Blue Devils clinch spot in playoffs

Sophomore Scott Russell scored 22 points and hauled in 14 rebounds as the Blue Devils rebounded from two consecutive losses to defeat Avella, 71-44, in the local gymnasium Friday night, clinching a berth in the WPIAL Class AA playoffs.

Junior guard Bryan Barto tallied 17 points for coach Frank Ferraro's team, who fell behind just twice in the Section 15-AA-A contest, and that early in the game.

Barto also turned in six assists.

Senior Paul Bianchini scored 11 points for the Blue Devils and senior Josh Dobi came through with nine rebounds as the locals raised their section record to 10-2 and clinched at least a tie for the section championship.

Bentworth, West Allegheny and Washington remained tied for second place, two games behind the leaders with two games to play and fighting for the section's other playoff berth.

For Avella, 6-6 in the conference and also in the playoffs in the Class A division, Steve Taczak was the top scorer with 11 points.

It is the ninth time in Ferraro's 11 years as basketball coach here that his Burgettstown team has made the playoffs, achieving a goal the team had set at the beginning of the year.

"We continue to play well," Ferraro said in post-game comments. "We gained confidence in the second half, and the guys turned in a great defensive effort. We gave up some shots, but they were contested, and we did not give them second shots."

His counterpart on the other side of the gymnasium, Eagle coach Jack Conn, had his team still in the game at halftime, trailing by only six points at 35-29. However, the Blue Devils put together a 10-2 run in the third stanza to go ahead by 14, and they capped the decision with a 22-9 output in the final eight minutes of play.

"We can't play without rebounds," Conn lamented, "and they certainly took it to us in the second half. Every time I looked in the lane, there were five white shirts and no blue. We had to get more than one shot to stay in the ball game."

Ferraro agreed. "We were very aggressive in the second half," he said, "and we ran the wings real well. We methodically took control of the game."

Russell scored the game's first two points on a layup off a Barto pass, but Lowe tied it up for Avella. When Taczak swished the nets from three point range with 6:50 to play in the opening period, the Eagles had a 5-2 lead.

Barto followed with a jumper and later a steal and foul shot to put the Blue Devils in front by a 7-5 count. Taczak then knotted the score with a pair of free throws. Two minutes later, Avella's Jason Lowe sank a layup to again tie the Taczak's second three pointer of the period shot the visitors ahead, 14-13, at the two minute mark, but it was the last time Avella was to lead in the game. Russell's short jump shot regained the advantage for Burgettstown, Bryan Matijevich followed with another jumper and Russell converted a layup to put the locals up by five.

Recchio Cecchini sank a three point corner shot, but Russell answered with another bucket, his eighth point of the opening quarter, as the buzzer sounded with the Blue Devils holding a 21-17 lead. Commenting on Russell, a 6-4 sophomore, Ferraro said, "We started him off slowly this year and gave him limited playing time so as to minimize pressure. He has now developed into a major contributor on this team."

The Blue Devils slowly lengthened their lead in the second stanza, going ahead by 11 points at 33-22. The visitors, however, proceeded to go on a 7-2 run as Lowe sank a rebound, Cecchini and Slater Brown each converted a pair of free throws and Jason Lis hit a foul shot. The intermission arrived with the Blue-and-White on the long end of a 35-29 score.

It didn't take long for the locals to take command in the third period. Russell started it off a layup and Barto slammed home a three pointer. Lowe sank a rebound for Avella, but Russell dittoed on the other side of the court. When Barto's steal and subsequent free throw upped the count to 45-31, the handwriting was on the wall.

"We're hoping to win our final two section games to carry some momentum into the playoffs," Ferraro said of his 15-4 Blue Devils.

Avella dropped to 10-10 with the loss, and Conn said he was searching for answers."We still need a team leader, we need intensity and we sure do need a lot of help on the boards," he said.

Blue Devils eighth grade basketball team in playoffs

From staff reports

The Burgettstown Blue Devils team ended its season with an overall record of 14 wins and 5 losses, making the Southwest Conference Playoffs.

The Blue Devils play in a conference that has 16 teams that consist of six triple A, five double A, and five single A teams. Only eight teams make the play-offs.

This is the third time the team has gone to the playoffs. The last time it went was in 1997.

