Take Notice.

For general information, sections 49, 50, chapter 7 and 116 chapter 12 of the Book of Discipline are here given.

"If a communicant, not chargeable with immoral conduct, removes out of the bounds of his Church without asking for or receiving a regular certificate of dismission to another Church, and his residence is known, the Session may within two years, advise him to apply for such certificate; and if he fails so to do, without giving sufficient reason, his name may be placed on the roll of suspended members, until he shall satisfy the Session of the propriety of his restoration. But, if the Session has no knowledge of him for the space of three years, it may erase his name from the roll of communicants, making record of its action and the reasons therefor. In either case, the member shall continue subject to the jurisdiction of the Session. A separate roll of all such names shall be kept, stating the relations of each to the Church. (49)

If any communicant, not chargeable with immoral conduct, neglects the ordinances of the Church for one year, and in circumstances such as the Session shall regard to be a serious injury to the cause of religion, he may after affectionate visitation by the Session, and admonition if need be, suspended from the communion of the Church until satisfactory evidence of the sincerity of his repentance, but he shall not be excommunicated without due process of discipline. (50)

If a church-member, more than two years absent from the place of his ordinary residence and Church connections, applies for a certificate of membership, his absence, and the knowledge of the Church respecting his demeanor for that time, or its want of information concerning it, shall be distinctly stated in the certificate." (116)

Discipline.

"Its object is to secure to the Church sound doctrine, godly living, encouragement to the well-doing and correction to the erring." Its exercise contributes to the glory and happiness of the Church.

Paul's advice, (Gal. 6:1) should ever be kept in mind " Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness." Uplift the tempted by leading them into pure society.

Practical Hints.

HOSPITALITY.—Be careful to entertain strangers. Welcome them to your pews, and make them feel at home there. Invite those in the community who do not attend church to come with you and make their welcome so hearty that they will be glad to come back.

PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.—Allow nothing to interfere with your reading of God's word and your secret prayer. Let no day pass without both these, for the Father's best gifts come in the closet of prayer. Backslidden christian lives and empty hearts are the result of a neglect of secret prayer. Pray to thy father in secret.

FAMILY RELIGION.—God has set the solitary in families and he expects to be worshipped there.

Heads of families ought, duty urges them, to call their households together for prayer. Honor, recognize God in your home, make it his dwelling place.

PRAYER MEETINGS.—Remember these meetings in your private devotions. Attend them. Bring some one with you. Take a front seat,

SUNDAY SCHOOL.—This is to supplement home instruction. See that your children are there. It is for adults also, all who can should be in it.

FUNERALS.—In making arrangements for these services notify your pastor as early as possible. If possible have the service on some other than the Lord's day. Expect a simple brief and comforting service.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.—We are told not to forget to assemble ourselves together. Let us pay our vows in the presence of God's people.

THE PASTOR.—It is his pleasure to serve those over whom God has placed him. Remember he is not omniscient, do not expect him to know that you need him unless you send for him. When sick or in trouble send him word. Tell him of strangers and others who need attention. Let him have the benefit of your knowledge of the congregations needs.

You can in this way greatly aid your pastor. Let him be assured of your prayers and your hearty co-operation.
