GRAVESTONE ENUMERATION

Persons buried in the graveyard were not necessarily members of the church. The Breadens and Crouses are examples of those who were not. On the other hand, some members were buried elsewhere, e.g. Othniel Woodrow who is interred at King's Creek.

The enumeration of the gravestones is by stone. The surname is not repeated for family members after the first member named. Other surnames are middle, maiden or previous names. In cases of persons with different surnames on the same stone, listings are by surnames with notations of the stones on which they appear. Abbreviations used as follows: d/o, daughter of; s/o, son of; w/o, wife of. Material not on the stones is enclosed in parentheses.

VETERANS REMEMBERED AT FLORENCE

Because of Mr. Moore's interest in veterans of early wars buried at Florence, the editors researched materials now available, and ordered granite stones with service records from the U.S. Veterans Administration. These stones are to be dedicated August 2, 1986 during the celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the congregation. We have used existing service, court and family records. We have not repeated materials contained in Beers, Crumrine and other well known Washington Co. historical and biographical sources.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR

At this point in time, it is probably not possible to ascertain all the veterans buried at Florence. We have every reason to believe those listed below are interred at Florence. Probably others should be added. We hope that readers will inform us.

Robert Russell of the Washington Co., Pa. Militia lived next to the graveyard, and may be buried there. Michael Close of the Berkeley Co., Va. Militia also lived nearby. William Brimner whose stone survives may be the William Brimer of the Philadelphia Co., Pa. Militia. John Travis, an early elder and captain in the York Co. Pa. Militia, is said by Crumrine to have returned to Florence from Columbiana Co., Ohio before his death. James Allison, another early elder, may have had service, but we are unable to determine which James Allison of the several listed in the Pennsylvania Archives he might be. John Flowers is of the proper age to have been in the Revolution, but he is not the man of the same name with Virginia service listed in Brumbaugh. No service has been found on Robert Breaden.

The following men are Revolutionary veterans buried at Florence. All wills mentioned are filed in Washington Co., Pa. unless otherwise noted.

(1) JOHN BARTON 1756 - 1838 served in the Pennsylvania Continental Line (Pa. Archives, Series 5, Vol. 4, pp. 210 & 390). Crumrine observed his stone. We concluded he was the Revolutionary soldier because we could find no other John Barton in Pennsylvania at the time. The Barton name appears in Beers under the Brimner biographical material, and Crumrine mentions a teacher, Hugh Barton. Evelyn Kerr Vaughn tells us that Jesse Kerr 1810 - 1893 married a Jane Hannah Barton, in 1832. No will has been found for John Barton.

(2) JOHN BAVINGTON Feb. 2, 1750 - June 23, 1810 served in the Washington Co. Militia under Captain Peter Kidd. (Pa. Archives, Series 6, Vol. 2, p. 152). He is probably of the Bavington family of Bucks Co. treated in the Clarke-Dungan genealogy. He owned and operated a mill. Beers contains an account of his family and of his death. A 1937 listing of the graveyard by Miss Eva Johnson and Elizabeth B. Weaver includes a stone for his wife, Ruth, who died March 1, 1824, but we cannot verify this because the stone has lost all inscription.

(3) GEORGE BLAZER 1764 - 1805 served with John Bavington under Capt. Kidd.

(See Above) According to the Blazer family history, he was the son of John and Mary Blazer who owned Rich Levels in Hanover Twp., Washington Co., Pa. George left a widow, Elizabeth, and nine children: David, who is believed to have married Mary Davis; John whose wife is unknown; George who married Catherine Augustine; Isaac whose wife's name was Margaret; Mary who married Joseph Hoy; Bazeleel who married Jane Burgett; Eleanor who married Simon Kelly; Elizabeth married William Burdue; Moses. (Blazer family record) A note made by James Simpson was found in A.D. White's copy of The Life of the Rev. Elisha Macurdy which identified George's Blazer's funeral. Mr. Macurdy refused to bless the whiskey and cakes, so the task fell to Elder Miles Wilson. The Blazer name appears in the church records. In the settlement of John Blazer's estate, James Proudfoot claimed $1.50 for saltery (sic) on behalf of the trustees of the Cross Roads congregation.

(4) THOMAS BRICELAND c. 1745-1819 was a captain in the Cumberland Co., Pa. Militia. (Pa. Archives Series 5, Vol. 6 pp. 154, 165, 172) His will made January 1817 names wife, Margaret; six children: James, Sarah, John, Polly, David and Margaret; two grandsons, James and Thomas. Sarah was the first wife of the Rev. Elisha Macurdy, no issue. Florence was called Briceland's Cross Roads in early records.

