Hyattsville. Colonel Beall died 1717 and was buried on his plantation "The Rock of Dumbarten" at a point now comprehended with Gay Street in Georgetown. Many years later when his body was removed, his skeleton was found perfect and measured six feet and seven inches. The hair had grown long and retained its youthful ruddy hue.

Colonel Nivian Beall married about 1670, Ruth Moore, daughter of Richard and Jane Moore, Barrister of St. Mary's County, Maryland. They had issue, twelve children.

Colonel Nivian Beall, father of Rachel Beall, wife of Captain Richard Owings. Richard Owings married Rachel Beall; Joshua Owings married Mary Cocke.

JOSHUA OWINGS

Last Will and Testament

In the name of God Amen, I, Joshua Owings, late of Baltimore County and State of Maryland, but now of Ann Arundel County in the same State, being weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, blessed be to God for the same— do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following— that is to say—

ITEM. I give and bequeath unto my son Joshua Owings and his heirs One Hundred Pounds in good and lawful gold and silver current money of this State, which said sum of One Hundred Pounds is to come out of the conditioned money expressed in a bond to be paid to me by my two sons, John Cockey Owings and Edward Owings of Baltimore County bearing date on the sixth day of December in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty, for the sum of Seven Thousand Two Hundred and Eighty-Nine Pounds common current money with legal interest thereon.—

ITEM. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Rachel Shipley now wife of Talbot Shipley of Ann Arundel Co. and State of Maryland aforesaid, all the rest and residue of the money both principal and interest expressed to be paid to me in the said bond by my two sons John Cockey and Edward Owings as expressed above, after the said sum of One Hundred Pounds current money in gold and silver is paid to my said son Joshua Owings.

ITEM. It is my will and desire that my executrix hereinafter mentioned shall sell and dispose of my negro man named Walton (now hired to Cornelius Howard of Baltimore Co.) for the sum of Fifty Pounds lawful current money to some person in the neighborhood where the said Walton's wife may reside at the time of sale; and it is my further will and desire that the said negro man Walton shall not be sold to, or obliged to go to any person as a master against his will, for it is my meaning and intent to let him have the choice of a master that is as near and convenient to where his (the said Walton's) wife may reside as possible may be.

ITEM. I give and bequeath unto my said daughter Rachel Shipley, now the wife of Talbot Shipley, all and every part of the money that may arise or proceed from the sale of the said negro man Walton.

ITEM. I give and bequeath unto my said daughter Rachel Shipley, wife of Talbot Shipley all the rest and residue of my estate both goods and chattels of what kind or nature soever to her and her heirs forever; and I also confirm unto her and her heirs forever all the above gifts or bequests.

It is my will and desire that my estate be not brought to any appraisement, and that there be no letters Testamentary or of Administration taken out for my estate.

Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my said daughter Rachel Shipley sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

IN WITNESS whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this second day of May in the year of Our Lord Christ, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-Six. (1786)

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared by the above named Joshua Owings to be his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator— the words "my seal" being first interlined, Jacob's History of Brook Co. W. Va. says that Benjamin Wells took out a patent for land in Brook (then Yocoghney Co. Va.) in the year 1787.

This announcement in the "Maryland Journal" and "Baltimore Advertiser" July 23, 1782.

"To be sold at public vendue at the Coffee House in Baltimore Town on the 17th August next on an extensive credit— The Plantation whereon the subscriber now lives containing about Seven Hundred Acres of land. It is very fertile and has on it a large quantity of meadow now in grass; also a large orchard of the very best of fruit. Every improvement necessary for farming. Any person inclinable to purchase will find the subscriber on the premises who will show the land, as also stock of all kinds which he will sell at a moderate price.

Benjamin Wells."

BENJAMIN WELLS

Last Will and Testament

In the name of God Amen, I Benjamin Wells of Ohio Co, & Commonwealth of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound and perfect memory (thanks be to God for the same) revoking all others, do make, constitute and ordain this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following: That is to say—

I give and bequeath to my son Benjamin Wells of Baltimore Town all my land in Baltimore County, State of Maryland; and also all that is due to me from the estate of Charles Ridgley, son of John; and every other estate that I may have in possession or reversion in the said County or State; with the proviso that he pay all my debts in said County of Baltimore and State of Maryland; to him his heirs and assigns forever.

I give and bequeath to my son Amon Wells all the tract or parcel of land that I purchased of Israel Cox in this County. I likewise give to my son Amon Wells Thirty Acres of land to be laid off out of the tract of land on which I now live; to be laid off convenient to and adjoining the tract of land aforesaid; to him his heirs and assigns forever. I also give and bequeath to my said son Amon all that Israel Cox is indebted to me by mortgage notes and accounts, all my interest in the said debts. I also give and bequeath to said son Amon Twenty Pounds current money of Pennsylvania; to him his heirs and assigns.

I give and bequeath to my son Caleb Wells the remaining part of the tract of land on which I now live with the proviso that my loving wife Temperance Wells is not to be interrupted or molested in the full and quiet possession of the said land during her life; and then to my said son Caleb Wells, his heirs and assigns forever.

I give and bequeath to my granddaughter Sarah Wells, daughter of Nicholas Wells, two negro girls (to wit) Sall and Peg, and one feather bed and furniture, and two Cows and Calves; to her her heirs and assigns forever.

I give and bequeath to my granddaughter Temperance Talbot two negroes (to wit) Helen and Peter and one Feather Bed and Furniture to her and her heirs and assigns.

And it is my further will and meaning that if either or these my said granddaughters should die leaving no heirs of their body the other shall have and enjoy the whole of what is left to them in this my last will; and if they should both die not having any heir as above; that then the negroes above given shall be considered as my estate and be equally divided among my children.

And it is my will and desire that after my death seven of my negroes shall be sold at public sale (to wit) Charles, Lucy, Abigail, Charles son of Charles, Cat, Fanny, Pole; and it is my will and desire that the interest of the money arising from the sale of said slaves be the property of my loving wife Temperance Wells and the principal to be divided among my children and it is my further will and desire that my loving wife Temperance shall at her own discretion sell what part of the stock she sees cause and receive the interest of the money arising from such sale to her own proper use, and the principal after her death divided as above.

I give and bequeath to my loving wife Temperance on negro man named Jack, and after her death it is my will and desire that the said negro Jack be emancipated and set free.

I likewise give and bequeath to my said wife the following negroes (to wit) Bashar, Abraham, Cloe and Rachel during her life, and then after her death to be sold. And in case any of the said negroes should become troublesome or misbehave, it is my will and desire that my said wife shall at her own discretion sell them and enjoy the interest of the money arising from such sale as her own property; and the principal after her death be divided among my children as my estate.

And my further will and desire is that after the death of my loving wife Temperance Wells, that then the residue of my estate that is not here given and legaced away; that is to say-- the principal monies arising from the sales directed above, and every other property that shall be to divide at the time of my wife's death, be equally among children as follows to wit-- Charles Wells, Absalom Wells, William Wells, Amon Wells, Caleb Wells and Sarah Walters, or their heirs, after my just debts are paid. And I appoint my son Charles Wells and my loving wife Temperance Wells executor and executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I the said Benjamin Wells have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-sixth day of November in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-Four REVOLUTIONARY SERVICES OF JUSTICE CHARLES WELLS FROM 1778--1788.

Original Records preserved at Wheeling Court House. W.Va.

Ohio County Court held at Black's Cabin near present site of Wheeling, W. Va. previous to Court Sessions of May, 1778 (date not affixed)

"Ordered that the following gentlemen be recommended to His Excellency the Governor, in the Honorable Council, as proper persons to be added to*"Commission of the Peace" for the County: Edward Robinson, George McCullough, CHARLES WELLS, James Gillispey," (and others)

Ohio County Virginia, May 1778.

"At a Court continued by adjournment - present, Silas Hedges, Zackariah Spring, John Williamson, David Sharp--these gentlemen, a Commission of the Peace, directed David Shepherd, Solomon Hedge, Silas Hedge, David Rogers, Jos. Dodridge, Charles Wells and James Gill, the preceding named therein took their oaths as Justices of the Peace and took their seats accordingly."

Charles Wells was a Justice for Ohio Co. Virginia May 1778--1788

Charles Wells was a delegate to Virginia Assembly 1792--1798

Charles Wells served four terms in Congress between 1789--1810

This data is collected from Wheeling Court Records, Richmond Library Records, and Newton's History of the Pan Handle.

*The "Commission of the Peace" was composed of the County Justices who formed the early Courts, and during the Revolution were responsible to the Governor for the nominations of Captains and Lieutenants to command the County Militia.

"The Navigator"

Containing directions for navigating the Monongahela, Allegheny, Ohio and Mississippi Rivers.

By Zadak Cramer

Tenth Edition, printed 1818 by Cramer & Spear, Pittsburg. 1st Edition 1801.

"Here resides Mr. Charles Wells, Sr., about half way down the reach and between No. 25 and 26.

After a youthful and vigorous life spent in toil, dangers and fatigues incident to a new frontier country, to which Mr. Wells moved in 1776, while yet a boy, he has seated himself here on a fine farm, having a beautiful view of the Ohio, and where he enjoys all that plentitude and happiness, with his numerous family which ought to be enjoyed by every man in the happy decline of life when these blessings have been obtained by virtue and industry.

Indeed the serenity and sage life physiognomy of Mr. Wells, justify the conclusion that his wealth and happiness rests on no other foundation. 'Blessed are the fruits of a virtuous life—blessed he who holdeth out to the end, and soberly enjoyeth, in his old age, the good things procured by youthful labors.'

Mr. Wells has a fine garden in which is recognized the monthly strawberry, of which I ate excellent fruit in October."

As well as in the "Navigator" the following is recorded in "History of West Virginia 1923, page 220" Vol. I.

"Concerning a resident on the present site of Sistersville a Pittsburger wrote as follows:

'Mr. Charles Wells, Sr., resident on the Ohio fifty miles below Wheeling related to me while at his home in October 1812, the following circumstances: that he had two wives (the last of which still lives and is a hale, smart, young looking woman) and twenty-two children, sixteen of whom are living, healthy, and many of them married and have already pretty large families; that a tenant of his, a Mr. Scott, a Marylander, is also the father of twenty-two, the last being still an infant, and its mother a lively and gay Irish woman, being Scott's second wife; that a Mr. Gordon, an American German, formerly a neighbor of Mr. Wells, now residing on Little Muskingum, state of Ohio, has by two wives twenty-eight children. Thus these three worthy families have had born to them seventy-two children, a number unexampled perhaps in any other part of the world.

Mr. Wells is sixty-eight years of age and truly a hale, healthy looking man, and it is not uncommon for him to ride to Wheeling, a distance of fifty miles in a day, and last year he says he rode to his brother's, twelve miles above Wheeling, and got there by sundown."

CHARLES WELLS
Last Will & Testament

In the name of God Amen, I Charles Wells of Tyler County in the State of Virginia----

Do hereby make this my Last Will and Testament in form an manner following to wit---

After my decease and the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses, I do desire as followeth---

Item 1st. To my beloved wife Elizabeth Wells I give and bequeath all my personal estate of what nature or kind soever and wherever situated or found to be at her disposal so long as she continues my widow, leaving the same to be at her death divided among the children of her own body by me in such time and manner as she may judge most conducive to her interest and their happiness, it being incumbent on her therewith to take due care of my daughter Twenty Wells, it being a helpless child.

I do also leave to my said wife Elizabeth the Mansion House in which we now live with the farm thereto annexed (to wit) Beginning at the mouth of Whittens Run, thence with the wagon road leading to the Jug Handle Mill to the upper corner of the Tanyard lot, thence with the Run to the back line, thence with the lines of the Survey that includes said farm to the beginning; with all the singular the appurtenance thereunto belonging; with the rents, issues, and profits therof, during her continuance of widowhood as aforesaid---

Item 2nd To my son Charles P. Wells he being already provided for, it is my will that he have nothing more of my estate either real or personal, except whatever after my decease my said wife may gratuitously give him out of the part above intrusted to her disposal.

Item 3rd. To my son Nicholas Wells, he being already provided for, it is my will that he have nothing more of my estate either real or personal except whatever after my decease my said wife may gratuitously give him of the part intrusted to her disposal.

Item 4th. To my son Peregrine Wells I bequeath the two Tracts of Land I purchased from John and Ezekiel Clemens lying on the Long Reach; one adjoining the lands of William Johnson and Thomas Cochran, and the other the Lands of William Johnson and others, said to contain in all Six Hundred and Twenty-eight acres: to the said Peregrine Wells and his heirs or his assigns forever.

Item 5th To my son Eli Wells I give and bequeath my Mansion House and Farm upon which I now live and with which I have endowed my well beloved wife Elizabeth during her continuing my widow, to be after her decease or intermarriage, the sole property of my said son Eli: also that certain tract or parcel of land lying in the Ohio River and in the aforesaid County of Tyler, and known by and distinguished by the name of Prusleys Island; and supposed to contain Thirty Acres; to the said Eli Wells and his heirs or assigns forever---

WILL OF CHARLES WELLS

Item 6th. To my grandson Charles Wells, son of my son Joshua Wells deceased, I give and bequeath all that tract of land upon which Nancy Wells, widow of my said son Joshua formerly did live: said to contain Two Hundred Acres; to the said Charles Wells and his heirs or assigns forever; on his paying his sister Eliza Wells Five Hundred Dollars. And should the said Charles die without an heir; then and in that case the land to be divided equally among my first wife's children, namely--Rebecca Miller, Benedick Wells, Temperance Talbot, Absalom Wells, Mary Owings and Elizabeth Weakley: to them and their heirs forever; by their paying the above named Eliza Wells, daughter of the said Joshua Wells deceased, Five Hundred Dollars.

Item 7th. To my daughter Elizabeth Weakley I do bequeath Three Hundred Dollars to be paid by my executors hereinafter to be named.

Item 8th. To my daughter Ruth Burkhead I give and bequeath One Thousand Acres of Land on Sugartree Creek, a branch of Middle Island Creek, adjoining land of Benjamin Lawrence, Richard Owens and others, beginning at a Sugar Tree in the forks of said Creek; and Two Hundred Dollars to be paid by my Executors hereafter to be named; to be hers and her heirs or assigns forever---

Item 9th. To my daughter Sarah Wells I give and bequeath a part of the tract of land I purchased from James Caldwell; beginning at the mouth of Whittens Run and running with the wagon road now leading to the Jug Handle Mill to the upper end of the Tanyard Lot, thence up the Run to the back line, thence with said line so far that a due west line come to the corner of the fence as it now stands that divides Simon Seamons and Lemual Scott lots; thence with the meanders of said fence to the River bank; thence with said river bank to the place of beginning be the same more or less; to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Also one half of a Tract of Land I located the 9th of May last in Ohio County Land Office, adjoining lands of the heirs of John Williamson deceased; containing Four Hundred Acres; to her and her heirs or assigns forever----

Item 10th. To my daughter Delilah Wells I give and bequeath all the residue or upper part of the aforesaid Tract of Land purchased from James Caldwell whereon Samuel Scott now lives: also the one half of the aforesaid Tract I located the 9th of May last; to be divided by a straight line from the River bank between her and her sister Sarah, and her to have the lower part adjoining her other land. The two Tracts to be hers and her heirs or assigns forever---

Item 11th. To my daughter Katie Adams Wells I give and bequeath all that Tract of Land I purchased from John Rolf, adjoining land of Joshua Howard, Thomas Jones and others, said to contain Five Hundred and Sixty-five Acres more or less; also Five Hundred Dollars to be paid by my executors, to her and her heirs and assigns forever---

Item 12th. To my daughter Betsy Prather Wells I give and bequeath all that Tract of Land I purchased from Jeremiah Clemons adjoining Lands of Nicholas Wells and Thomas Cochran, said to contain Three Hundred and Fourteen Acres; to her and her heirs and assigns forever---

LAST WILL OF CHARLES WELLS

Item 13th. To my granddaughter Ruth Wells, daughter Ruth Wells, daughter of Nicholas and Rachel Wells I will and bequeath that she have at the time of her marrying or attaining the age of twenty-one years, One Horse and Saddle to be valued to One Hundred Dollars; and One Hundred Dollars in cash to be paid by my executors—

Item 14th To my Executors of this my Last Will and Testament hereafter to be named, I will and bequeath One Hundred Dollars to each of them—

Item 15th To my children of my first wife hereafter to be named (to wit) Rebecca Miller, Temperance Talbot, Benedick Wells, Absalom Wells and Mary Owings, I consider that they have already received an equivalent portion of my estate either real or personal—

Item 16th. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my sons Charles P. Wells and Nicholas Wells my sole executors of this my last will and Testament. And I do hereby revoke and disannul all others by me heretofore made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirtieth day of December Eighteen Hundred and Fourteen. (1814)

Asa Owings came from Baltimore, Md., in the fall of 1795. He stopped with William Griffith for some time to look for an improved farm, but not finding one to suit, he desired to return east to spend the winter. He has with him several thousand dollars in gold and silver which he did not want to take back as he expected to return in the spring and buy land. He and Griffith buried this money deep in the ground under the hearth in Griffith's cabin where it lay until return in May. He then purchased a tract of land south of Harmon's Creek on the hill.

He married in 1797 Mary Wells, daughter of Charles Wells near Buffalo Creek, Brooke Co., W. Va. (This Charles Wells later moved to Tyler Co. and founded Sistersville. Most of the family are buried there.) Asa Owings and his wife Mary Wells Owings lived on this farm during their life time. They raised a family of ten children, five sons and five daughters. The youngest child, Rebecca, married Nathaniel Wells of Middle Ferry.

Asa Owings died about 1819 and Mrs. Owings raised her family and saw them all married and settled in life.

Mary Wells Owings died August 19, 1849, aged 72 years eleven months and three days. Her youngest son Charles Wells Owings now owns and occupies the old homestead.

RICHARD WELLS
Last Will & Testament

In the name of God Amen, I Richard Wells of Brook County and the state of Virginia being aged and weak in body but of sound mind and memory, I do this third day of December in the year of Our Lord Eighteen Hundred and Twenty Eight make this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form as followeth, to wit:--

First, I make and bequeath to my son Jesse Wells that part of my tract of land whereon he, Jesse, now lives, bounded as followeth viz:-- beginning in the State line at a notched hickory, thence a westerly course to a double locust marked as the lines come to and go from said locust, thence westerly to a locust post planted in the lane notched as aforesaid; thence running northerly to a Red Oak standing outside of the cleared land. Said Red Oak is notched as the line comes to and goes from said Oak. Thence a westerly course to a marked White Oak in a straight line from said Red Oak to a line between John Hindman and myself. Thus divided after my decease to be the property of my son Jesse Wells his heirs and assigns forever.