"Anytime a small school competes at this level shows what heart and dedication can do for a team. These boys set a goal at the beginning of this season to make the playoffs and never looked back. Hard work, hustle, pride and determination pushed them to another level and they would not be denied. Hats off to every one of these boys," said Coach Bongiorni, "They never lost sight of this sport being a team effort."

Devils' one quarter enough for victory

By Jim Dallara Editor

Burgettstown's Section 15-AA-A leaders played just one good quarter at home Tuesday night, Jan. 14, in a conference game with South Side Beaver, but it was enough to sneak the Blue Devils to a scary 61-57 victory for their sixth straight league win.

"It certainly wasn't a piece of art," a distressed Frank Ferraro said in the locker room after addressing his team. "We looked good in the third quarter — we were aggressive, went after the ball and made things happen. But for the rest of the game we just stood around. And in the fourth quarter we had a real letdown — we almost quit."

The see-saw contest saw the Devils hold a slim 19-18 lead at the end of the first quarter, only to see the visiting Rams, 1-5 in section competition, take a 35-30 lead at halftime.

Once the teams took the floor in the third quarter, the tide changed. Burgettstown ran off 15 unanswered points enroute to a 17-3 period that left the locals with what appeared to be a safe lead at 47-38.

It barely held up. South Side thundered back in the final stanza to go ahead with 3:09 to play and the lead changed hands on six occasions in the time remaining. Jason Smith's three free throws put Ferraro's charges in front by a 59-57 count, and Bryan Barto's brace of foul shots with two seconds left finally put the win on ice.

Smith paced the local scoring with 20 points, while Josh Dobi, who ignited the third quarter charge, was close behind with 16.

In addition, the two Blue Devils each pulled in 10 rebounds as the locals, raising their overall record this year to 10-2, posted a 30-17 edge on the boards.

Dave Ashcroft scored 21 points and Calub Courtwright tallied 16 for the Rams, 5-8 overall.

High-scoring Adam Orison got into foul trouble for the Devils, scoring his five points in the first quarter of play.

The Blue Devils jumped out to an early lead with Smith tossing in six points, but a Courtwright bucket sent the visitors in front for the first time, 16-15. Kip Kuzior's layup field goal ended the first quarter scoring with Burgettstown ahead by a 19-18 score.

The second period saw the two teams exchange leads on five occasions. After South Side's Mike Courtwright ran off five points on a corner shot and a three-pointer. Paul Bianchini's drive to the hoop brought the Blue Devils to within two points at 29-31. But Dobi's foul shot was the only point the locals were to score for the final minute of play. The Rams, however, cashed a pair of free throws by Ashcroft and a bucket by Calub Courtwright at the buzzer to leave the home fans in shock with a 35-30 lead at halftime.

blitz in the opening seconds of the third period by scoring five consecutive points on a pair of rebounds and a free throw, tying the score at 35-all. Barto drove the key at the 5:47 mark and banked in a layup to regain the lead for the Blue Devils. Before the run was over, Smith sank a bucket off a rebound, and Bianchini, Bryan Matijevich and Kuzior each converted a pair of free throws.

Ashcroft's turn-around layup with 2:43 to play in the third quarter ended South Side's long drought. The period ended with Burgettstown ahead by nine points, 47-38.

Smith's drive to the hoop and subsequent free throw continued the Blue Devil advantage at 51-43, but the visiting Rams would not go away. Ashcroft's left-handed hook shot and three foul shots sandwiched Calub Courtwright's two free throws, so the lead quickly evaporated at 51-50 with 5:11 left on the scoreboard clock.

About a minute and a half later, Calub Courtwright swished the nets from a close-up shot to give South Side a 52-51 lead. Dobi grabbed a rebound and scored, was fouled and sank the free throw to regain the lead for Burgettstown, 54-52, but Ashcroft answered with a drive through the lane and a free throw to make it 55-54.

Back came Dobi with a layup, only to see Brian Marchi's outside shot regain the lead for the Rams, 57-56, with 2:34 remaining. They were the last points the visitors would score.

Ashcroft fouled out of the game 26 seconds later, and Smith took advantage of an opportunity by converting a pair of free throws for a 58-57 Burgettstown edge. With 1:19 left, Smith sank another foul shot. South Side attempted to win the game with a three-point try from the corner, but the ball glanced away and the Blue Devils rebounded. Barto's two foul shots at the 0:02 mark wound up the scoring for the night.