(5) JAMES CAROTHERS 1764-1818 served in the Cumberland Co., Pa. Militia (Pa. Archives, Series 5, Vol. 6 p. 198 and possibly other pages since his service can't be distinguished from that of his father unless "Sr." or "Jr." is included.) The Carothers family lived near Frankfort Springs, and are, therefore, found in Warner and in other Beaver Co. sources. James died intestate, but his wife, Alice, made a will in 1848 in Beaver Co. She mentions daughter, Mary Glasgow; sons, James, William, John and Jesse; grandchildren James C. and Mathilda Duncan. An earlier James Carothers was an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Carlisle, Pa.

(6) ELIJAH CRAFTFORD 1756-1836 was a corporal in the Northampton Co., Pa. Militia (Pa. Archives, Series 5, Vol. 8, pp. 21, 212, 307) He was awarded a pension under the 1832 Act of Congress. In his declaration he stated that he participated in the Battle of Long Island. His will made March 9, 1829 names wife, Elizabeth; sons, Joseph, Free and Isaac; daughters, Elizabeth (children of), Rebecca Thompson, Anne Boils; grandsons, three of whom are named Elijah Crafford, the sons of Joseph, Free and Isaac Crafford, Crafford Miller, Robert Crafford (s/o Isaac), Isaac Crafford (s/o Isaac), Elijah Jackson, Elijah Thompson; granddaughters, Rachel Miller, Elizabeth Crafford (d/o Isaac). Elizabeth Crafford also left a will dated April 18, 1836 in which the descendants in Elijah's will are mentioned as well granddaughters, July Ann Crafford and Elisabeth Huffman. Her will, in enumerating possessions such as "delf & queens ware," gives some picture of the economic prosperity of the neighborhood. A descendant joined the Pennsylvania Society, Sons of the American Revolution, on Elijah Crafford's service record.

(7) SAMUEL FULTON 1750-1821 was a captain in the York Co., Pa. Militia (Pa. Archives, Series 6, Vol. 2, pp. 580, 593.) He was an elder in the Cross Roads Church. His will made May 10, 1821 names wife, Cotrian; sons, Tom, David, Samuel, John, Robert; daughters, Mary, Catarin and Margret; grandson, Samuel Fulton s/o David.

(8) DAVID PHILLIP JACKSON 1750-1803 served under Capt. Peter Kidd in the Washington Co., Pa. Militia. (Pa. Archives, Series 6, Vol. 2, p. 152.) He used his middle name. He was known as the "praying elder" in the Cross Roads Church. He made his will Feb. 8, 1803 in which he named wife, Rosannah; brother, Joseph; five youngest children: Ann, Elsey, Moses, Nathan and Phillop.

(9) JOSEPH JACKSON c. 1751-1824 served with his brother under Capt. Kidd (See above). He was also an elder in the Cross Roads Church. He made his will July 3, 1823 in which he named wife, Bety; sons, George, Edward and Thomas; daughters, Rosanna, Deborah, Fanny, Thirty and children of daughter, Polly.

(10) THOMAS LIVINGSTON 1755-1849 served under Capt. Robert Mullen in a Pa. Company of Marines. (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol 2, p. 873-874.) His will was drawn Sept. 3, 1847, but not settled in probate until Oct. 5, 1857 because it was disputed. The court ruled that the will stood as written. The will mentioned sons, James, Samuel, William and Peter; daughters, Jane, Hannah, Eliza Rodgers; grandson, Thomas Roders (sic)

(11) ELISHA MACURDAY Oct. 15, 1765-July 22, 1845 served in the Cumberland Co., Pa. Militia under Capt. Asa Hill (Pa. Archives Series 5, Vol. 6, p. 184 & p. 199) This part of the first minister's life is seldom, if ever, mentioned. In the Elliott biography, it is stated that Elisha Macurdy was twice married. His first wife, Sarah Briceland, died without issue. His second wife, the widow of Joseph Colwell, was the mother of his children: Elisha, Jr. who died young, and Sarah who married and had descendants. Children of Mrs. Macurdy's first marriage also had descendants.