The remaining part of my tract of land whereon I now live after my decease I make and bequeath to my daughter Jamima Wells, her heirs and assigns forever.

And further, as to my tract of land called the Narrows, with the Ferry thereon I bequeath to Jesse and Jamima in manner and form following---

That is to say the same is not to be sold during the lifetime of them both, but to be rented and the rent to be equally divided as the same may become due; and in case of the death of either, then and in that case the survivor to inherit the whole for their only proper use forever.

And further I will and bequeath to my son Jesse Wells One Hundred and Fifty Dollars after my decease. And further I leave my three negroes--Daniel, Dinah and Elijah to be free at my decease.

And further I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Jamima Wells the whole of my personal estate not otherwise disposed of.

And lastly I make, ordain, constitute and appoint my well beloved daughter Jamima Wells the whole and sole executrix of this my Last Will and Testament,-- to pay my just debts and collect my dues, and that no security be required of her.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day and year first above written.

William Davis and Catherine Griffin Davis were married in the year 1777. The parents of both were Welsh.

A few years after their marriage (probably between 1785 and 1790) they emigrated from Baltimore Co., Md., to Ft. Edgington, Va., now called Holliday's Cove, W. Va.

They suffered many hardships. The Indians drove them from their homes with other settlers and burned their Cabins. They were frequently forced to take refuge in the Fort.

William Davis died some years after they came to Virginia leaving Catherine to struggle alone with her family." Mrs. Herron.

An incident is told of Joshua the eldest son:—

Among a number of other quite interesting incidents of early times in Brooke Co. and on the opposite side of the Ohio related at the pioneer association at Steubenville, was one narrated by Col. Nathaniel Wells, of Joshua Davis, which is illustrative of the perils of those times which so sorely "tried mens' souls."

In those early days all the salt produced by the settlers in this vicinity was transported from Baltimore on horseback, and in return for it the people dug up in the forests here large quantities of ginseng, for which at that time there was a great demand in the markets of Baltimore.

At the time in which this incident happened there were no settlers on the Ohio side of the river, but when there were no rumors of Indians about, those on the Virginia side were frequently in the habit of crossing over from the settlement at the fort to gather "sang root" as it was then popularly called, on the hills where Steubenville now stands. At the time of the following occurrence, Joshua Davis of whom many of the old citizens have heard, and who was then a young man, in company with a number of others, had crossed in canoes and proceeded to a little clearing upon what is now known as the John Bustard farm, for the purpose of laying in a supply of this marketable vegetable.

The manner of digging it was by sharpening a long stick with which the root was pried up from the native earth-- this was afterward dried and made ready for market. The party had all entered the clearing except young Davis and an old man named Anderson. The man was kneeling on the ground busy at his work, while Davis was standing by sharpening his stick, when suddenly a wild whoop was uttered and two rifle shots rang out. The old man fell a corpse, but Davis was untouched. The savages not seeing the remainder of the party they made for their canoes and hurried across the river to report the tidings to the settlers at the Fort--- reporting that both Anderson and Davis were killed. This was incorrect. At the fall of Anderson, Davis realizing the situation and being fleet of foot, darted into the forest in a southerly direction with the band of screeching bloodthirsty demons after him, their terrific yells rending the forest. He led them down the river hoping to save his companions by misleading the howling heathen who were on his track. He finally out distanced them and reaching the river near the present site of Mingo, swam across.

His friends were shortly after greatly astonished to see him bound into the cabin with his knife still open in one hand, and the stick he had been whittling in the other, both of which in his terrible race for life, and his long dive through the river, he had never dropped from his hands."

This Joshua Davis was a brother of Susan Davis who married Jesse Wells in 1800 they were the parents of Col. Nathaniel Wells.

JESSE WELLS
Last Will & Testament

In the name of God, I, Jesse Wells considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of a sound mind and memory,— blessed be Almighty God for the same—do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following:—that is to say—

First, I give and bequeath unto my wife Susan Wells one third of the plantation on which I now reside; and one third of all the household property or personal effects. In addition, thereto, I will and bequeath unto her my horse "Creation". I further leave it optional with my wife whether she remain in the Mansion House, or consent to the sale of the farm and hold one third of the purchase money during her natural life time.

I further will and bequeath my wife the rent of the farm (during the life of my son James) for her maintenance. During said time in case farm should be sold I will and bequeath an equal divide of two thirds of the purchase money and also two thirds of my personal property (except such as I have reserved) to each of my four children—Nancy Hamilton, James Wells, Nathaniel Wells and Edie Wright.

And in case said farm is not sold and equally divided;— of the two thirds of the rent of, or the proceeds of said farm, I reserve as much of the real estate money, or personal, or both as the case may be, as will pay my just debts and funeral expenses.

My son Nathaniel's claim of Three Hundred and Sixty Dollars and Thirty One cents I acknowledge as just, and it shall draw interest coming from the date of this instrument of writing.

In case said farm be sold or otherwise as the legatees may determine, I enjoin most sacredly that the burying ground of my Father and family be reserved in said sale; and in addition thereto that special care be taken of the same by whomsoever shall be renter or purchaser of said farm.

And I hereby appoint James Wells and Nathaniel Wells, my sons, executors of this my Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have herunto set my hand and seal this thirty-first day of January in the year of Our Lord Eighteen Hundred and Forty One. (Jan. 31, 1841.)

Jesse Wells.

Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Jesse Wells to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses.

And I Jesse Wells on the day and year above specified do will and bequeath to my granddaughter Susana Wright One Hundred Dollars in case she conducts herself in a becoming manner so that her grandmother is satisfied she deserves the same. Said hundred dollars to be given to her when she arrives at the age of twenty one years; with lawful interest from the date of this will.

AN ANCIENT SEFULCHER.

"In the summer of 1834, one Samuel Cummings an enterprising stone mason of Steubenville, Ohio, one day crossed the river to prospect along the ledge of rocks that line the hills along the Virginia side for a suitable place to quarry stone. In looking about he discovered a massive rock that in some previous age of the world had fallen from the over hanging cliffs above. While making an examination with a view to quarrying it he discovered an ancient stone wall built around one side of it, but almost hidden from view by the accumulation of the rubbish of ages. Curiosity led him to throw this wall down, when an opening appeared in the rock that disclosed a large cavern or vault scooped out of the under side of the rock which contained a large number of human skeletons packed together in perfect regularity. The number estimated at seventy five or one hundred.

At the time of this discovery, the owner of the land-- Col. Nathaniel Wells-- lived several miles distant and did not hear of it for some days. In the meantime, in the absence of any one with authority to protect the place, visitors thronged to it by the hundreds, each one carrying away prominent portions of these remains till they were all scattered as it were to the winds. Thus were the remains of the pre-historic dead, dragged from the long repose of ages and ruthlessly destroyed to gratify the idle curiosity of the ignorant and thoughtless. Had these remains been permitted to remain undisturbed for the inspection of the Archeologist and scientist, they might have added something to our small stock of knowledge of a people that have long since disappeared and left but little of their history behind.

Mr. Wells sadly regrets that he knew nothing of the transaction until too late, for he would have protected the sepulcher by an iron door and lock for the inspection of men of science.

This vault is located on the Virginia side of the Ohio River nearly opposite South street, Steubenville, about one hundred rods below Mr. Wells ferry landing, and a few feet east of the Pittsburgh Wheeling and Kentucky Railroad.

NATHANIEL WELLS: R. R. INTERESTS.

In 1847, a petition was presented to the Virginia Legislature for the right of way to build a Railroad from the Ohio River opposite Steubenville across the Pan Handle of Virginia to the Pennsylvania State line, to fill a gap then existing in the present P.C. and St. L. Ry. line. The petitioners' prayer was not granted. A similar petition was presented to each succeeding Legislature until 1852 with the same result. Further efforts in that direction seeming useless, Messrs. Jesse Edgington and Col. Nathaniel Wells, two energetic, enterprising citizens, in 1853 undertook to build it as a private enterprise, and to that end bought from the landowners along the line of the road one hundred feet of land the entire width of the Pan-Handle - seven miles- and received a title in fee simple for it. The contract for building the road was given to John W. Geary in June, 1853. Mr. Geary subsequently was appointed governor of the territory of Kansas and was afterwards elected governor of Pennsylvania.

On the fourth day of July, 1854, the first train ran over the road from the Ohio to the Pennsylvania State line, where a grand celebration and a public dinner was held.

Edgington and Wells were bitterly opposed by the Virginia authorities. In the fall of 1853 the Governor direct the Attorney General to file in the Ohio County Circuit Court a bill for an injunction enjoining them against further prosecution of the work of constructing the road. The defendants promptly met the issue. The State failed to appear, and the case was dismissed. Immediately thereafter, however, the Prosecuting Attorney of Brooke County commenced another suit in the Circuit Court there charging the defendants with a conspiracy against the laws of the State. The case was promptly met again and after able argument was decided against the State. Not satisfied yet, the enemies of the Road succeeded in getting a bill introduced into the Legislature of Virginia in the session of 1853-54 declaring it a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment in the penitentiary for any person or persons without a grant of way by the Legislature to build a railroad within the limits of the state. Messrs. Edgington and Wells promptly repaired to Richmond and the result was, the bill failed to pass. They ran a passenger car daily each way for a period of six months, when they discontinued their trains and the road remained idle.

This Road later became a part of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway (Pan Handle)

The following resolutions are presented by the Loyal Women's Bible Class of the First Christian Church of Steubenville, Ohio.

Be it Resolved:

First - That we extend to the family of our late friend and sister, Mrs. E.T. Wells, our sincere sympathy and that we pray God's blessing upon all who have had great sorrow because of her death.

Second - That we give expression to our feeling of gratitude as a class for the splendid friendship, fine Christian spirit and loyal service always manifested by Mrs. Wells as a member of the class.

Third - That we express herein our own deep sense of loss and sorrow at her going.

Fourth - That we state as our sincere belief that both the church and the community have lost in Mrs. Wells a great moral and spiritual power.

Fifth - That we the Loyal Women's Bible Class determine to profit by her fine Christian example and to so labor for the Lord that to some extent at least her place shall be filled by us.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Committee.

Obituary of Mrs. E. T. Wells

Mrs. Mary Cowans Wells, beloved wife of E. T. Wells, of this city entered into rest peacefully at the home of her son, Reverend L. Nathaniel D. Wells, in Akron, on Saturday evening, November 11, 1922, at 10:30 o'clock, after a month's illness. Mrs. Wells' sudden illness came as a tragedy after a most wonderful service at the First Christian Church at Akron, where her son has been the beloved pastor for a number of years. (Her son had been called to the East Dallas Christian Church in Dallas, Texas.)

It was at the close of her son's farewell service at the High Street Church, Akron, Ohio, that she was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage while greeting a young man who had just been ordained for the ministry. She lived in a semi-conscious condition for four weeks, when she gently fell asleep to waken in eternity.

Mrs. Wells was a daughter of John and Jane Mann Cowans, and was born in Bethany, West Virginia, June 27, 1854. Her father having lost his life in the Civil War, she came to Steubenville and made her home with an aunt, Mrs. William Harding on North Third Street. She married E. T. Wells on June 23, 1873, and they contemplated celebrating their golden wedding anniversary in 1923. Mrs. Wells was well and favorably known in the city, a devoted wife and mother, an earnest and faithful worker in the W.C.T.U., a member of the C.W.B.M. of the First Christian Church of Steubenville, Ohio, and one of the most active members of this denomination, and active in the missions of the church and especially helpful to the mission at Tokyo, Japan. She was pleasing in appearance, with a charming personality, and the beauty of her Christian spirit shown all along the pathway of life, and her presence will not only be missed in the home circle, but in the sanctuary which she served with Christian grace and faithfulness. She is gone, but her good works do follow her, and many hearts have been uplifted and many sorrows lightened by her gentle ministrations.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and the following children: Kate, wife of W.H. Netting, Bethany, W. Va.; Reverend L. Nathaniel D. Wells of Akron Ohio, who has just been called to the First Christian Church at Dallas Texas, to succeed Rev. Slater, a former minister of Steubenville, Ohio; Pearl, wife of Graham Bright, and Mildred, wife of Frank B. Olander, the latter two of Wilkinsburg, Pa. Also twelve grandchildren and one great grandson (Bob Bullard) and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Laura Menter Davies, of Washington Street, Steubenville. She leaves one sister, Mrs. A. J. Mercer of Kearney, Neb. who is at the bereaved home. A remarkable feature of the family is that during these fifty years of companionship of Mr. and Mrs. Wells, they have never had a break in their family circle of children with their husbands, wives and children in an unbroken family until this time when the beloved mother and grandmother has entered into rest.

A short funeral service was held at the parsonage in Akron, Sunday afternoon, Rev. George Darsey officiating. The cortege arrived in Steubenville at 7:18 P. M. Monday evening, and was driven to the family residence, 533 North Fifth Street, where children and friends are assembled. She was buried in the Union Cemetery, Steubenville, Ohio.

OBITUARY OF EPHRAIM T. WELLS

E. T. Wells, aged 75, one of the best known residents of Steubenville, Ohio, and a member of one of the oldest families of this vicinity, passed away at his home 533 N. Fifth Street, at 8:15 this morning, January 24, 1924.

The deceased was born January 8, 1849, on a farm in Brooke Co. near what is now known as East Steubenville. He was a son of the late Hon. Nathaniel and Rebecca Wells. Nathaniel Wells, his father, was a member of the Virginia state legislature before the state was divided into Virginia and West Virginia. He was prominent in Virginia politics and was widely known for his work in the legislature.

Mr. Wells lived on the farm where he was born, engaging in agriculture, until 1884. At that time, he came to this city and has lived here ever since. On June 23, 1873, he married Mary E. Cowan, of Bethany. They would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last June, but Mrs. Wells passed away a few months before.

After he came to Steubenville, Mr. Wells became engaged in the grocery business. He owned two grocery stores which he kept for years. After selling his two business establishments several years ago, he became affiliated with the Pitcairn Products Co., of Newark, N. J., becoming a salesman for this company.

He was the agent in the Steubenville district for this company, having his headquarters in an office in the rear of his home. He sold these products throughout this district.

He was a devout member of the Christian church and was an officer in the church. Mr. Wells was active in all the affairs of the church and was a devout Christian. While in business and as a salesman in his later years, Mr. Wells had a reputation for honest and square dealing. He had a likable personality and during his many years in this city built up a circle of countless friends who today were grieved to learn of his death.

He is survived by the following children, Mrs. Katharine Netting, 533 North Fifth Street; Dr. L. N. D. Wells, pastor of the East Dallas Christian church, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Pearl Wells Bright, Wilkinsburg, Pa. and Mrs. Mildred Wells Olander, also of Wilkinsburg.

One brother, Todd R. Wells, of Oklahoma City, and one sister, Mrs. Alice Mann, of Columbus, also survive.

WELLS FUNERAL.

Funeral services of E. T. Wells were held this afternoon at 2:30 from the late home, 533 North Fifth Street. Rev. Johnson of the First Christian Church had charge of the services and the church choir furnished the music. Pall bearers were F. B. Olander, Fred Helfer, Fred Mahan, Todd Bullard, Foster Walker and Graham Bright. Interment was in Union cemetery, Steubenville, Ohio.

WILL

IN THE NAME OF THE BENEVOLENT FATHER OF ALL:

I, Ephraim T. Wells, of the City of Steubenville, Jefferson County, Ohio, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

ITEM FIRST:

It is my will that all of my just debts and expenses shall be paid as soon as practicable after my decease.

ITEM SECOND:

I will and bequeath to my daughter, Katharine Netting, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars and my folding bed in front room and dresser in the room now occupied by me.

ITEM THIRD:

I will and bequeath to my son, Rev. L. N. D. Wells, of Dallas, Texas, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars. I also will and bequeath to my said son, Rev. L.N.D. Wells, my two pieced quilts and any books in my library he may want, excepting the set of books called "The History of Our Country".

Item Fourth:

I will and bequeath to my daughter, Pearl Wells Bright, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars; also my bookcase with desk attached and the set of books called "The History of Our Country".

ITEM FIFTH:

I will and bequeath to my daughter, Mildred Wells Olander, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars and my kitchen cabinet, table and table linens.

ITEM SIX:

I will and bequeath to Mrs. Laura Davies the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars and my phonograph with the records belonging thereto.

ITEM SEVENTH:

All the residue of my household goods, including silverware, pictures, etc., I will and bequeath to my son, Rev. L.N.D. Wells, my daughters, Katharine Netting, Pearl Wells Bright, Mildred Wells Olander, and Laura Davies, share and share alike, so far as they may choose the same, and any portion or part of my household goods they may not desire to have, the same shall be sold and reduced to money to be applied in the payment of the legacies herein mentioned.

ITEM EIGHTH:

I will and bequeath to The First Christian Church of Steubenville, Ohio, known in the Year Books as the Disciples of Christ, the sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150) Dollars, to be used for the building fund of said church.

ITEM NINTH:

I will and bequeath to The Womens Christian Temperance Union of Steubenville, Ohio, the sum of Fifty ($50) Dollars.

ITEM TENTH:

I will and bequeath to The Womens Missionary Society, Number One, of The First Christian Church of Steubenville, Ohio, the sum of Fifty ($50) Dollars.

ITEM ELEVENTH:

I will and bequeath to W. D. Cunningham, in trust for The Yatsuya Mission, Tokyo, Japan, the sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150) Dollars.

Will of Ephraim T. Wells.

The four above items and bequests are made in sacred memory of my beloved wife, Mary E. Wells.

ITEM TWELFTH:

It is my will that my executor shall invest the sum of One Thousand and Sixty-two ($1062) Dollars in such manner as they may deem proper, and to pay the net income therefrom to Mrs. Alice Mann, whose present address is 743 Neal Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

The said sum of $1062 was left to me in trust by my father, Nathaniel Wells, the interest of which trust fund is to be paid to my sister, Mrs. Alice Mann, during her natural life. At the death of Mrs. Alice Mann, said sum of $1062 is to be paid to the heirs of my sister, Mrs. Richard Mahan.

ITEM THIRTEEN:

I will and bequeath to The United Christian Missionary Society of The Christian Church, with offices at St. Louis, Missouri, known in the Year Book as Disciples of Christ, the sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars, as an annuity to my son, Rev. L.N.D. Wells, and the sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars as an annuity to my daughter, Katharine Netting, and the sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars as an annuity to my daughter, Mildred Wells Olander.