"We're certainly not satisfied with the way we played tonight," Ferraro said."

The preliminary contest went to South Side, 41-38. Kuzior scored 14 points and Matijevich had 11.

THE SPORTS DESK

Devils won at Wash High before

Thanks to our good friends Dante Filipponi and Angelo Spanogians, the record of Burgettstown's ever winning a basketball game at Washington prior to this season has been cleared.

The Blue Devils did, in fact, win there before, and the date was Jan. 16, 1945.

This was the team that had John Melton, Albert Garcia, Bill Morris, Andy Gratchen, Jim Lee, Chris Maropis, Charles Dowler, George Maropis, Manuel Martinez and Reed Fernandez.

The Blue Devils that season, coached by Ed McCluskey, posted a 22-5 record. They tied for the section title but lost to Washington in a playoff game, 26-24, in overtime.

But back to the date of Jan. 16, 1945. According to the files of this newspaper, the game account was as follows.

"Union High School took over undisputed possession of first place in WPIAL Section 2 by defeating Washington, 41-24, Tuesday night in Washington.

"John Melton sparked the UHS team with 23 points, 18 of which came in the second half.

"Union took an 8-3 lead in the first quarter and lagged during the second period but managed to grab a 14-10 lead at halftime.

"At the outset of the second half, the Union team found itself and ran away with the ball game.

"In the preliminary, the Union B-squad defeated Washington's B-squad, 26-20."

So there, it was just 48 years since the Blue Devils last beat the Little Presidents at Washington! That is not to diminish the great victory that coach Frank Ferraro and his blue-and-white clad charges brought back to Burgettstown last month.

There's hardly any change in the latest Keystone Wrestling Rankings from those issued the week before.

None of the WPIAL's Class AA teams appear in the top ten team rankings, but Canon-McMillan is third, Mount Pleasant seventh, Greensburg-Salem eighth and Connellsville tenth in Class AAA.

Class AA individual rankings have Tim Glass of Chartiers-Houston fourth at 103 pounds, Chad Kime of Beth-Center first and Chris Tarr of Washington fourth at 119, Tio Paci of Beth-Center first at 130, and Corey Walker of Chartiers-Houston third in the heavyweight division.

In case you missed it last week, the WPIAL Section 5-AA Wrestling Tournament will be held Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26, right here at Burgettstown Area High School.

The Dynamic Devil

Bryan Matijevich is this week's Dynamic Devil. A 6-2 sophomore, Bryan began his basketball career playing for Atlasburg. He continued through the seventh, eighth and freshman teams, showing steady improvement. "Bryan experienced some 'growing pains' through the first month of the season but he has come on recently," head coach Frank Ferraro said. "He has been a little tentative, but he is beginning to realize that when he plays with intensity he becomes a tremendous asset to this team. If Bryan continues to work at his game, he will be an outstanding player for this program."

The Union High School basketeers repeated an earlier victory over the Pennsylvania Training School last Tuesday night by a score of 39-16.

From there on the outcome was never in doubt. Gratchen and Melton scored 12 and 8 points respectively to register more than half of their team's 39 points.

In the final period, Coach McCluskey used all his reserves and they continued with the scoring punch. In all, eleven boys took an active part in the scoring for the McCluskey team.

Rangers cool off Blue Devil quintet

By Chris Dugan For The Enterprise

The Fort Cherry High School boys basketball team that lost five of its first seven games seems like a distant memory to head coach John Cunning.

The young Rangers, who experienced a series of December growing pains, have suddenly found the confidence to win big games and developed into the hottest team in Section 15-AA-A.

Fort Cherry extended its winning streak to five games Friday night at The Fort by building a 16-point lead and then holding off a furious fourth-quarter rally by Burgettstown for a 67-66 victory.

The upset created a three-way tie for first place in the section. Burgettstown, Fort Cherry and Washington share the lead with 6-1 records.

"These young kids keep getting better every game," Cunning said of his players, of which only one (Jason Pisarcik) was a starter last season.

"I didn't think we'd jell this early. I knew we'd get thumped in the exhibition season, but by the section games we'd be ready to play basketball. And the kids believed that, too."

Five of the Rangers' seven losses have come against teams from higher classifications. But Fort Cherry played a cut above Burgettstown for three quarters.

