Dear Family Member,

The pages you are about to read are a sincere attempt to provide the members of the Lee Family with as thorough a description of our family history that was possible considering the varying locations of some of our ancestors as well as some of our current day relatives.

This first circulation should be viewed as a draft copy. With your help, patience, and understanding we can hopefully correct any errors and include any missing births, deaths, and marriages.

It will more than likely take a while for this history to circulate to all of our known family members. I would like to suggest that you send me corrected and new information as soon as you can but I'll wait until January of 88 to redistribute the updated information. Since there is a potential to have a great deal of new information I'm sure you wouldn't mind reimbursing me for copying costs and postage. Please send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your corrections and next January I will send you a note informing you of how much I will need to cover the copying and mailing costs. Once I have heard from you I will send you the updated information.

When providing new information please include the following:

- a. The Chart Number
- b. If listing incorrect spellings or dates please include the mistaken version and the corrected version.
- c. If adding marriages, please include the wife's maiden name and birthdate, date of death and place of burial if appropriate. Also be sure to include the spouse's parents names (maiden name for the spouse's mother).
- d. If adding new names of any kind please include the middle initial or middle name as well as birthdates, date of death, and place of burial if appropriate.

Please send your updated information to:

Dear Family Members,

As you begin sorting through the pages of information contained within this family history I hope you enjoy learning about your ancestors. My grandfather, H. Lester Lee (Chart 83) is the person who gathered and organized all the various charts that are a part of this history. We certainly owe "Pop" a great deal of thanks for his hard work.

Basically this letter is to help you figure out how to find your specific family history. I have devised three methods of keeping track of information. The first method of organization is the index which indicates name, life span, and the specific family charts where a person's name may be found. Names are listed in the index as to maiden names and not married names. The charts within the family history are the second method of organization and are in numerical order. The third method of organization is that of a family number. Hugh Lee, the patriarch of our family, is Family Number 1. He had eight children, their family numbers are 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, etc. As a new generation begins an additional number is added to the family number. A brief example of how this system works can be illustrated by family number 1.2.3 (Chart 5). Mary Lee (the wife) is the third child of William Lee (Family 1.2). William Lee is the second child of Hugh Lee (Family 1).

The first thing you should do is find yourself in the index and begin at your specific chart. If you have two charts listed for yourself please keep in mind that the first chart should be your parent's chart and the second chart is your own family's chart. Then either use the family number system and/or the index to chart yourself back to Hugh Lee. One additional tip is to keep referring to the parents listed on the chart your working with. They are the specific link to the next chart that you need to locate in search of your specific family history.

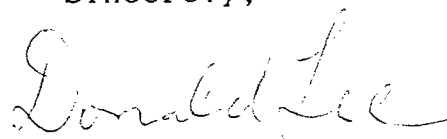

One final example will illustrate the directions listed above. Let's use my son, Craig Lee as an example.

Craig Lee	1.3.2.4.1.1.2.1.1	Chart 36
Donald Lee	1.3.2.4.1.1.2.1	Chart 36
Harry L. Lee	1.3.2.4.1.1.2	Chart 35
Florence Lee	1.3.2.4.1.1	Chart 30
Jessie B. Lee	1.3.2.4.1	Chart 29
Walter Craig Lee	1.3.2.4	Chart 28
Major William Lee	1.3.2	Chart 22
Hugh Lee Jr.	1.3	Chart 20
Hugh Lee	1	Chart 1

It is my intention to pull these specific charts from the family history and copy them so that my son, Craig and my daughter, Mara can visualize and have a copy of their specific ancestry.

I hope you enjoy searching for your ancestry and enjoy reading some of the narratives I obtained from a couple history books depicting life in Washington County. With your help in securing missing information and correcting any errors that exist we will hopefully end up with a complete and comprehensive examination of Hugh Lee's family.

Sincerely,

Hugh Lee came with his wife, Mary Elliot, and their family to America in 1789 and first settled near Canonsburg. He later purchased 219 acres of land from William McFarren in Cross Creek Township. This tract of land was known as Holmes' Victory. James Holmes made settlement in 1774 and received a Virginia certificate in 1780. A part of the tract was sold to McFarren in 1808 which was later sold to Hugh Lee as mentioned above. This pioneer lived their until his death in 1815. The land was passed on to his son Hugh Lee, Jr., then to his son, Major William Lee (Chart 22), and later to Walter Craig Lee (Chart 28) the grandson of Hugh Lee, Jr.

Hugh Lee, Jr. was born in 1773 in County Donegal in Ireland and immigrated to America with his family in 1789 or 1790. He was reared to agricultural pursuits which he followed through his life. Of his seven other brothers and sisters he was the only one to remain at home and as a result inherited the farm from his parents, Hugh Lee and Mary Elliot. His wife, Hannah Orr, was from Hollidays Cove, W.Va. Hannah Lee lived to be ninety-five years of age and was the last of the original members belonging to the Church of Cross Creek at the settlement of Rev. John Stockton. Rev. Stockton's son, Thomas, was married to Lee Anna Kerr (Chart 109), who was a daughter to Jane Ann Lee (Chart 108) and a granddaughter of Hugh Lee, Jr. and Hannah Orr. Hugh Lee, Jr. proved to be a very influential citizen and used all the means to promote the interests of others. He was a member of the Cross Creek Presbyterian Church and in 1818 was elected an elder for life. His death occurred in 1837 in Claysville, while he was attending the Presbytery.

Hugh Lee was a highly respected citizen. He owned two valuable farms in Cross Creek Township totally 220 acres. Hugh Lee attended the district schools and then took a business course in Duff's Commercial College in Pittsburgh. From the age of twenty-two he was interested in agricultural pursuits. For many years he gave much attention to the sheep industry and found it profitable. He was one of the organizers of the Washington National Bank at Burgettstown and was a major stockholder. In his early political life he was a Whig, but became a Republican once that party was organized. On many occasions, Hugh Lee's fellow citizen's elected him to responsible township offices and he frequently served on the board of education, as supervisor, and judge of elections.

Hugh's daughter Nancy attended school in Pittsburgh. She later attended and graduated from Hollidaysburg Ladies' College where she excelled in drawing and painting.