(12) WILLIAM McFARREN Nov. 26, 1757-July 28, 1826 served in the Northampton Co., Pa. Militia as Drummer Boy and later as Ensign. (Pa. Archives Series 5 Vol. 8, p.27 and Series 3, Vol. 23, p. 464 and 818) His commanding officers were Col. George Brinigh and Capt. Johnston. His father, William McFarren, served as a private in the Northampton Co., Pa. delegation to the Lancaster Convention. The McFarren Memorial identifies his wife, Mary (Polly) Scott as the daughter of John Scott, quartermaster of the Pennsylvania Line, the Revolutionary ancestor whose record was used by Caroline Scott Harrison (Mrs. Benjamin Harrison), the first President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Several descendants of the McFarrens and Scotts have joined D.A.R. including Minnie Warren Dungan, No. 10, 457 and this compiler, No. 523852. The children of William and Mary (Scott) McFarren were: Nancy who married David Ayers; James, the Clerk of Session, who married Jane Miller (no issue); Jane who married Henry Robinson; John who married Abigail Smith, Elizabeth Mercer and Margaret Black; Isabella who married David Dungan. He married (2) her baptismal mate, Mary Moody, with whom he is buried at Frankfort Springs, Isabella being buried in the McFarren lot at Florence; Polly who married David Duncan; Samuel who married Harriet Caldwell; William who married Abigail Caldwell; Peggy unmarried. William McFarren died testate.

(13) DANIEL McLOUD 1747-1829 served in the Washington Co., Pa. Militia under Capt. Thomas Rankin (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol.2, p. 130, 136, 248). His will written Dec. 19, 1828, pro. Brooke Co. (W.) Va. Aug. 31, 1829 names son Robert and daughters Christianna Justus and Jean Jackson of Washington Co., Pa. A bequest of $5.00 was made to Joseph Barnet s/o Barnet, a Wyandotte Indian. The Barnet story is told in the Life Of Elisha Macurdy.

(14) JAMES MERCHANT c. 1745-1800 also served under Capt. Rankin (Ibid. p. 131, 143). His will made April 10, 1800 mentions wife, Sarah; brothers, Samuel and Thomas; John Robinson "who now lives with me"; Ann McCaughan and Mary McMillan, each a silk handkerchief "as a memorandum". He also left the Rev. Elisha Macurdy $20.00 "if he settles in the Cross Roads congregation" and a like amount to the Academy at Cannonsburg. John, William, James and Thomas Merchant were brothers who served together in the Washington Co. Militia, the relationship being established by the 1782 will of John. John cannot be buried at Cross Roads because his death preceded the move of the congregation to that location. It is likely that Samuel and Thomas are buried at Cross Roads. We would hope for further information on them so they might be provided with stones as well.

(15) JAMES PROUDFOOT 1759-1856 served in the York Co. Militia under Capt. John Travis (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol. 2, p. 660,642) He was granted a pension under the 1832 Act of Congress, his declaration listing three periods of service. He was an elder and superintendent of the Sabbath School at the Cross Roads Church. His will dated Oct. 13, 1854 names son, John; grandson, James P. Lowary; granddaughter, Mary Jane Applegate; granddaughter, Margaret Anna Howard. The church necrology lists suggest other family members.

(16) JOSEPH SCOTT 1761-1856 served under Capt. William Lindsay in the York Co., Pa. Militia (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol. 2, p. 649). His will made Aug. 8, 1853 names sons, Benjamin and Joseph; daughters, Jane C. Flenegin, relect of Eli, and Martha Cully; grandsons Paden Moore and Joseph Scott Cully; granddaughters, Martha Jane Cooley and Maria Armer; Domestic Missions; Old School Presbyterian Church of Florence.

(17) JAMES SIMANTON C. 1746-1819 served in the Northampton Co., Pa. Militia under Capt. Hugh Gaston (Pa. Archives, Series 5, Vol. 8, p. 412, 413). His will made May 30, 1818 names son, John and daughters Polly, Margret w/o John Merchant, Elizabeth, Jane, Esther, Phebe and Abby. Since he owned a large farm, we wonder if he had not hoped for more sons and fewer daughters. James Simanton's brother married William McFarren's sister.

(18) THOMAS STEPHENS c. 1753-1837 served seven years as a captain in the Military District of Ohio, Virginia Troops (Brumbaugh). He received 400 acres of land in what became Beaver Co., Pa. after the Pennsylvania-Virginia border was settled, his certificate being from Virginia. (After the settlement, the older claim held if there were titles from both states.) He died intestate in Beaver Co. (Req. Docket 1-11), and the record shows no relationships. We know from deeds that his wife's name was Mary who must be one of the "pious women" mentioned in the Life Of Macurdy. We can surmise from the census they had children, but we can identify only one, Deborah who married Robert Dungan. Thomas Stephens was a son of Benjamin and Deborah (Dungan) Stephens of New Britain, Bucks Co., Pa. Various Dungan and Stephens family members were constituent members of the New Britain Baptist Church, in which churchyard Benjamin and Deborah are buried. Benjamin served in the Bucks Co. Militia. Isaac Stephens, brother of Thomas, may also be buried at Florence. We leave this to the determination of the numerous descendants of Isaac. Isaac had both Pennsylvania and Virginia Service.