Fort Cherry (7-7 overall) led 24-11 after eight minutes as the Rangers' guards forced Burgettstown into 10 first-quarter turnovers that were converted into nine points.

An unlikely hero for the Rangers, 6-4 sophomore forward Steve Weidner, made his presence felt early, scoring nine of his teamhigh 27 points in the first quarter. Weidner, who scored most of his points from within 10 feet of the basket, was playing his first game since suffering a slightly separated shoulder a week before against Bentworth.

"We didn't do a real good job of covering up the inside," said Burgettstown coach Frank Ferraro.

Fort Cherry led 37-28 at halftime as Ferraro decided to protect forwards Paul Bianchini and Joshua Dobi — both of whom had two fouls — by keeping them on the bench in the second quarter.

The Blue Devils started the second half with a flurry, outscoring Fort Cherry 11-5 to pull to within 42-39 on Adam Orison's steal and layup. But then Burgettstown point guard Bryan Barto was called for three quick fouls and went to the bench with four personals.

With their playmaker on the bench, the Blue Devils' offense began to unravel. Fort Cherry's guards started forcing turnovers once again and the Rangers went on a 13-0 run to open up a 55-39 advantage. Weidner had five points in the spurt.

"That makes a difference when you have your starters on the bench," Ferraro said. "We didn't do a good job of executing our offense early. We did a better job as the game went along."

The Burgettstown offense received a much-needed lift from center Jason Smith in the fourth quarter. Smith scored 13 of his game-high 33 points in the quarter, including six straight that pulled the Blue Devils to within 63-59 with more than four minutes remaining.

Following two free throws by F.C.'s Paul Brown, Smith drove the lane for a basket. Dobi made two free throws and Smith one as the Fort Cherry lead was suddenly cut to 65-64 with 2:25 remaining.

But when given the chance to take the lead the Blue Devils committed two costly turnovers and F.C.'s Frank Samarin blocked a shot by Smith. The Rangers' Lathon Elder then made two free throws to give F.C. a 67-64 advantage before Bianchini's basket off an offensive rebound pulled Burgettstown to within one point with four seconds left.

Brown finished with 11 points for F.C., while Bianchini had 12 and Orison 11 for Burgettstown.

GRADE SCHOOL LOOP

The newly-formed Grade School Basketball League featuring teams from the grade schools in Burgettstown, Langeloth, Atlasburg and Raccoon, has been engaging in a round-robin schedule for the past three weeks. Atlasburg currently leads the league with a perfect 3-0 mark, but Langeloth is not far behind with a 2-1 record. Burgettstown and Raccoon trail with 1-2 and 0-3 records, respectively. Coaches for the teams are: Jack Shearson, Atlasburg; Paul Deliere, Langeloth; John Harris, Raccoon; and Bodie Nicksick, Burgettstown. Shearson is Director of the league. The Union high basketball coach has been watching the teams for future basketball material, and by the closeness of some of the games, talent must be available. For instance, Burgettstown and Raccoon went into overtime before the former won, 27-25; and Atlasburg eked out a 25-24 win over Langeloth in a battle for first place.

This week, Atlasburg plays at Raccoon Friday afternoon in the Raccoon gym, and Langeloth takes on Burgettstown Saturday morning in the Union high school gym.

PROFS VS. GIANTS

To lessen the athletic deficit at Union High School, members of the Faculty will engage in a basketball game on Friday evening, February 23 on the local gym floor with a team of "near-giants". Coach Canning announces that the Weirton Fleetwings who have won the upper tri-state championship for the past two years will meet the local Profs, in what promises to be one of the most interesting tussles of the season. The visitors include three players, 6 feet 5 inches tall and have won 26 games and lost but one this season. (Looks bad for the Profs).

The Fleetwings boast the following cagers:

Two Taylor Brothers of Waynesburg College, 6 ft. 5 in. tall. Jim Parnum of McKeesport.

Zip Zapar, 6 ft. 4 in. of the Detroit Baseball team.

John Yacos, all-star forward of Weirton High.

Stanley Sudol of Weirton, former all state guard.

Beans Compton of McDonald, former High captain.