At the death of my said children, the said several sums of money shall be the absolute property of the United Christian Missionary Society of the Christian Church, as above named, to be used to advance the Kingdom of our Lord.

ITEM FOURTEEN:

I will and bequeath to W. D. Cunningham, in trust for The Yatsuya Mission, Tokyo, Japan, the sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars, as an annuity to my daughter, Pearl Wells Bright, and the sum of Five Hundred Dollars as an annuity to Laura Davies.

At the death of my daughter, Pearl Wells Bright and at the death of Laura Davies, the respective sums so willed in trust as aforesaid shall become the absolute property of The Yatsuya Mission of Tokyo, Japan, to be used to promote the Kingdom of our Lord.

ITEM FIFTEEN:

It is my will that my farm in Brooke County, West Virginia, and my real estate in the City of Steubenville, shall be sold by my executors as hereinafter provided, and all of my stocks and bonds, my stock of Toilet Articles and Household Goods in which I deal, and property of every character not hereinbefore disposed of, shall be sold and reduced to money, and after the payment of my debts and expenses and the payment and satisfaction of all of the foregoing legacies all of the residue of the proceeds of the sale of said property and all the money left in the hands of the executors of my will, I will and bequeath to my four children, Katharine Netting, Rev. L.N.D. Wells, Pearl Wells Bright, and Mildred Wells Olander, share and share alike.

ITEM SIXTEENTH:

It is my will that my children and also Laura Davies, shall have the right and are hereby given the power to designate as to what branch of missionary work the moneys authorized to be paid by this my will as annuities shall be applied

ITEM SEVENTEENTH:

I do hereby nominate and appoint my two sons-in-law, Graham Bright and Frank Olander, executors of this my last Will and Testament without bond. I have every confidence in my sons-in-law and am trusting them to fully carry out the provisions of this will without giving any bond.

I do hereby authorize and empower my executors to sell at Public or private sale all of my real estate situated in the State of West Virginia or the State of Ohio, of wherever situated or wherever found, and all the real estate of which I shall die seized, at public or private sale, at such time as they may deem proper and at such price and upon such terms as they may think best, and deeds in fee simple to execute and deliver to the purchasers therefor.

My executors shall sell any personal property to me belonging, including my stock of toilet articles and household goods in which I deal, and any household goods my children and Laura Davies may not see proper to select, at private or public sale as they may deem proper.

My executors shall apply any moneys I have to my credit or on deposit in the bank, first, to the payment of my debts and expenses and any portion that may be left to any of the legacies in this my will mentioned. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand this 15th day of January, 1923.

Cove United Presbyterian Church

Clergy associated with church to attend

The year-long activities marking the 200th anniversary of Cove United Presbyterian Church in Weirton will culminate with a special church service Sunday, when Price H. Gwynn III, moderator of the General Assembly, will be special guest speaker. He is the highest official of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and an elder at the Steele Creek Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, N. C.

During the 11 a.m. worship service, Gwynn will extend greetings of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and will make a presentation at the 1:30 p.m. program. He will be available for a 20 minute question and answer period.

The sermon, "Not As They Do!" will be delivered by the Rev. Inn Soon Choi, a former associate pastor at Cove Church. Choi is in his 14th year as pastor of Parkview Presbyterian Church, a 400 member congregation in Reynolds-burg, Ohio. Mrs. Ron Choi will be the soloist, singing "How Beautiful."

Other special guests of the day will be individuals who grew up at Cove Church and entered the ministry.

Returning favorite sons of the church will include the Rev. Robert Marsh of First Presbyterian Church, St. Mary's County, California, Md.; the Rev. Robert Brown, son of the late Dr. G. Ousley Brown, (former pastor) and associate pastor of Collingwood Presbyterian Church, Wexford, Pa., the Rev. Franklyn McHendry, retired 25-year pastor of Clearwater-Largo Presbyterian Church; and the Rev. Robert Gracey, clergy member of the Upper Ohio Valley Presbytery who supplies area pulpits.

Other special guests will include the Rev. Richard Baker, executive Presbyter of the Presbytery of the Upper Ohio Valley; Nancy Ludewig of Mingo Junction, moderator of the Upper Ohio Valley; and John Contoveros, a seminary student at Dallas Theological Seminary and an affiliate member of Cove Church.

The worship service will begin at 11 a.m. in the church sanctuary. A luncheon, program and reception will follow in the church fellowship hall.

The year long celebration was observed with several services and activities in combination with the sister church in Paris. A day long service in the mode of the early services was held with attendees dressing in period costumes. It was the first time in 130 years the congregations joined together to observe their common foundation.

Paris Presbyterian Church

Fellowship featured at day-long event

On Sunday, The Paris Presbyterian Church in Paris, Pa., will be celebrating its 200th birthday during a day long observance.

The day will begin at 10 a.m. with a fellowship hour hosted by the church's bicentennial committee. There will be no Sunday School classes this week only.

The special morning worship service, with the Sacrament of Communion, will begin at 11 a.m.

Special guests will include members of 50 years and some of the former pastors and interim pastors.

Preaching at the 11 a.m. worship service will be former pastor, Dr. Elwin Vanderland, of San Antonio, Tx, who served the Paris Church from 1984 to 1987.

Immediately following the morning worship service there will be a catered dinner served in the church fellowship hall. Emphasis was placed on the fellowship of returning friends and present members so there will be time following dinner to visit. A few dinners will be available for last member attendees.

More information may be obtained from the church office at (412) 729-3450.

During the past year, the congregation has been remembering its 200 years of existence with several special events, some with the Cove Presbyterian Church. Both Paris and Cove were formed from the Three Springs Presbyterian Church which held its first worship service on the third Sunday of November 1790.

The Paris Church moved to a site near the state line a bit south of the village of Paris. All manner of perils faced the parishioners in the pioneer days, Indian attacks, cold, snow, animals and little money. However a small log cabin was built by donations of supplies and labor with the men and boys doing the building.

According to a story handed down through the ages, the stove was stocked with wood and lit to provide heat one cold and snowy Sunday. No one knows for sure what happened but the roof of the building caught fire during the service. The men tried to put out the fire by tossing snow on the roof, but there were too few men and too much fire. The boys were admonished to come and help but, as the story is told, they danced around in glee thinking they would not be pushed out of bed on cold Sunday mornings if there was no church to attend.

The church then moved to the building which now houses Progar-Nicola's Store which was built by the Secedor congregation. It then moved to the present site and has undergone many additions and remodelings since occupying the present site.

150TH ANNIVERSARY

Paris Presbyterian Church will celebrate the 150th anniversary of its organization late this month with a week long program that will conclude with the dedication of a large new addition to the church building.

The sesqui-centennial celebration will open Sunday, October 20, and will include a homecoming service to be held Thursday, October 24.

The dedication of the enlarged church is to be held Sunday, October 27.

Plans for the dedication were made this week when a delegation of ministers representing Washington Presbytery met with the Rev. R. L. Biddle, pastor of the church. Representing the Presbytery were, Rev. John C. Teyssier, of Laboratory; Rev. William Longbrake, of Claysville; the Rev. S.W. Young, of Van Buren, and the Rev. C. S. Thomas, of Hickory.

The size of the church building has been doubled by a large addition to the rear, necessiated by growth of the congregation and the community by the church. The main floor of the addition will be used for Sunday School services and social activities. Under it has been dug a cellar in which the church's first furnace has been installed.

Novel "Come As You Are" Party Held At Paris Presbyterian Church, Tuesday

Fifty-two women taken by surprise enjoyed the novel "Come As You Are" party sponsored on Tuesday at the Paris-Presbyterian church.

The women who were invited to the party with last minute notice came attired in housecoats, house-dresses, slacks, farm and garden wear. With their costumes were pin-curls and the "sleepy look."

Some of the most outstanding costumes were worn by Mrs. Percy Mills, Mrs. Herman Hanlin, Mrs. Arthur Richter, Mrs. George Heilman, Mrs. T. O. Jones and Mrs. F. R. Gordon.

Light refreshments were served and the money derived was turned over to the class treasurer. In charge of the affair were Mrs. Alva Hess and Mrs. Percy Mills.

Among those in attendance were, Leonore Long, Murtle Virtue, Nell Harlan, Velva Lowes, Leah Long, Carol Hanlin, Laura Bainbridge, Mrs. Ted Harrington, Francis Hooper, Jeny Hooper, Golda Cummings, Alzada Neeley, Alma Jones, Carolyn Jones, Sue Tedrow, Linda Sue Tedrow, Nancy Jo Tedrow, Alice Murchland, Jennie Dhayer, Leonore Wilson, Mrs. Charles Patton, Doris Wilson, Oia Wilson, Mary Hanlin, Dorothy Brady.

Rev. David A. Haines To Leave Paris For First Presbyterian Church, E. McKeesport

The Rev. David A. Haines, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church for the past four years, has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian church of East McKeesport and expects to take up his new pastorate about the middle of November.

Born in Burgettstown, Rev. Haines graduated from Union high school and Waynesburg college, and in 1954 was graduated from Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh. He is married to the former Mona Inglefield, and is the father of three children: David 7, Faith Elizabeth 4 and Joel Donaldson 2.

For two years, Rev. Haines was with the U. S. Army, serving in Korea. He served as pastor of the Raccoon Presbyterian church at Candor for 2½ years, previous to a call to the Paris church. In 1953 he founded and directed a Community Civic Chorus in Burgettstown.

While serving the Paris church, Rev. Haines has seen many new accomplishments. The church was re-modeled and redecorated. A new organ was installed and a large memorial library was instituted. A chapter of Presbyterian men was organized, as well as a junior and senior Westminster Fellowship, composed of 60 young people. A chancel choir of 30 voices and two junior choirs of 40 voices were organized. The membership of the congregation was tripled during his pastorate.

The First Presbyterian church of East McKeesport, with over 900 members, is in a large and flourishing community. The educational unit was built 17 years ago and a large Gothic-type sanctuary was built two years ago. The former pastor, Dr. D. L. Say, was a former minister of the Cross Creek Presbyterian church from 1917 to 1923, and pastor at the East McKeesport church for 33½ years.

Installation services for Rev. Haines will take place in the East McKeesport church Sunday, November 24 at 7 p.m. Rev. Haines told an Enterprise reporter, "I cordially invite all of my friends in the community to attend my installation."

Minister Breaks Leg

Rev. C. G. Allen, of Hollidays Cove, is suffering from a broken leg, which he sustained early Monday morning. Mr. Allen was to officiate at the funeral of A. E. McCabe, of Paris, Monday. After his preaching service Sabbath evening he retired to his study to prepare the funeral sermon and worked until two o'clock next morning. He then went to the stable to attend to his horse before going to rest, and in leaving the house received the fall which resulted so disastrously. The left leg was broken about midway between the ankle and knee. Rev. Mr. Allen has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Paris for twenty-five or thirty years.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES MARK SESQUICENTENNIAL AT PARIS PRESB. CHURCH

The closing song, "God Bless America" sung by Mrs. Wayne Culley of Burgettstown, and the benediction by Rev. C. S. Thomas of Mt. Prospect Presbyterian church brought to a close, what was well named "A Wonderful Week" in Paris Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Biddle and his loyal flock, were celebrating the Sesqui-Centennial, or 150th birthday of their church. Five months ago, it was decided by the congregation, to fittingly celebrate the occasion, so 11 committees of 5 each were named to be in charge of the whole affair. The following chairmen of committees were named: Arrangements: Rev. R. L. Biddle; Music Clyde Herrington; Invitation, Mrs. W. P. Ferguson; Decorations, Alice Murchland; Finance, A. C. Fulton; History, Bertha Long; Parking and Transportation, H. A. Lyons; Printing and Registration, Betty Neely; Antique Display, Ada Fulton; Lunch, Bertie Goodman; Ushering, Roy Hurd.

The celebration got a good start last Sunday evening which was known as "Worship Night" when Rev. S. G. Neal of Clinton brought an inspiring message.

One special feature of this service was the special music, furnished by the orchestra of the Mt. Pisgah Sunday School with A. J. Fordenbacker as director. It had been decided to register the name of each person attending any service during the week. The registrations obtained by the Committee on this first evening numbered 140. The total registration was near 500, while the total attendance during the week was 1400.

Wednesday evening was known as "Neighbor Night". The names of Neighbor churches were called and representatives stood up to be counted. Then some one, either the pastor or some one else, brought the greetings from the church. The following churches brought their greetings Pleasant Valley Methodist, Tucker M. E., Eldersville and Bethel M. P. Frankfort U. P., Langeloth and Tent U. P., Raccoon Presbyterian Frankfort Springs Presbyterian, Burgettstown First, and Westminster Presbyterian and First U. P., Cross Creek, Mt. Prospect and Florence Presbyterian, which church is recognized as the Mother of Paris church. The largest delegation was from the Presbyterian church of Hollidays Cove which is recognized as a twin-sister, being also 150 years old.

The address of the evening was by Richard M. Gibson of Mt. Lebanon, Pittsburgh, who used as his subject "The duty and beauty of Loyalty".

Thursday was the great day of the feast, known as "Home Coming" with services at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m. Ladies served lunch at midday and evening. In the morning the address of Welcome was delivered by Clyde Herrington, which was responded to by J. D. Marsh of Carnegie. Then followed many greetings and reminiscent talks from former members. Some touching, some amusing. The high spot of the morning was the address of Mrs. W. E. Allen of Pittsburgh. In her remarks she paid an eloquent tribute to Rev. C. G. Allen who for 44 years had been pastor of the Paris church. Her husband, Rev. W. E. Allen, who for a time was pastor of Frankfort Springs, was a brother of C. G. Allen.

Thursday afternoon brought together a fine company of friends. Greetings from former members and friends were read. Short addresses followed by Rev. C. H. Beck of Eldersville, and Rev. H. W. Strobel of East Butler. The Moderator of General Assembly, Dr. Young had sent a Message,—as had the Moderator of the Synod, Dr. W. W. McKinney. The Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. J. C. Teysier was present and delivered a stirring address. Rev. R. E. Carman, the one appointed to bring the greetings of Washington Presbytery, was listened to with interest. The afternoon was closed with a touching address by Mrs. Allen.

The evening hour found the church crowded to hear Rev. P. W. Macaulay of Cleveland, O. Rev. Macaulay was a pastor at Florence and Frankfort Springs 25 years ago and has every body as his friend. He was exceedingly happy in his address.

Friday night was "Historical Night" and again saw a large gathering. Prof. Charles Campbell of Hollidays Cove brought the local history in an interesting 20 minute address. He was followed by Rev. E. B. Welsh, D. D. of Coraopolis who spoke on the early history of Presbyterianism in Western Pennsylvania. His address was most interesting, made more-so by the pictures shown.

Sunday was Dedication Day, and brought together the whole country side. At 11 a. m. Dr. Biddle, the pastor, assisted by Rev. J. C. French who brought the Message, performed the solemn ceremony of dedication of the new annex to the present building. The large congregation stood reverently, as the officers came forward and knelt as the building was given to God in Prayer.

At 2:30 in the afternoon the Fraternal meeting was held when many three minute congratulatory addresses were heard by laymen and ministers. The praise part of this service could hardly be excelled. An orchestra of 14 instruments directed by Karl W. Niekamp of Wellsburg, W. Va. gave a Sacred concert, in connectin with the service. The choir from the Mt. Pisgah Presbyterian church, to the number of 16 assisted the local choir, rendering four selections. Rev. W. H. Flurkey was with Dr. Biddle in the pulpit, pronouncing the benediction.

The evening closing session was again delighted by the special music of the orchestra under Mr. Niekamp. There were solos also by Mrs. Wayne Culley and Clayton Stemple of Crafton. The sermon was by Rev. C. S. Thomas of Hickory who brought the greetings of the Mt. Prospect Presbyterian church. Thus came to a close perhaps the most wonderful week of old "Three Springs Presbyterian Church" 150 years history.

PARIS PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION WILL BUILD ADDITION TO CHURCH GROUND-BREAKING TO BE HELD SUN.

The congregation of the Paris Presbyterian church will hold proper ceremonies on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock when ground will be broken for an addition to the church edifice. Calvert Lyons, president of the Board of Trustees of the congregation, which has been continuously in existence since 1790, more than 150 years, will break ground for a T-shaped wood and composition structure, which will be 52 by 30 feet, and will be used for Sunday school purposes and as a recreational and social center for church activities.

Rev. R. L. Biddle, who has been pastor to the church for the past five years reports that the growing congregation now boasts a membership of 60 families with a Sunday school enrollment of 150 young people. When Rev. Biddle assumed charge of the pastorate following the death of Dr. Cyrus Allen about five years ago, the church membership was but 20 families. Previous to his death, Dr. Allen had faithfully served the congregation as pastor for more than forty five years.

The Paris Presbyterian church was originally organized in 1790 as the Three Springs Presbyterian church, and just this past year became known as the Paris Presbyterian church. The present brick church was built in 1857.

Rev. Biddle will preside at the ceremonies and will be assisted by the various organizations of the church. Addresses will be made by Rev. E. O. Gardner of McDonald, Rev. D. S. Vance of Cross Creek and Rev. Logan Barnes of Hollidays Cove. Appropriate music will be furnished by the Union high school band, led by O. Glenn Aiken.

Plans for the addition have been drawn up by Architect J. F. Busse of Pittsburgh, who estimates the cost at about $5000. Andrew Fulton has been named chairman of the building committee and the men of the church have pledged themselves to give material assistance in labor in the building. The Ladies Aid Society through their president, Mrs. Jessie Ralston have pledged the sum of $500 toward the building cost. Rev. Biddle has been elected treasurer of the building fund.

The congregation is receiving valuable aid from the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian church, which will loan the congregation $1.00 for every $2.00 invested, without interest charges for a period of 10 years.

Peters Creek church to vacate Venetia location

By SUZANNE ELLIOTT
Staff writer
sellott@thealmanac.net

The congregation of the Peters Creek Evangelical Presbyterian Church will vacate its location on Brookwood Road in Venetia at the end of April, essentially closing the door on a lengthy legal battle over the ownership of the building that rose from a split in church membership nearly a decade ago.

Beginning May 3, the 309-member Peters Creek Evangelical Presbyterian Church will meet in the Parish Hall of St. David's Episcopal Church on East McMurray Road.