(19) ROBERT WALLACE 1721-1808 served in the Washington Co. Militia under

Capt. Peter Kidd (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol. 2, p. 153) and under Capt. Miers on the frontier (Series 2, Vol. 14). His first wife was killed by Indians. His will made April 9, 1808 names wife Mary, sons, Robert, James and John; daughters, Sarah, Ann and Jean.

(20) STEPHEN WILKIN 1858-1810 served in the Washington Co., Pa. Militia under Capt. James Munn (Pa. Archives Series 6 Vol. 2, p. 51, 73). His family stone survives, but we have been unable to find other information about him apart from Crumrine's statements (p. 914b) that he was the son of John and Catherine (Edgar) Wilkin and married Sarah Van Emen.

WAR OF 1812-14

It has been variously recorded that a group of volunteers met at Florence after the fall of Detroit, and marched to Lisbon, Ohio because there were rumors circulating that the frontier families were in danger. Elisha Macurdy rode south of the town and John McFarren north to recruit. We cannot find any official record which would credit these men with 1812 service except for John McFarren who is buried in Cambridge, Ohio. We do have proved 1812-14 service on ROBERT McCONNELL (Pa. Archives Series 6, Vol. 8, p. 5). His widow, Edith, received a pension of $8.00 per month from Feb. 1879, certificate No. 18,678.

CIVIL WAR

Few Florence families were untouched by the Civil War. Veterans are indicated in the general listing of the graveyard. There are several government markers of a previous type. The Burgettstown Enterprise of June 3, 1908 contains a listing, but not the source of the information. To indicate the presence of Civil War men, we did order stones for RICHARD MAYHEW CROUSE, JOHN W. DUNCAN and JAMES PROUDFIT. We should like to order a stone for John Cully whose stone is too eroded to obtain dates. Perhaps a family member will care to do this.

We leave the church history in this century to those with knowledge of the matter. The present church building was dedicated in 1964, and is located across old Route 22 from the graveyard and the site of earlier buildings. A fire in 1963 destroyed the brick church building of 1847.

We herein offer the church history written by James McFarren and William Cool in 1859, Elizabeth Stevenson Potts' 1889 history from The History of The Presbytery of Washington and items found in the minutes of the Presbytery of Redstone before the formation of the Presbytery of Ohio in 1793. Persons interested in music might enjoy the Session Minutes of May 13, 1874, in which is recorded that Session voted to "investigate the propriety of purchasing an instrument". This was done because subsequent minutes include appointments of organists.

A HISTORY OF THE ORIGIN AND SUBSEQUENT PROGRESS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CROSS ROADS CONTAINING AN ACCOUNT OF ITS OFFICERS, ITS SEASONS OF SPECIAL REVIVINGS, DECLENSIONS, ETC.

James McFarren and William Cool 1859

"When the country was first settled which is now inhabited by the members of Cross Roads congregation, there was no Presbyterian Church organized west or north of Cross Creek. At that place there was a church which enjoyed one-half of the ministerial labors of the Rev. Joseph Smith. Perhaps, about the year 1786 the Presbyterian population of this region of the country had become so considerable that they obtained an organization at a place called King's Creek. Messrs. Phillip Jackson, Miles Wilson and John McMillan were elected ruling elders and constituted the first session in this region of the country. A meeting house was erected at King's Creek and the first celebration of the Lord's Supper in that place was held in August 1788. For some years the people met at that place for worship and it was evident that the Spirit of God was there. Many were added to the church. But before they obtained the labors of a stated minister, it became apparent that the location was not a good one.

"A congregation had been organized at Mill Creek about eight miles north of King's Creek. It was, therefore, determined to change the location from the latter place to a point where the road from Pittsburg to Steubenville crosses the road from Washington to Georgetown about three miles southeast of the first location. The change of the place of worship was accompanied with a change of name, and this may perhaps be considered the origin of the Cross Roads congregation. This change took place about A.D. 1798.

"The new location left Mr. McMillan too far from the place of worship to attend at Cross Roads so that the Session consisted of but two members viz. Phillip Jackson and Miles Wilson. About the year 1800 the congregation in connection with that of Three Springs put in a call for the pastoral labors of Rev. Elisha McCurdy which was accepted, and in the spring of that year Mr. McCurdy was ordained and installed pastor of said churches.