Lambert Evans of High Point Weirton Steel Industrial League. Burgettstown Independents will

Teddy Nicksick Rated One of Best Players In The Southwest

Slovan's Teddy Nicksick is the main cog in Texas Wesleyan College's basketball club. And according to Dub King, sports writer for the Fort Worth Star, if it wasn't for Nicksick, the -club would be a mediocre team instead of the sensational club that they are. Ted has been very instrumental in pushing McNeeley, of his team, to the number one position of the nation's scorers. McNeeley has a total of 388 points with his closest rival at 312. Parham, another Wesleyan boy is 4th with 295. Tony Pappas has seen this McNeely in action, and according to him and all the reports, why, this guy is just the tops. But Nicksick is the driving power behind the team's success, using his basketball savvy to drive his club to win after win, and has earned them the distinction of being one of the top flight teams of the country. This is sure a great tribute paid to our Teddy Nicksick, who is one of the most popular and well liked boys in the Southwest league of Sportsdom. Our thanks to Tony Pappas, for sending us the Texas Wesleyan "Rambler".

Teddy Nicksick Rated One of the Best Players in the Southwest Burgettstown Enterprise-February 6, 1947 Edition

By Jim Dallara, Sports Editor

The Record-Enterprise

"Guy Tornabene was one the fairest men I ever met. He earned my respect a long time ago _ respect that remains with me today," Merle Ayres of Bulger said of his former football coach.

Rick Chiff of McDonald echoed Ayres' comment.

"I could never get around to calling him 'coach' during my high school days or 'Guy' in the years that followed. To me he was and always will be 'Mr. Tornabene.'

"I knew him as a coach and a friend for 45 years," Chiff added. "He treated everyone the same way _ fairly. All he asked for in return was a 100 percent effort."

The legendary McDonald High School football and basketball coach died July 25 at the age of 82.

Ayres was the quarterback on backto-back undefeated seasons for the McDonald Red Devils in 1952 and 1953. Chiff was a halfback in both campaigns and also the following year, 1954, when the team made it three in a row.

"We didn't have enough Gardner points to qualify for the title in my junior year, but when I was a senior we capped another 8-0 regular season with a Class B championship game with Sewickley Township at Clairton," Ayres recalls.

McDonald lost that contest, 13-7, but Ayres remembers vividly a penalty that may have deprived the team of victory.

"We were on a drive late in the game and were on our way to a winning score. However, a holding penalty at the 20-yard line pushed us back 15 yards and we couldn't make it up. Mr. Tornabene and the other coach graduated from college together and basically ran the same split-T offense.

Others claimed that McDonald's offensive scheme was similar to that employed at the University of Oklahoma, coached by Bud Wilkinson, a friend of Tornabene.

Chiff's senior year saw yet another perfect season, rewarded with a second shot at the Class B title. Again the Red Devils fell short, 20-13, at the hands of South Huntington in a game played at Wilkinsburg.

"Bob Klimas, who had converted from fullback to quarterback, separated his shoulder in the first series of downs,"

Guy Tornabene

Chiff recalled. "Bill Spaude did a good job of filling in, but we just never got into full sync."

Never was Tornabene more proud of his players.

"We came back to McDonald and there must have been 500 people at the high school cheering for us," Chiff said. "Mr. Tornabene told us at that time, before we left the bus, that we had fought a gallant battle and that we had lost to a very good team. 'But you're still my boys,' the coach said."

Ayres played for four years of football in McDonald under Tornabene.

"His practice sessions were long and hard," Ayres said. "I seldom got home before dark. On occasions, he would have everybody turn on their car lights so we could run extra wind sprints. And a water break in those days was unheard of _ we weren't allowed near water until our work was over."

Ayres said a typical practice day would begin immediately after dismissal of classes at the old high school atop the hill in McDonald. "We would put on our equipment and then had to run down the hill to the football field on the west side of town," he said. "And the coaches would follow us in their cars to see that we got there quickly."

Ayres weighed 190 pounds in his senior year, big for players in that time on a Class B football team. Jack Kenneweg, who checked in at 200 pounds, was the biggest man on the squad, Ayres said.

The two undefeated McDonald teams then had the benefit of starters who played together as a unit both campaigns. Ayres, Chiff, Harvey Brookins and Klimas comprised the backfield. Brookins later played at Columbia University.

"Mr. Tornabene set the standard for all the coaches in McDonald," Ayres said. "He was a very strict disciplinarian, but also he treated everybody on the team in a fair manner. He never swore _ he didn't believe in it. He was an excellent tactician _ one of the best individual coaches, and people, I've ever had the honor of being associated with."

