Foreword

★ We have endeavored in this the 1943 'U' to keep alive the memories of our last year in Union.

★ Between these covers we have pictures of the Seniors of '43, the administrators, and our lower classmen, as well as a record of the active organizations.

★ We wish to express our appreciation to the Board of Education, the teachers, and our parents for their guidance and help toward a better education for each of us.

★ If in the future this book is of value to you and gives you pleasure, we shall not have failed in our purpose.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

SCHOOL BOARD

Swanik, Atherton, Kimberland, Marino, Nicksick, McIntyre, Stevenson, Scott, Prado, Harper, Sciamanna.

To the Board of Education we owe much. These men of the community give freely of their time to plan and direct the affairs of our school. They have been untiring in their effort to provide us with fine educational opportunities. During this year of national emergency, they have kept our school in line with the war effort by introducing new courses, yet have not lost sight of the values of the old.

Senior Class History

Late in August of 1939, a large group of puzzled and immature students entered Union High School. Very little was accomplished that year since the students had to become accustomed to the high school routine. The annual Halloween party was held on October 26, which was the first chance many of the students had to get acquainted. We were well represented in the various clubs, musical and sport activities. We chose the following class officers: President, Joe Gratchen; Vice-President, Jules Darras; Secretary-Treasurer, Matilda Pensak.

When we returned in 1940, it was our turn to initiate the Freshmen and a very thorough job was done. Our representation in all activities increased that year and a few boys made the football, basketball and baseball squads. Our class party was held on February 19, and was very well attended. For our class officers we chose: President, Matilda Pensak; Vice-President, William Sachan; Secretary, George Majernik, Treasurer, Richard George.

At the beginning of the Junior year, we considered ourselves older and wiser. We were engaged in many activities. Many of the boys starred in the various athletic events. As a part of our class project, we donated a ditto machine to the school on which our school paper, The Union Hi-Lite, is printed. In February, we chose rings by Josten Co. The Junior play, "Little Women," under the direction of Miss Cruikshank, was held on April 17. It was one of the most successful plays yet produced in Union. The Junior party was held, April 24. Our Junior activities came to an end with the Junior-Senior Prom, May 29. The gymnasium was elaborately decorated in a Pan-American setting with flags of many countries represented. Music was furnished by Rio Richart's orchestra. The officers chosen for that year were: President, William Sachan; Vice-President, Richard George; Secretary, Pete Maropis; Treasurer, Saturno Prendes.

On September 8, 1943, 157 students returned for their final year. We selected the following officers: President, Matilda Pensak; Vice-President, Joe Gratchen; Secretary, Hazel Cunningham; Treasurer, Saturno Prendes. All the classes participated in the magazine sales contest but the Seniors topped the list. The boys and girls sold candy during the football games and during the noon hour. The Senior class play, "The Millionaire," a comedy under the direction of Miss Cruikshank, was given January 14. The Hi-Lite, published by the Seniors, has been the best yet. The Senior pictures were taken in January, and the Seniors were dressed up for the occasion. The class party was held, March 5. As spring rolled around, the Seniors found themselves in a whirl. Plans were being made for commencement and a pageant. Then before we realized it, we were bidding farewell to the school where we had spent four years, to the teachers who guided us so carefully, and to our classmates.

“With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation’s wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.”---Abraham Lincoln.