"Not long after Mr. McCurdy's settlement there was an addition to the Session. Messrs. John Travis and John Riddle having been Ruling Elders in other congregations were elected and installed to that office in this.

"In the summer of 1802 an unusual solemnity pervaded this congregation and that of Three Springs. On the fourth Sabbath of Sept., A.D. 1802 the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the latter place. On that occasion a most extraordinary work of Grace made its appearance. On the following Thursday, the congregation of Cross Roads met (it being the day of the monthly concert for prayer) this remarkable work was manifest in their midst also. Many were made to cry out, 'Men and brethren what shall we do?' About two weeks afterward, the Sacrament was administered, and perhaps not less than 3,000 persons attended. From this time forward the work increased for months and many 'were added to the church' of such as we hope will be saved, but at the same time truth requires us to say that a number were subjects of this work who did not seem to derive any profit therefrom. This work was in many instances accompanied by a bodily exercise (known familiarly as the 'Falling Work') which gave it a very singular and solemn appearance. The subjects of it were led through the preaching of the Word, seeing others in distress or other causes to serious reflection in regard to their souls' Eternal interests. Thereupon they were brought to have very close views of their guilt and danger and, as already stated the body became affected with trembling and loss of strength. The individual would fall prostrate and remain for hours in an inactive and apparently almost lifeless state. Others appeared almost frantic and exhibited such convulsions and contortions as are indescribable. One fact almost incredible is that many of the subjects of this work although almost lifeless to the view of the spectator, they enjoyed the most perfect exercise of their mental facilities, and were able to relate what had transpired around them during the time of their exercise with uncommon clearness.

"For a more particular description of this work, the reader is referred to the Western Missionary Magazine for 1803.

"On the month of Feb. 1803 the Session of the church sustained a great loss in the death of one of its most active members, viz; Mr. Philip Jackson generally known as the 'Praying Elder.'

"In the spring of that year it was thought necessary to increase the session. Accordingly, Messrs. Samuel Fulton, Jas. Proudfit and John Duncan were elected and ordained Ruling Elders. For some years the church enjoyed a season of growth and comfort and we hope that believers were edified. About A.D. 1807 or 1808, the session received another accession by the election and ordination of Messrs. Joseph Jackson and James Allison to the office of Ruling Elder. Nothing else worthy of note transpired except about 1804 or 1805. Mr. John Riddle withdrew from the church; and about 1808 Mr. John Travis, a prominent member of Session, removed to the State of Ohio.

"About this time for several years there were very evident indications of a decline in vital piety. About the year 1814 the session was called to sustain the loss of two of its members, Mr. Jas. Allison departed this life, and Mr. Miles Wilson removed to the State of Ohio.

"In the following year, there was another addition to the session. Messrs. James Kerr and George Anderson were elected and ordained Ruling Elders.

"About A.D. 1819 a Sabbath School was organized in connexion with this church which has been continued up to the present time (1859) under the superintendency of James McFarren, Esq. For some years after its organization it was discontinued in the winter, but for the last 20 or 25 years it has been continued in all seasons with but little interruption. About the same year (A.D. 1819) Mr. Samuel Fulton departed this life and perhaps about the same time Mr. George Anderson removed to the State of Ohio. This reduced the session so that it was deemed proper to have an addition to it. Accordingly such addition was made in the persons of Robt. Withrow, Jas. Wallace and Thos. Thompson who were elected and installed A.D. 1820.

"But again in the year 1824 another member of session, Mr. Joseph Jackson was snatched away by the ruthless hand of death.

"In the year 1828 this church was visited with a season of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. In the month of Jan. of that year the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was supplied and administered after Divine service. On Monday the congregation manifested that their feelings were of no ordinary character. Few cheeks were dry and perhaps between 50 and 100 persons principally of the young were made to inquire the way to Zion, and it is to be hoped that a good number were brought to a 'knowledge of the Truth as it is in Jesus'. Fifty-one individuals were admitted to the communion of the church. After the death of Mr. Jackson, the session was reduced to but six members. In the year 1831 it was thought advisable to increase the number and Messrs. Robert Patterson, Jas. McFarren and John Duncan, Jr. were chosen and set apart in the office of Ruling Elder.