Chiff added, "His awareness of every situation that came up on the football field was just amazing. He knew everything that was going on _ both ways, on offense and on defense. He emphasized execution and knowing your assignments, and he believed faking was the key to a successful running game. One time an official blew a play dead where I had been tackled; the thing was, though, that Harvey (Brookins) was in the end-zone with the football."

Chiff smiles, recalling another moment.

"The closest he ever came to swearing, and showing anger, was when he called one of his players a 'monkey," he said. "You knew he was mad when he used that word."

Ayres continued, "And he was good in getting a point across. I made a mistake one time of telling him what good speed I had. So he sent me back to return punts during a very hot practice session and sent the entire team to nail me. I was aching all week, but I never spoke of my speed again."

Chiff told of a time when the team had a good lead and the coach sent him in to punt.

As he entered the huddle, Chiff said he was sent in to kick, but quarterback Terry Smith said it was only third down. "He called my play, and with good blocking I ran 72 yards for a touchdown," Chiff said. "When I returned to the sidelines feeling happy, you guessed it - I became a monkey. I sat the rest of the game on the far end of the bench."

Woe to the football players found on the streets of McDonald after 8:30 p.m. on a night before practice.

"He rode around looking for anyone who might be coming out of the Grand or Dreamland theaters," Ayres said. "It was extra sprints for us the next day if he did find anyone."

Chiff said, "Everyone in town knew about the '49 grey Plymouth that he drove. Even the merchants worked with the coach to make sure we were nowhere to be found when his car appeared. He would ride around about 8:15 _ you could set your watch on it. He had a rule that you had to be home by 8:30, no matter what."

Tornabene also coached both junior high and varsity basketball in McDonald until John Berdell took over the reins. Serving as assistant coaches during the memorable three-year era, in addition to Berdell, were Ed Hepe and Ed Blockowicz.

In the 1953 season, McDonald eked

No one talked unless he was given permission. This was not due to fear; instead it was respect. He demanded it, and got it.'

Harry Rigo

out a pair of victories over neighboring rivals Hickory (14-13) and Midway (7-6) to clinch an undefeated year. Brookins ran the winning extra point in the win over the Midway Blue Knights.

"For some reason we got to Midway late that night, about five minutes before the kick-off," Ayres recalls. "And we were down at halftime, 6-0. I had lime in my eyes and was attempting to get the stuff off my face in the locker room. Mr. Tornabene glared at me and shouted 'pay attention,' so the face washing ended right there! The whole team picked up after that, and we went back onto the field and won the game."

Chiff said, when Tornabene spoke at halftime during a varsity contest, no one dared to say a word.

There was complete quiet," Chiff said. "No one talked unless he was given permission. This was not due to fear; instead it was respect. He demanded it, and got it."

At the Washington County Coach of the Year banquet in 1954, Tornabene was honored by his peers as the award's first recipient.

"McDonald was proud of its football team, and so were the players," Ayres said. "We thought we were the best in the WPIAL, and we came oh so close two years in a row to proving it. But Mr. Tornabene was the principle reason why the Red Devils had powerhouse football teams year after year. He was our coach, our leader and our inspiration."

Tornabene taught biology and coached football at Midway, North Fayette and McDonald high schools.

It was at the latter school where he attained his greatest success, and where many of his proteges still reside.

The old coach never forgot them: "You're still my boys," was a message to be remembered forever.

After the election Mr. Mann turned the meeting over to the new president who, after much deliberation decided that the next meeting would be Thursday evening, March 19 at 7:30 o'clock in the school.

The basketball season is rapidly drawing to a close and the local team will wind up the home schedule Tuesday, with the Waynesburg Little Jackets as guests of honor. This will be the last chance to see several of the local boys play on the home court as students of Union High School. Captain Navage, Marcus, Strongosky, Gonzalez and Gunn are Seniors, so they will soon hang up their togs for keeps.

To date, Waynesburg and Union are tied for first place in Section 10. Barring any upsets, perhaps a better word would be set-backs, these two teams should come up to this game still dead-locked. To do this however, Union must beat Jefferson, and Waynesburg must beat California. At any rate the game on February 24 with the Little Jackets is certain to play a very significant part in determining the Section 10 championship.