In 2007, the church, then known as Peters Creek United Presbyterian Church, voted to leave Presbyterian Church (U.S.) for the more conservative Evangelical Presbyterians. In May 2014, the Commonwealth Court ruled the title to the property belongs to the minority, not the break-away group.

The congregation gave the Washington Presbytery a 30-day advance notice required to leave the property. Its last Sunday service will be April 26. It will also mark the end of 220 years of continuous worship at the location.

Rev. Doug Brandt, the church's senior minister and designated spokesman, would not comment on the vote. He would not disclose whether the church was looking for a permanent home, but said more announcements would be forthcoming.

Besides ruling in favor of the minority, Common Pleas Judge Gary Gilman ruled the Evangelical group, effective October 29, 2014, had to pay $3,000 a month, or any portion of any month to Peters Creek United Presbyterian Church for occupancy. The minority rented property at 800 Venetia Road, Venetia.

Rev. Kris McInnes of St. David's said they are in the process of finishing up negotiations with Peters Creek United Evangelical. He said both churches will operate in different locations in the building and there will be very little overlap with the exception of adult education classes.

"We are in the process of putting together a temporary agreement," said McInnes, adding St. David's could serve as a temporary base for the church for anywhere from eight to 12 months.

"GAY NINETIES" REUNION

Everything is ready for the Reunion of the "Survivors of the Gay Nineties" at Raccoon church, Candor, Pa., Saturday, August 2, 10:30 E.S.T. The committees follow: General Chairman C. H. Russell; Grounds and tables, John Neal, Nesbit Neal, Dale Neal, O. V. Aiken, Neal Matchett, Mac Smyers, Lee Wyke, J. M. Aiken; Dinner Committee, Mrs. J. M. Aiken, Mrs. J. S. Russell, Miss Jane M. Cummins, Mrs. Edward Simpson, Miss Mary Aten, Mrs. R. M. Donaldson, Mrs. W. E. Dickson, Mrs. Neal Matchett, Mrs. Clara Glass and Mrs. Earl Emiley.

There seems to be an impression that only "Survivors of the Gay Nineties" are expected. It includes their families, friends, children and grandchildren. However, we draw a line at great-grandchildren, as that might make some of us look too old.

Raccoon Class Elects Officers

The Raccoon Presbyterian Friendship Class held a covered dish chicken dinner Tuesday noon in the home of Mrs. Charles Rommes, R. D. 1, Bulger. A large cake formed the table centerpiece and Valentine decorations were used. Covers were laid for Mrs. James Richards, Miss Mary Aten, Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. Thomas Bridges, Mrs. Samuel Cully, Mrs. Neal Matchett, Mrs. Charles Matchett, and Mrs. Robert Cummins. Mrs. John Love and Darlene Cummins were guests.

The regular business meeting followed and the president, Mrs. Richards, presided. Mrs. Cummins led the devotions. Officers for 1944 were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles Rommes, president; Mrs. John Neal, vice president; Miss Mary Aten, re-elected secretary and treasurer. The class has purchased a new silk service flag to replace the cotton one. The class also voted to purchase a $100 bond in this Fourth War Bond Drive. Mrs. Carl Loffert's name was added to the roll. A Valentine greeting card was autographed by each one present and was sent to the teacher, Mrs. G. M. Kerr, of Oakdale, who was unable to be present.

FORT VANCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
A Visit to Historic Fort Beelor
The Raccoon Presbyterian Church and the Graveyard Attached to the Church

May 24, 1972 - 7 p.m.

Raccoon Presbyterian Church was organized in or about 1780 and the first church building here was erected in 1781. The present building was built just 100 years ago, in 1872. Other buildings here were dated 1785 and 1830. Historic pastorates to be noted in our meeting in this Church are those of the following men:

The Rev. Joseph Patterson	1789-1816
The Rev. Moses Allen	1817-1838
The Rev. Clement V. McKaig	1841-1865
The Rev. Greer M. Kerr, D.D.	1871-1930

Plaques have been placed on the wall of the sanctuary of this Church which testify to the valuable services here of the Rev. Mr. Patterson and of the Rev. Dr. Kerr.

Fort Beelor, one of the early pioneer forts of this area, was located on the tract of land patented by Samuel Beelor, who had settled here as early as 1774. The location of this old fort will be pointed out near the site of the Raccoon Church. Eventually, when a village arose here it came to be known as Candor and is so known to the present time.

A Tour of historic graves in the old graveyard adjoining the Church will be conducted under the direction of Mr. James Kerr, a life-long member of the Raccoon Church. This will be followed by a display of historic materials in the Sunday School room of the Church, and the formal program of the evening in the sanctuary.

Historic Graves to be visited in the Graveyard will include the following:

The oldest marked grave: That of Mrs. Martha Bigger, died May 20, 1780, and of her son, Thomas Bigger, died February 7, 1829.

Mary Christy died 1851, aged 76 years, and Elizabeth Christy, died 1858, aged 79 years. These women were sisters.

A cenotaph to the memory of the Rev. Joseph Patterson who, however, is not buried here.

John McDonald died 1817 and his wife, Martha Nobel McDonald died 1830

George Allison died 1840 and his wife, Martha (McDonald) Allison died 1855

Robert Glenn died 1837 and his wife, Margaret (McDonald) Glenn died 1860

Christopher Smith died 1811 and his wife, Sarah Smith died 1825

Joseph Scott and Mary, his wife, both of whom died in 1822

William Sturgeon died 1836 aged 80 years. His wife, Mary, died 1846 aged 87 years.

John Sturgeon died 1868 aged 79 years. His wife, Jane, died 1892 at the age of 97 years. Jane Sturgeon was a relative of President William Henry Harrison. She once traveled over the mountains by horse-back to visit at Washington, D.C.

William T. Annen died 1876 aged 60 years. His wife, Marie Annen died in 1902 aged 86 years. Her father, Thomas Trimmer, was a nephew of Gen. (Mad) Anthony Wayne of Revolutionary War and Indian Wars fame.

Jane McFarland, first wife of Samuel McFarland, died 1853 aged 39 years. Matilda McFarland, second wife of Samuel, died 1865 aged 42 years. She was killed on a Sunday morning by a runaway team while on the way to this Church. Her body was dragged almost to the church door and in sight of many members of the congregation who had arrived early.

Benjamin Chestnut, veteran of the War of the Revolution, died in 1843 at the age of 80 years. His wife, Ann Chestnut, died 1836 aged 73 years.

Matthew Bailey died 1836 aged 86 years. John Bailey died 1851 aged 86. These were the oldest and the youngest sons of Alexander Bailey, an early settler about a mile north of the Church.

Thomas Partridge died 1850 aged 86 years. Ann Partridge died 1842 aged 72 years.

The people whose names comprise this list are representative of the type of people who settled this area, and the names also indicate the extent of the territory served by the Raccoon Church and by this old graveyard.

As will be pointed out, the Cemetery here at Raccoon Church is made up of four sections; and the graves to be visited are in the part which might be referred to as the "Graveyard", the oldest part. Some of the names found in this older part are found also in other sections of the Raccoon Cemetery as members of later generations of these families passed on and are buried there.

In our visit to the Raccoon "Graveyard," we have discovered again that much history can be found in these old burial grounds of our Ft. Vance area.

GENE BOYD STUDENT PASTOR AT RACCOON PRESBYTERIAN

Student pastor Gene W. Boyd, who succeeded Rev. David Haines last summer at the Raccoon Presbyterian church, Candor and the Raccoon Mission, is holding regular services.

Church school begins at 10:15 a. m., followed by a worship service at 11:15 and the young peoples meeting at 2:30 in the afternoon. Wednesday evening prayer service at 8 p. m. Mr. Boyd conducts worship service Sundays at 9 a. m., in the Raccoon Presbyterian Mission which is in charge of Miss Marian Line, missionary.

Mr. Boyd is the son of Mrs. John A. Boyd of Carnegie. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh last June and has entered his first year at the Western Theological Seminary. His wife is the former Florence Midgley of Heidelberg. The Boyds are the parents of three daughters: Carolyn, Cathy and Cynthia.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT AT CHURCH HOMECOMING

A song festival was the principal feature of the annual homecoming at the Raccoon Presbyterian church, at Candor, last Sunday. It was attended by a large number of persons, including present members and former members of the church, as well as many friends.

The singing was lead by Frank Lasher, of Oakdale, to the accompaniment of an orchestra composed of musicians from Burgettstown, Midway, McDonald and Oakdale. Singing of old hymns of the church brought the enthusiastic, united response of the entire congregation.

HISTORICAL NOTES OF RACCOON CHURCH

Raccoon Presbyterian church, one of the oldest churches in Western Pennsylvania, was built in 1781 in close proximity to the old Beilor Fort which then stood immediately southeast of the Raccoon cemetery.

This building was the first of four sanctuaries to hold the name Raccoon church. The first church was of unhewn logs. In 1786, it could no longer accommodate the rapidly increasing congregation whose limits were: Clinton on the north, Hickory on the south, including Noblestown on the east and Burgettstown on the west.

The first church was torn down and another larger log church was erected. In 1830, a large substantial brick church with a seating capacity for 600 was erected on the same ground upon which the log churches had stood.

In the spring of 1872, this building was torn down that a new edifice might stand on the same ground occupied by its three predecessors. This sanctuary stands to the present day. This church, like the previous building, was built of brick; 81x60 ft., two stories high with a seating capacity for 500.

Raccoon church, with its long years of service to God and mankind, has seen relatively few, regularly installed pastors, they are: Rev. Joseph Patterson, Rev. Moses Allen, Rev. Clement V. McKaig, D. D., Rev. Greer M. Kerr, D.D., Rev. H. A. Mosser, D.D., and Rev. James P. Shaw.

One of the greatest honors that can be given a church is to see her sons enter the ministry. Raccoon church has had the privilege of having 25 of her sons ordained into the ministry. The first, Rev. Robert Porter, ordained in 1790 and the last, Rev. Samuel Neal. There have been three missionaries go out from the congregation.

David A. Haines, is serving the congregation as a student pastor, at the present time.

Raccoon Presbyterian Church (brick) dates from Dr. John McMillan's first visit to the Raccoon Creek settlement in 1778. In his journal Dr. McMillan recorded that he preached at Raccoon also in 1779, 1780, 1782, and 1785. The first regular pastor was Joseph Patterson, who served from 1789 to 1816. The congregation's first house of worship was a rough-log meetinghouse built in 1781. This was followed by a hewn-log church of 1785, a brick church of 1830, and the present structure built in 1872-1873. The early pews and original pipe organ have been preserved inside the church. In the front churchyard, about one hundred yards southeast of the church, is the site of Beelor's blockhouse, built by Captain Samuel Beelor, who came to this region around 1774. On his second trip to Raccoon Creek, Dr. McMillan preached at this blockhouse. Location-Candor, PA. Note: An Early Log house, now covered with siding, is next to the Fort Beelor site at the spring.

Robinson church dedicates new addition

By Katherine Pyle
for The Record-Enterprise

The dedication of the new addition to Robinson Presbyterian Church in honor of the Coventry family was attended by about 150 persons Oct. 1, following the morning worship service. Dinner was served by women of the congregation.

Laurie Crawford welcomed the guests and conducted the dedicatory service. She presented two plaques to the church, commemorating the completion of the new addition. One contains the names of those who offered monetary gifts; the other those who gave building materials.

On the first plaque were the names of the Coventry family, Helen and Betty Bigger, Mary McCune, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Yazevac, Janet Stack, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mizenko, Mr. and Mrs. David Barkhurst and Mrs. Ruth Kramer. On the other plaque were the names of Ron and Ruth Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Duran.

Mrs. Crawford also recognized the Rev. Robert Ezzell for his 15 years of service to the church. A gift of appreciation was presented to him. A gift was also given to Mrs. Ruth Glass, who has served as secretary of the congrega-

Mrs. Crawford then named the various workers who contributed to the building of the new addition, which is 30'X50' and includes a kitchen and rest rooms. Cabinets and windows for the addition were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Duran and Mrs. Ruth Glass and son, Ronnie.

Present at the dedicatory ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Coventry and James J. Coventry and daughter, descendants of the original Coventry family that helped establish Robinson Church in the early 1800s. A history of the Coventry family, who came from Scotland and Ireland to America, in the mid-1700s was written for the occasion by Lynette C. Caler, who was among those present. The history was included in the program's bulletin.

Carol Roth of the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary spoke briefly about Rev. Ezzell's work with the Robinson congregation during the past 15 years.

A journal, prepared by Mildred Duran, was circulated among the guests. It showed pictures marking the progress of the new addition. Dinner was under the direction of JoAnn Duran. Dinner music was provided by Bill Campbell of Oakdale.

The congregation joined organist Amy Glass in singing a hymn and Rev. Ezzell led in the reading of the dedicatory declaration. Workers listed in the bulletin for their services in building were:

Groundbreaking: Jim and Starr Shoup and family; Howard and Ron Glass; Dave and Janice Duran and family; Mike and Mildred Duran; Put Foley.

Site Preparation: Howdy Glass and Put Foley.

Foundation Work: Mark Crawford, Mike and Lloyd Duran; Jim and Starr Shoup.

Electrical: Jim Shoup.

Plumbing: Mark and Bob Crawford; Mike, Lloyd and Joel Duran.

Insulation: Jim Shoup and family; Put Foley; Denny Glass; Lloyd and Tim Duran.

Drywall: Don and Ryan Duran; Nello DiMinarco; Mark Crawford.

Water Hauling: Howdy Glass.

Landscaping: Matt Glass (as a project for Eagle Scouting); Jacob Shoup; Stephen Duran; Ron, Howdy and Denny Glass.

Fundraising and Publicity: Laurie Crawford.

Painting: Ron Glass; Laurie Crawford; Starr Shoup; Trudy Green; Andrea Duran.

History of St. John's Church

With courage and faith in God, the founders of St. John's Church left their homeland in the Carpathian Mountain Region of Austria-Hungary and came to America in the early days of the Twentieth Century. Leaving an impoverished area in Europe, where they struggled bitterly to survive, our forefathers were seeking a better land in order to establish a new life. Many of them settled in southwestern Pennsylvania and found work in the mining communities of this region. Although they had to work hard to earn a meager living, the difficult life in Europe prepared them well for the task ahead and enabled them to succeed.

In their homeland, our people attended church on Sunday which occupied the center of their lives and their strong faith helped them to overcome many obstacles. There was no church here for them to continue this tradition so they immediately began to formulate plans for erecting a church where their belief in God could again be expressed. In 1916 a dozen men who represented about thirty-one families met in the home of Michael Haverlack, Sr. to discuss the project. In order to proceed, they realized a Priest would be needed to administer their spiritual needs. Arrangements were made for a priest to visit them at Eastertime and the first Divine Liturgy was offered in Avella at Wiegmann's hall on Main Street in Avella. Later on when new quarters had to be located, the Cross Creek Township school directors permitted them to use Buckeye School, which was located near the site of the first St. John's Church. During the years from 1917 to 1919, the faithful were served by priests from Mingo Junction, Ohio, Carnegie and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Already chartered as a corporation in the State of Pennsylvania, a parcel of land was purchased from the Pittsburgh and Southwestern Coal Company located in Greensburg. This property was conveyed to the Church on November 1, 1919 and was located in Cross Creek Township on the Avella-Atlasburg Road. The trustees of the church at that time were: Paul Rusinko, Peter Rusinko, Demeter Koczur, Demeter Machuzak, Mike Popovich, and Joseph Puhlik.

In Order to achieve their goal, the church leaders canvassed the families in the area to obtain needed funds. A loan of Eight Thousand Dollars was obtained under the supervision of Fr. Nicholas Sagon of Mingo Junction, Ohio and a new church began to rise. Upon its completion, Fr. Valentine Staurostowsky became the first resident pastor. After his departure, Fr. Stephen Gulyassy, resident pastor in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, at the time, administered the parish on a part time basis, beginning in late 1920. Upon the latter's transfer to Cleveland, Ohio, Fr. George Simchak was assigned to serve the needs of the Byzantine Rite Catholics in the area as a resident pastor.

At the same time, another group of Byzantine Catholics settled in the Burgettstown area and they also longed to worship God in their traditional way. For lack of a church, they assembled in various homes and halls for Sunday services. Fr. George Chegin from Toronto, Ohio, served the parish occasionally. Eventually a church was erected in Slovan in 1918 and Fr. Simchak took up residence in Burgettstown so that he would be centrally located and be able to serve Avella, Burgettstown and Weirton. However, misfortune struck and the new church was destroyed by fire. Fr. Simchak then moved to Avella, where he did much to solidify the parishioners in the area. He was succeeded by Fr. Michael Warady in 1926 and followed shortly by Fr. Michael Krivonyak.

In 1927, the community suffered a terrible misfortune in the form of a coal strike. Picket lines were formed at the mine entrance to prevent outsiders, who were brought in by the mine owners, from entering the workplace. This caused a great deal of tension and there were many physical clashes between the striking miners and the company's "coal and iron" police. Since many of the workers lived in company-owned houses, they were evicted by the owners and had to move to hastily built wooden barracks until the strike was finally settled some time later.

Needless to say, this crippled the financial ability of the community and the parish could no longer support a resident pastor. Consequently, Fr. Andrew Dzmura, who was stationed at St. Michael's in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania at the time, took care of spiritual needs of the faithful until 1932. During these difficult times, it was often impossible for a priest to travel to Avella for Sunday services. On these occasions, the people would assemble in church to worship God by praying the Sunday Matins. John Whitco, Jr. and Steve Haverlack led the people in singing God's praises. The donations during this critical period were extremely low.

Despite the very difficult times, the faithful did not give up hope, but continued to persevere in order to maintain the parish to the best of their ability. In 1933 a committee consisting of John Haverlack, Peter Gripp and John Chizmar, Sr. traveled to Munhall, Pennsylvania for an audience with Bishop Basil Takach to request a pastor for St. John's. As a result, Bishop Takach designated Fr. George Michaylo, the pastor of St. Michael's Church in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, to celebrate the Divine Liturgy in Avella at least twice a month. In 1934, he was succeeded by Fr. Nicholas Elko, who was destined to become Bishop of the Pittsburgh Diocese twenty-one years later. This was Fr. Elko's first parish, and his enthusiasm is still remembered by many.

Financial difficulties still plagued the parish, and it faced foreclosure or payment of a $4,400.00 mortgage still outstanding from the construction of the church. The Lincoln National Bank of Avella, which held the mortgage, informed the congregation that they would settle for the amount of $1,300.00. Consequently, Joseph Curtis, John Haverlack and John Whitco visited each parishioner in an effort to obtain the necessary funds. At great personal sacrifice, the people donated a sum total of $1,000.00. Mr. Don S. Lane, receiver of the bank, sympathized with the congregation's courage and intense desire to save the church, and agreed to settle the mortgage in full for $1,000.00 on August 7, 1936.