"Mr. McCurdy, who had been stated pastor of the church for upwards of thirty-five years, in the fall of A.D. 1835 applied to Presbytery to be dismissed from his charge; the request was granted, and the congregation was declared vacant. In the spring of the year 1836, Rev. Dan'l Deruelle passed through the region, and not having any stated charge, the eyes of the congregation were turned upon him. A call was made out and presented in due form and Mr. Deruelle signified his willingness to accept, and entered upon the duties of Pastor immediately. During ministrations the church was visited with a refreshing shower of Divine Grace. Many anxious inquirers were found. Twenty-seven were added to the church upon examination. However, through the agency of foreign influence, especially that of the agent of the General Assembly's Board of Education and the advise of Presbytery, Mr. Deruelle declined being installed, and the congregation was again left vacant. The Rev. Wm. Burton, then engaged in teaching in the Florence Academy who having (by invitation) supplied the pulpit for some time, acceptable, the congregation presented a call for his pastoral services which he accepted and in the winter of A.D. 1838, he was installed Pastor of the church. But he did not remain more than about a year until he requested a dismissal, and Presbytery dissolved the union, and a third time declared the pulpit vacant.

"Nothing worthy of mention took place from the time that Mr. Burton left in the month of Feb. 1839 until the following autumn. A call was then made out for the ministerial labors of the Rev. J. W. McKenna which was accepted, and he was installed in Nov. of the same year. Mr. McKenna continued to bear the pastoral relation to the church until June A.D. 1841 when he requested to be released from his charge on account of ill health. Presbytery acceded to the request; the relation was dissolved, and the congregation was once more vacant. The church remained without a stated pastor until Oct, 1842 when it united in a call for the labors of Rev. Joel Stoneroad, a member of the Presbytery of Redstone. Mr. Stoneroad accepted the invitation, removed into the bounds of the congregation, and was soon after installed its Pastor.

"During the Pastorate of Mr. Stoneroad on several occasions there were considerable additions to the church, many of whom in after life gave evidence of the sincerity of their professions. In the year 1845, Mr. Robert Withrow, one of the most efficient members of session, was dismissed by certificate and removed to Ohio.

"In the year 1847, the session sustained a great loss in the death of Mr. Jas. Kerr, one of its most highly esteemed members. In the year 1849, a new congregation was granted at Burgettstown, and Messrs. Patterson and Thompson, two members of session together with about 60 other members were dismissed to join the new organization.

"In the month of March A.D. 1850, death again extended his icy hand, and snatched away one of the oldest and most prominent members of the session, Mr. John Duncan, Sr. who departed this life in the 32nd year of his age. This reduced the session to but four members. The membership of the church was also reduced from considerably over 200 to 150 members. At the meeting of Presbytery A.D. 1850, the pastoral relationship existing between the church and Rev. J. Stoneroad was dissolved, and the pulpit was once more declared vacant.

"In the autumn of A.D. 1850, Rev. J.S. Wylie came into the neighborhood and supplied the pulpit until the spring of the year 1851 when a call was placed in his hands, and he signified willingness to accept. But in less than one short year, Mr. Wylie was removed by death from our midst, but we fondly hope to that rest which remaineth for the people of God.

"The congregation then remained vacant until the autumn of the year 1852 when a call was made out for the ministerial labors of Mr. O.M. Todd and on the 9th day of Nov. 1852, he was ordained and installed Pastor of this church.

"About the time of Mr. Todd's installation this church (in common with a number of the churches belonging to the Presbytery) was visited with a considerable awakening on the subject of religion, and many are made to inquire, 'What must I do to be saved?' Shortly after about 26 persons, were admitted to the communion of the church on examination, and a number of others on certificate. In the early part of the winter of 1853, it was thought advisable to increase the session and on the 20th day of Feb., Messrs. N.M. Duncan, John McConnel and Wm. Mercer were elected and ordained elders in this church. During the winter and spring of the year 1853 we had good evidence what God's spirit had not entirely left us. Many were made to inquire the way to Zion. At the communion in March of that year, 38 persons were received to the communion of the church, 19 of whom were baptised on that occasion.

"In the summer of the year 1853, the church of Three Springs removed their location to the Village of Paris within five miles of Cross Roads, and a goodly number of this church were dismissed to join that organization.

"In the summer of the year 1855, the session sustained great loss in the death of Mr. Norris M. Duncan, its youngest member, but one who gave promise of great usefulness had his life been spared.

"The session was then reduced to but five members one of whom was between 90 and 100 years old. Under the circumstances, it was thought proper to again increase its number. Messrs. John Amspoker, Wm. J. Cool and David Van Eman having been elected, were ordained and installed Ruling Elders Dec. 27, 1855, and the day following, Mr. Peter Teel who had previously been ordained and having been duly elected in this church was installed to that office.