Waynesburg previously defeated Union at Wayn esburg in two overtime periods after Union had held the lead in all but the last few seconds of the regular playing time. However, that victory was no fluke. Waynesburg has a veteran team and is reputed to be one of the best teams to represent the school in many a season. The citizens of the Waynesburg Community are "basket ball crazy" and eager for a championship, consequently it is believed that they will bring a good sized following with them next Tuesday evening.

A looping field goal by Center Navage in the last 25 seconds of play gave Union High an 18-17 triumph over Centerville in their Section 10 clash at Centerville, Tuesday night. It was the third straight win for Union in the sectional fight.

The Wildcatst took the play away from the favored locals in the first half and gained an 11-5 lead. The rivals matched points in the third period, after which Burgettstown finished with a rally that pulled them up within one point with 25 seconds to go when Navage let fly for the winning basket. The preliminary was won by Centerville reserves, 18-17.

UNION DEFEATS CALIFORNIA

Union High took over sole possession of first place in the Section 10 race Friday night by defeating California High 33-15. The Cubs previously shared the leadership with Union.

Both teams played a cautious game during the first half and wound up in an 8-8 draw at intermission. Un ion turned on the heat in the second half and rolled up 25 points. 14 of them in the final period.

The Cubs were limited to one foul goal in the third period. Navage scored 10 points and Gratchen got nine to spark the winners. Deutchki led California with five.

In a preliminary, Union and Weirton reserves battled to a 13 13 tied in two extra periods.

Union Eliminated In Tournament

The Union High undergraduate cagers bowed out of the County Undergraduate Basketball Tourney by losing a first round 24-18 decision to Donora on the Washington Hi floor last Thursday night.

Playing an inspired brand of ball, the Blue Devil proteges gave Donora a very rough time before fading in the final 90 seconds. Although missing repeatedly with their field goal shots, Union kept in the ball game with its deadeye-dick sharpshooting from the foul line, excellent ball handling, and tightly knit defense.

Union had a tough time in getting the range with their floor shots, and it was midway in the third frame before their first field goal dropped in. From the way Union was handling the ball all night, Donora would have been lost in the back stretch if only a slight percentage of the Blue Devil shots would have clicked. but, Lady Luck was no where around where Union was concerned.

Having to contend without the Dame's good fortune, Union made it a ball game with their foul line skill. Converting on 9 out of 10 attempts from the free throw line, gave Union a 8-7 then a 9-7 lead before Donora knotted the count at intermission, 9-9. With 90 seconds remaining of the contest, and Donora outfront 18-16, Union faded. Utilizing a quick break, Donora dropped in three quick ones from the field while permitting Union one bucket, to cop the decision, 24-18.

The winners counted for 11 field goals and 2 fouls to Union's 4 field goals and 10 fouls.

Beaumont paced the Blue Devils with 7 points including two field goals. Golubofsky was right on his heels with 6 points, Strongosky racked up a 3, Tomich and Mc-Conaughey each garnered a 1.

UNION PLAYS 1st W.P.I.A.L. CONTEST HERE, FRIDAY EVE

The Union high school basketball team will make its first local appearance in W.P.I.A.L. competition in the high school gym this Friday night at 8:00 p.m.

By defeating Trinity last Friday, Union is sharing the top position in the league with Waynesburg who alsowon last Friday, defeating a strong Washington high school team. This game Friday night promises to be close and hard fought with the outcome determining the Sectional winner for the first half. Coach Canning has been putting his proteges through some stiff work outs this week and with a few breaks his boys should give the Greene County team a real battle. The team spirit is running high and the local fans can rest assured that Pete Maropis and his teammates will make a determined effort to take advantage of this opportunity to climb into the driver's seat in the league race.

Waynesburg was the only Sectional team to defeat Union last season; that being a two point affair in one overtime period on their own floor. Coach Adamson has four regulars back this year (Debolt, McClure, Russo and Howard). These four along with George, (the substitute who scored the winning goal for them last year) form a fast, experienced out-fit that is undefeated to date. These facts definitely make Waynesburg the Section 2 favorite.

Following the game Friday night, all school patrons, both students and adults, will be invited to a dance to be held in the gymnasium. The Victrola and loud speaker placed in the balcony will provide the music. Only those who attend the game will be admitted to the dance which will last until 11:30.

Because of transportation difficulties, only one game will be played during the evening and therefore the doors will not be open until 7:30.