During these early years, summer school was held at the church for those youngsters who had a way to attend. It was taught by Mr. George Hrabich, an elderly Cantor who lived nearby. He was a strict disciplinarian and did not hesitate to dole out different forms of penance for those who did not "toe the mark." He taught only the Slavonic language, but it gave the young kids of that time something new to think about and learn at an early age.

At this time, people from the Burgettstown area would come to the Avella church. In 1936 and 1937, a thorough canvass of that area was made to have more people avail themselves of the facilities in Avella. With the resultant increase in the attendance, St. John's status became permanent and its growth insured. Bus transportation was arranged, and in 1951 the parish itself purchased a bus.

In 1939, Fr. Elko was replaced by Fr. John Gaspar, and in 1944 he was followed by Fr. John Macko. In 1947, Fr. Vladimir Firczak from Canonsburg was appointed to serve the spiritual needs of the Avella Church for the next five years. With the progress the parish was making, it was apparent that a full time pastor was needed.

In 1952, Bishop Daniel Ivancho responded by appointing Fr. Michael J. Dudick to this task. He worked in the Diocesan Chancery Office in Pittsburgh and also took care of the parish needs in Avella. During the course of the next four years, he did much to bring back many of the parishioners who had strayed from the church. His enthusiasm was further evidenced by a major remodeling of the little church. A new roof, pews, tile floor, acoustic ceiling and additions to the Sanctuary made the old church more inviting as a place of worship.

The formation of the Girls Sodality was another welcome addition to the church during Fr. Dudick's tenure. It afforded the young women of the parish a chance to participate in beautiful May Crowning ceremonies each year and other events that gave them an opportunity to honor the Mother of God. Soon it was evident the church was too small for all intents and purposes and that a larger facility was needed. It was Fr. Dudick who planted the seed for a new church and to him we owe a debt of gratitude.

Before anything further could be done in this regard, he was transferred to another area. In 1955, Fr. Andrew Parvensky succeeded him for a few months and then, later that same year, Fr. John R. Martin, from the Chancery Office, followed. Being young and enthusiastic, much was accomplished during the next four years. In 1957, a new cemetery was purchased in Avella, from the West Point Cemetery Association. It was badly needed so that we would have a consolidated area where our loved ones could be laid to rest after this life was ended. Likewise, that same year, approximately ten acres of land was purchased from the Brozier Family in Avella for the purpose of building a new church. The property was located only about one-half mile from the site of the old church on Avella-Atlasburg Road. The parishioners one day had visions of seeing a new edifice rise there to make their dreams come true.

In 1959, however, Fr. Martin received an appointment to full time diocesan duties in Pittsburgh and the next year witnessed a quick succession of pastors in Fr. Myron Badnerosky, Fr. Paul Graycar and Fr. John Drozda.

In May of 1960, Fr. Paul Bovankovich was appointed by Bishop Elko to administer the spiritual needs of St. John's. The anxiety of the parishioners for progress was very apparent so in November of that same year, a fund raising campaign was conducted which realized pledges in excess of $60,000.00 for the building of a new church. Williams, Trevilcock and Associates, a Pittsburgh architectural firm, was engaged to design a new church, hall and rectory compound for St. John's. On May 7, 1961 the Very Rev. Michael Durisin, Dean of the Pittsburgh South Deanery, officiated at the ground breaking ceremony. Shortly after-

It was interesting to watch the church rise on the site and the parishioners were excited about the whole matter, knowing that they would soon have a new church in which to worship God. Many of them assisted the contractor with some of the various tasks during construction, all of which helped to keep the ultimate costs down.

Finally, the work was completed and the new edifice was dedicated on May 13, 1962. Bishop Elko was present and was the main celebrant at the Divine Liturgy. He expressed his pleasure in being able to take part in the dedication of the new church and commended the parishioners for their good work in getting the job done. Much credit is due to the pioneering spirit of the humble immigrants who came to this land in search of freedom and much faith in God. It will stand as a beacon for those who follow in their footsteps and hopefully carry on the tradition.

In 1967, Fr. Bovankovich was succeeded for a short period by Fr. Frank Estocin and then in 1968 by Fr. George Evancho. The parish continued to flourish during this tenure, and many things were accomplished. The sky light, which was causing maintenance problems, was replaced by a more permanent wooden structure. New paneling was erected in the vestibule and stairway leading to the social hall. Additional lighting was installed where needed for better illumination. New red carpeting was put down throughout the church and sanctuary, which enhanced the appearance and also reduced the noise created by the previous tile floor. Much of this work was done by Fr. George and Steve Spontak. New glass Icons representing various well-known Saints were installed between the nave and the vestibule.

In order to help with the maintenance of the church grounds and cemetery, a new tractor was purchased to ease the workload. Fr. George enjoyed operating the new equipment himself on many occasions, which was commendable. Beautiful flowers were planted along the foundation walls, which also added to the outside appearance of the church. Several picnics were held each year on the church grounds, and the parishioners had an opportunity to socialize with each other. The community of Avella also looked forward to these affairs and contributed to their success. During Fr. George's tenure, the church mortgage was also paid in full beforehand, and the official "burning" was conducted at a banquet in the social hall.

When Fr. George departed in 1984, he was followed for short periods by Fr. George Lasky, Msgr. Raymond Balta, Fr. Anthony DeFronzo and Fr. Daniel Tisak.

In 1988, Fr. Daniel A. Magulick took over the parish and has served its spiritual needs until the present time. This is in addition to his duties as Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Weirton, West Virginia. He has been well received by the parishioners of St. John's who try to cooperate in every way possible, and he is sensitive to their needs.

Many things have been accomplished during Fr. Dan's tenure. A new air-conditioning system was installed about two years ago, which certainly makes it more comfortable when the weather gets hot. A new chandelier was also added in the nave, which has enhanced the beauty of the church. Outdoors, the driveway and parking lot was paved, which was long overdue and has added to the outside appearance.

In preparation for the 75TH ANNIVERSARY, other things have also been done to beautify the church for the occasion. A new light blue rug was installed in the nave and sanctuary, which has added a new dimension. The wooden beams have all been cleaned and new paint applied to the walls. New Icons, Sacramental Table and Hanging Lamps adorn the Sanctuary, all of which gives the church a new and refreshing look. Much of this work was done by the parishioners while some was sublet to outside contractors.

A Lector Program has been instituted in the parish, which has given many parishioners an opportunity to express themselves by liturgical readings during services. Catechism instruction is a regular occurrence before the Liturgy on Sunday morning and lay teachers expend their time and effort so that the youth of the parish are given proper religious instructions.

During the past seventy-five years, our forefathers suffered many hardships and had to overcome difficult obstacles in order to reach this point. With courage, perseverance, and deep faith, they succeeded and left their children a legacy of which they can be proud. Hopefully, they will continue to build on this firm foundation in the years ahead and climb to greater heights with the help of Almighty God.

SECOND U. P. CHURCH OF BURGETTSTOWN

EARLY RELIGIOUS HISTORY PART I - THE SECEDERS

by A.D. White

Since in the early days of this town, the majority of the people were Scotch-Irish, and hence Presbyterians of one sort or another, most of these articles will deal with these religious bodies. Whatever might be said for or against the Scotch-Irish, they were, by and large, religious. It has been said of them that they "kept the Sabbath Day and everything else they could get their hands on." The writer has felt for some time that some account of the organizations, divisions and mergers of these churches in Burgettstown should be recorded, since the facts, well-known to the people of an earlier day, are not so familiar to the present generation.

The first religious organization here, dating from about 1800, was the Seceder, or Associate Presbyterian, Congregation. Conducted as a joint charge with the sister congregation of Mt. Pleasant at Hickory, these two churches united in calling their first pastor, the Rev. W.C. Brownlee, a Scotch-man who came to take charge of the two churches on May 3, 1809. Prior to the election of this pastor, these churches had been maintained as preaching stations and supplied with preaching by Chartiers Presbytery.

The second pastor of the congregations was the Rev. Alexander Donnan, a native of Ireland, who served the Burgettstown Church from May, 1819, until June, 1840, when he resigned his charge to devote his entire time to the Mt. Pleasant Church. Pastors who followed at Burgettstown were: Rev. Robert Hammond, 1845-1857; Rev. S.H. Graham, 1862-1868; and Rev. John Hood, 1868-1878. In October, 1878, the Rev. David Carson was called from the Service U.P. Church in Beaver County to the church at Burgettstown, where as we shall see, he served until 1898.

Half-way between Burgettstown and Hickory, on the ridge road was located, almost on the line between Smith and Mt. Pleasant Townships, the old Mt. Vernon Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Being of a (slightly) different denomination from the Burgettstown and Mt. Pleasant churches, it had no relations with either of them, but maintained its own existence and was served for some years by the Rev. Samuel Taggart in a joint charge with the Grove ARP Church at West Middletown. Upon the merger of the Associate Presbyterian and Associate Reformed Presbyterian denominations in 1858, resulting in the establishment of the United Presbyterian Church, the old Mt. Vernon Church went out of existence and many of the members of this congregation united with what now became the (First) United Presbyterian Church of Burgettstown. This merger of the denominations occurred in the interim between the pastorates of the Revs. Hammond and Graham.

The pastoral services of the Rev. David W. Carson were ever acceptable to the Burgettstown congregation. Before he came to Burgettstown, this church had its house of worship on the top of the hill east of town where the old U.P. Cemetery is located. Five years before Mr. Carson's coming, the congregation had moved to Main Street downtown and, in 1873, had erected the present attractive and commodious building. Had the question of instrumental music in the worship and Sabbath School services not arisen, it is probable that Dr. Carson would have served out his days in this congregation.

One of the strong tenets of the United Presbyterian of Dr. Carson's day was that the psalms be used exclusively for singing in their worship services, and in spite of the admonitions in some of the psalms to "sing praises unto God with timbrel and harp," yet for many years the members of the United Presbyterian Church generally were opposed to the use of instrumental music in church services. But by the early 1890's this practice had begun to give way and some of the U.P. churches were introducing organ music into their services. When this was proposed in the Burgettstown Church, Dr. Carson at once denounced the practice and made it plain that he would never acquiesce in the matter, and he never did. Not only was he opposed to having instrumental music in his own church, but he was so opposed to its use throughout his denomination that he actually called a convention of United Presbyterians to meet in the city of Pittsburgh in which to voice his strong disapproval. In this he was aided and abetted very strongly by his brother, the Rev. James G. Carson, then pastor of the Second U.P. Church of Xenia, Ohio, and by quite a number of other like-minded ministers and laymen of the Church. Although this matter was strongly protested by these determined men, yet they were eventually overruled and the decision regarding instrumental music was left to the discretion of each congregation. By a majority vote an organ was ordered for the Burgettstown Church. When this action was taken by the congregation, Dr. Carson immediately announced his resignation, and his pastorate of this church was concluded in 1898.

The sequel to this action was the organization of the Second U.P. Church of Burgettstown, in which it was decreed from the first that no instrumental music would ever be allowed. Organized under the guidance of Dr. Carson, he was followed into this new church by a number of his parishioners from the First Church, among whom were his daughter, Miss Eleanor Carson, Mr. and Mrs. James Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Acheson, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bubbett, the Thomas McBride family, Miss Lizzie McBride, Mrs. Ann McBride Walker and a number of others whose names are not now recalled. In 1910 the membership was reported to be 41, which was probably about as large as it ever became.

To house the new congregation, a new frame building was erected on the ground now occupied by Petrucci's Food Market, and Dr. Carson served the congregation as stated supply until his death on June 3, 1911. From 1911 until the time of its disorganization in 1944, the pastorate was vacant. Since the congregation had few accessions, it gradually dwindled in membership as the older members one by one passed on. Although this venture by Dr. Carson and his faithful adherents was no doubt taken in the strong conviction that they were entirely right in their manner of worshipping God, many of the present day would not agree with their point of view, since in most Christian churches of our day, the use of instrumental music is believed to add much to the dignity and majesty of the worship period. However some denominations, notably the Reformed Presbyterians (Covenanters) and the Church of Christ, have no musical instruments in their churches. In the early "church in the wildwood" no instrument of music marred the worship of Almighty God; in our modern churches, sublimity of worship can be attained also without the use of timbrel and harp, or organ or piano. Religious freedom in our land happily permits individual and churches to determine in this matter according to their choices and their consciences. May it ever be so!

We shall now leave the United Presbyterians of Burgettstown, more divided than united, and in our next article will discuss the history of the "old line" Presbyterians in Burgettstown.

MEN'S UNION FORMED BY CHURCH WORKERS

Washington County Presbyterians in Conference Organize New Group of Men

The Presbyterian Men's Union of Washington Presbytery was organized at a conference of the men of the Presbytery held Thursday of last week in the Second Presbyterian church at Washington. Action looking toward organization was taken at a business meeting following a dinner which closed the afternoon meeting. A constitution was adopted and officers for the ensuing year elected.

The conference, which was in charge of the Rev. Dr. Charles H. McDonald, of New York, associate general director of men's work of the Presbyterian Board of Education, was opened in the afternoon with devotional exercises led by Rev. John R. Burson, of California. Then followed a series of short addresses on these subjects: "What the Church Has to Offer," Rev. George Maxwell, Waynesburg; "The Church and Young People," Rev. G. K. Monroe, West Alexander; "The Church's Claim on Men," Rev. Joseph S. Morledge, Washington and "What Men Can Do in and Through the Church," Rev. Ralph E. Carman, Burgettstown.

Dinner was served in the church dining room to nearly 150 men representing practically all of the churches in the Presbytery. Dr. Paul Stewart, president of Waynesburg College, presided and introduced Dr. McDonald who briefly reviewed the afternoon session and outlined plans for organization of men of the church by presbyterial and local groups. He stated that there were 4,500 organized men's groups in the church now and that the number was steadily increasing.

Following the address, President Stewart called for the report of the nominating committee, which was made by Rev. Joseph S. Morledge of Washington. The following officers named were unanimously elected: President, Dr. Paul Stewart, Waynesburg; Vice President, Dr. F. L. Hampson, Claysville; Secretary, Prof. I. N. Sprowls, Washington and treasurer, W. C. Barnhouse, Washington. An executive committee will consist of the officers and the members of the Committee on Christian Education of the Presbytery.

Rev. O. S. Fowler, of Claysville, presented a draft of a constitution which was adopted. The name selected was the Presbyterian Men's Union of Washington Presbytery. The object of the organization is to increase interest in church work on the part of men and to widen its fellowship. The objective set for this year is an increased church attendance on the part of the men of the presbytery.

New Slovan Mission To Be Dedicated May 3

A grant of $20,000 by the Board of American Missions of the United Presbyterian church of North America has made possible the building of a United Presbyterian church edifice at Slovan, which will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on Sunday, May 3, at 3 p.m. The dedication of the new church building points up the remarkable growth of the Slovan Mission, which has been valiantly carrying on for many years. Rev. Sherman Wilson, pastor, has arranged the dedicatory program which will open with a call to worship, invocation and the hymn, "O Lord of Hosts, How Lovely".

Special music will be furnished by the Junior choir of the First United Presbyterian church of Burgettstown. Participating ministers will include Rev. Jacob C. Ruble, pastor of the Hillcrest United Presbyterian church, Rev. William Hadden, pastor of the Mt. Prospect church, Dr. John T. Brownlee, Moderator of the Washington Presbytery; Dr. James L. Thome and Rev. Richard C. Sutton, former pastor.

Dr. Ralph M. Mansfield, former superintendent of the Pittsburgh synod, and now with the Pittsburgh office of the Board of National Missions will deliver the dedicatory address. Dr. Brownlee will conduct the dedication ceremony.

The new structure will house a church auditorium, Sunday school room and adjoining kitchen. The floor is covered with gray on white asphalt tile and the walls are green fiber board with white acoustical ceilings. The white oak pews and Sabbath school furniture were provided by gifts from churches of the Chartiers Presbytery and by gifts from friends of the Slovan Mission.

The Chancel furniture was built by Frank Longevatch, formerly of Slovan and now an industrial arts teacher at Avella high school.

Plans are in the making to landscape the grounds surrounding the church and to build a parking lot at the rear. The church stands on ground 140 by 150 feet.

The old church

St. John's Byzantine Catholic Church at Avella will be celebrating its 75th anniversary Sunday, June 26, with a divine liturgy at 4 p.m. and a banquet in the church hall at six o'clock.

The 4 p.m. service will begin with a processional; then the most Rev. John M. Bilock, apostolic administrator, and co-celebrants, Rev. Daniel A. Magulick, together with other former pastors of the church, will be taking part. The Burgettstown Council 3440 of the Knights of Columbus will also participate.

At the banquet in the social hall a program will be presented to include several speakers. A booklet containing the "History of St. John's Church," compiled by John Shymchyk, pictures pertaining to the church and congregation, and lists of pastors and cantors will be available.

Founders of St. John's Church were early 20th Century immigrants to America from the Carpathian mountain region of Austria-Hungary. In Europe the church had occupied the center of their lives, and their strong faith had helped them overcome many hardships.

A dozen men, who represented 31 families in the Avella area, met in 1916 at the home of Michael Haverlack Sr. to discuss organizing a church.

The first divine liturgy was offered in Avella at the Wiegman Hall on Main Street. Later, Cross Creek Township school directors permitted the group to use Buckeye School, where the first St. John's Church was later located.

In 1919, a parcel of land on the Avella-Atlasburg Road was purchased from the Pittsburgh and Southwestern Coal Company. The church leaders canvassed the families of the area to collect funds, and a loan of $8,000 was obtained under the supervision of Fr. Nicholas Sagon of Mingo Junction so that the building of a church was begun.

Another group of Byzantine Catholics had settled in the Burgettstown area, and a church was eventually erected in Slovan in 1918 with Fr. Simchek serving the Byzantine Rite Catholics of Avella, Burgettstown and Weirton. However, this church was destroyed by fire, and Fr. Simchak moved to Avella, where he did much to solidify the parishioners of that area.

Coal strikes and the depression created difficult times, but with perseverance and sacrifice on the part of the members, the church grew and St. John's became permanent.

A bus was eventually purchased so that worshippers could be transported from Burgettstown and other distant points to Avella.