"In the month of April 1856, Jas. Proudfoot, Esq. departed this life in the 96th year of his age. Mr. Proudfoot was by far the oldest member of Session, having served this congregation in the capacity of Ruling Elder for more than half a century. Not only the session and the congregation but the Sabbath School felt they had lost a father and a friend.

"Nothing worthy of note transpired until the month of January 1859 when the Presbytery of Washington met in this church and at Mr. Todd's request dissolved the relation existing between him and the congregation, and the pulpit was once more declared vacant."

CROSS ROADS-(KING'S CREEK) 1889

By Mrs. Elizabeth Stevenson Potts
from The History of the Presbytery of Washington

"The organization of this church took place about the year 1785, on King's Creek, Wahington County, Pa. Messrs. Philip Jackson, Miles Wilson and John McMillen constituted the first session. From November, 1785, until April, 1788, the Revs. Thos. Marquis, Thaddeus Dod, Joseph Smith and Joseph Patterson supplied the church with preaching. April 22, 1788, this body, in connection with the newly organized church of Mill Creek, presented a call to Rev. John Brice, which was declined. The first recorded observance of the Lord's Supper was on the fourth Sabbath of August, 1788, when Revs. Joseph Smith and John McMillen conducted the service. During the next four years calls were extended successively to Revs. George Hill, Robert Finley and William Swan, which were not accepted, so that the church of King's Creek never had a settled pastor. When the Presbytery of Ohio was formed, in 1793, this church was included in it, so that we have been unable to find any record of its work during the next five years. Although much good was done here, yet the location was not considered central enough, and accordingly a change was proposed, to a point three miles to the south, where the Pittsburgh pike crosses the Washington road, and where the village of Florence now stands. A new house of worship was here erected, and in 1798 the organization was transferred to this place. Since then it has borne the name of Cross Roads.

"PASTORS.—In November 1799, this people united with the congregation of Three Springs in giving a call to Rev. Elisha McCurdy. In June, 1800, he was ordained and installed as the first pastor. His ministry lasted till the fall of 1835, but he supplied the pulpit till the spring of 1836.

"Rev. Daniel Deruelle was stated supply from 1836-37; Rev. William Burton was pastor from November, 1839-41; Rev. Joel Stonerod, was pastor from 1842-50; Rev. J.S. Wylie was stated supply from the fall of 1850-51, when he received a call, but was never installed, as he died, February 10, 1852, in Florence, Pa.; Rev. O. M. Todd was pastor from November 9, 1852, to January, 1858; Rev. J. P. Caldwell was pastor from 1860-64; Rev. Andrew Boyd was pastor from 1864-65; Rev. D. M. Miller was pastor from September 25, 1867, to October 1, 1871; Rev. S.F. Forbes was pastor from February, 1873, to April, 1876; Rev. Ross Stevenson, D.D., was pastor from 1877 to September, 1882. Rev. A. F. Alexander, the present pastor, was installed June, 1883. The first ruling elders, as already stated, were Messrs. Philip Jackson, Miles Wilson and John McMillen, who were ordained and installed in 1785. Philip Jackson died February 10, 1803; Miles Wilson was dismissed 1814. Since then, with the date of their ordination or installation affixed, there have been—John Travis, 1800, dismissed 1809; John Riddle, 1800, withdrew 1804; Samuel Fulton, 1803, died 1819; James Proudfoot, Sr., 1803, died May 2, 1856; John Duncan, Sr., 1803, died March, 1850; Joseph Jackson, Sr. 1807, died 1824; James Allison, 1807 died 1814; James Kerr, 1815, died 1847; George Anderson, 1815, dismissed 1819; Robert Withrow, 1820, dismissed 1845; James Wallace, 1820, died October, 1863; Thomas Thompson, 1820; and Robert Patterson, 1831; were transferred to Burgettstown October 18, 1849, with sixty other members, to form the church there; Hon. James McFerran, 1831, died November 3, 1866; John Duncan, Jr., 1831, died 1876; Norris Duncan, Sr., 1853, died 1855; John McConnell, Sr., February 20, 1853, died April 11, 1879; William Mercer, Sr. February 20, 1853, died June 13, 1876; John Amspoker, December 27, 1855, dismissed — —, —; William J. Cool, December 27, 1855, died September 28, 1880; David Van Eman, December 27, 1855, dismissed 1867; Peter Teel, December 27, 1855, died September 13, 1871; David Culbertson, September, 1867, died December 29, 1878; Daniel Crane, July 10, 1870, dismissed — —, —; James Magill, November 30, 1879, dismissed in the fall of 1885; Marion Jackson, — —, 1875, died June 24, 1888. The present session consists of Messrs. S. M. McConnell, who was elected July 10, 1870, Josiah Scott, September, 1872, Finley Scott, September, 1882, W. A. P. Linn, 1884.