During the time Fr. Michael Dudick was pastor, major remodeling was done to the first little church. The Girls Sodality was also organized. It was soon evident that a larger building was needed.

A fund-raising campaign was conducted in 1960, and pledges in excess of $60,000 were made for the construction of a new church.

Tribilecock and Associates, an architectural firm in Pittsburgh, was hired to design the new building, which was to be located along the road between Patterson's Mills and Avella.

On May 7, 1961, ground was broken. The Mellon Stuart Company was designated as general contractors for the construction.

The work was completed and the new church was dedicated May 13, 1962.

Since then there have been various remodeling projects including the replacing of the skylight with a wooden structure, the paneling of vestibule and stairway, the installation of additional lighting and carpeting and new glass icons have been added between the nave and vestibule.

Meanwhile in 1957, land for a cemetery was purchased from the West Pointe Cemetery Association, and a tractor was bought to help maintain the church grounds and the cemetery.

In 1988, Fr. Daniel Magulick took over the parish and served it in addition to his duties as pastor at St. Mary's Church in Weirton.

Since its beginning, 37 pastors have served the St. John's congregation, each offering his unique services.

During the time of Fr. Dan Magulick's pastorate, a new air conditioning system was installed; a beautiful chandelier was purchased for the nave; and the driveway and parking lot were paved.

Much has been done to prepare for the anniversary celebration this year.

A lector program has been instituted in the parish which has given the parishioners an opportunity to express themselves by liturgical readings during regular services.

Catechism instruction is also being offered to children before the Sunday liturgy so that the youth are receiving proper religious instruction.

As John Shymchyk has written in his history of the church, "During the past 75 years our forefathers suffered many hardships and had to overcome difficult obstacles to reach this point. With courage, perseverance and deep faith they succeeded and left their children a legacy of which they can be proud."

New St. John's Church Dedication Sunday

St. John the Baptist Byzantine Catholic church of Avella will dedicate its new church edifice Mothers' Day, Sunday, May 13, at 5 p.m.

CEREMONIES

Beginning with a procession from the rectory at 4:45 p.m., Bishop Elko will commence the ceremony with the laying of the cornerstone. After blessing the entrance to the church, he will be welcomed as the official pastor of the parish to bless the edifice. A new marble altar will be consecrated, after which the bishop will offer a solemn Pontifical divine liturgy. John Shymchyk, Jr., cantor, will lead the congregation in responses of the liturgy.

DEDICATION BANQUET

Following the liturgical ceremonies a banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the church hall with Bishop Elko principal guest. The speakers' program will include presentation of a number of former pastors of the church who are travelling to their former parish for the occasion. Bishop Elko will deliver the main address to an expected crowd of 300 guests.

CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE

Designed by Williams-Trebilcock and Associates, Pittsburgh architectural firm, the new church features contemporary church architectural lines. The large sweeping roof is supported by laminated wood beams fabricated in Arkansas and resting on slanted pilasters of russet brick.

Adjoining and attached to the church is a new rectory housing the first resident pastor of St. Johns' in recent years. A large social hall with fully equipped kitchen forms the basement.

Actual construction on the $150,000 church began last June under Mellon-Stuart Co., general contractors from Pittsburgh. Locally, Ralph Dalesio, Avella, and John B. Bruno, Washington, subcontracted the electrical, plumbing and heating respectively.

Commenting on the church, Father Paul Bovankovich, pastor, stated: "The building of this church was more than a parish project. It became a project of the community. Time and time again, many friends of St. John's came down to lend a hand to many phases of the construction. We are deeply grateful to them and admire their community spirit."

COMMITTEES NAMED

Father Bovankovich has been working with committees which have been appointed to distribute responsibility and work of preparation.

The business patron department for the souvenir booklet is in charge of three groups: Mrs. Julia Patsolic, Mrs. Margaret Klimenko, Mrs. Frances Hallahan and Mrs. Margaret Ostop; Anthony Ostop and Mrs. Angelina Ondrick; and Mrs. Mary Dhayer, Miss Antonia Cherenko and Mrs. Mary Shymchyk.

John Haverlack and John Curtis are in charge of preparing a history of the parish to be included in the booklet.

The banquet committee is headed by Mrs. Julia Peterson and John Chizmar, assisted by Mrs. John Shymchyk, Jr., and Mrs. Elizabeth Peneschi. Ticket sales are in charge of Mrs. Sue Kubovic, Mrs. Mary Chizmar, Mrs. Stella Fuller and Mrs. Mary Lusakow.

In charge of preparations of the building and grounds are Mrs. James Dhayer, Jr., and Nick Kolesar.

Ground Breaking Held For Avella Church

St. John the Baptist Byzantine Catholic Church of Avella broke ground Sunday, May 7, for a new $150,000 church, hall and rectory.

A large crowd of parishioners assembled at 10:30 a.m. on the choice 9½ acre piece of property which will form the site for the new church.

The Most Rev. Nicholas T. Elko, D.D., Bishop of the Byzantine Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh, and the Very Rev. Michael Durisin, V.F., Dean of the Pittsburgh South Deanery and pastor of St. Michael's church of Donora, broke the first ground for the building. He was assisted by the Rev. Paul Bovankovich, pastor of St. John's. John Shymchyk, Jr., Cantor, led the congregation in singing the responses to the English ceremony of ground-breaking according to the Byzantine rite of the Catholic church.

Subsequent to the outdoor ceremony, the congregation assembled in the St. John's church for the Divine Liturgy. Father Durisin preached the sermon.

The new edifice of contemporary church architecture was designed by the Williams-Trebilcock Associates, an architectural firm in Pittsburgh.

History of St. John's Church

With courage and faith in God, the founders of St. John's Church left their homeland in the Carpathian Mountain Region of Austria-Hungary and came to America in the early days of the Twentieth Century. Leaving an impoverished area in Europe, where they struggled bitterly to survive, our forefathers were seeking a better land in order to establish a new life. Many of them settled in southwestern Pennsylvania and found work in the mining communities of this region. Although they had to work hard to earn a meager living, the difficult life in Europe prepared them well for the task ahead and enabled them to succeed.

In their homeland, our people attended church on Sunday which occupied the center of their lives and their strong faith helped them to overcome many obstacles. There was no church here for them to continue this tradition so they immediately began to formulate plans for erecting a church where their belief in God could again be expressed. In 1916 a dozen men who represented about thirty-one families met in the home of Michael Haverlack, Sr. to discuss the project. In order to proceed, they realized a Priest would be needed to administer their spiritual needs. Arrangements were made for a priest to visit them at Eastertime and the first Divine Liturgy was offered in Avella at Wiegmann's hall on Main Street in Avella. Later on when new quarters had to be located, the Cross Creek Township school directors permitted them to use Buckeye School, which was located near the site of the first St. John's Church. During the years from 1917 to 1919, the faithful were served by priests from Mingo Junction, Ohio, Carnegie and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Already chartered as a corporation in the State of Pennsylvania, a parcel of land was purchased from the Pittsburgh and Southwestern Coal Company located in Greensburg. This property was conveyed to the Church on November 1, 1919 and was located in Cross Creek Township on the Avella-Atlasburg Road. The trustees of the church at that time were: Paul Rusinko, Peter Rusinko, Demeter Koczur, Demeter Machuzak, Mike Popovich, and Joseph Puhlik.

In Order to achieve their goal, the church leaders canvassed the families in the area to obtain needed funds. A loan of Eight Thousand Dollars was obtained under the supervision of Fr. Nicholas Sagon of Mingo Junction, Ohio and a new church began to rise. Upon its completion, Fr. Valentine Staurostowsky became the first resident pastor. After his departure, Fr. Stephen Gulyassy, resident pastor in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, at the time, administered the parish on a part time basis, beginning in late 1920. Upon the latter's transfer to Cleveland, Ohio, Fr. George Simchak was assigned to serve the needs of the Byzantine Rite Catholics in the area as a resident pastor.

At the same time, another group of Byzantine Catholics settled in the Burgettstown area and they also longed to worship God in their traditional way. For lack of a church, they assembled in various homes and halls for Sunday services. Fr. George Chegin from Toronto, Ohio, served the parish occasionally. Eventually a church was erected in Slovan in 1918 and Fr. Simchak took up residence in Burgettstown so that he would be centrally located and be able to serve Avella, Burgettstown and Weirton. However, misfortune struck and the new church was destroyed by fire. Fr. Simchak then moved to Avella, where he did much to solidify the parishioners in the area. He was succeeded by Fr. Michael Warady in 1926 and followed shortly by Fr. Michael Krivonyak.

In 1927, the community suffered a terrible misfortune in the form of a coal strike. Picket lines were formed at the mine entrance to prevent outsiders, who were brought in by the mine owners, from entering the workplace. This caused a great deal of tension and there were many physical clashes between the striking miners and the company's "coal and iron" police. Since many of the workers lived in company-owned houses, they were evicted by the owners and had to move to hastily built wooden barracks until the strike was finally settled some time later.

Needless to say, this crippled the financial ability of the community and the parish could no longer support a resident pastor. Consequently, Fr. Andrew Dzmura, who was stationed at St. Michael's in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania at the time, took care of spiritual needs of the faithful until 1932. During these difficult times, it was often impossible for a priest to travel to Avella for Sunday services. On these occasions, the people would assemble in church to worship God by praying the Sunday Matins. John Whitco, Jr. and Steve Haverlack led the people in singing God's praises. The donations during this critical period were extremely low.

Despite the very difficult times, the faithful did not give up hope, but continued to persevere in order to maintain the parish to the best of their ability. In 1933 a committee consisting of John Haverlack, Peter Gripp and John Chizmar, Sr. traveled to Munhall, Pennsylvania for an audience with Bishop Basil Takach to request a pastor for St. John's. As a result, Bishop Takach designated Fr. George Michaylo, the pastor of St. Michael's Church in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, to celebrate the Divine Liturgy in Avella at least twice a month. In 1934, he was succeeded by Fr. Nicholas Elko, who was destined to become Bishop of the Pittsburgh Diocese twenty-one years later. This was Fr. Elko's first parish, and his enthusiasm is still remembered by many.

Financial difficulties still plagued the parish, and it faced foreclosure or payment of a $4,400.00 mortgage still outstanding from the construction of the church. The Lincoln National Bank of Avella, which held the mortgage, informed the congregation that they would settle for the amount of $1,300.00. Consequently, Joseph Curtis, John Haverlack and John Whitco visited each parishioner in an effort to obtain the necessary funds. At great personal sacrifice, the people donated a sum total of $1,000.00. Mr. Don S. Lane, receiver of the bank, sympathized with the congregation's courage and intense desire to save the church, and agreed to settle the mortgage in full for $1,000.00 on August 7, 1936.

During these early years, summer school was held at the church for those youngsters who had a way to attend. It was taught by Mr. George Hrabich, an elderly Cantor who lived nearby. He was a strict disciplinarian and did not hesitate to dole out different forms of penance for those who did not "toe the mark." He taught only the Slavonic language, but it gave the young kids of that time something new to think about and learn at an early age.

At this time, people from the Burgettstown area would come to the Avella church. In 1936 and 1937, a thorough canvass of that area was made to have more people avail themselves of the facilities in Avella. With the resultant increase in the attendance, St. John's status became permanent and its growth insured. Bus transportation was arranged, and in 1951 the parish itself purchased a bus.

In 1939, Fr. Elko was replaced by Fr. John Gaspar, and in 1944 he was followed by Fr. John Macko. In 1947, Fr. Vladimir Firczak from Canonsburg was appointed to serve the spiritual needs of the Avella Church for the next five years. With the progress the parish was making, it was apparent that a full time pastor was needed.

In 1952, Bishop Daniel Ivancho responded by appointing Fr. Michael J. Dudick to this task. He worked in the Diocesan Chancery Office in Pittsburgh and also took care of the parish needs in Avella. During the course of the next four years, he did much to bring back many of the parishioners who had strayed from the church. His enthusiasm was further evidenced by a major remodeling of the little church. A new roof, pews, tile floor, acoustic ceiling and additions to the Sanctuary made the old church more inviting as a place of worship.

The formation of the Girls Sodality was another welcome addition to the church during Fr. Dudick's tenure. It afforded the young women of the parish a chance to participate in beautiful May Crowning ceremonies each year and other events that gave them an opportunity to honor the Mother of God. Soon it was evident the church was too small for all intents and purposes and that a larger facility was needed. It was Fr. Dudick who planted the seed for a new church and to him we owe a debt of gratitude.

Before anything further could be done in this regard, he was transferred to another area. In 1955, Fr. Andrew Parvinsky succeeded him for a few months and then, later that same year, Fr. John R. Martin, from the Chancery Office, followed. Being young and enthusiastic, much was accomplished during the next four years. In 1957, a new cemetery was purchased in Avella, from the West Point Cemetery Association. It was badly needed so that we would have a consolidated area where our loved ones could be laid to rest after this life was ended. Likewise, that same year, approximately ten acres of land was purchased from the Brozier Family in Avella for the purpose of building a new church. The property was located only about one-half mile from the site of the old church on Avella-Atlasburg Road. The parishioners one day had visions of seeing a new edifice rise there to make their dreams come true.

In 1959, however, Fr. Martin received an appointment to full time diocesan duties in Pittsburgh and the next year witnessed a quick succession of pastors in Fr. Myron Badnerosky, Fr. Paul Graycar and Fr. John Drozda.

In May of 1960, Fr. Paul Bovankovich was appointed by Bishop Elko to administer the spiritual needs of St. John's. The anxiety of the parishioners for progress was very apparent so in November of that same year, a fund raising campaign was conducted which realized pledges in excess of $60,000.00 for the building of a new church. Williams, Trevilcock and Associates, a Pittsburgh architectural firm, was engaged to design a new church, hall and rectory compound for St. John's. On May 7, 1961 the Very Rev. Michael Durisin, Dean of the Pittsburgh South Deanery, officiated at the ground breaking ceremony. Shortly afterwards, Mellon-Stuart Co. of Pittsburgh was designated as the general contractor for construction of the new church.

It was interesting to watch the church rise on the site and the parishioners were excited about the whole matter, knowing that they would soon have a new church in which to worship God. Many of them assisted the contractor with some of the various tasks during construction, all of which helped to keep the ultimate costs down.

Finally, the work was completed and the new edifice was dedicated on May 13, 1962. Bishop Elko was present and was the main celebrant at the Divine Liturgy. He expressed his pleasure in being able to take part in the dedication of the new church and commended the parishioners for their good work in getting the job done. Much credit is due to the pioneering spirit of the humble immigrants who came to this land in search of freedom and much faith in God. It will stand as a beacon for those who follow in their footsteps and hopefully carry on the tradition.

In 1967, Fr. Bovankovich was succeeded for a short period by Fr. Frank Estocin and then in 1968 by Fr. George Evancho. The parish continued to flourish during this tenure, and many things were accomplished. The sky light, which was causing maintenance problems, was replaced by a more permanent wooden structure. New paneling was erected in the vestibule and stairway leading to the social hall. Additional lighting was installed where needed for better illumination. New red carpeting was put down throughout the church and sanctuary, which enhanced the appearance and also reduced the noise created by the previous tile floor. Much of this work was done by Fr. George and Steve Spontak. New glass Icons representing various well-known Saints were installed between the nave and the vestibule.

In order to help with the maintenance of the church grounds and cemetery, a new tractor was purchased to ease the workload. Fr. George enjoyed operating the new equipment himself on many occasions, which was commendable. Beautiful flowers were planted along the foundation walls, which also added to the outside appearance of the church. Several picnics were held each year on the church grounds, and the parishioners had an opportunity to socialize with each other. The community of Avella also looked forward to these affairs and contributed to their success. During Fr. George's tenure, the church mortgage was also paid in full beforehand, and the official "burning" was conducted at a banquet in the social hall.

When Fr. George departed in 1984, he was followed for short periods by Fr. George Lasky, Msgr. Raymond Balta, Fr. Anthony DeFronzo and Fr. Daniel Tisak.

In 1988, Fr. Daniel A. Magulick took over the parish and has served its spiritual needs until the present time. This is in addition to his duties as Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Weirton, West Virginia. He has been well received by the parishioners of St. John's who try to cooperate in every way possible, and he is sensitive to their needs.

Many things have been accomplished during Fr. Dan's tenure. A new air-conditioning system was installed about two years ago, which certainly makes it more comfortable when the weather gets hot. A new chandelier was also added in the nave, which has enhanced the beauty of the church. Outdoors, the driveway and parking lot was paved, which was long overdue and has added to the outside appearance.

In preparation for the 75TH ANNIVERSARY, other things have also been done to beautify the church for the occasion. A new light blue rug was installed in the nave and sanctuary, which has added a new dimension. The wooden beams have all been cleaned and new paint applied to the walls. New Icons, Sacramental Table and Hanging Lamps adorn the Sanctuary, all of which gives the church a new and refreshing look. Much of this work was done by the parishioners while some was sublet to outside contractors.

A Lector Program has been instituted in the parish, which has given many parishioners an opportunity to express themselves by liturgical readings during services. Catechism instruction is a regular occurrence before the Liturgy on Sunday morning and lay teachers expend their time and effort so that the youth of the parish are given proper religious instructions.

During the past seventy-five years, our forefathers suffered many hardships and had to overcome difficult obstacles in order to reach this point. With courage, perseverance, and deep faith, they succeeded and left their children a legacy of which they can be proud. Hopefully, they will continue to build on this firm foundation in the years ahead and climb to greater heights with the help of Almighty God.

Historic Episcopal Church Comes Back to Life

Bishop's Service Tomorrow Morning

By WILLIAM A. WHITE
Press Staff Writer

Believed to be the oldest Episcopal Church west of the Allegheny Mountains, St. John's, established in 1793 in a wilderness near the Pennsylvania line at Colliers, W. Va., is again becoming an active church.

After a dormant period of nearly 50 years, the historic old Bishop Campbell church has a sufficient congregation to gain mission status and regular services will be resumed tomorrow with Coadjutor Bishop Milburn C. Campbell of West Virginia presiding.

A chicken dinner to be served by the new Altar Guild, of which Mrs. William Riskin is president, with Bishop Campbell as honor guest, will touch off a traditional Bishop's Service that has for many years drawn persons of all faiths.

Bishop Campbell was rector of Ascension Church, Pittsburgh, before he became coadjutor of the West Virginia Diocese, stationed in Charleston, in 1950.

Bishop's Service

Tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. the Bishop's Service will be held, with accompanying baptisms and confirmations. Altar ornaments—brass cross and candlesticks—presented the church by John Vosburg, of Salamanca, N. Y., will be blessed. The cross given in memory of Anna Fay Vosburg, of DuBois, Pa., great grandmother of John Robert Mester, first baby baptized in St. John's in 50 years.

Bishop Campbell will be the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carter, whose restored farm home, built in Revolutionary days, adjoins the church and its cemetery, in which are tombstones dating back to 1800. Mr. Carter, former postmaster at Colliers, who was born in the old home, has been named senior warden of the reactivated church.

The present church was erected in 1849 with bricks molded by hand and baked on a nearby farm. Records show that the cost of the building was $900.

The exterior of the church is unchanged, the interior little changed from the original. Altar, pews, pulpit and floors are the same. The old wrought iron candelabra which supplied the lighting have disappeared.

Former Indian Trail

The Eldersville (Pa.) and Follansbee Road, which passes the church, was formerly an Indian trail over which George Washington at one time traveled. It was also the trail followed by angered Washington county frontiersmen on their way to the Gnadenhuetten massacre, which has long been considered a blot on the frontier history of America. Under command of Col. David Williamson, the Moravian town was reduced to ashes and its 94 men, women and children, most of them Christian converts were brutally slain.

First of the religious meetings in the area of St. John's was believed to have been at Wells' Fort, not far from the church, in 1774. A great religious upswing took place a few years later, sparked by frontier ministers, including Rev. Joseph Doddridge, whose father had erected a fort at West Middleton in 1773.

Rev. Doddridge, the first Episcopal missionary in the area, was the founder of St. John's.

For many years the church functioned, then as new churches grew in more accessible places, the congregation dropped and for nearly 50 years had only a handful of parishioners.

About 30 years ago the West Virginia bishop paid a visit and from that came the annual Bishop's Service which will be celebrated tomorrow.

Rev. Robert Ingram, rector of St. Thomas' Church, Weirton, last summer started to hold weekly services at St. John's which resulted in the movement for reactivation.

The church, through Mr. Carter, invites any who wish to visit. "To the many persons who love old things," Mr. Carter said, "it is well worth a visit as an example of early architecture and hand craftsmanship. Too, it is probably the very oldest building in the Tri-state area continually in use for its original purposes."

The church may be reached by taking the Follansbee Road from Burgettstown.

Holy Name Societies Meet

The Tri-State Byzantine Catholic Holy Name Union, comprising Holy Name Societies from parishes in the immediate Tri-State area, will convene on Sunday, November 10, at 3 p.m. at St. John's Parish, Avella.

The session will begin with Sacred Heart Devotions conducted by Reverend Michael A. Kushner, Spiritual Director of the group. He will be assisted by the Spiritual Moderators from all parishes represented.

At the conclusion of the religious program, the membership will meet in the Church social hall for their annual business meeting. The meeting will be conducted by President John Shymchyk.

Following the business session, a dinner will be served by the Ladies Altar Society of St. John's Church, of which Rev. George Evancho is pastor.

Soon it was evident the church was too small for all intents and purposes and that a larger facility was needed. It was Fr. Dudick who planted the seed for a new church and to him we owe a debt of gratitude.

Before anything further could be done in this regard, he was transferred to another area. In 1955, Fr. Andrew Parvinsky succeeded him for a few months and then, later that same year, Fr. John R. Martin, from the Chancery Office, followed. Being young and enthusiastic, much was accomplished during the next four years. In 1957, a new cemetery was purchased in Avella, from the West Point Cemetery Association. It was badly needed so that we would have a consolidated area where our loved ones could be laid to rest after this life was ended. Likewise, that same year, approximately ten acres of land was purchased from the Brozier Family in Avella for the purpose of building a new church. The property was located only about one-half mile from the site of the old church on Avella-Atlasburg Road. The parishioners one day had visions of seeing a new edifice rise there to make their dreams come true.

In 1959, however, Fr. Martin received an appointment to full time diocesan duties in Pittsburgh and the next year witnessed a quick succession of pastors in Fr. Myron Badnerosky, Fr. Paul Graycar and Fr. John Drozda.

In May of 1960, Fr. Paul Bovankovich was appointed by Bishop Elko to administer the spiritual needs of St. John's. The anxiety of the parishioners for progress was very apparent so in November of that same year, a fund raising campaign was conducted which realized pledges in excess of $60,000.00 for the building of a new church. Williams, Trevilcock and Associates, a Pittsburgh architectural firm, was engaged to design a new church, hall and rectory compound for St. John's. On May 7, 1961 the Very Rev. Michael Durisin, Dean of the Pittsburgh South Deanery, officiated at the ground breaking ceremony. Shortly afterwards, Mellon-Stuart Co. of Pittsburgh was designated as the general contractor for construction of the new church.

It was interesting to watch the church rise on the site and the parishioners were excited about the whole matter, knowing that they would soon have a new church in which to worship God. Many of them assisted the contractor with some of the various tasks during construction, all of which helped to keep the ultimate costs down.

Finally, the work was completed and the new edifice was dedicated on May 13, 1962. Bishop Elko was present and was the main celebrant at the Divine Liturgy. He expressed his pleasure in being able to take part in the dedication of the new church and commended the parishioners for their good work in getting the job done. Much credit is due to the pioneering spirit of the humble immigrants who came to this land in search of freedom and much faith in God. It will stand as a beacon for those who follow in their footsteps and hopefully carry on the tradition.

In 1967, Fr. Bovankovich was succeeded for a short period by Fr. Frank Estocin and then in 1968 by Fr. George Evancho. The parish continued to flourish during this tenure, and many things were accomplished. The sky light, which was causing maintenance problems, was replaced by a more permanent wooden structure. New paneling was erected in the vestibule and stairway leading to the social hall. Additional lighting was installed where needed for better illumination. New red carpeting was put down throughout the church and sanctuary, which enhanced the appearance and also reduced the noise created by the previous tile floor. Much of this work was done by Fr. George and Steve Spontak. New glass Icons representing various well-known Saints were installed between the nave and the vestibule.

In order to help with the maintenance of the church grounds and cemetery, a new tractor was purchased to ease the workload. Fr. George enjoyed operating the new equipment himself on many occasions, which was commendable. Beautiful flowers were planted along the foundation walls, which also added to the outside appearance of the church. Several picnics were held each year on the church grounds, and the parishioners had an opportunity to socialize with each other. The community of Avella also looked forward to these affairs and contributed to their success. During Fr. George's tenure, the church mortgage was also paid in full beforehand, and the official "burning" was conducted at a banquet in the social hall.

When Fr. George departed in 1984, he was followed for short periods by Fr. George Lasky, Msgr. Raymond Balta, Fr. Anthony DeFronzo and Fr. Daniel Tisak.

In 1988, Fr. Daniel A. Magulick took over the parish and has served its spiritual needs until the present time. This is in addition to his duties as Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Weirton, West Virginia. He has been well received by the parishioners of St. John's who try to cooperate in every way possible, and he is sensitive to their needs.

Many things have been accomplished during Fr. Dan's tenure. A new air-conditioning system was installed about two years ago, which certainly makes it more comfortable when the weather gets hot. A new chandelier was also added in the nave, which has enhanced the beauty of the church. Outdoors, the driveway and parking lot was paved, which was long overdue and has added to the outside appearance.

In preparation for the 75TH ANNIVERSARY, other things have also been done to beautify the church for the occasion. A new light blue rug was installed in the nave and sanctuary, which has added a new dimension. The wooden beams have all been cleaned and new paint applied to the walls. New Icons, Sacramental Table and Hanging Lamps adorn the Sanctuary, all of which gives the church a new and refreshing look. Much of this work was done by the parishioners while some was sublet to outside contractors.

A Lector Program has been instituted in the parish, which has given many parishioners an opportunity to express themselves by liturgical readings during services. Catechism instruction is a regular occurrence before the Liturgy on Sunday morning and lay teachers expend their time and effort so that the youth of the parish are given proper religious instructions.

During the past seventy-five years, our forefathers suffered many hardships and had to overcome difficult obstacles in order to reach this point. With courage, perseverance, and deep faith, they succeeded and left their children a legacy of which they can be proud. Hopefully, they will continue to build on this firm foundation in the years ahead and climb to greater heights with the help of Almighty God.

FIRST COMMUNION HELD AT CHERRY VALLEY CHURCH

A class of eleven boys and the same number of girls received their first Holy Communion last Sunday at nine o'clock Mass in Sts. Peter and Paul Church, Cherry Valley of which Father McCashin of Burgettstown is Pastor. Following the Mass the children renewed their Baptismal Vows and were enrolled in the Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. The church was filled to capacity for the ceremony.

The following children comprised the class:- Henry Budni, Frank Delprato, Frank Koraido, Ralph Kor'yna John Linkesh, Elden McConnaghey, Walter Stanish, John Stankovich, Anthony Wozniak, George Wozniak, Walter Wozniak, Eleanor Budni, Dolores Bianchini, Dolores Joncart, Laura Joncart, Stella Joncart, Alice Linkesh, Mary Ann Linkesh, Simone Lorant, Betty McGrogan, Pauline McGrogan, Elsie Tothe.

Mass is celebrated each Sunday in Cherry Valley at nine o'clock. This week a group of men are improving the outside walls of the church with a covering of red insulated brick siding.

MOVES INTO LOURDES HALL BECAUSE OF CROWD

The party, scheduled for Monday evening, May 17 for the benefit of the St. Peter and St. Paul Catholic church of Cherry Valley has been transferred from the Calieffie Hall at Cherry Valley to the Parish Hall of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church. Rev. W. J. McCashin who has recently been appointed priest of this parish states that so many tickets have been sold for the benefit that it was deemed advisable to move the party into the larger hall.

Tabernacle at Hickory

Hickory, Feb. 17.—The Hickory people are already arranging to erect the large tabernacle that is to be used in the evangelistic meetings here from May 16 to June 13. A meeting of all the committees was held last night and all the preliminary plans have been completed. It was decided to start the erection of the tabernacle at once. The building will be as large as the one used at Burgettstown. It is planned to have everything in readiness when Rev. Luther K. Peacock comes here for the meetings.

TOWN PRAYERMEETING

Tabernacle to be Dedicated Sabbath Evening With Big Prayermeeting

As we go to press we learn that arrangements have been made to dedicate the tabernacle with a big town prayermeeting on Sabbath evening. The building will be completed by that time and in good shape, and the different churches will give up their evening service for this meeting. It is hoped to make it a memorable event, and everyone is urged to attend.

The Coming Revival

Much progress has been made on the tabernacle the past week. On Tuesday about forty men and boys were on the job, and the ladies prepared and served refreshments for them in the First Presbyterian church. There was an abundance of eatables, and after the workman had been fed several baskets were filled and sent to needy families in the vicinity.

The tabernacle is nearing completion and within a very short time will be ready for the meetings, which open January third. To-day a number of men are putting on the finishing touches, building seat, etc.

Interest in the praymeetings is increasing. On account of Christmas falling on Friday there will be no prayermeeting that night, and we are unable at this time to give the meeting places for the following Tuesday night, but they will no doubt be announced from the different pulpits on Sabbath.

Since putting the above in type President Mrs. Cora Sutherland reports that the meeting her district will be at C. R. Cook's, she to be leader, and Mrs. W. R. Malone, president, announces the meeting

SUBJECTS

Dec. 29—"What May God Expect from Me in this Campaign." (Consecration Service). "Prayer." James 5: 16. "Personal Service;" John 1: 40 42. "Consecration; Attendance" Heb. 10: 25.

RE-DEDICATION SERVICE

The Tent United Presbyterian church near Colliers, W. Va., held a re-dedication service last Sunday, June 24, at 2:30 p. m. upon the completion of an extensive church building improvement which began about 10 years ago and was recently finished. The service was in charge of Rev. Leslie Van Inwegen of Langeloth. A history of the church was given by Clifford Hays and remarks were made by Rev. Sutton and F. Herbert Wells. The service was held on the 140th anniversary of the purchase of the church grounds. The present building is 70 years old and the congregation was organized in 1798.

"Tent" Homecoming.

The second annual Homecoming Day will be observed at the "Tent" church, on the Follansbee-Eldersville road at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, September 6th. The Rev. A. A. Love of Pittsburgh will be the principal speaker at the service. Mr. Love is a former pastor of the "Tent" church and is now pastor of the Mt. Washington U. P. church, Pittsburgh. The "Tent" community is 'home' to hundreds of people in the tri-state district. This occasion provides a wholesome opportunity to renew old ties of friendship. The large crowd attending the gathering last year dictated the decision to repeat the event and make it an annual affair on the Sunday before Labor Day.

Three Springs Presbyterian Church

As the traveler drives along Route 22 through Weirton Heights, his attention is attracted by a historical marker. As he reads that bronze tribute to a historic past, he notes that it marks the spot where stood another of the pioneer Presbyterian churches in the West Virginia Panhandle. Here James Campbell in 1790, with the assistance of a group of neighbors, built a large church on his own farm. In the records of the Redstone Presbytery, it is called Three Springs Church. It is now relocated and rebuilt in the heart of industrial Weirton and renamed the Cove Presbyterian Church. As soon as their church was built, this group of Presbyterian neighbors petitioned Redstone Presbytery to send them a visiting preacher. Presbytery responded by sending Reverend John Brice to lead them in worship on the third Sabbath of November. In July of the following year, Mr. Brice returned for another Sabbath Day's services. Later in November of that same year, Reverend James Hughes, another neighboring Presbyterian minister, spent an entire day in spiritual leadership through worship and instruction. West Virginia Presbyterians in those pioneer days of small beginnings had to be grateful for meager spiritual favors with the blessing of a sermon only at infrequent intervals. As additional men were licensed to preach by the Presbytery, preaching became more frequent but never more than four times a year. Preachers were scarce⁴. They had to divide their time in order to preach among numerous congregations who were seeking the comfort and warnings of the Gospel.

Better days were soon to dawn. Growth in the number of ministers made advisable the division of Redstone into two presbyteries in 1793. The Panhandle churches were placed in the new Presbytery of Ohio. Preaching at the Three Springs was still very sporadic for several years. But on October 17, 1798, a consecrated churchman of thirty-nine years of age presented himself to the Presbytery of Ohio as a candidate for the ministry. He was none other than Elisha Macurdy.

After completing the necessary course of education, Macurdy accepted a call to Three Springs and Cross Roads (now Florence, Pennsylvania). Soon the influence of this tremendous personality was felt throughout the entire church in Western Pennsylvania and the Panhandle area of West Virginia. His name is linked particularly with the great Revival of 1802 which first began to be manifested in Macurdy's congregation at Three Springs where a small group of devout women met for prolonged prayer. Soon it spread far and wide, influencing the social and religious outlook of the entire Upper Ohio Valley. In the wake of this historic revival came the "Sunday School, the Prayer Meeting, the Missionary Movement, the crusade against strong drink and the crusade against slavery. Macurdy continued in his dual field of service until 1824 when he resigned from the Three Springs Church to devote his full time to the church at Florence.

1970, workers are putting the finishing touches on the steeple of the Tucker Methodist Church, in their latest renovation project of the church.

The church was completed in 1824, but many improvements were added throughout the years. Included were the steeple and vestibule. Stone for the original building was quarried on the grounds behind the church.

Tucker Church (stone) was built in 1824 on land owned and set aside for the church by John Tucker. Stonemasons named Minesingers constructed this building for less than ninety dollars. The congregation first met in the home of James Holmes. In 1965 an addition was built on the front from stones taken from the foundation of the old Cross Roads Church that was destroyed by fire and replaced by a brick structure. Location: Halfway between Paris and Florence, on old U.S. 22 two miles west of Rt. 18

Christmas Program At Tucker Church

A Christmas program was held at the Tucker Methodist church, Route 22, Sunday evening, December 23, with Mrs. Freda Hone in charge, Mrs. Donald Gray assisting. Approximately 20 children participated in the singing of Christmas songs, recitations and exercises. The adult choir and the congregation also joined in the singing of carols.

A Nativity scene was featured, with Jane Bradford as Mary, and Victor Wright as Joseph. Script was narrated by Bessie Matchett. The pantomime was in costume, and included angels, shepherds and wise men.

The evening was climaxed with a visit by Santa Claus.

Tucker Methodist Church has 170th anniversary

Tucker United Methodist Church on Old Route 22 celebrated its 170th anniversary May 22, 1994. Members of the church, friends and a distant relative of John Tucker, founder, helped to make the occasion a memorable event.

Guest speaker was Dr. Andrew Harvey, District Superintendent of the Washington District, who, with Rev. Wade Barto, pastor of the church, served communion to the congregation. Communion stewards were Lou Grey and Pauline O'Palka.

Others who participated in the service were Ralph Ryan, lay speaker; Robert Kidd Jr., lay speaker of Eldersville United Methodist Church, who presented the children's message; Betty Baileys of Eldersville; and Max and June Grossman, who provided special music on the violin and piano. The Eldersville United Methodist Church choir sang, and Mrs. Emma DeChallis of Beaver Falls, a friend of the minister, played the piano during the service.

Guests, friends and members were welcomed by the Rev. Wade Barto and Gladys Bee. Greeters for the event were Victor and Beverly Wright.

Steve Bee, chairman of the board of trustees, led the congregation in rededicating the church.

A plaque was presented to District Superintendent Harvey by Gladys Bee on behalf of the congregation. The frame for the plaque had been made from wood originally from the old altar of the church.

On display were a number of historical records and artifacts arranged by Doris McNinch, church historian; also a bulletin board covered with miniature figures bearing the names of 128 pastors who have served the church.

Following the service, those attending enjoyed an old-fashioned picnic and visiting together on the grounds of the church.

Photographs were taken by Loyd Leggett and will be on display at the church.

A special thanks is extended to all who helped to make this historic occasion a success.

Tucker Church was founded in 1824 by John Tucker, and the church building was constructed of cut stone at a cost of $75.

It has undergone a few renovations through the years, but the basic building remains the same.

Since the 150th anniversary of the church, observances have been held every five years.

Home-Coming At Tucker M. E. Church

Approximately 250 people attended home-coming services at Tucker Methodist Church on Sunday, August 12. Rev. James Lutz, of Follansbee, W. Va., was in charge of the morning service. In the afternoon a number of guest speakers took part among whom were Rev. Jacob Leland of Pittsburgh and Rev. Chalmers Fulton of Youngstown, O., both natives of this vicinity. Rev. William Gladden and Rev. Shotwell, former pastors, and Mrs. Spealman, the wife of a former pastor and herself a minister in a North Braddock Methodist Church addressed the congregation.