"HOUSES OF WORSHIP—The first church building was a log structure, built in 1786, on what is now known as the McCaslin (sic) farm, King's Creek. The second, or the first building on the new location, was also of hewn logs, seventy feet long and thirty feet wide, cruciform in shape; built in 1798. A new house, of brick, was finished in 1831. At the dedication Rev. C. C. Beatty, of Steubenville, O., preached the sermon. This structure was five rods north of the old one, and from some unknown cause, was burned to the ground the night of September 25, 1845. The present building, also of brick, was then erected, and dedicated June, 1847. Rev. Joel Stonerod preached the sermon. The congregation own the four acres surrounding this building. May 14, 1864, they purchased, for the use of a parsonage, four and one-half acres of ground, on which is erected a two-story frame house, with all necessary buildings adjoining. This purchase was made for the sum of one thousand dollars.

PASTOR'S SALARY — The salary of Rev. Elisha Macurdy was £120, one-half payable in money, the balance in "good merchantable wheat." As the church progressed, the salary of the pastors was slightly increased, until the sum of $1,000, besides the use of a parsonage, has been reached.

SPIRITUAL HISTORY.—Sabbath-School Work.— This school was organized by Rev. McCurdy, in 1818, with Mr. George Anderson as Superintendent, and James Justice as Secretary. The teachers elected were Archie Barton, Samuel Fulton, James and John Proudfoot, George Anderson and John Duncan, Sr. The second Superintendent was Hon. James McFerran, who served from 1820 till 1860; W.J. Cool, 1860 to November 1879; J. P. Magill, November, 1879, to December, 1882; Finley Scott, December, 1882, to December, 1886. Since then the pastor has acted in that capacity. The school now has twelve teachers, with an average attendance of eighty pupils. The young men who have gone from this school to preach the Gospel, number thirteen, viz: Revs. Francis McFarland, D.D., Ezekiel Glasgow, John Kerr, J. C. Caldwell, D.D., W. R.

Vincent, Jesse Bruce, John McFarland, J.M. Fulton, Thomas J. Stevenson, W.P. Fulton, and G. A. Duncan, a candidate who died January 11, 1882.

Messrs. W.F. Plumer and J. Ross Stevenson, licentiate, and G.W. Fulton, expect to complete their seminary studies next year. This church has furnished but one missionary, Rev. John McFarland, of Alaska.

"We have no record of the number or the names of the first members of this church, but the present membership is over two hundred and sixty.

"We have a general prayer-meeting, and a young people's meeting, held each week, and once a month the Woman's Missionary Society and Home Mission Circle meet.

"The church, during this its first century, has many times been refreshed by the manifest presence of the Lord. During the first pastorate, in 1801-02; the whole community was aroused, and hundreds were brought to bow before King Jesus. This was truly a work of God's Spirit, as was clearly shown by the fruit that was produced. A train of spiritual influences followed that has been felt the world over. The people longed to know more of higher and better things; so schools, Bible readings and meetings for prayer were established throughout the community. Not only by the Session was the pastor aided in this good work, but the majority of the members were active also. This state of feeling continued for several years, and, although one hundred and thirty united with this church and Three Springs, yet but few cases of apostasy occurred.

"During some of the pastorates of the succeeding years, up to the present time, the laborers have been rewarded by seeing many 'turn from darkness to light'. Other pastors have sowed bountifully the seeds of truth, but have not witnessed any great religious awakening during their ministry. 'One soweth and another reapeth, and both shall receive their reward'.

"While we are glad that we enjoy the privileges of a church so fraught with historic memories, yet we remember that 'unto whom much is given shall much be required.'"

MEMBERS DISMISSED BY CERTIFICATE AT FLORENCE (CROSS ROADS)

Before 1850, dismissals were recorded in the Session minutes (SM). For a time thereafter, they were reported in the annual report (AR). Then a register was kept. When S.M. McConnell was clerk of Session, he restored the practice of recording in the Session Minutes as well as in the register. The earlier records do not include the church to which the member was transferring.

DEATHS OF COMMUNICANT MEMBERS REPORTED IN THE RECORD

From 1834 through 1849, deaths were reported in the Session minutes. Then they were reported annually. Apart from a few entries in a register of deaths and a few more in a communicants register, there were not many deaths recorded after 1860. Deaths of elders are found in the register of elders. The dates which follow are the dates of the records rather than the dates of deaths unless otherwise indicated.