Miss Irene Perkins of R. D. 1, Burgettstown read letters from former associates, some of whom are now chaplains in service.

Two flags recently donated by the Women's Society of Christian Service and by Miss Irene Perkins were on display on either side of the pulpit. A dedication of these flags will be held in the near future.

Among the eldest guests present at the home coming were: Mrs. Florence Johnson, 86, of Hollidays Cove, and Mrs. Ella Hanlin, 80, of Smithfield, O.

Miss Laura Hanlin served as pianist for both services and Atty. John McCalmont of Pittsburgh a native of this community led the singing. A basket dinner was held at noon.

HOMECOMING AT TUCKER CHURCH

Plans are progressing for the Annual Homecoming to be held at Tucker Church on Sunday August 11, from 10.30 a.m., to 4 p.m. The morning Worship will be followed by Sunday School and the afternoon service will begin at 2 o'clock. Those who wish may take their own lunch and silver service. Coffee will be served by the committee. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Tucker U.M. marks 190th anniversary

Tucker United Methodist Church, 641 Steubenville Pike, Burgettstown, will celebrate its 190th anniversary at the 11 a.m. Sunday service. A Thanksgiving covered-dish dinner will be served afterward.

Tucker is one of the oldest Methodist churches in Washington and Greene counties. It was built in 1824, although services were held in the home of John Tucker, who was among the earliest settlers in Hanover Township, several years prior to that.

Tucker, a native of Massachusetts, and his wife, who was born in Maryland, had two sons. After his wife died, Tucker remarried, and he and his second wife traveled across the mountains from Maryland with their five sons and four daughters.

Tucker held his own devotions in the family's cabin, and before long, other families began gathering at the Tuckers' home. He soon became known as Father Tucker.

Tucker died at age 100, and in his will he bequeathed to his son, Jonathan, and his grandson, Samuel, one acre of land, "it being a part of the tract I now live on, whereon a meetinghouse is erected for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for no other purposes whatsoever, but to be and remain for the use of said church, and the congregation therein assembling for the worship of God without rent or any other reward whatsoever."

In 1823, the Minesinger brothers of Island Creek, Ohio, were commissioned to erect a meeting place for the Methodists in Hanover on the land Tucker had willed to his son and grandson. The brothers built a church 33 feet by 44 feet on what is now Route 22 between Paris and Florence. The church, despite the ravages of war, poor crops and economic recessions, has never closed its doors.

On the church's 100th anniversary, hundreds of Methodists from 20 states attended the celebration.

In August 1949, members of the Tucker clan held a joint reunion and 125th church anniversary celebration. Descendants of the John Tucker family held morning and afternoon services at the old meetinghouse.

The church has had 198 ministers through the years and is now served by Pastor Kenn Jacobs and associate Pastor Karen Jacobs.

Tucker UM Church to celebrate 170th year at Sunday service

By Marilyn Seibel
Staff Writer

During his years of raising a family, clearing land and conducting family worship in various cabins, one of John Tucker's most cherished dreams was the erection of a house of worship.

In 1822, John deeded the ground the church sits on for religious purposes and stated in his will it was to be used for no other purpose. In 1824, the present building was completed. Six years after the completion of the church, John died and was laid to rest in the cemetery next to his beloved "Meeting-house."

The church is still open and plans to celebrate 170 years of continuous service on Sunday, May 22, at 3 p.m. The church will also be rededicated at this time. Dr. Andrew Harvey, superintendent of the Washington District, will be the guest speaker for the occasion. Also participating in the service will be Ralph Ryan, a past lay minister at Tucker. Robert Kidd Jr. will provide the children's sermon.

The public is invited to attend the celebration.

Following the worship service, there will be an "old-fashioned" picnic. Anyone wishing to dress up in "old-time" costumes to go with the picnic theme is welcomed to do so.

Tucker Family

The Indians were quieted and highways were taking place of Indian trails. Once was Briceland crossroads, now Florence, PA. James Briceland opened up a general store, Later the store was conducted by the Livingstones and then by the Clelands.

John and Henrietta Tuckers children moved. Martha married the Millers brother, Samuel Ralston. Drusilla married Lewis Sadler, Anna's Husband Johnston, Elizabeth never marries. John was given a farm where the Tucker land entered the pike. Johnathan married Margret Wright, daughter of a pioneer family from Eldersville. They shared the home of his father and mother. Thomas and David married sisters, Eleanor and Christy Hill. Thomas settled on the east of the property. David was given the west tract. Samuel had been a minister and was killed by Indians enroute.

John Tucker was addressed by the Quakers; "Father Tucker" conducted service in his cabin known as "Tucker Methodist Station"

In 1823 a stone church was begun and erected for $85. Stone quarried on the land and completed in 1824. John Tucker gave the land, John died April 6, 1830 at the age of 100.

It is believed that the Tucker family received communion for the first time.

Tucker Reunion

"Nil Desperandum", the english version being, "Never Despair" from the coat of arms of the Tucker family, pioneer settlers in Hanover township, will be the subject of a sermon to be delivered by a Tucker descendant, Rev. David S. Graham of Valencia, Pa. at a reunion of members of this family in the Tucker Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning, June 2 at 11 o'clock.

John Tucker, hardy pioneer who built Tucker church in 1823 will gather from three states on Sunday morning to pay tribute to his memory. After a sermon by Rev. Graham, the clan will adjourn to the Farm for dinner and will return to the church in the afternoon for a reunion.

John Tucker, hardy pioneerr who was born in 1731 and died exactly one hundred years later, 1831, settled in Hanover township when it was still a part of the state of Maryland. For fifty years he held divine worship in his own home, not being a Minister of the Gospel, but a gentleman of pious leanings. A few years before his death, in 1823 he built the Tucker church, and it stands today as a monument to his memory.

Present for the services, Sunday, will be descendants of Thomas Tucker, son of John, who left Florence 102 years ago and settled near Marietta, O. They will include Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Townsend and Mr. Culver of Mansfield, O. and Miss Rowena Tucker of Beverly.

Shirley Bruce, well known mail carrier and descendant of John Tucker has prepared a chart, showing the descendants in the various Tucker families and will display same at the Sunday reunion.

Friends of the Tucker clan will be welcomed at the reunion.

Tucker Church

It could be called the "little church by the side of the road" or "Tucker Meetinghouse" or "The Old Stonepile" It is located on Highway 22, halfway between Paris and Florence, PA.

The history dates back to before the Revolutionary War. Although the building itself was not erected until 1824, Methodist meetings were held regularly for nearly 40 years prior to the construction of the house.

Among the first settlers was Potts, Jackson, Hanlin and Tucker families which immigrated from the east, John Tucker who later deeded the ground on which the church stands, was born in Massachusetts and moved to Maryland. He married and moved with his wife in Maryland. She died leaving two sons, John and Samuel. He then married Henrietta and their small children moved across the mountains with the families and settled in Hanover Township 1775.

John had been here and marked out a tomahawk claim of four hundred acres "Grace Tract". It had a Chestnut Grove.

John Tucker was described as a large man and as straight as an Indian, a despiser of the lazy man and was a highest Quaker. He carried staff that were twice as tall as he, he called it "vaultingstick" and but clutching it was the top, he could fling himself a distance of ten feet, confusing the Indians.

Deeply devoted to work and religion.

They brought from the east a beautiful chest of drawers, Hepplewhite designer. She kept it covered, during this week with a horse blanket. On Sundays the cover was removed and the family Bible opened and read.

Someone kept watch for the Indians. Vance Fort was 10 miles from Tucker Cabin. John Tucker and Henrietta had a couple of girls and Henrietta's first son Jonathan was born at Fort Vance. John and Henrietta had four girls and four sons. Samuel had become a minister but was killed by Indians in route to Kentucky.

They met in homes for religious services and in 1823 a stone church building was begun. Four brothers from Island Creek Ohio. Minesingers were the stone masons. It was erected for $75 to $85. Stone quarried on the ground, cut and squared by hand in the building 33 by 44 feet.

John Tucker died April 6, 1830. At the age of 100, he was laid to rest in the churchyard. His wife died 2 years later.

Historic Tucker M. E. Church will Celebrate 122 Anniversary With Home-Coming Celebration on Sunday, August 11.

The historic Tucker Methodist Episcopal church will celebrate its one hundredth and twenty second anniversary with Home-coming and special services, on Sunday, August 11.

One of the few original edifices still standing in this section, it has been used continuously as a place of worship for more than a century. Tucker church is located on Route 22, between Paris and Florence and Rev. H. Paul Smith is the pastor. Under his leadership great plans are being made for the observance.

The church, a stone structure was built in 1824 by Samuel Tucker a leader of the congregation, at a cost of $75. The Meisinger Brothers of Island Creek, Ohio famous stone masons in their day did the constructing.

The celebration will open with a social hour followed by Sunday school at 10.30 a.m. A basket dinner will be in progress at noon with the church committee serving coffee.

Rev. Smith will be in charge of the afternoon session which will begin at 2 p.m. Former pastors and guests will participate. Anyone interested is invited to attend the celebration.

Hymn Sing Held At Francis Mine

Rev. Lee E. Speer conducted the Hymn Sing in the church at Francis Mine, Sunday, with eighty-five in attendance from ten neighboring churches. Rev. Speer is pastor of the church. Drexel Baker, of the Ebenezer Church of God, led the congregational singing.

Several special selections were enjoyed, from many of the churches represented. Miss June Campbell was pianist. Churches answering to a roll call of churches were: Avella Free Methodist, Ebenezer Church of God, Canonsburg Nazarene, Atlasburg Nazarene, Bethel Methodist, Eldersville Methodist, West Middletown Christian, Tucker Methodist, Christian Church of North America, Burgettstown, and the host church.

The tenth and last in the current series of sings will be held next Sunday in the Lower Buffalo Presbyterian church, Independence. A planned program is being arranged by the Hymn Sing committee, Morris Knabenshue, Kathryn Slasor and June Campbell. It will consist of special selections most requested from the hymn sings of the past nine weeks. The sing will begin at 3 p. m.

Tucker Methodist Church

The congregation of Tucker Methodist Church dates back to a time from before the Revolutionary War. Although the building itself was not built until the year 1824, Methodist meetings were held regularly meetings for nearly forty years prior to the construction of the house of worship. The land was owned and set aside by John Tucker. The stone was quarried on the grounds below the church, cut and squared by hand. The original building measured 33 by 44 feet. Stonemasons named Minesinger constructed the building for less than $85.

In 1965, the church added to the front of the front of the building a wooden steeple and a vestibule made of quarried stone.

The old cemetery, filled to capacity, is located to the left of the church. In 1903, an organization was formed to purchase land for another burial ground. This organization was chartered a short time later, and is known as Chestnut Ridge Cemetery Association, and is located directly across the road from the church.

Tucker Methodist Church is located halfway between Paris and Florence, on old U.S. 22 two miles west of Rt. 18.

CLASS OBSERVES 30TH BIRTHDAY HONORS TEACHER

Members of the Victory Bible class of the Westminster Presbyterian church celebrated their thirtieth anniversary over the past week end by being entertained at a luncheon Saturday afternoon in the home of their teacher, Mrs. John M. Scott, having a class picture made and by holding an Anniversary service on Sunday morning.

The Victory Bible class, first organized class of the Westminster church, received its Charter in 1919, but was taught for nine years previous, and making a total of 30 years, by its beloved teacher, Mrs. Scott. Charter members of the class were: Mrs. Scott, Margaret Conrad, Ethel Boyd Sonnenburg, Mary Pettit McKnight, Fernie Malone Walters, Alice Bridgeman Bable, Mildred Scott Morrow, Dorothy Reed Darke, Hollis Reed Swingle, Zelma Eicher, Ethel Tope and Mrs. E. C. Carmichael.

The class song at the time of organization was, "Faith is the Victory" from which the class derived its name. Through the years, the personell of the class has changed, new members being added, others moving away, and a few answering the final summons, but with all, the organization has maintained a close sisterhood, and has been a spiritual and material asset to the Westminster church.

Forty four members of the class were entertained at the luncheon Saturday afternoon in the Scott home, which was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and foliage. After the guests were seated at the tables, they sang one verse of the class song and were led in prayer by Mrs. William Flurkey. After a social good time, the group adjourned to the church, where the class picture was taken.

Mrs. Scott was assisted in entertaining by the following committees: reception, Mrs. E. F. Bywaters, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Harry Conn; decorations, Mrs. J. F. Evans and Miss Sue Mull; tables, Mrs. G. C. Hemphill, Mrs. S. C. Walter, Mrs. William G. Phillips and Mrs. C. S. McCormick; press, Mrs. E. G. Reisinger and Mrs. C. K. Morrow; photographer, Mrs. T. E. Trimmer and Mrs. Robert Hemphill and luncheon aides, Mrs. Bessie Criss, Mrs. John Fuller, Miss Margaret Conrad, Mrs. Stewart Scott and Miss Mildred Nokovich.

On Sunday morning, the opening services in the Sunday school were dedicated to the Victory Bible class. The program was in charge of the President, Mrs. E. F. Bywaters and included: Scripture reading, Mrs. E. C. Carmichael; prayer, Mrs. Edwin B. Smith, solo, "Hiding In Thee", Mrs. C. K. Morrow (Mrs. Morrow's solo is a favorite of the teacher, Mrs. Scott and was given in her honor); class history, Mrs. S. G. Walters.

Mrs. Walters paid tribute to the class teacher with these words, "Our Master, in telling of a parable of one who was doing his task well, used these words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant", We, of the Victory Bible class feel these are fitting words for this occasion. Truly, our teacher, Mrs. John M. Scott has served as teacher of this class faithfully and well for many years, and we, here, express our appreciation for her service, and pray God's richest blessing on her continued service." Mrs. Scott, in response, assured the Sunday school, her work had been one of Love and not Service. Mrs. Walters concluded with the beautiful poem, "Faith" by Edgar A. Guest.

Mrs. Scott was presented with a tribute bouquet of red roses, with the accompanying sentiment, "We knew as we bought these roses so small,
They'd be treasured and held so dear,
If you count each one of them, you will find
A rose for eath faithful year."

WESTMINSTER CONGREGATION ELECTS OFFICERS

A covered dish dinner served by members of the King's Daughters Class preceded the annual congregational meeting of the Westminster Presbyterian Church last Wednesday evening. E. C. Carmichael, congregational chairman presided during the meeting and E. O. Myers and D. N. Cook were re-elected members of the session to serve for three years. J. M. Scott and Dr. R. E. Davidson were re-elected to the board of trustees, and two new trustees were elected, Albert Rossy and George Grimes, increasing the total number to nine.

E. C. Carmichael was elected congregational chairman; H. L. Buckwalter, congregational secretary; Dr. R. E. Davidson, church treasurer; and Mrs. A. A. Smith financial secretary. At the conclusion of the business meeting an "amateur hour" program was presented.

Last Sunday morning the nominating committee, composed of the teachers of the Sunday School, submitted a report for the approval of the Sunday School for the following officers to serve in the Sunday School. They are: Superintendent, E. C. Carmichael, assistant Supt. Wilbur Moore; Intermediate Supt. Mrs. Mae Davidson and Mrs. George Hanna; Primary Supt. Evelyn Smith and Enid Campbell; Secretary, Mrs. D. N. Cook; Treasurer, A. A. Smith; Pianist, Mrs. C. K. Morrow; assistants Mrs. Herbert Cramer and Miss Jane Williamson.

D. N. COOK FAMILY, WHO LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA ARE GUESTS OF HONOR AT FAREWELL PARTIES

The Victory Bible class and the Missionary Society of the Westminster Presbyterian church held a farewell party in the church parlors on Monday evening, November 6 for Mrs. D. N. Cook, who has been a faithful worker in the organizations of the church for many years. Mrs. Cook with her husband and son will leave this week for Hermosa, Cal., where the Cooks will make their home.

The party was held at the conclusion of a meeting of the Victory Bible class, at which the following program was presented: devotions, Mrs. W. L. McConnell with scripture reading from the 121 Psalm; prayer, Mrs. J. Herbert Cruickshank song, "Ivory Palaces; poem, "Keeps Me Busy Watching Me".

At the business meeting, roll call was answered with a verse of scripture. Mrs. Edwin Smith read a letter from Mrs. Lawrence Blackburn of Lowell, Mass., stating her mother, Mrs. C. D. Castle is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Castle is the wife of the late Dr. Charles D. Castle, a former pastor of Westminster church.

A nominating committee was named to select officers to serve for the coming year. They are: Miss Sue Mull, Mrs. E. L. Farner and Mrs. Clarence K. Morrow. Mrs. Oscar Harbaugh reported on Bazaar plans which will be held in the church parlors Thursday, December 14. The meeting adjourned with the group praying the Lord's Prayer, after which the class and the Missionary society held the party for Mrs. Cook.

At this party entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Helen Williamson and was as follows: selections by a trio composed of Misses Jane and Olive Williamson and Phyllis Evans, who sang, "Dusk On The Prairie" by Zdenko Fibich and "Strike Up The Band" by Gershwin. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Bigger. Mrs. A. A. Smith played two violin solos accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Bell. The skit, "The Travelling Cooks" was presented with Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Bell portraying Mr. and Mrs. Cook. Mrs. J. H. Cruickshank sang "Home From School," by Gertrude Martin Roher and "A Necklace of Love" by Ethelbert Nevin. A ditty, to the tune of "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You" with words written by Mrs. Bertha McCormick was sung to the departing member by Jane and Olive Williamson. Pictures were taken and Mrs. Cook was presented with a lovely gift from the two groups. Lunch was served with Miss Sue Mull and Mrs. John Robinson as co-hostesses.

The Cook's have been guests of honor at several farewell functions during the past week.

Victory Bible Class

The Victory Bible Class of the Westminster Presbyterian Church met Monday evening, May 3, at 8 p.m. in the church parlors. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Oscar Harbaugh who used as her theme "Peace". Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs. J. H. Cruickshank answered roll call with a verse taken from I Kings. The President, Mrs. Carl Clair presided over the business meeting. Final arrangements were made for the annual spring Rummage sale which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11 and 12 in the Barbush Building formerly the Smith hotel recently occupied by the Maglietta Jewelry Store.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Lester Jackson and Mrs. Georgia Rommes.

Westminster Church Bell

After the closing of the Westminster Church, the building was purchased by Petrucci's Market. In the early 1970's, the church was torn down as a part of the John L. Brunner Memorial By-Pass. To preserve a portion of the church, Petrucci's donated the bell to the Cross Creek Presbyterian Church. The bell is on display in front of the church.
